GRADUATES PLAN COMMENCEMENT

OREGON "U" 40 YEARS OLD

On Monday, June 5, President Wilbur, of Leland Stanford University, Will Make Commencement Address at Eugene.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 20.—Though having the smallest graduating class in recent years, the university will have its greatest commencement week this year, weather permitting and the programme being given as scheduled. In two weeks the senior class of this year will pass out of the university doors as alumni. Stephen B. L. Penrose, president of Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning, June 4, and Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford University, will deliver the graduation address Monday, June 5.

This year's commencement will commemorate the 40th anniversary of the university, and an appropriate programme has been arranged in honor of the event. Since the undergraduates' examinations have been postponed until after commencement week it is expected the largest attendance for this UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, after commencement week it is expected the largest attendance for this closing event of the year ever registered will be here. The alumni are taking active interest, and the week will be a grand homeooming of the many old "grads." Saturday, June 3, has been set aside as a special alumnidar day.

For the first time in the history of the university the senior class officially will hand down Oregon traditions and will hand down Oregon traditions and customs to the custody of the junior class, and will smoke a pipe of peace with the third-year men. This event will be staged on Kincaid Field. The seniors, in Indian blankets, will squat around a campfire, backed by the juniors. Ceremonics will open with a speech by Leslie Tooze, a senior, to be responded to by an unofficial junior. This will be followed by the official transfer of the university's custodies and traditions by the president of the senior class to the president of the junior class. The presidents of the two classes then will smoke a pipe of peace. It is hoped to inaugurate this as an annual custom. t is hoped to inaugurate this as an innual custom.

The programme for commencement is annual custom.

Errors"; 9 P. M., "Pipe of Peace Ceremony."

Saturday, June 3, alumni day—Forencon, business meeting; 9 A. M., annual meeting state alumnae; 10 A. M., ainnal meeting General Alumni Association; noon, university dinner; afternoon, faculty baseball, 0, A. C. vs. U. of O.; evening, alumni hall.

Sunday, June 4—Forencon, baccalaureate sermon, by Stephen B. L. Penrose; evening, faculty sacred concert, School of Music.

Monday, June 5—Forencon, class day and commoncement programme; afternoon, fortieth anniversary celebration, founders' day; laying corner-stone of new education building: evening. flower and forn procession: Pailing and Beckman orations.

The following committee is in charge: Professor F. S. Dunn, marshal of the day; Dr. J. H., Gilbert, Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons and Professor R. H. Lyman.

MANY DESCENDANTS LEFT

James Allen Kirkendall, Pioneer of 1859, Dies at Camas Valley.

CAMAS VALLEY, Or., May 20 .- (Special.)—Another Oregon pioneer passed away May 9. James Allen Kirkendall was born in Grundy County, Missouri, was born in Grundy County, Missouri, June 23, 1823, where he lived until he was 20. Seized with the wanderlust prevalent in that day, he crossed the plains to California in 1859. There he enlisted as a volunteer in the Fitt River Indian War. In 1862 he was at the Florence City mines, from whence the Walls Walls was a state of the boys' and girls' Summer school.

Those who received rewards are:
Leland Charley, Brownsboro: Gertrude
Courtney, La Grande; Earl Stewart,
Cottage Ggove; Homer Bursell, Monmouth; Clifford Cook, Yoncalla: Carmen Jones

Mr. Kirkendall was the father of 16

TEACHING POSTS FILLED

Several Members of Senior Class at O. A. C. Are Named.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE Corvallis, May 20.—(Special.)—Several members of the senior class in the school of home economics of the Agricultural College have been elected to teaching positions.
Miss Alberta Cavendar, of Portland,

in the Pendleton High School.

Miss Zoe Brown, of Seaside, a popular Waldo Hall club member, received notice of her election as teacher of domestic science in the Oregon City High

RAYMOND HAS CLASS OF 16

Professor Coleman, of Reed, to Deliver Address Friday.

RAYMOND, Wash. May 20.—(Special.)—A record class of '16 will be graduated from the Raymond High School next week.

