A number of important changes in the faculty of Pacific University have been arranged, effective at the begin-ning of the Fall term, and it is an-nounced by President Bushnell, will aid materially in adding to the efficiency of the school.

Some of the principal changes will affect the conservatory of music. The acting director of the conservatory will be Miss Wilma P. Waggener, a graduate of the school, and who acted as director for a year in the absence of Professor F. T. Chapman, the retiring director.

Miss Waggener has had the advantage of two trips to Germany, where she studied piano and organ under Alberto Jonas and Bernhard Irrgang. She was for three years in charge of the piano department at McMinnville College and for the past four years has held a similar position at Albany College.

The head of the vocal department will be Mrs. Virginia Hutchinson, well known in Portland as a contralto soloist. For two years she has studied in New York under Theodore Bjorksten, A. A. Pattou and Signor Belari. She also was soloist in the Church of the Good Shepherd in New York. For two years she was contraito soloist in the First Presbyterian Church and for the past four years has been contraito soloist in the White Temple. William Wallace Graham will have charge of the violin department. Mr. Graham, too, has had the advantage of studying music in Germany. For more than six years he attended the Royal High School of Music in Berlin under the instruction of Joseph Joachim, and later served two years as assistant in-atructor in the Royal Academy.

He is a native of Oregon. He has taught some of the most successful violinists in the Northwest. Some of his pupils also have gained fame in other parts of the country. New Teachers Are Selected.

Among the assistant teachers music will be Mrs. Charles Walker, of Forest Grove, who has a wide reputa-tion as a successful teacher. Two other new teachers will be Sheridan R. Jones, who is to have charge of the biology department, and Ralph Tippet, who will be head of the

The ordinance provides that the user company should have equal rights and privileges with the owner of the bridge, "upon payment of a reason-able compensation." The O.-W. R. & N. appealed from the ruling of the commission to the Circuit Court.

In setting aside the award, Judge Kavanaugh asserted that the impor-tant interests involved in the suit can taht interests involved in the suit can only be determined by a court of last resort. If affirmed, the parties should be given an opportunity to agree amicably upon the compensation, he

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little magnesis—not the originary carbonate, citrate, colde or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.
