Today's Games.

Bradfords vs. Beavers, Woodland at St. Helens, Kirkpatricks at Salem, Montavilla at Woodburn.

There has been no Coast League baseball in Portland for the past week, and those fans who are hungry for a taste of the National pastime can travel out to the Vaughn-Street Park this afternoon and witness the Bradfords and the Baby Beavers, of the Inter-City League, clash

There is more interest in this conflict than one can imagine. If the Beavers can wallop the East Siders and the Kirkpatricks or Woodburn win, there will be another tie for first place.

This, however, is not the real cause of the rivalry. George R. Grayson is the manager of the Bradfords and Clyde J. "Red" Rupert handles the reins of the West Siders.

These two semi-professional pilots have been rivals ever since the time of the old Columbus Club team back in 1911. Grayson piloted that aggregation, which was made up of ballplayers of the "Cully" Haworth, Bobby Hewitt, Erol Winterbotham, Rudy Kallio and Ray Kennedy type.

Rupert had the Rupert Rubes that season, and the two clubs had some real contests.

Following are the lineups of the two rival teams for this afternoon's game: Bradfords—Schwartz, pitcher; Bleeg, catcher; Edwards, first base; Cohen, second base; Childers, third base; Bogart, shortstop; Stepp, left field; Kennedy, center field; Clark, right field. Beavers—Druhot, pitcher; Feichtinger, catcher; Blanchard, first base; Casey, second base; Watts, shortstop; Ingles, third base; Lind, left field; Groce, center field; McKeen, right field.

Manager Grayson, of the Bradfords, thinks the world of his big southpaw, Schwartz, and will start him. Brown will umpire. All of the league games start at 2:30 o'clock.

ST. HELENS, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Manager Ed Ballagh, of the St. Helens Shipbuilders, is worrying over the outcome of tomorrow's game here between the locals and Woodland.

St. Helens must win to stay in the first division of the Inter-City League. Batteries—St. Helens, Donaldson and Arnspiger; Woodland, Katula and White. Umpire, Rankin.

SALEM, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Salem's representatives in the Inter-City League have been out during the week getting hitting practice despite the somewhat unfavorable weather. They realize that they must whang the pellet harder than they did against Woodland last Sunday to stay in the race. The Kirkpatricks play here tomorrow. Batteries—Salem, Barham and Hauser; Kirkpatricks, Tom Baker and "Chick" Baer. Umpire, Drennen.

WOODBURN, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—If Woodburn wins its game here tomorrow afternoon with Montavilla it will jump to first place in the Inter-City League race, providing the Baby Beavers wallop the Bradfords in Portland. Montavilla put up a pretty game here before, but the locals succeeded in winning and feel confident of repeating tomorrow.

Batteries—Woodburn, Murphy and Kreitz; Montavilla, Zweifel and Newman. Umpire, White.

The Aggies jumped into the lead immediately in the track meet, but two places in the high jump gave the lead to the university. First and second in the broad jump and second by Russell in the javelin gave the Aggies the meet. AGGIE TRACK MEN BUSY

TEAM BEGINS HARD WORK TO MEET WASHINGTON SATURDAY.

Northwest Championships at Pullman in June Will Be Only Event of Importance to Follow.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 20. — (Special.) — Coach Stewart's Aggie track men have been taking things easy this week, following the dual meet with the University of Oregon, but today began more strenuous work in preparation for the next meet on the list—that with the University of Washington upon the local oval Saturday.

Following the Washington meet the only event on the card, now that the Coast meet has been called off, is the Northwest Conference championships at Pullman early in June.

According to the reports trickling into camp from the Seattle campus, the northerners are not especially strong this year. However, with such men as Clyde and Stenstrom as a nucleus around which to build, the northerners doubtless will be able to give Stewart's men some keen competition, crippled as the Aggies are by the ineligibility of several of the best men, due to the banishment of freshmen from varsity ranks.

Stenstrom, in the century and 220, is one of the fastest men in conference ranks, and is scheduled to show his heels to any of the Aggie sprinters. Against the veteran Clyde, in the mile, the Aggies will pin their faith on Coleman.

Sutherland, who promised to be a point winner this season in the pole vault, following his performance in the Far Western meet in April, has not recovered from an injury to his leg in April.

Blake, McFall Company jumped into third place when it defeated M. Seller & Co., 7 to 4, as a result of Lang & Co. forfeiting to Wadhams & Co. The batteries in this game, which was played at East Twelfth and East Davis streets, were: Blake, Fox and Farry; Seller, Rubinstine, Lapham and Wemmer. The winners made 10 hits and committed four errors, while the losers hit nine safely and booted four.

Lang & Co. failed to show up for its game on the Sellwood grounds with Wadhams. The contest was forfeited to the latter nine by the score of 9 to 0.

