

SHRINERS' FILM TO BE SEEN AT HELIG

Chief Scenic Points of Columbia River Highway Will Be Reproduced.

SHOW ON TWO NIGHTS

Following Exhibition of Nobles of Al Kader in Action, Stage Will Be Cleared and Dance Will Be Given.

The sands of the desert are triumphantly agitated. Arises now the pattern of the caravan, its course directed toward the portals of the Helig Theater. Portland may well mark its passage, for the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, Al Kader Temple, are entering the lists of local entertainment. With them they bear 3000 feet of fine film, celebrating the scenic glories of the Columbia River Highway, the manifold attractions of their home city, and the joyous antics of the Shriners at play.

Portland Shriners will entertain at the Helig on the nights of Wednesday and Thursday, June 23 and 24. With characteristic disregard they have cut free from the prescribed and commonplace routine of amusement, and the twin evenings they offer to the public are declared to be without parallel in novelty.

Band to Give Concerts.

To introduce auspiciously the programme at 8:15 on each evening, the Shriners' band will open at the Helig with a concert of several numbers. And then, for the first public exhibition, the screen will record 3000 feet of unusually excellent film.

The film deserves something more than a mere airing up by linear measurement. It portrays the recent pleasant pilgrimage of the Shriners along the Columbia River Highway, when 300 nobles of Al Kader Temple deserted dignity and posed for the camera man against the wonderful scenic backgrounds of Crown Point, Onocota Gorge and Multnomah Falls.

Nobles of the Mystic Shrine were frankish boys again on that pilgrimage, and Portland will laugh in appreciation of the incidents caught by the camera man. Mayor Albee and Commissioner Baker, for instance, splashing water as reckless of appearance and apparel as when two uplifted fingers meant "go in swimming." Then the raid of the furnished up on the commissary, which was provisioned for scarce a third of that number. And through all the scenes appear the Shriners in uniform, rolling up the trail back of the falls, marching across the foot bridge at the lower falls, and generally projecting their noble and lively presence in every scene.

Portland Scenes Included.

The fairy review of Portland school children in the May spectacle on Multnomah Field, thousands of little folk swaying in unison as garden in the breeze; striking sections of the floral and children's parades of the recent Rose Festival; various views of Portland's beautiful residences; street scenes in the City of Roses—all these, and more, will comprise the units of the Shriners' film.

The spacious stage of the Helig will be transformed to a dancing floor on both evenings. Workmen are now engaged in the clearing up of the surface that will accommodate at least 200 couples. So, when the 60 minutes of pictures have whirled pleasantly by, the curtains will rise on a scene that has never before decked a Portland stage. To the enticing pergoia disclosed the audience will be invited—may, urged, to the city will respond to may dance, while the nobles of Al Kader temple constitute themselves a genial society over all the lightsome preparations of the Shriners—looms the purpose of Al Kader Temple. And that purpose is the securing of the Imperial Council Session of Shriners for Portland in 1919.

Imperial Session Is Sought.

The Shriners are insistent that their invitation is all-embracing. For two evenings they purpose to play host to Portland, and the desirability of Portland to the certainty of such happy hospitality.

Back of the great film—destined to be famous; beyond the novelty of the Helig dance; over all the lightsome preparations of the Shriners—looms the purpose of Al Kader Temple. And that purpose is the securing of the Imperial Council Session of Shriners for Portland in 1919.

Next month the Portland Shriners will attend the meeting of the Imperial Council of North America at Buffalo. As the heaviest gun in their campaign for the selection of Portland in 1919 they will resort to the Buffalo picture machine. Each evening during their Buffalo sojourn the 3000-foot film shown at the Helig will be presented on the streets of Portland, with a scraper for a screen. During the afternoon the film will be shown in the auditorium of a hotel.

Film to Advertise City.

When reinforced by the persuasive palaver of the Portland delegation, the filmed argument is confidently relied upon to impress the Imperial Council Session with the desirability of Portland for the 1919 gathering. The members of the committee and delegates in charge of the Buffalo picture machine, George W. Stapleton, H. T. Hutchinson, J. H. Hall and William Davis.

Whether or not Portland secures the Imperial Council Session, it is apparent that the city and state will be incalculably benefited by the publicity afforded through the efforts of Al Kader Temple.

Wherefore, as a matter of loyalty, with the comforting assurance that the duty will prove anything but irksome, Portlanders are urged not to fail in attendance at the Helig on the nights of Wednesday and Thursday next.

