Mrs. Frank Gilchrist Owen, a popular matron of Medford, is passing a few weeks at Hotel Benson, during Mr. Owen's absence in the East on business. Mrs. Owen, during her residence in this city, was one of the most popular matrons in society, and her visit here will be marked by many charming functions.

* * *

A charming informal dinner was presided over Wednesday night by Colonel and Mrs. Charles H. Martin at Hotel Mallory. Colonel Martin expects soon to return to his post at Nogales, Ariz., and during his absence Mrs. Martin and children will occupy quarters at the Barracks in Vancouver.

Clatsop beaches are calling a number of Portland families to their restful shores, Gearhart boasting many new and handsome cottages, the greater number of which already have been opened by their owners for the Summer. Mrs. Marion F. Dolph and children are at their cottage in Gearhart for May and June; Miss Frances Warren has opened her new home for the season; Mrs. Hawley Hoffman and children will leave this week for Gearhart, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, Jr., are planning to open their cottage for the Summer within a week. Mrs. I. Frohman and Miss Stella Frohman are occupying their new beach cottage at Gearhart, the latter planning to entertain a house party over Decoration day. They will remain at Gearhart until July 1, when their cottage will be occupied for two months by Mrs. Solomon Hirsch and the Misses Hirsch.

Mrs. Edward H. Brooke and daughter, Miss Genevieve Brooke, are preparing to pass the month of July at Neahkahnie, and Miss Barbara Bartlett also will join the Summer colony at this attractive resort, planning a large house party for mid-season.

* * *

Complimenting Mrs. Ralph Schneelock, a newcomer to Portland, Mrs. John K. Kollock entertained informally Wednesday with a charming tea. It was a small and simple affair, only a few of the hostess' closest friends being asked to meet the charming young matron.

* * *

Mrs. Vernon J. Cartwright entertained the Tuesday Night Bridge Club last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Malarkey. The members of the club are of the younger set, all old friends of Mrs. Cartwright.

* * *

Two delightful informal affairs characterized the latter part of the week in honor of Miss Louise Bradley, bride-elect. Friday afternoon Miss Elizabeth Creadick was hostess for an informal bridge party, three tables being arranged for the games. A few extra guests augmented the party at the tea hour. Mrs. Fletcher Linn presided at the tea table, and the highest score was held by Miss Irene Daly. Attractive clusters of garden flowers adorned the rooms.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Wade H. Pipes was hostess for a merry tea dance, about 35 of the younger set enjoying the festivity.

* * *

Another delightful informal affair of the week was the dinner given by Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman to celebrate the anniversary of Mr. Hoffman's birthday.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Gilchrist Owen, popular young matron of Medford, was the inspiration for the informal tea for which Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor was hostess Friday. Only a few of Mrs. Owen's old friends were asked to the affair. Numerous informal luncheons, dinners and teas are making her visit here especially festive.

* * *

Three tables were arranged for the informal bridge party for which Miss Gretchen Klosterman was hostess Thursday afternoon, complimenting Miss Louise Bradley, whose wedding will be an event of the latter part of this month.

At the tea hour a number of additional guests joined the players. The rooms were prettily adorned with garden flowers.

Perhaps the gayest formal for which the Multnomah Club has been host was that of Thursday night. The committee, headed by A. H. Allen, assisted by Harry Fisher, Edward C. Sammons, Charles E. McDonald, Joseph H. Riesch, Milton Reed Klepper and George A. Anderson, were warmly commended for the success of the party.

The veranda was inclosed and softly lighted with Chinese lanterns and adorned with bright garden flowers. Supper was served here, many merry parties gathering for the occasion. The ballroom, halls and reception-rooms also were a bower of floral beauty, making an effective foil for the ever-moving panorama of prettily gowned women and their partners.

Willamette Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained their friends at an attractive bridge and 500 card party Tuesday afternoon in the Portland Heights Club. The rooms were gaily decorated with American flags and a profusion of Scotch broom.

A much-appreciated programme followed the card games. Vocal solos were given by Miss Sorensen, "Come, for It's June" (Forster; "Spring Awakening" (Sanderson); "Chasing Butterflies." Miss Ethel Edich at the piano, "Two Larks" (Leschitzky); "Dance of Elfs" (Kroger). Solo dances, "Glow Worm" and "Pizzicati," were danced by Miss Francis Hanrahan.

Mrs. Albaugh, a chapter member, gave several delightful readings.

Prizes for bridge and 500 were won by Mrs. Hickock and Miss Therlow, respectively. Dainty refreshments were served.

The success of the party was due to the committee, Mrs. Manville, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Ingold.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Milton Brown and daughter, Miss Annie Mackay Brown, are now domiciled in their new resident, 530 Vista avenue, Portland Heights.