Rev. Barciav Acheson, of the Presbyterian Church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon tomorrow night, and Professor Norman Frank Coleman, head of the English department of Reed College, Portland, will deliver the commencement address Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

The class consists of the following members: Marion Appleton. Robert Clubh, Gladys Coats, Victor Cooley, Winfield Cram, Marie Heath, Lucille irving, Aubert Kirlin, Dewey McMillin, Glen Murdock, Lyndell Nielsen, Carl Owens, Thomas Owens, Laura Parsell, Leon Parsell and Emanuel Rockey, About 12 of these are planning on going to college.

DRY SEASON IS PREDICTED

Coos Fire Patrol Association Plans to Protect Timber.

MARSHFIELD, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—W. J. Conrad, secretary of the Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and August.

The Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and August.

The Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and August.

The Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and August.

The Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and August.

The Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and August.

The Coos County Fire Patrol Association is expecting a dry season and is making provisions for putting a large force in the timber areas during June, July and

O. A. C. MAN APPOINTED

Big Salary Paid by County in Washington for Agriculturist.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvaills, May 18.—(Special.)—Howard Winlow P. Smith, a senior in agronomy at limits.

O. A. C., has been appointed county agriculturist for Okanogan County. Washington, at probably one of the highest salaries ever paid a graduating student. This man is the third student majoring in agronomy to receive an appointment as county arriculturing since pintment as county agriculturist since

DIMMENGEMEN

Jointment as county agriculturist since January 1.

Although Mr. Smith came to the college without funds and had to earn his way through school, he has made a uniformly fine record for scholarship and ability throughout his college career. He came to O. A. C. from Redlands, Cal., three years ago.

He has specialized in farm management at O. A. C., and has taken the Summer field course in farm management at the University of Wisconsin, returning in the Fail to complete his senior year's work at Corvallis, His senior year's work at Corvallis, His senior thesis involved a farm management survey of the "white land" failins between Corvallis and Haisey.

Mr. Smith is president of the Agron-

Mr. Smith is president of the Agronomy Club at O. A. C., and is a member of Phi Delta Sigma.

He will complete his work for his

DAUGHTER OF NEWBERG PIO-

Mrs. S. S. Jennings. Mrs. S. S. Jennings.

Mrs. Iona Jennings, wife of S.

S. Jennings, a prominent North Bend merchant, died Monday,
May 8, at her home in North Bend. She was 32 years old and had been ill for a long time. Mrs.
Jennings was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hutchens, nioneer residents of Newberg.
She was born on a farm near Dayton, but passed her childhood in Newberg, where she attended the public schools.
On her graduation from Pacific

On her graduation from Pacific University she taught music several years, Besides her husband and parents, she leaves a sister, Mrs. A. L. Gubser; three broth-ers, T. A. Hatchens, of Portland; Fred Hutchens, Newberg, and Earl Hutchens, North Bend. The funeral was held at Newberg May 10.

degree from the college and leave to report for work in his new position

INDUSTRIAL CLUBS WILL SUPPLY FARMERS, IS PREDICTION.

Arrangements Are Completed for Sending 21 Prize Winners to O. A. C. Summer School.

SALEM, Or., May 20 .- (Special.) -- Arrangements have just been completed by J. A. Churchill, Superintendent of Public Instruction, for sending the 21 boys and girls who won the capital prizes in the industrial club work at the State Fair last Fall to the Oregon Agricultural College for the boys' and the Florence City mines, from whence he went to Walla Walla, Wash. The next year he went to Idaho and while there married Miss Missouri Belieu. The Kirkendalls removed to Camag Valley in 1865, which had since been their home.

The Florence City mines, from whence for Cook, Yoncalla; Carmen Jones, Pendleton; Esther Miller, Medford; Warren McGowan, Independence; Hardle Warren McGowan, Independence; Earl Cooley, Salem; L. M. Bowles, Dallas; Rudoif Mulleuhoff, Boring; Teddy Rudoif Mulleuhoff, Boring; Teddy Rudoif Mulleuhoff, Boring; Teddy Mr. Kirkendall was the father of 16 Fones, Carlton; Exio Morgan, The balles; Florence Wharton, Roseburg; had 65 grandchildren, 46 of whom are living, and 11 great-grandchildren, nine of whom are living.

