

PLAN TO ATTRACT INDUSTRIES READY

East Side Business Men's Club Prepares Programme After Thorough Study.

$500,000 FUND SOUGHT

Money Is to Be Administered by Committee Who Will Sell Without Pay—All Details of Plan Are Worked Out.

The plan for an industrial loan fund for the establishment of many new industries here is being worked out by the East Side Business Men's Club, a committee having been employed for several months with investigations of sites and enterprises carried on in Eastern cities.

A prospectus drawn up by the committee shows a plan whereby Portland could be made a larger manufacturing and shipping center. Merchants are to be enlisted in the new fund, and the committee has made investigations intended to prove the benefits to be obtained.

The plan for Portland has been made after a careful study of the scheme as it has worked successfully in Scranton, Pa., Sioux City, Ia., Racine, Wis., Haverhill, Mass., Toledo, O., Topeka, Kan., and other cities.

Plan Declared Feasible. "It is being shown that every dollar brought to the city by new industries will pass through the hands of all merchants and traders in the city," said L. M. Lepper, one of the chief backers of the plan. "Arguments against the ability of the city to handle a scheme such as the one proposed are refuted by tables we have prepared, which show the relative resources of Portland and other cities that have succeeded with a similar scheme. The improvement of the Columbia bar, and the opening of the Panama Canal, together with the stimulation of shipping which has taken place on the Coast in the last few months, are a few of the favorable circumstances which encourage the backers of the idea."

The machinery of the new loan fund has not been definitely established, although the proposed plan is complete in all details, and only needs formal adoption. Among the few incidental matters that are to be settled is the size of the share, one of $25 and one of $50 having each been recommended. Mr. Lepper has taken a principal part in the preparation of the plan, and it favors a share of $25, since it can be taken up by persons who can pay as little as 50 cents a week.

Public Spiritiveness Sought. The total amount to be raised approaches $500,000 and will be administered by a committee. Members of the committee are to give their services without remuneration, and it has been considered essential to obtain the most public spirited citizens to carry on the work.

Additional activities which the Industrial Development League plans include campaigns for creating favorable sentiment, or homecoming, and establishing a legislative committee. This last named committee will be prepared to offer expert service on all proposed legislation, thus reproducing the work of the legislative committee established by the University of Wisconsin.

LIQUOR ORDERS GAINING

JULY COUNTY RECORD SHOWS TOTAL OF 14,089 IMPORTATIONS.

Increase over June Traffic Is 2222 Orders—Combined With Ethyl, Shipments Total 25,062.

The "healthiest" increase in liquor shipments from outside the state in four months was noted by the office of Multnomah County Clerk, John Coffey, in July. According to figures compiled yesterday by Deputy County Clerk Gleason, 2222 more whisky and beer affidavits were required during July than in the month prior. For the same period, the demand for pure alcohol "for external use only" increased by 2603 affidavits.

Since April the increase had been steady, but comparatively slow. The advent of the warm month of July made the demand for cooling intoxicants leap again. During that month 14,089 affidavits, each representing a probable shipment of two quarts of whisky or 24 quarts of beer, were demanded of the County Clerk by thirsty Oregonians in Multnomah county. At the same time ethyl alcohol was in demand, theoretically for rub-downs, to the extent of 11,300 affidavits.

The year's record of alcoholic importation is as follows:

YOUNG MAN RISES FAR BY OWN HARD WORK

Leo L. Burdon Starts as Paper Mill Apprentice at 16 and at 26 Becomes Assistant Superintendent of Big Canadian Plant.

OREGON CITY, Or., Aug. 12.—(Special).—A rise from apprentice in the finishing department of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company at 16 years, to assistant superintendent of the Pacific Mills, Limited, at Ocean Falls, B. C., at 28 years, is the story, in brief, of Leo S. Burdon, until recently a resident of the city. Burdon's hard work and long hours spent over books at home after a day's work in the mills, were the corner stones of his success. With a common grammar school education, Leo Burdon went to work at 18 years under his father, F. A. Burdon, superintendent of the finishing department of the old Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. Soon after beginning work, he took up the study of mathematics, and in about eight years ago went into the office. He stayed with the company through its consolidation with the old Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company. As soon as he became proficient in shorthand, he took up the study of law, working at home after his day's work in the mill was done. At the time of his appointment as assistant superintendent of the big Canadian paper corporation he was ready to take the state bar examination. Mr. Burdon is a native of Polk County.

Public Library Notes

There is an exhibit of flax prepared by the Smith & Dove Manufacturing Company, Andover, Mass., and loaned by the Ames-Neville Company, of Portland, to be seen in the Technical Room of the Public Library. All those who are interested in this growing industry in the Willamette Valley should not fail to study this exhibit during the next few weeks. Belgium and Ireland alone at present furnish the high grade of fiber required for the production of the finest linen fabrics and which the Willamette Valley is able to grow. One hundred books small enough to carry in your pocket, well bound in a magazine, take one along when you go fishing, put one in your bag when you travel, the fish may be slow in biting, the train may be an hour late, is the lure offered the public who want their vacation reading in tablet form, in a varied list of books in miniature posted in the Circulation Room at the Central Library. Some of the titles included are: "Kremer's Four Weeks in the Trenches," "Knoblauch's 'Kismet,'" "First Aid to the Injured," "Use of Leisure" and "Adopting an Abandoned Farm."

Burdon, Drug Co., or any good druggist and get a box of Oil of Korein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

I Am Free-You Can Be Free

My catarrh was filthy and loathsome. It made me ill. It dulled my mind, weakened my health and was weakening my will. The hawking, coughing, spitting, mucus oozing to all, and my foul breath and disgusting habits made even my loved ones avoid me secretly. My delight in life was dulled and my faculties impaired. I knew that in time it would bring me to an untimely grave, because every moment of the day and night it was slowly but surely sapping my vitality.

RISK JUST ONE CENT

Send no money just your name and address on a postal card. Leo S. Burdon, Drug Co., will send you a copy of my story and how I can cure mine. That's all you need to see. I will understand, and I will write to you with complete information. FREE! I am not a doctor and my story is not a so-called doctor's prescription—but I am cured and my friends are cured, and you can be cured. Your suffering will stop at once like magic.