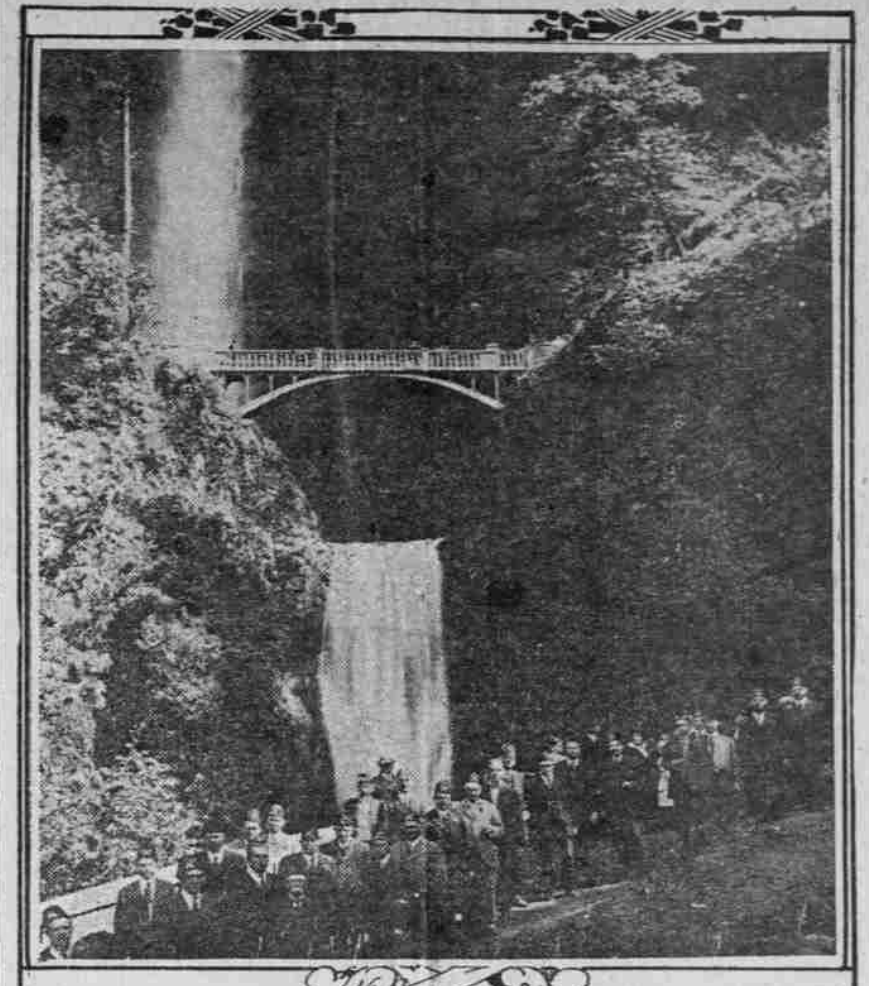

WORK SOUGHT FOR NEEDY

Juvenile Court Is Trying to Aid Widows With Families.

Positions are being sought for widows with families by the mothers' pension department of the Juvenile Court. An appeal was made by Mrs. K. H. Maguire, who assists James Cassidy in this division of county work, for clerical positions for some of the dependent widows. A few weeks ago work only for half days. A boy of 16 needs employment. His mother is a widow. A boy of 15 years wants work as an errand boy or other position suitable for his age.

A widow with a child 3 years old wishes a position as housekeeper, preferably for an elderly woman. This woman is reliable and had good references. Those knowing of such positions open have been requested to telephone Mrs. Maguire at Marshall 5409 or A 5762.

ALLEGED SLUGGERS HELD

DETECTIVES CHARGE THREE UNION MEN WITH ASSAULTS.

Steamboat Men Say They Were Hired by Leader in Glazier's Strike to Attack Workmen.

The arrest of Irvin Schwarzfager, 21, and Charles Carlton, 24, by City Detectives Tichenor and Hill, is held by the police to completely solve the identity of the men who recently attacked employees of the Central Door & Lumber Company, as well as to implicate Claude Lacom, foremost figure in the striking glaziers' union.

According to admissions said to have been made to the officers, Schwarzfager and Carlton both assert that they were paid $5 by Lacom to commit the assault on the employees of the Central Door & Lumber Company, a fortnight ago. The men who were beaten are:

COLUMBIAN HIGH SCHOOL HAS FIRST GRADUATE

Miss Clara B. Lowley, Clara B. Lowley has the honor of being the first graduate of Columbian High School, the first union high school in Multnomah County. Exercises were held in the high school building Friday evening. An address was given by Earl Kilpatrick, of the Extension Department of the University of Oregon. Superintendent Armstrong also spoke. A. R. Toljofson is principal. The school work during the term has gone on successfully, and many students of the community have been enrolled. A high average and splendid scholarship records were made.