* * *

Miss Mildred Bowser, of Fort Wayne, Ind., is the house guest of Miss Margaret Raeder for several weeks, and she is being delightfully entertained by well-known women. One of the first affairs in her honor was the informal tea for which Miss Raeder was hostess Monday afternoon. Mrs. C. J. Raeder, mother of the hostess, and her aunt, Mrs. T. C. Warner, assisted in receiving the guests. The drawing-room was a bower of lovely blossoms in artistic array, pink and white being the keynote of the color scheme. Presiding at the prettily decked tea table were Miss Helen Ross, Miss Edna and Miss Lavelle Florence, Miss Hildreth Humason and Mrs. Bruce Stewart.

* * *

Mrs. Richard W. Montague left Monday for the East to attend the graduation of her daughter, Miss Margaret Montague, who is a student at Vassar College. Following the exercises, Mrs. Montague and her daughter will visit in Boston, New York and Chicago, returning to Portland about July 15.

* * *

The Society of Graduates of St. Helen's Hall will give a luncheon Saturday at the University Club at 1 o'clock.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDonell, of St. Paul, who passed a fortnight in Portland at Hotel Benson, were charmingly and extensively entertained during their visit by a number of old friends, among them Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, who were dinner hosts; Mr. and Mrs. Coe A. McKenna, who also were dinner hosts in their honor, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Stanley, their diversion also being a dinner. Mrs. Martin Gay Lombard was hostess for a dance at her home, honoring the McDonells, also the Ralph C. Matsons. Numerous other functions made their short visit here most delightful. They left Sunday night for their home in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. John Napier are entertaining the latter's aunt, Mrs. Hugh Smythe, of Cincinnati, for several weeks at their attractive new home in Rivera.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Cranston returned last week from a 10 days' visit in Southern California. They visited San Francisco, motoring down to Del Monte. Mr. Cranston will leave immediately for the East to attend a business convention.

* * *

Miss Genevieve Thompson, one of the most popular maids in Portland society, who has been out of the city for many months, returned Tuesday to her home here. Miss Thompson's numerous friends will rejoice over the news that she will be with them for the entire Summer.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Hotchkiss Street have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home at 389 Twelfth street.

* * *

One of the jolliest events of recent date was the motorboat picnic given by a group of Delta Tau Deltas Saturday. Laden with an elaborate picnic supper, the party, numbering about 30, boarded the "Imperial" and went to the attractive suburban home of Judge J. L. Atkins, at Rockspur, overlooking the river. The drawing-room was cleared for dancing, and a buffet supper served in picnic style. A feature of the affair was the two humorous readings by Miss Beth Ludlam and musical selections by Mason Roberts and Dr. Swenson.

Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Matchette, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Goodsell, Mason Roberts, Miss Miller, Charleton Spencer, Miss Ludlam, Allen O'Connell, H. H. Pearce, Miss Doris Parschall, Harry Fogarty, Herbert White, Miss Margaret Maginnis, William Dunlap, Miss A. Dichson, Mr. and Mrs. William Thrall, Willard Shaver and H. Long.

Miss Jean Wold's dance recital Saturday, June 3, in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wortman, 245 Vista avenue, is creating considerable interest among the artistic set, as well as lovers of aesthetic dancing. Miss Wold will be assisted in her programme by Mildred Keats, and will present her pupils in "A Day in a Garden."

Rhododendron, with its marvelous avenues and fields of vivid-hued rhododendrons, is appealing to many motorists these early Spring days. Large and small parties traverse the flower-bedecked roads on the way to Rhododendron, some of whom remain for a week-end and proceed part way to Mount Hood; others remain overnight, while many prefer to make the trip and return the same day. Among the recent parties registered at Rhododendron Inn are:

W. D. DeVarney, A. L. Petue, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bisbee, Miss Edith Stephenson, Charles E. Krachel, Walter H. Levee, Mr. and Mrs. Amadee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Bradshaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Aronson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hess, F. W. Garther, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metschan and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flanders, Captain and Mrs. K. Kubli and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Woraner, Henry Woraner, Jr., and E. F. Clark.

Honoring Mrs. Harvey Lindsey, of Los Angeles, Miss Lilah Coyle entertained Thursday with an informal tea. Miss Helen Gregg assisted the hostess, and the honor guest presided at the samovar. Only a dozen of the honoree's close friends were asked.

* * *

One of the largest luncheons of the week was that presided over on Thursday by Mrs. Nina Larowe, at Hotel Nortonia. Bridge followed the affair, and attractive prizes were awarded to the highest scorers.

The reception-rooms and tearoom of the hotel were effectively decked with brilliant hued blossoms for the occasion, and several close friends of the hostess assisted her. Those who accepted Mrs. Larowe's hospitality were: Mrs. William Gadsby, Mrs. B. Weaver, Mrs. Frank Menefee, Mrs. Charles L. Boss, Mrs. Harvey Bliss, Mrs. H. O. Hickox, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. W. B. Hare, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Miss Rose Powell, Mrs. John F. Toft, Mrs. A. L. Veazie, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mrs. J. C. Hare, Mrs. Byron Miller, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. Cora Puffer, Mrs. N. J. Of interest to Portland folk and residents of Seaside is the news of the wedding of Miss Clara Quinn and Dr. A. C. Nelson, both of Walla Walla. The ceremony was solemnized Thursday, May 11, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. Quinn, in Seaside, Rev. Father Langlard officiating. Miss Irene Collins, of Portland, a cousin of the bride, was the only attendant. Miss Quinn is well-known in Portland society, as she has frequently visited here, and has for years summered at the Quinn cottage in Seaside.

