

CZERNOWITZ SAID RUSSIANS IN FIGHT

Petrograd Learns Bukovina Capital Has Been Almost Completely Destroyed.

LEMBERG IS THREATENED

Reports Received in Berlin Emphasize Desperate Nature of Engagements; Austrian Defense Declared Stubborn.

PETROGRAD, via London, June 17.—Czernowitz, the capital of Bukovina, was almost completely destroyed in the fierce battle that has been raging there since the beginning of the summer...

Russian troops have occupied the town of Radslowo, on the railroad, 40 miles northeast of Lemberg, according to the official statement issued today by the Russian army headquarters.

The breaches made by the Russians on the southwestern front, spreading fan shape from 30 to 40 miles in the rear of the Austrian line, now have effectively separated the three main Austrian army groups operating between the Priepet and Bukovina.

Austrian Army Russian Objective. The primary object of General Brusiloff's campaign is not the retaking of the territory, and, although it is quite conceivable that Lemberg may be caught in encircling movements developing from the flank attacks on the Lutsch and Czernowitz, the chief aim of the Russian advance is obviously to destroy, or at least cripple, the Austrian army.

The tremendous number of prisoners taken by the Russians, up to the present roughly estimated at 250,000, with additional losses in killed or wounded of 150,000, attests to the success of the Russians in accomplishing this aim.

Military commentators contrast the effect of the present Russian advance with that of the German advance last summer, which yielded much larger gains in territory without, however, in any sense destroying the integrity of the Russian army.

The last day's news records the continued success of the Russians in the district of Lutsch, the lower Stripa and Czernowitz, in the middle Stripa, north of Tarnopol, the Austrians are holding their own.

Gap Widened Near Lutsch. Near Lutsch the gap in the Austrian lines has been further widened by the northward progress of the Russians to Sokul and the forest of Roatok, which fell after a hard struggle.

BERLIN, June 17, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—Official reports from Vienna during the last few days, delayed in transmission, emphasize the violence of the fighting on the Russian front. From these reports the Austrian resistance in Southern Galicia and Bukovina appears notably strong.

On June 16, Vienna announces the repulse of Russian attacks near Kolk, north of Novoe Alexhie, northwest of Tarnopol, and on the Dniester, with heavy losses to the attacking forces.

The report of the 10th said that in violent engagements along the whole northeastern front, five attacks by the Russians in strong force were successfully resisted, but the Austrians had to yield on the Lower Stripa, being driven from the east to the west bank. The Russians tried to advance northwest of Tarnopol, but were unsuccessful.

Russian Progress Admitted. Progress of the Russians was admitted in the statement of June 13. A Russian cavalry detachment was driven back southwest of Dobno in Volhynia, but Russian cavalry reached the Terezn district. Further efforts of the Russians to cross the Styre near Sokul and elsewhere were futile. In this district 2000 Russians were captured.

Renewed attacks by the Russians south of Dobno in Volhynia, Czernowitz, all of which were repulsed, were reported on the 15th. Russians also tried to cross the Styre near Sokul, but the report declares they failed with severe losses in all their attempts to cross this section between the Rovno-Kovel Railroad and Kolk.

POSTMASTERS ARE NAMED Changes Made in Fourth-Class Offices in Oregon.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 17.—The following changes in Oregon fourth-class postoffices were made today:

Charles L. Smith appointed postmaster at Ash, Douglas County, vice H. E. Baker, resigned; John D. Gillilan, Delmar, Coos County, vice Lemuel V. Cole, resigned; Araminta E. Phillips, Gooch, Lane County, vice F. P. Huntress, resigned; Nettie A. Ryerson, McKee, Marion County, vice G. A. Lincoln, resigned; Mrs. Minnie B. Smith, Paradise, Wallowa County, vice C. S. McConnell, resigned; Xeno E. Littlefield, Skull Springs, Malheur County, vice Esther Elliott, resigned; Earl R. Goun, Umapine, Umatilla County, new office.

HOSPITAL HEAD WILL WED Miss Jean Sharp Goes to Washington to Become Lieutenant's Bride.

Miss Jean Sharp, who for the past five years has been in charge of the Sellwood General Hospital, resigned from that place this week and left for Washington, D. C., where she will be married to Lieutenant Frank Beason, of the United States Army.