Marion Lowe, Nyssa; Mac McDonald, Dallas; Muriel Blume, Albany; Paul Jaeger, Sherwood; Claus Charley, Brownsboro.

Clubs are being formed in every section of Oregon.

"As a result of this work," says Su perintendent Churchill, "we can feel that in the next generation there will be a group of expert farmers and homekeepers in every rural community of

COYOTE SLAUGHTER BIG

Chickenhawks, Magpies and Weasels Killed in Washington Contest.

POMEROY, Wash. May 20.—(Special.)—In a friendly contest between members of the Wenaha Game Associamembers of the Wenaha Game Association for predatory birds and animals, which lasted one month, beginning Miss Eva Keatley, of Castle Rock, Wash, was elected teacher of home economics in the schools of Keiso, Wash. Miss Della Jackson, of Lorane, was appointed to a similar position in the high school at Ione. Miss Alice Prill, of Corvallis, was elected to the instructional staff of the Scio schools.

RAYMOND HAS CLASS OF 16

members of the Wenaha Game Association for predatory birds and animals, which is and animals, answer.

April 15, 143 coyotes, 65 chicken hawks, 653 magpies and six weasels were conomics in the schools of Keiso, Wash. Miss Della Jackson, of Lorane, was appointed to a similar position in the high school at Ione. Miss Alice Prill, of Corvallis, was elected to the instructional staff of the Scio schools.

RAYMOND HAS CLASS OF 16

Thirty-one hunters took an active part in the search. The losing side will entertain the winners at a pionic din-ner soon, it is said.

Winlock Awards Street Contract.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—The Winlock Council Wednesday night awarded a contract to W. F. Melsmer, of Scattle, for hard-surfacing First street. The contract price is $20,965. The contract, which is the largest ever let by the town, will result in a continuous pavement from the Winlock depot through to the town limits.

ROSEBURG, Or., May 20.—(Special.)

Local sportsmen have completed all arrangements for the salmon bake to be held at Winchester Sunday afternoom. Among the guests at the festivities will be Governor Withycombe, Attorney-General George M. Brown and ESTACADA, Or., May 20.—(Special.)

ESTACADA, Or., May 20.—(Special.)

ESTACADA, Or., May 20.—(Special.)

Willer, Walter Warde, Josie Sadow, Josie Sanzon and Hollee DeLoach.

Currinsville School Standardized.

With appropriate exercises, on Friday, May 5, the Currinsville school was standardized. Among the speakers were County Supervisor Vedder.

MEN SHY AT AGES taken during the afternoon.

Eugene Leads With Largest Number in Class, 28, and Portland Second With 20.

Co-Eds Give Up Age Information Unhesitatingly, Their Average Exceeding That of Men-Many Plan Post-Graduation Work?

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 20. — (Special.)—The number of seniors this year candidates for degrees seniors this year candidates for degrees is the smallest for a number of years. The number is 99. Eugene, Or., leads with 28, and Portland is second with 20. Washington, California, Idaho and Iowa are also represented outside of the state. The women, as usual, are predominant with 52, the men having 47 candidates. So far five of the class have signified their intention of taking up post-graduate work, the major portion of these having their minds set on Columbia University, New York.

tion of these having their minds set on Columbia University, New York.

Traditions were smashed this year when the seniors registered. Three senior men refused to give their ages, while every one of the co-eds gave up this information. The average age of the co-eds in the graduating class exceeds that of the men. The women average that of the men.

ceeds that of the men. The women ayerage in age 22.36 years and the men 22.77 years.

Eighty-nine seniors will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts, seven the degree of Bachelor of Science, two the degree of Bachelor of Science, two the degree of Master of Arts, and one the degree of Master of Arts, and one the degree of Bachelor of Science in the electrical engineering.

The majors in the school of education lead with 12, and the other majors fall in line with German 11, English literature 10, economic history 2, mathematics 2, history 7, journalism 4, agchitecture 4, French 4, zoology 3, physical training 2, chemistry 2, commerce 2, romance languages 2, music 2, political science 2, psychology 1, botany 1, geology 1, Greek 1, public speaking 1.