MISS MARY L. HINTON THOUGHT VICTIM OF VERTIGO.

Young Woman, Ill for Some Time, Presumably Inspecting Flowers on Fourth-Floor Veranda.

An instant after she stepped out on the fourth-floor balcony of the Highland Court apartments, Twenty-second and Gisan streets, yesterday at 11 A. M., Miss Mary L. Hinton, 20 years old, fell to the pavement beneath, meeting almost instant death.

There were no witnesses to the plunge, but it is presumed that the young woman was inspecting flowers on the balcony when overcome by vertigo. M. S. Merryfield, the janitor, and his wife were standing near the spot where she fell. The victim was at once taken by the ambulance service to the Good Samaritan Hospital, but died in the elevator as she was being conveyed to the surgical room. Her skull was fractured and other fatal injuries were sustained.

Deputy Coroner Smith investigated the accident and conveyed the body to the Holman undertaking parlors, where funeral arrangements will be made.

Miss Hinton was the daughter of Richard R. Hinton, wealthy stockman of Shaniko, Or., who has made his home in this city a portion of the time. The family resided at the Highland Court apartments. Until six months ago the young woman attended St. Helens's Hall, but was compelled at that time to discontinue her studies by reason of failing health.

KELLY CLAN MEETS

Annual Reunion of Members of Pioneer Family Held.

75 RELATIVES ATTEND

Penumbra Kelly, Chieftain of Clan, in His Address, Urges Hearers to Maintain High Standard Set by Pioneer Fathers.

"I extend greetings to the members of the clan and am thankful that I am permitted again to be present at a reunion," said Penumbra Kelly, chieftain of the Kelly Clan, speaking yesterday at the reunion held at the home of P. J. Kelly, 1005 East Twenty-eighth street. He is very feeble, and delivered his address lying down. He said he had little hope of ever attending another reunion, but was grateful that he was permitted to be present.

"It should be our endeavor," said Chieftain Kelly, "ever to maintain the high standard set by our pioneer fathers, and so live that our lives may benefit those about us."

Year's Chronicles Are Read.

Then came the reading of the chronicles of the past year, which were as follows:

"Last August Rev. Charles T. Hurd, formerly assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and family moved to Klamath Falls, where he is now pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

"The history of the Eastern Kellys, compiled three years ago by the historian, was published last winter in Steubenville, Ky., by Annette Kelly.

"Amy Alva Kelly and Ralph Samuel Marzani were married June 5, 1915, in Alhambra, Cal.

"Addie M. Calvin and David E. Stiner were married in Portland April 15, 1915. They have made their home in Grangeville, Idaho.

"Emerson Kelly died in August, 1915, in Northern California.

"The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Truman died in Portland in June, 1915.

Five Births Recorded.

"Born, July 21, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ormandy, of Portland, a daughter.

"Born, December 8, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Povey, a son, the name being Neal Page Povey.

"Born, September 20, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hendricks, a daughter.

"Born, June 22, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Foster, of Portland, a son.

"Born, November 11, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kelly, of Gresham, a son.

Four Are Graduates.

"Beattie Howitt graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College; Laura Kelly, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. Kelly, from Reed College; Mildred Hawes, from the Lincoln High School, she being awarded a Reed College scholarship and German prize; Howard Judy graduated from the University of California.

Letters were read from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Land, of Arlington, Or., and from Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crane, of Havana, the latter being voted membership into the clan.

The closing invitation to hold the next reunion at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richmond Kelly. The secretary was instructed to get in touch with the Kellys of North Yakima and elsewhere.

The usual big dinner was served. The afternoon was passed in games and music. About 75 attended. Addresses of the Bozorth pioneers were received from A. N. Willis.

MEDFORD MAKES PLANS

Civic Programme Outlined and Beet Sugar Factory Assured.

MEDFORD, Or., June 24.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Medford Commercial Club, the Merchants' Association and the Jackson County Fair Association, new directors of the fair association were named. It was decided to support the Medford city band and to continue the illumination of the city streets on Saturday night.

A report was made that satisfactory progress is being made on the establishment of a beet sugar factory in Sams Valley. Sixteen thousand acres have been signed up for the project and, with 4000 more acres, the factory will be assured, according to W. J. Dresser, who represents the Eastern syndicate in Southern Oregon.

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE ENGAGED.

Miss Elsie McLynn, daughter of Mrs. George McLynn, and a recent Washington High School graduate, was engaged to Mr. Aaron H. Gould, Jr., of Portland.