Miss Louise Flanders, of the class of 1915, has succeeded Miss Sharp as superintendent of this hospital. Miss Flanders is well known. In the state board of examinations for nurses last year she attained the highest standing of all the applicants.

Woman Found Murdered. SEATTLE, June 17.—Mrs. Blanche R. Coleman, aged 27, was found dead in her apartment in the Christie Hotel this morning, with her throat cut by a knife. John Soudas, proprietor of a small cigar store in Westlake avenue, was arrested shortly afterward.

OFFICIAL WAR REPORTS

French. PARIS, June 17.—The text of today's official communication by the War Office is:

"In Belgium there was last night a fairly intense artillery duel in the sector of Lombartzyde.

"On the left bank of the Meuse German attacks with hand grenades on the redoubt at Avocourt and on our advanced posts west of rail No. 304 were easily repulsed. There has been an intense bombardment of our positions at Dead Man Hill, but without any infantry action.

"On the right bank of the river there has been violent artillery fighting in the sector north of Fleury.

"In the Vosges, following a violent bombardment on the part of our artillery directed against the German works at Hill No. 423, east of Thanne, a detachment of our infantry penetrated to the first and to the second German lines, which were cleaned up. The French detachment returned without any losses and brought with it some prisoners.

"In the night of June 16-17 three aeroplanes of the enemy bombarded the region of Dunirk. There were no victims and the material damages were slight. At about 8 o'clock this same night Bar-le-Duc was bombarded by enemy aeroplanes. Four persons were killed among the population and about 15 were wounded. Later in the evening some bombs were thrown down on Pont-a-Mousson by German aviators, but they did no damage.

"In the night of June 16-17 a French bombardier squadron threw down 29 shells of 12 kilos each, and four of 155 kilos each upon the railroad station at Louvigny, Mont Medy and Audun le Roman.

Tonight's supplementary statement says: "On the left bank of the Meuse the bombardment continued against our first lines on Hill No. 304 and our second lines in the region of Chattanpourt.

"On the right bank an attack by our troops against the German positions north of Hill No. 321 enabled us this morning to take several elements of trenches and capture about 30 prisoners. During the day there was a violent artillery action in the sector south of Port Yaux.

"In the forest of Apremont, grenade fighting occurred. Our artillery bombarded German camps and organizations at Montsee, east of St. Mihiel. One of our long range guns shelled a station at Vigneuilles-Les-Hattontchatel, where a fire broke out.

"Aviation—Bar le Duc was bombarded anew. The bombs dropped caused damage of little military importance. Several persons are reported wounded.

Austrian. BERLIN, June 17.—The text of the official Austrian statement, received here today from Vienna, is:

"On the Western front our troops repulsed the enemy's cavalry. Further to the east there were only small engagements in this district.

"West of Vukovatz Russian attacks against our positions are in progress. Two officers and 400 Russians remained in the hands of our troops near Tarnopol there were no special events.

"On the whole Volhynian front new combats have been started. On the Stokhod and the Styre several enemy attempts to cross the river failed. The enemy suffered heavy losses.

"Italian front—Enemy attacks on the southern front, near the Dolomites, were repulsed. Repeated Italian attacks against several of our positions on the Dolomites likewise failed.

"On the Asiago plateau there were spirited artillery duels.

"In the Orlier district our troops conquered the enemy on several points of the summit of the hindmost Madatsch.

German. BERLIN, June 17.—The text of today's official report, issued from army headquarters, is:

"Western theater—A French patrol attack near Beaulne, north of the Aisne, was easily repulsed.

"In the Meuse district the activity of the artillery continued with considerable strength.

"In the Vosges we inflicted considerable losses on the enemy by an expedition northeast of Colles, and we repulsed a minor detachment west of Sennheim, which had succeeded in penetrating, temporarily, our trenches.

"Our squadron dropped bombs freely at points of military importance in Bergues (French Flanders), in Bar-le-Duc and in the sector of Dombasle, Eville, Lunville and Blainville.

"Eastern theater—General von Linsingen's army—fighting has developed in the Stokhod and Styre sectors.

"Parts of the army of General Count von Bothmer engaged in battle north of Przewloka.