Fleischner, Mayer & Co. took the Northwestern Electric Company team down the line to a 12-to-4 score. The game was played on the Montgomery Flats. Miller and Majeski, for the winners, made home runs. CALIFORNIANS REACH SEATTLE

Crew Will Race With Washington on Next Saturday.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 20.—The University of California boat crew, 10 men and their coach, arrived from San Francisco by steamer today and went to their quarters at the College Club, on the University of Washington campus. The visitors will contest with the University of Washington crew in a three-mile race on Lake Washington next Saturday afternoon.

The Californians will have an abundance of time to familiarize themselves with the course, which will be from Madison Park to Leschi Park, the same water as that on which Stanford and Washington rowed recently, but with the direction reversed.

Almost every known variety of iron ore is found in Newfoundland.

FEE AND MUIRHEAD UPSET WASHINGTON

Great Two-Man Combination Leads Oregon to Stirring Victory on Track.

PAIR GATHERS 46 POINTS

Seattle Team, on Par With That of Former Years, Unable to Cope With Hayward's Men, Who Win Track Meet, 76-55.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—A superabundance of Fee and Muirhead proved to be too much for Washington's track team today on Denny Field, and the invading Oregon athletes won the annual meet between the two schools, 76 points to 55.

This pair with the talented limbs garnered just 46 points between them, of which Fee registered 29.

Except for a lack of weight men, Washington's team was as good as the university usually puts out, but the two-man combination from Eugene spoiled any chances of winning.

Two Men All Over Field.

Between them, they were entered in practically everything, and the way they kept piling up points didn't augur well for the locals.

They were kept running around from one place to another, running a race here, taking a high jump there and throwing a javelin in still another place.

Where Washington fell below was in the sprints and the quarter mile. Newton has been winning from Stenstrom in practice, but he failed to place in the race. He was set back three feet at the start for breaking. Oregon took the first two places in the quarter mile also where it had been expected that Washington would take two places.

Paul Clyde came through in the old reliable fashion in the mile and the half mile, hitting a new track record in this latter event of 1:58:3 in spite of brisk wind that swirled the dust about the field all day.

Clyde Outsprints Nelson.

He ran his mile in 4:35:2, but he was saving himself for the half. In this latter event was Nelson, who had beaten him twice before. Nelson led for over a lap, but in the last 150 yards Clyde broke into a dead sprint and finished yards ahead of the Oregon runner.

In the weight events Washington was only able to annex seven points, while Oregon chalked 20. It was here that Washington lost all chance of winning from the invaders. In the high jump Fee and Muirhead tied for first place. They quit jumping as soon as Young, of Washington, failed to get over five feet six inches.

The 220 was one of the prettiest races of the day. Newton led Stenstrom across the tape by a stride, with the Oregon men trailing. Newton was at his best in this event.

Drummond gave Knight a lead in the relay, but Knight and Woodridge lost more than Clyde, running last, could overcome. The Washington captain made a heartbreaking run, and closed up the gap to a matter of a few feet, but the trial was hopeless. The summary:

100-yard dash—Stenstrom, Washington, first; Goreczsky, Oregon, second; Peacock, Oregon, third; time, 10 4-5 seconds.

440-yard run—Wilson, Oregon, won; Staub, Oregon, second; Newton, Oregon, third; time, 52 seconds.

120-yard high hurdles—Muirhead, Oregon, first; Fee, Oregon, second; Gibson, Washington, third; time, 16 3-5 seconds.

Shotput—Fee, Oregon, first; Anderson, Washington, second; Bartlett, Oregon, third; distance, 40 feet 4¼ inches.

Pole vault—Stuchell, Washington, first; Fee, Oregon, second; Muirhead, Oregon, third; height, 11 feet 6 inches.

Two-mile run—Macdonald, Washington, won; Bostwick, Oregon, second; Belding, Oregon, third; time, 9:51.

880-yard run—Clyde, Washington, won; Nelson, Oregon, second; Woodbridge, Washington, third; time, 1:58.3-5. (Track record.)

220-yard dash—Newton, Washington, first; Stenstrom, Washington, second; Peacock, Oregon, third; time, 23 1-5 seconds.

Mile run—Clyde, Washington, first; MacDonald, Washington, second; Belding, Oregon, third; time, 4:35.02.

220-yard low hurdles—Gibson, Washington, first; Muirhead, Oregon, second; Fee, Oregon, third; time, 26 2-5 seconds.

Broad jump—Fee, Oregon, first; Stuchell, Washington, second; Muirhead, Oregon, third; distance, 21 feet 3½ inches.

Javelin—Fee, Oregon, first; Anderson, Washington, second; Muirhead, Oregon, third; distance, 176 feet.

High jump—Fee and Muirhead, Oregon, tied at 5 feet 6 inches; Young, Washington, third.

Discus—Bartlett, Oregon, first; Fee, Oregon, second; Cochran, Washington, third; distance, 136 feet 10 inches.

Relay race—Oregon won.
