Proposal for Reclamation Delayed Because Some Fail to Give Support.

J. W. Brewer Says Suggestion for County Guaranty of Interest
Will Not Work, as Those in Most Need Are Poor.

Oregon voters will not have the opportunity next November of passing on a proposed constitutional amendment providing for state aid to irrigation and drainage projects.

The educational campaign in the direction of state aid will be continued, however, and it is probable that the amendments will be submitted at the general election two years hence.

At its session last December the irrigation congress authorized a conference to draft amendments providing for state aid to irrigation and drainage projects and for a system of rural credits for the state.

GOLF COMPLAINT DENIED

J. H. Stevenson Merely Wonders if City Links Is Justified.

PORTLAND, June 18.—(To the Editor.)—Some of the daily papers have printed statements that the Council had decided to reconsider the municipal golf links ordinance and re-pass it without an emergency clause because

PIONEER OF 1847 DIES AT MEDFORD.

David H. Harrell, a pioneer of '47, died at the age of 75 years in Medford Friday. Dropsy was the cause of death. Mr. Harrell had made his home at Joe Bar, in the Blue Ledge mining district, but was on his way to Portland with his sister, Mrs. Martha A. Jones, of Watkins, at the time of his death.

Mr. Harrell was born in Illinois November 7, 1840. He drove stage and fought Indians in the early days and later took up mining.

Mr. Harrell leaves a brother, James, of Portland, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Walker, of Astoria, and Mrs. Martha A. Jones, of Watkins. The body has been brought to Portland for interment.

John H. Stevenson and Isaac Sweet had "complained" of the emergency clause and its consequent defeat of the power of the referendum.

"Now, I am not answering for Mr. Sweet, but the statement, as applied to me, is, to say the least, in the language of Joseph Daniels, an inexactitude. At no time and at no place have I complained about the emergency clause. I have said that the Council passed the ordinance with an emergency clause, but as a matter of history and not of complaint, if the Council feels that this city can struggle on no longer without municipal golf, there can be no possible objection to an emergency clause. The sooner the emergency is met, the better.

All I have ever said or done about this whole distressing subject is to rise and inquire, whether, in view of the ever-mounting cost of government and the skyline attitude of taxes, coupled with the further fact that thus far the clamor for golf has not yet become loud enough to be heard by a person of ordinary good hearing—the time is ripe and the hour here when the city should extend its governmental activities to include the golf business.

Personally, I shall have nothing to do with invoking the referendum on this ordinance, but if the Council wants to know how the people feel about it, and the exigencies of the situation will admit of our being deprived of golf for one more year, why not the Council refer the matter to the people?

JOHN H. STEVENSON.
Washington Homeopaths Elect.

COLUMBIA BEACH, NEW OUTING SPOT, NEARLY COMPLETED.

$20,000 is Expended in Installing Bathing Concessions, Pavilions, and Amusement Places.

Columbia Beach, Portland's newest summer resort, will be formally opened for the season, Saturday, July 1. With $20,000 expended in improvements, including a large bathhouse, a dancing pavilion, roller skating rink, motor-drome, and other features, it is expected Columbia Beach will be one of the most popular of all nearby resorts among the Portland residents.

The resort occupies Sand Island, just east of the Vancouver line of the Portland Railway, Light Power, Company, and will be accessible this year by automobile as well as streetcar. A trestle has been built connecting the car company's right of way with the island. A platform along the streetcar track also has been constructed and is large enough to accommodate several thousand persons. A parking place for automobiles has been provided.

In addition to the various conveniences for bathers a wooded park on the island containing about 300 acres has been set aside for campers. A water system for the resort has been installed. Tests made by state officials show that the water is as pure as Bull Run water. In addition to several entertainment features, Prap's orchestra will give concerts each afternoon and evening during the season.

REV. MR. BEERS ARRIVES

Free Methodist Pastor Here to Take Up Work in Portland.

Rev. Alexander Beers and family arrived in Portland yesterday to make their home here.

Rev. Mr. Beers resigned the work of Seattle Pacific College, after having served the interest of the pastorate of 23 years, and accepted the school for the First Free Methodist Church, of Portland, located at East Ninth and East Mill streets, three blocks south of Hawthorne avenue.

Rev. Mr. Beers said, "I am in Portland as a Christian worker. It will be my purpose while here, to do constructive work. My conception of a Christian minister is that of a laborer in the house of Christ. For a minister to succeed, he must be as diligent in his church work as the most enthusiastic business man is in his business. I believe that missionary work, though hard labor and wisely directed effort, it will be my purpose to reach as many people as possible, but shall not attempt to proselyte anyone from other denominations to my church."

Mrs. Beers is a very active church worker and has taken special interest in the foreign missionary work. She is a member of the General Missionary Board of the denomination.

Rev. Mr. Beers will preach in his church both morning and evening.

DEATH OF FATHER HALTS
GRADUATION OF PORT-LAND BOY AT YALE.

Frank W. Gilbert.

Frank W. Gilbert would have been a member of the graduating class of Yale College, New Haven, Conn., tomorrow had he not had to return to Portland owing to the death of his father, F. M. Gilbert.

Mr. Gilbert, who received his earlier education in Portland, was awarded his diploma from the faculty of Yale two weeks in advance of the other students. He expects to return in a short time to New Haven and connect himself with his brother, Alfred Gilbert, president of a large manufacturing business in that city.

Strength for Summer

is found in perfect digestion, complete elimination of waste, and freedom from catarrhal conditions. Stagnation means weakness, whether it be of the food supply, the bodily waste, or the blood in the mucous surfaces.

Peruna Is Invigoration
It tones up the irregular appetite, assists in digestion, stimulates healthy bowel action, and clears up internal inflammation, otherwise called catarrh. Good health is a matter of maintaining the perfect balance of the bodily processes. That cannot be done while colds, which are acute catarrh, exist. Let them become chronic catarrh, no matter where located, and the body is below par.

Peruna has been successfully used for such conditions in thousands of cases for almost a half century. Its merit keeps it before the public. Probably it is just what you need, and your case may be added to the long roll of those who through Peruna have found health.