Turkish. CONSTANTINOPLE, June 17.—The official statement issued today from Army Headquarters says:

"Iraq front—The British attempted to land on the northern bank of the Euphrates between Korna and Nesselburg, but were forced to retreat. Rumors are rife that the entente ultimatum, which is expected to be delivered Monday, may present an alternative to compliance with its demands the rupture of diplomatic relations between the entente allies and Greece. It is not thought that the Greek Cabinet can long stand the pressure.

"The lack of breadstuffs in the outer districts of Greece and in not readily accessible parts of the kingdom is already causing disturbances, although the government insists that it has available wheat supply at Piraeus is sufficient for more than a month.

MARSHFIELD LODGE MEETS Pythians Have Banquet for Visiting Grand Chancellor.

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—The oldest lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Oregon, Myrtle Lodge, No. 3, of this city, was visited Thursday evening by the visiting Grand Chancellor of the order in Oregon, Willard L. Marks, of Albany. This lodge was the third Pythian Lodge established in the state and the two older ones have been changed by consolidation, so this is the oldest which holds its original charter.

George Ross, past grand master-at-arms of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, presided at the meeting, and E. A. Anderson, one of the veterans of the lodge, officiated as toastmaster at the banquet.

BOAT STEWARD FINED $250 J. L. Nicholas Confesses Sale of Liquor Aboard Beaver.

KALAMA, Wash., June 17.—(Special.)—Today in the Superior Court J. L. Nicholas, steward of the river steamer boat Beaver, which operates from Portland to Clatskanie, pleaded guilty to an information filed by Prosecuting Attorney Homer Kirby and was fined $250 for selling liquor, the court being lenient on account of the confession of defendant.

and Farmans dropped 150 bombs and 60,000 arrows on enemy encampments north of Asiago and in the Nov Valley. The whole squadron returned safely. Two hostile machines were brought down.

British. LONDON, June 17.—The British official statement issued tonight reads:

"There was considerable amount of activity last night on various parts of our front. The enemy bombarded our trenches vigorously from many points from the river Bouve to Wietle about midnight. This bombardment was accompanied by two ineffective discharges of gas westward of Vimy Ridge. There was no infantry attack.

"Farther south we carried out two successful attacks on the German positions near Haulbach, one near the River Lys, the second near Givenchy. In both cases our parties accomplished some useful bombing, returning safely. Near Haulbach, moreover, we exploded mines with success.

"Today has been devoid of any particular incident except a serious damage to the enemy's underground workings.

Saturday's War Moves THE drive of the Russian offensive in Volhynia, Galicia, and Bukovina shows little slackening in power, although the forward progress of General Brusiloff's armies apparently is much less rapid than in the early stages of the campaign.

From the Volhynian triangle fortress the Russians have thrust sharply to the west and southwest. In the former direction they are battering on the Austrian defensive line along the Styre and the Stokhod, not more than 30 miles from Kovel, the important railway junction essential to close connection between the southern front armies and those to the north.

In the latter direction they have scored new progress and now are close to the Galician border, pushing down the railway from Dubno. The current Russian official statement reports the occupation of Radslowo, less than 10 miles from Brody, across the frontier line and approximately 80 miles northwest of Lemberg, the Galician capital, the Russian objective in this drive. Berlin records the participation of German troops in the fighting against the Russians, reporting General von Linsingen's forces engaged in the Stokhod Styre sector and others under General Count von Bothmer taking part in the battles north of Trzevovka.

On the Western front the fighting at Verdun has again been left to the artillery for the most part. The Germans are violently shelling French positions in the Dead Man Hill section and incidentally have made hand grenade attacks in this vicinity, which Paris declares were futile.

Rome announces an important success northeast of Asiago, in the Trentino, where several positions at the head of the Frenzela Valley were captured by the Italian army.

Vienna reports the failure of Italian attacks in the Dolomites and likewise the failure of the Austrian lines on the Doberdo Plateau.

Airmen have been unusually active on the various fronts. Austrian aviators raided Padua, and other Italian towns near by; German machines have dropped bombs freely on several points of military importance along the western front, including Bar-le-Duc and Lunville, and a French air squadron has bombarded various railroad stations behind the German lines. Italian aeroplanes also have been busy, one squadron of 37 machines dropping projectiles on Austrian encampments north of Asiago.

Constantinople announces the disorderly retreat of British forces which were defeated in attempting to cross the Euphrates River, in Mesopotamia, and the driving back of Russian troops which appeared on the Persian frontier, near Bana.