The seniors are:

Ralph S, Allen, Eugene: Louise Grace
Bailey, Eugene: Paul E, Baker, Eugene;

The seniors are:
Raiph S. Allen, Eugene: Louise Grace
Balley, Eugene: Paul E. Baker. Eugene:
Merlin George Battey, Twin Falls, Idaho;
Leslie Burton Bales, San Dimas, Cal.: Lewis
Aleaxnder Bond, Eugene: Katherine Bridges, Oswego; Eva Lenore Brock, Hood River;
Eyler Brown, Eugene: John Prentiss Brown, Lebanen; Leonard M. Buoy, Eugene; John
Clark Burgard, Portiand; William H. Burton, Newport; Esther Campbell, Portland;
Constance Cartwright, Salem; James H. Cellara, Portland; Esther Emily Chalmers, Cornelius; Walter E. Church, Eugene;
Marie Churchill, Salem; Anson B. Corneil, Portland; James K. Cossman, Creswei; Helen M. Crump, Eugene, Bess L.
Cushman, Brownswell; Cloyd O. Dawson,
Tillamook; Mona E. Dougherty, Wallewa;
Harry T. Ddrill, Yamhill; Fred B. Dunbar,
Klamath Palis, Wallace Eakin, Astoria;
Grace Hartley Edgington, Hood River; Clara
Agnes Erdmann, Elmira, Chester Anders
Feeguson, Fortland; Wilmst Coyne Foster,
Astoria; Rita E. Fraiey, Eugene; Lois Elliabeth Gray, Eugene; Dorothy Hermine Groman, Odebolt, Ia.; Olin C. Hadley, Turner, Claud Arnold Hampton, Pendleton; Ella

KLAMATH CASE RESTING

Power Company Has Until July 1 to File Its Brief.

this week. All of the testimony in the case has been submitted, and both sides have rested. The omission gave the power company until July 1 within which to file its brief on the legal points in Issue and the city was given and the city was given their own business matters.

SALMON BAKE SCHEDULED

throughout the state

Governor and Attorney-General to Be Guests at Roschurg.

cludes a shoot to be held under the auspices of the Roseburg Gun Club, fishing in the Umpqua Rivet, salmon bake and many other entertainment features. Moving pictures will be taken during the afternoon.

Commencement Exercises at Gresham Will Be Held June 6.

GRESHAM, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—
On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev.
A. J. Ware will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the June class of Union High School No. 2
Class day exercises will be held Monday in the high school auditorium, at which time the following will take part: Class poets, Hester Thorpe and Marguerite Voibrecht; class prophets, Florence Towle and Martha Hagberg; class will, Frances and Gladys Bliss; class artist, Roy Gibbs; presentation

NATIVE OF ARKANSAS SUC-CUMBS AT ARLINGTON, OR.

Otis Owen Campbell. ARLINGTON, Or., May 20.— (Special.)—Otis Owen Campbell was born in Benton County, Arkansas, May 1, 1870. He was one of eight children, five of whom are living, one a brother, who resided with his fether who is 24 sides with his father, who is 94 years old, at Blockhouse, Wash.; a brother in Yakima, Wash.; two brothers in the East and a sister in Utah.

In 1886 he reached Centerville, Wash., making his home there and in the vicinity of The Dalles until 1898, when he came to

In 1908 he was elected County Assessor of Gilliam County. He married Mrs. Elfie Shurte De-cember 31, 1908, to which union two children were born-Roselpha and Loretta.

oration, Iness Knox, and acceptation, Robert Hendricks.
Governor Withycombe will deliver the address to the graduates at the commencement exercises in Regner's Opera-house on Tuesday night, June 6. On Saturday, June 17, the first annual banquet of the Alumni Association of Union High School No. 2 will be held.

DAYTON GRADUATES ARE 20 Lodge Folk Hold Forth in Southern tary. Rev. Hugh Elmer Brown, of Seattle.

Is Commencement Orator.