The guests were: Mrs. Walter Dicken, Mrs. Arthur Craig, Mrs. W. Reese, Misses Abby Lyman, Dorothy Connell, Ruth Connell, Victoria Cahill, Berly Camp, Marie Shogren and Marguerite Hale.

Miss McLynn is the daughter of Mrs. George McLynn, and a recent Washington High School graduate.

Mr. Gould is a University of Oregon man and a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

ELDERLY MAN SEEKS WORK

Couple Facing Poverty Through Stress of Circumstances.

An elderly couple is facing abject poverty. The illness of the wife has brought the case to the attention of the Associated Charities, which is attempting to obtain employment for the man. He is honest, capable and intelligent, and would like a position as a watchman, cashier or doing any light work. He has recommendations and is an old Portland resident.

Many years ago the couple bought a home in Portland. An unsuccessful loan resulted in a mortgage on the place and foreclosure threatened. Information regarding work for either or both should be telephoned to the Associated Charities.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR THE LATE SAMUEL R. STOTT WERE HELD FRIDAY MORNING AT FINLEY'S CHAPEL, REV. C. E. CLINE OFFICIATING.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hamilton sang "Love My Soul" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Mr. Stott was a native of Oregon, 61 years of age. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. F. W. Thompson, two nieces, Mrs. John E. Cronan and Dr. Catherine Myers, and a nephew, Plowden Stott, all of the city. The body was taken to Gaston, where interment was made. The pallbearers were: Frank S. Myers, Plowden Stott, F. B. Miller, Planning Stott, Chris Castens and Harry Miller.

DOCTORS GO HOME

Specialists Are Amazed by Trip Over Highway.

DR. HORN WINS CHECK

Prize Money to Be Used for Further Research Work—Election Makes Spokane Physician President of Association.

Members of the Pacific Coast Oto-Ophthalmological Society resident in other cities on the Coast left for their homes last night, following the final session of the annual meeting late yesterday, fully convinced that in the possession of the Columbia River Highway, Portland may lay claim to the most unique scenic attraction on the continent.

California and British Columbia delegates alike were loud in their praises of the Highway and all told of their pleasure in going over it. It was an immense surprise to the visitors. They had expected nothing like it. A trip over the road on Friday, with dinner at Chanticleer inn, proved a revelation.

The closing session yesterday included election of officers for the coming year, as follows: President, C. A. Venable, Spokane; first vice-president, Dr. P. A. Jordan, San Jose; secretary, Dr. Frank A. Burton, San Diego; secretary-treasurer, Dr. L. D. Green, San Francisco. Spokane was selected for the next meeting.

A feature of the afternoon meeting was the presentation of a generous check to Dr. Henry Horn, of San Francisco, for the best paper of the convention, with respect to original research. Dr. Horn's paper was given on Wednesday, being a contribution to the bacteriology of the cocco-bacillus foetius oesoniae, Perez.

Dr. Horn expressed his thanks and said that the check would be expended in the further exploration of the habits of the bacillus, which he has designated as foetius oesoniae.

Valuable papers on technical subjects were read both yesterday morning and afternoon. They were listened to carefully by members of the profession in attendance and each was followed by a discussion.

Specialists who gave papers yesterday were: Dr. Laurence Selling, Portland; Dr. H. B. Graham, San Francisco; Dr. F. R. Hampton, Salt Lake City; Dr. Frank W. Hilscher, Spokane; Dr. F. B. Kistner, Portland, and Dr. E. De Witt Connell, Portland.

The Salem chapter of the Indiana State Society will be host to an all-Oregon gathering of "Hoosiers" July 4. Band music, a programme of vocal and instrumental music and speeches by prominent men will be given. Arrangements have been made to entertain about 400 persons. Rev. F. T. Porter is chairman.

Fire Engines Collide.

While answering an alarm at 24 1/2 Columbia street yesterday engine 10, with a tractor steam trailer, collided with chemical engine 1. The damages were slight. The fire proved to be but a smouldering blaze in an attic closet and was extinguished in a few minutes. The damage to the house is estimated at $50.

Drink or Drug Habits Destroyed in Few Days

The Modern Neal Treatment for the drink habit strikes at the root of the trouble. The Neal Remedies eliminate the poison and neutralize its poisonous effects in three days.

The Neal Remedies are harmless vegetable compounds, administered internally—no hypodermic injections. Opium, morphine, cocaine, other narcotic drugs, are, like alcohol, accumulative poisons. Remove the poison from the body tissues and you destroy the habit.

The Neal Treatment for drugs requires from ten days to three weeks to get results.

There is no restraint and no heroic, unpleasant methods used.