An attack by three torpedo-boats of the entente allies on the Austrian seaport of Piraeus, in Isthmia, has failed, according to Vienna, Austrian coast batteries and aeroplanes driving off the hostile craft.

With such achievements the breeders of Yamhill County believe that their undertaking to conduct a big livestock and breeders' exhibit each year will meet with general approval, and will merit the support and co-operation of the various interests of the state. Tentative plans for next year's show now are being considered. It is possible that two days' show will be held and special buildings will be erected for the exhibits and entertainment features.

Big Picnic Given. For today's gathering the stores of Carlton closed early and the entire population turned out to enjoy a picnic in the oak grove at the edge of the town tables were improvised for the accommodation of about 1200 persons. When lunch was served at 1 o'clock several hundred visitors were unable to get seats, but they enjoyed the picnic just as keenly.

W. H. Dennis, president of the Carlton Board of Trade, was in charge, and as toastmaster kept things a-humming until the end of the program.

When Governor Withycombe was introduced as the "peerless farmer," he was given a big ovation. The Governor highly praised the residents of Carlton and the stockmen of the community for their enterprising spirit, and in conclusion said:

"No country can equal the Willamette Valley and there is no finer district than this. Yamhill County is blessed with the finest natural advantages. You have achieved great things in the production of fine livestock. You will prosper in a still greater degree when

Carlton Has Advantages. Yamhill County, particularly the Carlton district, is especially favored for its ideal conditions for stock raising and breeding. Rare climatic conditions, abundance of pure water and the excellence of forage are among the advantages that may be emphasized. These advantages were fully recognized years ago, and the leaders in the movement for high-strain stock are about to get results. With their initiative and special training they are succeeding in remarkable degree, and the whole state is receiving great benefit from their efforts.

With such achievements the breeders of Yamhill County believe that their undertaking to conduct a big livestock and breeders' exhibit each year will meet with general approval, and will merit the support and co-operation of the various interests of the state. Tentative plans for next year's show now are being considered. It is possible that two days' show will be held and special buildings will be erected for the exhibits and entertainment features.

Big Picnic Given. For today's gathering the stores of Carlton closed early and the entire population turned out to enjoy a picnic in the oak grove at the edge of the town tables were improvised for the accommodation of about 1200 persons. When lunch was served at 1 o'clock several hundred visitors were unable to get seats, but they enjoyed the picnic just as keenly.

W. H. Dennis, president of the Carlton Board of Trade, was in charge, and as toastmaster kept things a-humming until the end of the program.

When Governor Withycombe was introduced as the "peerless farmer," he was given a big ovation. The Governor highly praised the residents of Carlton and the stockmen of the community for their enterprising spirit, and in conclusion said:

"No country can equal the Willamette Valley and there is no finer district than this. Yamhill County is blessed with the finest natural advantages. You have achieved great things in the production of fine livestock. You will prosper in a still greater degree when

Carlton Has Advantages. Yamhill County, particularly the Carlton district, is especially favored for its ideal conditions for stock raising and breeding. Rare climatic conditions, abundance of pure water and the excellence of forage are among the advantages that may be emphasized. These advantages were fully recognized years ago, and the leaders in the movement for high-strain stock are about to get results. With their initiative and special training they are succeeding in remarkable degree, and the whole state is receiving great benefit from their efforts.

With such achievements the breeders of Yamhill County believe that their undertaking to conduct a big livestock and breeders' exhibit each year will meet with general approval, and will merit the support and co-operation of the various interests of the state. Tentative plans for next year's show now are being considered. It is possible that two days' show will be held and special buildings will be erected for the exhibits and entertainment features.

Big Picnic Given. For today's gathering the stores of Carlton closed early and the entire population turned out to enjoy a picnic in the oak grove at the edge of the town tables were improvised for the accommodation of about 1200 persons. When lunch was served at 1 o'clock several hundred visitors were unable to get seats, but they enjoyed the picnic just as keenly.

W. H. Dennis, president of the Carlton Board of Trade, was in charge, and as toastmaster kept things a-humming until the end of the program.

