FORCE OF AMERICA FELT, SAYS WILSON

Europe Fighting Out Questions New World Is Trying to to Settle in Peace.

MELTING POT ENLARGED

Question for Every Man and Every Nation Is: "What Are You Going to Do With Your Power?" President Tells Carolinans.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 20 .- President Wilson today addressed a crowd estimated at more than 10,000, gathered here for the 141st anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

I have come back for a brief visit to the region dear to my heart," said the President. "I do not know whether can interpret for you the spirit of this occasion. It is necessary to realize Just what we celebrate. There were only 3,000,000 people in this nation when it became independent. Now there are 100,000,000 people. There have been changes, but we have the same elements. What I want to impress on you is that we have always been in elements. What I want to impress on you is that we have always been in the making. Among the men who founded this Nation there was a great passion for human liberty.

war. "What are the elements of this war?" he asked. "Europe is fighting out in war the questions we are fighting out in peace. As the processes of communication have grown better nations and peoples have grown closer together. Men can now learn more about each other, so that now the melting pot is bigger than America. It is as big as the world. See, then, what a new world we have come into.

New Age Seems Dawning. "Here in America we have tried to set the example of peace by keeping together. Isn't it the sign and dawn of a new age that the one thing new on which the world is about to fall back is the moral judgment of mankind." The President said he hoped the

"Here in America," the President continued, "we have tried to set the example of bringing all the world together upon terms of liberty and cooperation and peace. Now the world outside of America has felt the forces of freedom, the forces of common aspiration, the forces of common aspiration, the forces that bring every man and every nation face to face with this question: "What are you going to translate it into force, or are you going to translate it into peace and the satisfaction of society?"

FAVORITE SONS ARE FILLED WITH HOPE

Astute Politicians, However, Fear Colonel's Chances if Deadlock Continues.

HUGHES STILL IS SILENT

Leaders Understand Justice Would Accept Nomination if Tendered. South Not to Cut Figure as Great as Formerly.

BY JOHN CALLAN O'LAUGHLIN. WASHINGTON, May 20 .- In spite of the belief of Republican political leaders that the Presidential nomination go either to Associate Justice Hughes or Colonel Roosevelt, the favorite sons have by no means abanfoned hope

The past week in Washington has een noteworthy for the negotiations which have been in progress among the COMMENCEMENT IS JUNE 2 representatives of the men chosen in various states. These negotiations have Dr. Dyott to Address Graduating paved the way to a combination designed to eliminate the jurist, now that, in their opinion, Mr. Roosevelt seems to be out of the running.

Favorite Sons Hope for Deadlock. It is believed by the "favorite sons" that if a deadlock can be brought about in the Republican convention a dark horse will be selected. It is their hope in case such a situation is produced to agree among themselves as to the one that shall receive the support Corvallis, May 20. - (Special.) Luther R. Dyott, pastor of the of all.

It is a beautiful programme, but the astute Republican politicians do not believe it can possibly succeed. As a matter of fact, a deadlock is the thing these men most desire to avoid. Such a condition, they insist, would result in the certain population of Colonel in the certain nomination of Colonel Roosevelt. Unlike the "favorite sons," they do not for a moment look on the Colonel as down and out. They know that at least one-third of the delegates will cast their ballot for the ex-President if the opportunity arises, and it is possible that a couple of hundred of possible that a couple of hundred of others would follow their example and thus Roosevelt would be nominated.

Hughes Maintains Silence. The associate justice preserves his Sphinx-like silence, and those close to him declare he will make no statement The annual meeting of the Oregon Osteopathic Association will be held June 3 and 10 in the Morgan building. The delegates from the South are not looking with any degree of favor on the nomination of Mr. Hughes. They want a man to be nominated and elected President who would consider their claims for patronage. The records of Mr. Hughes as Governor of New York is not such as to promise that they will receive much consideration in the way of jobs. It is this fact, which, it is declared, will be helpful to the nomina-tion of Colonel Roosevelt or one of the

A Logical and Sure Dyspepsia Treatment

During the past two or three years ports have frequently appeared in the press concerning the remarkable value of bisurated magnesia as an antacid; and its ability to promote normal, healthy digestion by preventing food fermentation and neutralizing dangerous stomch acid has often been demonstrated. Until recently druggists could supply bisurated magnesia in powder form only, from one or two teaspoonfuls of which, taken in a little water after meals, almost instantly stops all fermentation and neutralizes acid, but Soap should be used very carefully, if sufferers from stomach trouble can you want to keep your hair looking its best. ## ounts for the roseate view the "fa-orite sons" take of their situation. Here are the claims of the favorite Deleg'ts Candidate- Deleg'ts

Among the scattering are included the delegates who are predisposed to Hughes and Roosevelt. It is evident the first ballot will not give a choice, nor probably the second ballot. It will be the third ballot which is expected to result in the nomination. The friends of all the "favorite sons" express confidence that their delegates will stick to them to the last, and this is particularly true of the managers for Senator Weeks.

There has been a great deal of talk about the Vice-Presidential situation. It is suggested that if Mr. Hughes Term in Congress, and ex-Govershould get the nomination the conven-tion would be wise to tender the Vice-Presidency to Charles W. the field to suit him and he will therefore enter, splitting the field.

The Republican party last election lost no other candidate than the head of the ticket on account of the defalcations in the Treasurer's office, although several of them, including the present Lieutenant-Governor and Attorney-General, had close calls. The greatest mistake Mr. Haines was held to have made was in allowing the famous Ramstedt report on the treasury mous Ramstedt report on the treasury to be suppressed, and to this was blamed his defeat two years ago.