The ceremony was followed by an informal reception and wedding breakfast, about 30 relatives and friends, many of whom were Portland residents, attending. Mrs. George Miller, of this city, played the wedding march.

The bride, who is an attractive girl, wore a pretty gown of ivory satin, with an overdress of filmy tulle. Her bouquet was of white spray orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Collins' gown was a chic model of pink tulle over silk, and she carried a nosegay of old-fashioned garden flowers.

The ceremony was read beneath a bower of apple blossoms and lilies, similar blossoms arranged in baskets and standards being arranged about the room. In the dining-room, where the wedding breakfast was served, a color scheme of pink and white was developed with Killarney roses and almond blossoms.

Dr. Nelson is an ex-resident of Wisconsin, and is a graduate of the Northwestern University, of Chicago. He is popular socially and professionally in Walla Walla, where he and his bride will make their home.

The Quinn family are among the pioneers of the Walla Walla Valley, and the bride is equally popular socially in the Washington city as she is in Portland.

Miss Margaret Ring's engagement which was announced early in the week to Ivan Hoskins caused a flutter of excitement in her set. The news was made known at a charming luncheon for which Miss Mabel Korell was hostess Saturday afternoon, and was a genuine surprise. Both Miss Ring and Miss Korell are members of the Phi Delta Sigma sorority, and are among the popular members of their set.

Miss Ring is a charming girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ring and a graduate of Washington High School. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoskins and is an electrical engineer. This wedding will also be an event of June.

* * *

Miss Sadie Banfield, popular bride-elect, is being delightfully entertained. Among recent affairs in her honor was the informal party given by the members of St. Stephen's choir Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Denton on Portland Heights. A charming shower and tea was given Tuesday by Mrs. Warren Smith, honoring Miss Banfield, and yesterday Miss Irene Yerex and Mrs. Melvin Metcalf were hostesses for a pretty informal tea, complimenting Miss Banfield.

* * *

The popular manager of the Hotel Benson, A. T. Lundborg, has returned to his post, accompanied by his bride. The wedding was a notable event of Monday night in San Francisco at St. Bridget's parish-house. Miss Myrtle Zimmerman and Frank Peter Popp attended the young couple.

The bride, who was Miss May C. Perry, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Perry, of San Francisco. She is well known in social and musical circles of the southern city and undoubtedly will be popular in the younger set of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Lundborg are domiciled in apartments at the Tudor Arms.

PORTLAND ART INSTRUCTOR SHOWS WORK IN EAST.

—Bushnell Photo.

Miss Esther Wuest.

Miss Esther Wuest, supervisor of art in the Portland public schools, has just returned from a trip throughout the East, where she went to attend the convention of the Western Drawing and Manual Training Association, held in Grand Rapids, Mich.

A large exhibit of the work of Portland pupils was taken East by Miss Wuest, and was shown in the convention city and in Chcago, where it received the highest praise of critics and teachers of art.

The Art Institute of Chicago requested the loan of the Portland exhibit. The press of the East spoke of the work in the highest terms, and Miss Wuest was complimented for the excellence of the system used here.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—Although the officers have been ordered to the border, and affairs with Mexico are still very uncertain, the Post has been very gay this week. All seem to want to enter into the social whirl and forget their troubles. The officers of the Ninety-third Company, Coast Artillery Corps, who are in command of the Post, are doing everything in their power to make it seem like home.

Superfluous Hair Disappears Quickly

The safest and surest way to remove superfluous hair is to attack it under the skin as well as on the skin. Only De Miracle works on this principle, because it is quickly absorbed by the skin and alone contains certain ingredients which give it the power to rob hair of its vitality—its life sustaining force. Imitations of De Miracle, the original liquid depilatory, are as worthless as pastes and rub-on preparations, because they only remove hair from the surface of the skin. Well groomed women always use De Miracle for removing hair from limbs and under arms. Be sure to buy De Miracle by name and you will avoid disappointment. Furthermore, you will get the only depilatory that contains a binding guarantee which entitles you to your money if it fails. In 50c, $1.00 and $2.00 bottles, at your dealer's, or direct, postpaid, in plain wrapper. De Miracle Chemical Co., Dept. A-5, Park Ave. and 129th St., New York.

VOGUE says "I know of none better." Genuine magazines of the highest character endorse only De Miracle. Beware of so-called endorsements of bogus magazines which are used to exploit the sale of questionable depilatories.
