LAND COMMISSIONERS OUT

H. Q. Hale, However, Is Reinstated on Reported Promise That He Will Resign Later—Progressives to Have No Tickets.

BOISE, Idaho, June 24.—(Special.)—The direct primary law will draw the fire of platform conventions to be held in this city Tuesday.

It will be the Republican state platform convention that will demand sweeping changes in the law.

Progressive Split Forecast. While the Republican and Democratic state platform conventions are in session here the Progressive party will probably not exercise its right to promulgate a platform.

Party leaders say it is reasonably certain that the Bull Moose party will not attempt to put a state or county ticket in the field.

Clean Sweep Move in Demand. The demand for a "clean sweep" for the Republican state ticket is growing in Idaho.

Careful Selection Advised. After he returned from Chicago E. H. Dewey declared that the members of the Republican party in Idaho should endeavor to induce strong, upright men of ability, to run for state offices this coming election.

Land Commissioner Resigns. State Chairman Evans has called a meeting of the state committee for Boise on the date of the platform convention, June 27.
