NANCY JOHNSON, 6 YEARS OLD, EN TERTAINS AT PIANO.

Precocious Youngster Plays 8 Num bers From Memory-Repertoire Embraces Difficult Pieces.

Little Miss Nancy Johnson, daughter 351 Wheeler street, gave a piano recital Monday evening at her home, her ing her relatives and a few of the neighbors. The occasion was notable for the reason that Miss Nancy is less than three months past her sixth birthday, which occurred May 28.

She began picking out tunes unassisted on the plane before she was three years old. tember last she began taking music lessons, her teacher being Miss Isabel Clark, and so rapidly did she learn that at the recital she played the eight numbers without looking at the music. Her repertoire embraces many more very difficult selections. She has never been to school, does not even know her alphabet, but can read music rapidly and correctly. The following is the programme she rendered: "The Secret," (Porter): "An Exercise," (Porter): "An Exercise," rendered: "The Secret," (Porter); "An Exercise," (Porter); "An Exercise," (Porter); "The Sad Child," (Porter); "The Boatman's Song," (Mrs. Crawford, Nancy and Eleanor Johnson);