DAYTON, Wash., May 20 .- (Special.) -A class of 20 was graduated from the Dayton High School with appropriate exercises Thursday night at the Chris-Rev. Hugh Elmer Brown, of Seattle, a former graduate of this school, made the address of the evening, Miss Hilma Ryerson the salutatory address and Miss Maudie Hinton delivered the valedictory. Those in the class were as follows: Maudie Hinton, Hilma Ryerson, Helen Fall, Hazel Gosney, Mabel Rockhill, Frances Brooks, Joseer graduate of this se phine Matheny, Helen Knox, Vivian Chandler, Edith Webster, Marguerite Hopkins, Glenn Brown, Harry Gaines, Paul Vance, Wesley Eager, Ivan Mor-ris, Agnes Rainwater, Elma Brown, Gladys Gilbert and Louise Eaton.

IDAHOAN NAMED MEMBER

Theodore Sharp to Help Competency Body in Indian Investigations.

LAPWAI, Idaho, May 20 .- (Special.) Theodore Sharp, until recently superintendent of the Lapwai Indian agency. has received notification from his dehas received notification from his department that he has been made a member of the Indian competency board to serve under Special Agent McPherson.

(Special.) — City Attorney Rollo C. Groesbeck, who conducted the case of the city of Klamath Falls against the California-Oregon Power Company before the Public Service Commission of Oregon, today returned from Salem, where a formal hearing was held carly this week. All of the testimony in the

MONUMENT IS PROPOSED

Movement Started in Tacoma to Honor Late Dr. E. M. Brown.

ABERDEEN MAN ELECTED

F. W. Loomis Becomes Pythian
Grand Chancellor.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—A movement to have all patriotic orders in the city gather funds for a memorial monument to Dr. E. M. Brown was begun at the meeting of Major E. M. Brown Camp, United Spanish War Veterans today.

ARTHUR E. West was appointed chairming of the Knights of Pythias of Washingston at the grand lodge convention in Seattle, is the second Aberdeen man to have been elevated to that honor. The first was Eugene Foster, who died about two years ago. Mr. Loomis has been a resident of Aberdeen for ten years and has been exceptionally active in Wishkah Lodge, of this city.

Mr. Loomis has been working for some time upon a lecture on "Fraternalism," which he plans to deliver to open meetings of Pythians to be held throughout the state.

TACOMA, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)

A movement to have all patriotic orders in the city gather funds for a memorial monument to Dr. E. M. Brown was appointed chair-mid of the Dr. Brown memorial committee and said it is the intention of the camp named for Dr. Brown. He will spoint at once a general committee from veterans' organizations in Tacoma and they will take up plans and decide on a suitable place for the memorial. Dr. Brown was a native of Forest Grove, Or.

14 to Graduate at Tenino.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)

A movement to have all patriotic orders in the city gather funds for a memorial room-memorial room-memorial room-memorial room-mittee and said it is the intention of the Dr. Brown memorial committee and said it is the intention of the camp named for Dr. Brown mittee and said it is the intention of the camp named for Dr. Brown mittee and said it is the intention of the camp named for Dr. Brown mittee and said it is the intention of the camp named for Dr. Brown mittee and said it is the intention of the camp named for Dr. Brown mittee from veterans of cannot prove the form of the camp named for Dr. Brown mittee from veterans of the CENTRALIA, Wash. May 20.—(Special.)—An eighth grade class of 14 will be awarded diplomias when commencement exercises are held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Tenino next Thursday night. C. C. Goss, Thurston County Superintendent, will present the diplomas. The graduates are Roy Abbott. Ted McArthur, Howard Cole, Charles Keithahn, Antonio Frare, Claude McDonald, George McDonald, Claude Wilson, Fay Robinson, Earl Miller, Walter Warde, Josie Sadow, Josie Scanzon and Holice DeLoach.

Pay enough-not too much-for good clothes

> When you see our newest ideas in suits from

Hart Schaffner & Marx

You're going to be well pleased.

Here are clothes that you can afford to buy-that satisfy every idea you have about what to wear. At very moderate prices you get style, snap, smartness, all-wool materials, workmanship; you'll be proud of your purchase.

