Vaudeville Is Big Success and Chamber of Commerce Bureau Finds Clothes and Work for Needy Ones. News Notes on Varied Activities of East Side Institution.

BY MILDRED WEEKS Vaudeville came off with all the snap and sparkle as it was expected Two short plays, coached by Don T. Orput, took a prominent place on the bill. "Playing With Fire," fea-turing Arvo Simdla and Clara Scharpf, late stars of "Stop Thief," and Irene Reynolds as an Irish cook, was a big hit, as was also a French comedy, "A Miraculous Cure," starring Miriam Hil-Reynolds as an Irish cook, was a big hit, as was also a French comedy, "A Miraculous Cure." starring Miriam Hilton, Gilbert Bensen and Lyman Cooley. Halleck Kinkaid. Homer Blied and John Rockey appeared first on the programme in a tumbling act. The June class quartet, composed of Ray Mcgrew, Tom Felts, Paul Campbell, and George McFaul, was a sensation. Roberta Downing was featured in an act by herself, character impersonations. Carrol Day gave several baritone solos. Will take a similar trip to the Hazelby herself, character impersonations. Carrol Day gave several baritone solos. Robert Cook was in a black-face comedy stunt alone. The Neakahni contribution, "A Modern King Cole," was unusual and the costumes and lighting effects were unique. Those who took part in this were: Jeanette Snedeker. Gretta Mooberry, Florence Tenneson, Mildred Lauderdale, Alma Scharpf, Helen Gloss, Eunice Cowgill, Gertrude Cowgill, Ruth Deihl, and Holt Ganong. The act was coached by Miss Ruth Duniway. The February '17 class put on a Minstrel show featuring Wayne Loder and a mired chorus.