When Governor Withycombe was introduced as the "peerless farmer," he was given a big ovation. The Governor highly praised the residents of Carlton and the stockmen of the community for their enterprising spirit, and in conclusion said:

"No country can equal the Willamette Valley and there is no finer district than this. Yamhill County is blessed with the finest natural advantages. You have achieved great things in the production of fine livestock. You will prosper in a still greater degree when

Carlton Has Advantages. Yamhill County, particularly the Carlton district, is especially favored for its ideal conditions for stock raising and breeding. Rare climatic conditions, abundance of pure water and the excellence of forage are among the advantages that may be emphasized. These advantages were fully recognized years ago, and the leaders in the movement for high-strain stock are about to get results. With their initiative and special training they are succeeding in remarkable degree, and the whole state is receiving great benefit from their efforts.

CARLTON HAS FIRST LIVESTOCK EXHIBIT

Big Picnic Is Feature, but Plan Is Fostered for Annual Stock Show.

GOVERNOR MAKES SPEECH

Achievement of Breeders in Producing Fine Cattle Is Lauded by Executive, Who Says Yamhill County Leads State.

CARLTON, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—The first annual stockbreeders' picnic and livestock exhibit held here today jointly by stockmen of the vicinity of Carlton and the Carlton Board of Trade attracted nearly 2000 persons. Breeders and stockmen from various sections of the Willamette Valley were present, and several Portland stock fanciers were noted among the crowds. The day was perfect for the occasion, and with a splendid program of speaking and entertainment the affair proved a big success.

But it was more than an outing and meat-your-neighbor affair. In reality, it was an event of significance, as it marked the inauguration of an annual livestock and breeders' exhibit, which should become second only in importance to the International Livestock Show that is held annually in Portland.

Yamhill County Leads. Why should not the people of Yamhill County conduct an annual exhibit on an extensive scale? Are not the stockmen of Yamhill County entitled to special recognition for the strides they have made in stockbreeding? Anyone who is familiar with livestock facts knows that there is no county in miles from Brody, across the frontier line and approximately 80 miles northwest of Lemberg, the Galician capital, the Russian objective in this drive. Berlin records the participation of German troops in the fighting against the Russians, reporting General von Linsingen's forces engaged in the Stokhod Styre sector and others under General Count von Bothmer taking part in the battles north of Trzevovka.

On the Western front the fighting at Verdun has again been left to the artillery for the most part. The Germans are violently shelling French positions in the Dead Man Hill section and incidentally have made hand grenade attacks in this vicinity, which Paris declares were futile.

Rome announces an important success northeast of Asiago, in the Trentino, where several positions at the head of the Frenzela Valley were captured by the Italian army.

Vienna reports the failure of Italian attacks in the Dolomites and likewise the failure of the Austrian lines on the Doberdo Plateau.

Airmen have been unusually active on the various fronts. Austrian aviators raided Padua, and other Italian towns near by; German machines have dropped bombs freely on several points of military importance along the western front, including Bar-le-Duc and Lunville, and a French air squadron has bombarded various railroad stations behind the German lines. Italian aeroplanes also have been busy, one squadron of 37 machines dropping projectiles on Austrian encampments north of Asiago.

Constantinople announces the disorderly retreat of British forces which were defeated in attempting to cross the Euphrates River, in Mesopotamia, and the driving back of Russian troops which appeared on the Persian frontier, near Bana.

An attack by three torpedo-boats of the entente allies on the Austrian seaport of Piraeus, in Isthmia, has failed, according to Vienna, Austrian coast batteries and aeroplanes driving off the hostile craft.

With such achievements the breeders of Yamhill County believe that their undertaking to conduct a big livestock and breeders' exhibit each year will meet with general approval, and will merit the support and co-operation of the various interests of the state. Tentative plans for next year's show now are being considered. It is possible that two days' show will be held and special buildings will be erected for the exhibits and entertainment features.

Big Picnic Given. For today's gathering the stores of Carlton closed early and the entire population turned out to enjoy a picnic in the oak grove at the edge of the town tables were improvised for the accommodation of about 1200 persons. When lunch was served at 1 o'clock several hundred visitors were unable to get seats, but they enjoyed the picnic just as keenly.

W. H. Dennis, president of the Carlton Board of Trade, was in charge, and as toastmaster kept things a-humming until the end of the program.