Priced $18 to $40

Sam'l Rosenblatt & Co.

The Men's Store for Quality and Service

Oddfellows and Rebekahs Hold

Conference.

CONCLAVE RUNS TO FRIDAY

Oregon Just Previous to Great

Strawberry Festival Which

ROSEBURG, Or., May 23 .- (Special.)

-Practically all arrangements have been completed for the sessions of the grand lodge, I. O. O. F., and Rebekah

The first contingent of Oddfellows and Rebekahs will arrive here Sunday evening to participate in the pre-liminary sessions to be held Monday evening to participate in the pre-liminary sessions to be held Monday morning. This delegation will include the grand lodge officers of the several branches of the Oddfellows' Lodge. The main delegation of visitors prob-ably will reach the city on a special train which is scheduled to arrive in Roseburg at 4:30 o'clock Monday after-noon. The delegates will be met at the depot by a committee of local lodgemen and a brass band. The early evening will be passed assigning the evening will be passed assigning the visitors to their rooms and making other preliminary arrangements for their entertainment. A public recep-ion for the Oddfellows and Rebekahs odge will follow at the Armory. The regular grand lodge sessions will begin Thursday morning and continue antil Friday noon. On Thursday after-noon will be held the parade of Odd-fellows and Rebekahs.

One important matter to come before the grand lodge is in the form of a resolution which provides for holding the annual convention one week later. The present constitution of the grand lodge provides that the annual meet-ing shall be held during the same week as the primary election. On ac-count of the conflict in dates this

To the Boy or

Girl Graduate

you will want to give some little token which they can retain for a long time and cherish with

We Have Such

in large variety at most reasonable prices. If you will come to my store every courtesy will be extended you, whether you

Largest Diamond Dealer in Oregon.

334 Washington st., near Bdwy

fond memories.

buy or only look.

Opens This Week.

Southeast Corner Fifth and Alder

O. A. C. Sophomores Elect.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 20. — (Special.) — The Paul Amort and H. E. Turner to sophomore class at the Oregon Agricultural College yesterday elected Douglas Pine, of Berkeley, Cal., president for the next college year. Mr. Pine won from Walter Boon, of Portland. The other officers elected were: Dorls Sawyer, of Salem, vice-president; F. P. Meyers, of Corvallis, treasurer, and Katherine Howells, of Medford, Secre-

Kansas Man Honored at O. A. C.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE,
Corvailis, May 20.—(Special.)—George
Dutton, of Concordia, Kan., varsity

Mr. Amort has been a member of the varsity wrestling team for four years and was last year captain of the squad.

Mr. Turner has been one of the most active members of the senior class.

year's meeting was postponed one week with considerable inconvenience to the grand officers. The grand lodge sessions will not have closed when the sighth annual Strawberry Festival will begin. The carnival will continue until Saturday night.

2 O. A. C. STUDENTS CHOSEN Teach Manual Training.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 20 .- (Special.) -- Paul Amort, of Corvallis, and H. E. Turner, of Union, seniors in the department of Corvallis, treasurer, and industrial education of the Oregon Ag-lowells, of Medford, secre-ricultural College, this week were elected, to teach manual training and industrial arts in the schools of Salem

Best Under Sunflower Wall Papers Fine homes are decorated with Sunflower Wall Papers.

Sunflower Wall Papers protect as well as beautify your walls.

Sunflower Wall Papers add to the actual real estate market value of your home.

Sunflower Wall Papers last several times as long as any other kind of decoration, and are therefore the most economical.

Sunflower Wall Papers are the finest wall papers in the world sold at popular prices.

ASK YOUR DECORATOR

Phone Marshall 2428 and our nearest agent, an expert decorator, will call and show you the Sunflower Sample Books. Or come to our store-the finest wall paper store in the West-and see the Sunflower wall papers on room-sized screens, just as they will appear on your

UNITED WALL PAPER STORES CO.

248 Washington St. Between 2d and 3d Streets PORTLAND

GIBNEY SOLID TIRES

Quality is Your Security

Distributor

BALLOU & WRIGHT

proadway at Oak Street, Portland, Oregon