

SIZE OF FESTIVAL CENTER IS DOUBLED

Queen Muriel to Be Crowned Night of June 6 on Eve of Formal Opening.

INNOVATIONS ARE PLANNED

Rose Fountain to Be Delightful
New Attraction—Human Rose-bud Parade on East Side
Set for June 7.

Features of the coming Rose Festival were outlined tentatively last night by John H. Dundore, president of the Rose Festival Association, at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce of the Rose Festival Auxiliary. Members of the board of governors of the festival attended, as did representatives of no fewer than 25 different lodges and other organizations, and reports were received and details settled.

According to the tentative programme, Queen Muriel will be crowned on the night of June 6, the evening preceding the formal opening of the festival. The coronation ceremonies will be held at the festival center, in the park blocks. The space given up to this feature will be twice that included in the festival center last year.

Center to Be Lighted June 6.
The first illumination of the festival center will be given on the night of June 6, when the opening ceremonies will be held. New attractions are promised this year, among them being the rose fountain, that is said to be a delightful surprise.

The human rosebud parade will be held on the East Side on the forenoon of June 7. In the afternoon of the same day will come the dedication of the Columbia River Highway. An imposing Chinese pageant will take place in town in the afternoon and there will be fireworks on the river at night.

On the morning of June 8 the roller skating marathon by school children and newsmen will be held, the course being laid out Portland streets. In the afternoon the floral parade will take place, always one of the chief attractions of festival week.

The Queen's ball will take place that night, and dancing on the streets in the festival center will be started.

Pageant to Be Bigger Than Ever.

The festival, military and industrial parade will occur on the morning of June 9. This pageant will be bigger and more imposing than ever. It is promised, and many new features and organizations will be represented. It was reported at last night's meeting, and announced by L. Struck, who presided, that the Salvation Army will have three floats in this pageant, all illustrative of the work of the Salvationists.

It was also arranged that automobiles will be arranged to carry members of the Grand Army posts of the city as a special section in the parade. It was thought this feature was too impressive to be missed, although it was stated to be a hard task to arrange for a sufficient number of motors.

On the night of June 9, at 8 o'clock, the dance parade will be run off, final dancing will take place in the evening at the festival center, and the closing frolic on the streets will occur. On the closing day, too, there will be a regatta on the river and throughout the three days there will be many additional features not yet announced. President Dundore gave only the high lights of the festival programme, and said there are numerous other attractions that will make the coming fete live long in the memory of all who see it.

Neighbor Cities Send Marchers.

Chairman Struck announced at last night's meeting that organizations from neighboring cities, similar in plan to the Rose parade of Portland, will be in the line of march of the fraternal and military parade and many Oregon municipalities and organizations out side the city will have floats entered.

An interesting event of last night's meeting was the introduction by Chairman Struck of Mrs. Maud Gilman, late candidate in the Rose festival queen contest of the Grand Army, and Miss Lillian Hendrickson, candidate for the same honor of the Foresters of America. Mr. Struck referred in a complimentary way to the appearance of the two.

During the meeting remarks were made by George L. Baker, Judge W. N. Gaten, J. Verleim, Dr. A. K. Higgs, John C. Schreiner, and others. Following the transaction of business, the following entertainment programme was given:

Duet, Miss Priscilla Knight and G. W. Gillard; reading, Miss June Margaret Norris; dance, Miss Billy Vincent; vocal solo, Mrs. Fred L. Olson; reading, Robert Seay; imitations of various instruments, W. J. Carkeek.

INJURED WOMAN SILENT

Inquiry as to Nature of Accident Is Not Pressed.

MAY ROBSON'S PLAY IS ONE OF FEW GOOD ONES

"The Making Over of Mrs. Matt" Suits Star's Talents in Year When Such Offerings Are Hard to Find.

PLAYER IS BADLY INJURED

Pitcher Matt Boland Gets Severe Fall From Scaffold.

FOREST RANGER'S KIT FIXED.

LEWISTON, Idaho, May 20.—(Special.)—A portable telephone that weighs only two and a half pounds will be part of the equipment of every forest ranger this year. The field set was invented by R. B. Adams, Missoula, Mont., forest officer, and replaces a set that weighs 10 pounds.

HEAD OF UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD, WHO MAY LIVE IN PORTLAND ON HIS RETIREMENT NEXT MONTH.

CABINET IS ELECTED

Portland Epworth League Concludes Its Sessions.

PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED

Outdoor Gatherings, With More Enthusiasm and Greater Variety, Are Advocated—Increases in Membership Reported.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CABINET FOR 1916-17.

President, C. S. Whitcomb, Sunnyside Chapter.
First vice-president, Fred Schnell.
Second vice-president, R. M. Speelman, Epworth Chapter.
Third vice-president, Ernest Stansbery, First Church Chapter.
Fourth vice-president, Pansy Full, Sellwood Chapter.
Corresponding secretary, C. D. Shilson, Patton Chapter.
Recording secretary, W. Vinson, St. Johns Chapter.
Treasurer, O. J. Gill, Woodlawn Chapter.
Junior superintendent, Minnie Marcy, Sellwood Chapter.

Reports from chapters, showing substantial progress, a round table for discussion of local problems and increased efficiency, and election of officers for the ensuing year featured the eighth annual convention of the Portland District Epworth League which closed yesterday in the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church.

During the morning session department talks were made by Rev. T. W. Lane on "Bible Study," W. H. Backe on "Social Service," and Miss Lillian Hendrickson on "The Junior League Work." These five departments represent the work of the Epworth League.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

At the round table, conducted in the afternoon by President C. S. Whitcomb, problems of the local chapters were discussed and solutions to many given. For greater efficiency, it was the suggestion that the interest in meetings be kept up, enthusiasm maintained, strangers encouraged, variety introduced into meetings, visitors invited, out-of-door services held; that young people do the work, rather than the adults; that young people be encouraged to talk, and that as far as possible tithing be encouraged.

The report of local chapters indicated a general increase of membership of 10 per cent for the year.

The report of the Sellwood Chapter showed a total of $229.45.

PORTLAND MAY BE MR. MOHLER'S HOME

Attachment of Union Pacific President to Oregon Often Expressed and Proved.

WARM WELCOME ASSURED

Friends Recall Fact That Duck Hunting in Fall and Climate in Summer Lured Busy Worker to West.

With the retirement of A. L. Mohler as president of the Union Pacific, the western railroad world loses one of its most unique as well as one of its most familiar figures.

Mr. Mohler is typical of the self-made railroad official—the type that is growing more common in this latter-day period of industrial activity.

Men of Mr. Mohler's type are readily distinguished from men of the old school of railroad life—the men who came to their positions through personal ownership of railroad properties.

The Mohler type can be described as "a railroad president who never forgets that he is a servant of the public, while many of the other school classify as "a servant of the public who never forgets that he is a railroad president."

The dignity of his office does not weigh heavily on Mr. Mohler. In fact, he didn't assume a great deal of dignity when he assumed the office.