When Governor Withycombe was introduced as the "peerless farmer," he was given a big ovation. The Governor highly praised the residents of Carlton and the stockmen of the community for their enterprising spirit, and in conclusion said:

"No country can equal the Willamette Valley and there is no finer district than this. Yamhill County is blessed with the finest natural advantages. You have achieved great things in the production of fine livestock. You will prosper in a still greater degree when

Carlton Has Advantages. Yamhill County, particularly the Carlton district, is especially favored for its ideal conditions for stock raising and breeding. Rare climatic conditions, abundance of pure water and the excellence of forage are among the advantages that may be emphasized. These advantages were fully recognized years ago, and the leaders in the movement for high-strain stock are about to get results. With their initiative and special training they are succeeding in remarkable degree, and the whole state is receiving great benefit from their efforts.

With such achievements the breeders of Yamhill County believe that their undertaking to conduct a big livestock and breeders' exhibit each year will meet with general approval, and will merit the support and co-operation of the various interests of the state. Tentative plans for next year's show now are being considered. It is possible that two days' show will be held and special buildings will be erected for the exhibits and entertainment features.

Big Picnic Given. For today's gathering the stores of Carlton closed early and the entire population turned out to enjoy a picnic in the oak grove at the edge of the town tables were improvised for the accommodation of about 1200 persons. When lunch was served at 1 o'clock several hundred visitors were unable to get seats, but they enjoyed the picnic just as keenly.

W. H. Dennis, president of the Carlton Board of Trade, was in charge, and as toastmaster kept things a-humming until the end of the program.

When Governor Withycombe was introduced as the "peerless farmer," he was given a big ovation. The Governor highly praised the residents of Carlton and the stockmen of the community for their enterprising spirit, and in conclusion said:

"No country can equal the Willamette Valley and there is no finer district than this. Yamhill County is blessed with the finest natural advantages. You have achieved great things in the production of fine livestock. You will prosper in a still greater degree when

Carlton Has Advantages. Yamhill County, particularly the Carlton district, is especially favored for its ideal conditions for stock raising and breeding. Rare climatic conditions, abundance of pure water and the excellence of forage are among the advantages that may be emphasized. These advantages were fully recognized years ago, and the leaders in the movement for high-strain stock are about to get results. With their initiative and special training they are succeeding in remarkable degree, and the whole state is receiving great benefit from their efforts.

With such achievements the breeders of Yamhill County believe that their undertaking to conduct a big livestock and breeders' exhibit each year will meet with general approval, and will merit the support and co-operation of the various interests of the state. Tentative plans for next year's show now are being considered. It is possible that two days' show will be held and special buildings will be erected for the exhibits and entertainment features.

Big Picnic Given. For today's gathering the stores of Carlton closed early and the entire population turned out to enjoy a picnic in the oak grove at the edge of the town tables were improvised for the accommodation of about 1200 persons. When lunch was served at 1 o'clock several hundred visitors were unable to get seats, but they enjoyed the picnic just as keenly.

W. H. Dennis, president of the Carlton Board of Trade, was in charge, and as toastmaster kept things a-humming until the end of the program.

When Governor Withycombe was introduced as the "peerless farmer," he was given a big ovation. The Governor highly praised the residents of Carlton and the stockmen of the community for their enterprising spirit, and in conclusion said:

"No country can equal the Willamette Valley and there is no finer district than this. Yamhill County is blessed with the finest natural advantages. You have achieved great things in the production of fine livestock. You will prosper in a still greater degree when

Carlton Has Advantages. Yamhill County, particularly the Carlton district, is especially favored for its ideal conditions for stock raising and breeding. Rare climatic conditions, abundance of pure water and the excellence of forage are among the advantages that may be emphasized. These advantages were fully recognized years ago, and the leaders in the movement for high-strain stock are about to get results. With their initiative and special training they are succeeding in remarkable degree, and the whole state is receiving great benefit from their efforts.

You like to wear the Clothes good dressers choose— invariably, they choose ours. Stein-Bloch and Fashion Clothes for men — Guaranteed dyes — $20 to $35

Ben Selling Morrison at Fourth

Advertisement for 'THE THREE GODFATHERS' at the Strand Theatre. Includes text: 'NEW SHOW TODAY', 'EVERY PATRON OF THE STRAND IS A WALKING ADVERTISEMENT STRAND', 'HARRY D. CAREY and STELLA RAZETO', 'THREE OLD SOLDIERS LA FLEUR VERNON Co.', 'DAVIS and KITTY HOWE and HOWE'. Also features a circular logo with 'ALL SEAT ANY TIME' and a small illustration of a man.