LANE WANTS TO BE ABLE TO TELL PORK

Senator Thinks Criticism of Whole Harbors Bill Is Unwarranted Reflection.

OREGON ITEMS DEFENDED

Suggestion Is Made That Congress Obtain Information on All Projects So It May Eliminate Unnecessary Appropriations.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 6 .- Senator Lane, of Oregon, is not in favor or pork-barrel appropriations, and he disapproves of the expenditure of public money in the improvement of waterways that have no commerce, present or prospective. But he is not in favor of killing the But he is not in favor of killing the river and harbor bill because it has some elements of fraud in it.

Rather, he would have Congress make some proper provision for guarding against the injection of "pork" into future bills, and to that end would have Congress obtain accurate and reliable information which will enable it impartially to sift out the bad projects, and confine its appropriations to projects based wholly on ago Senator Lane gave his views, as follows:

"There are no doubt in the bill many items which deserve condemnation and I have no fault to find with such treatment of them. I would be willing to go as far as anyone to help clear the bill of such projects. Without full information concerning the facts, however, I do not feel that we are justified in condemning the entire bill. There are many good projects which There are many good projects which are involved, and I think, as a matter of justice to the Senate at this time before we vote on the bill, some plan should be devised whereby Congress should have full information concerning all items in future bills.

"It is unfair to condemn the whole bill for the reason that some projects in it are unwise. It is not fair to Con-gress, to the Senate, or to the people,
