BEAVERS LOSE TWO AGAIN TO TIGERS

Portland Keeps Vernon, but Errors Keep the Visitors From Winning.

SCORES ARE 6 TO 4, 5 TO 2

Wild Heaves by McCreddie's Pitchers Are Costly—Lowdermilk Makes Debut in Coast League and Allows but Four Hits.

Yesterday's Results. At Vernon 6, 5, Portland 4, 2. At Salt Lake 2, 3, Los Angeles 4, 1. At San Francisco 3, Los Angeles 4.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Another double-header today and another nice mess of Beavers for the Sunday dinner out at Vernon.

Vernon won the first game, 6 to 4, and then was defeated the second contest by a 5-to-2 count.

Portland outbit the Vernontites in both contests and, barring a flock of errors, should have had both ends of the twin bill. In the opening, Rip Hagerman held his opponents to six hits, yet six tallies were the result.

In the second, Grover Lowdermilk made his debut in the Coast League and held the Tigers to four scattered wads, yet they gathered five runs.

Beavers' Start Soon Overcome. In the first game the Beavers started out like a whirlwind and scored twice. Singles by Willie and Guisto and a double by Southworth did the deed.

Portland scored the other two in the sixth, when Southworth drew a walk and went the rounds on singles by Guisto and Fisher. Guisto scored when Nixon forced Fisher at second.

Vernon scored in the third when Daley walked, stole second and scored on Risberg's single. In the fourth frame, two singles, a wild pitch and a couple of errors gave Vernon four tallies. Their final score came in the seventh on singles by Daley and Mitze and a wild throw by Evans.

Evans Makes Score. In the second game Portland scored in the first when Willie and Evans walked and Willie scored on sacrifice hits. The final Beaver tally was made by Evans in the seventh, when he singled and scored on a sacrifice and a single by Southworth.

Daley scored for Vernon in the first on a walk, a wild heave and two sacrifice flies. In the fourth Vernon added another when Gleichmann walked and scored on a single by Risberg and an out by Yates. Nothing more happened until the eighth, when two hits and three errors scored three. Scores:

OAKS WIN IN 11TH INNING

Bobby Davis' Home Run Feature of 3-to-1 Defeat of Bees.

SALT LAKE, Aug. 12.—Errors by Orr and Kane enabled Oakland to tie the score and then win out in the 11th by a score of 3 to 1. Bobby Davis' home run with Barry on base beat Paul Fittery in his great mound battle with Speed Martin. Salt Lake scored in the third, when Bayless walked and Brief and Ryan hit safely. Barry took second on Orr's errors in the sixth and scored when Kane threw wild on Kenworthy's grounder. Score:

When Roy Hitt gets back in shape he can be depended upon to work to the limit for the Vernon club. He figures he has a debt to pay Proxy Eddie Maier, but he adds that he fears he'll never be able to show his gratitude. The reason? Here it is as Hitt himself gives it:

"The night I was operated on at San Francisco a telegram was received from President Maier telling them to spare no expense. When I got up a bunch of receipts bills was handed me—all paid by Mr. Maier. They amounted to more than $100 and my salary has gone on all the time that I've been out. And I won't forget that when I was ill he telegraphed up, saying he would make the trip north if there was anything he could do."

Maybe, there's some sentiment in baseball after all. Hitt has been with Vernon since the club was organized. It looks like his services have been appreciated.

Eddie Maier has been "roasted" for slighting some of the Coast League directors and Al Baum, but he certainly is displaying his old-time cunning in the face of indifferent support.

RUSSELL DEFEATS KELLEHER IN NORTH

Strachan and Marcus Take Men's Doubles Event in Seattle Play.

MISS LIVINGSTONE VICTOR

California Woman Loses in Straight Sets, 6-2, 6-2, and Kelleher and Miss Livingstone Take Mixed Doubles Title and Cup.

WASHINGTON STATE 1916 TENNIS CHAMPION.

Men's singles, Sam Russell, of Seattle. Women's singles, Sara Livingstone, of Seattle. Men's doubles, Strachan and Marcus, of San Francisco. Women's doubles, Sara Livingstone and Hugh Kelleher, of London. Mixed doubles, Sara Livingstone and Hugh Kelleher. Junior singles, Marshall Allen.

BY STELLA FORDING. SEATTLE, Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Miss Sara Livingstone was the star of the tennis tournament at Blackstone Field this week taking the Washington state championship in women's singles, while, paired with Mrs. Bragdon, she won the women's doubles, and with Hugh Kelleher the mixed doubles.

In her first match in singles she defeated her opponent, 6-0, 6-0. Next she defeated Mrs. Northup, of Portland, 6-2, 6-2, then Miss Fording, also of Portland, 6-1, 6-2, then Miss Kingsdale, of Los Angeles, 6-0, 6-1, and in the finals Mrs. Cushing, of Oakland, 6-2, 6-2.

Mrs. Cushing took 21 points in the first set, but in the second Mrs. Livingstone captured four love games in the second set and Mrs. Cushing once. Miss Livingstone won with surprising ease, Mrs. Cushing was expected to put up a dangerous game.

Chance With Best Should Be Hers. Miss Livingstone should have a chance to contest with the country best. Because of her victory in singles today Miss Livingstone has captured for all time the Seattle Tennis Club challenge cup which was put up in 1907. It had to be won three times in succession and has been the center of keen competition in the women's singles for the past 18 years. In 1907 there was no stage tournament so no one won it this year.

Miss Livingstone won the mixed doubles championship in 1913 with Dr. Turner, in 1914 with Hugh Kelleher, in 1915 with H. D. V. Johns, in 1916 with Kelleher. There is no championship for this event, but it must be won three times by the same team.

Sara Livingstone and Mrs. Bragdon defeated Mrs. Cushing, of California, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. Sara Livingstone and Hugh Kelleher won the mixed doubles by defeating Dorothy Dempsey and Johnny Strachan, 6-3, 6-1.

Sam Russell Takes Singles. It required five sets for Sam Russell to win the state championship in men's singles. He defeated Hugh Kelleher, 6-4, 3-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Kelleher would have won this had it been the best two out of three, but he had not the endurance to win the best three out of four. In the fifth and deciding set Russell had a lead of 4-0. Kelleher was nearly exhausted. He made a plucky pull up of three games, lost one, pulled out one more, but failed to take the next. Had he not failed on two easy kills he would have tied the score. Kelleher had the edge on the match at the start.

Marcus and Strachan won the men's doubles, defeating Sam Russell and McBurney, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1. In the junior singles Marshall Allen captured the state championship, defeating Laurence Brown, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

Summary, final round.—Men's singles—Russell, 6-4, 3-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. Women's singles—Miss Livingstone, 6-2, 6-2, 6-1. Men's doubles—Marcus and Strachan, of California, beat McBurney and Russell, of Seattle, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1. Women's doubles—Miss Livingstone and Kelleher, of Seattle, beat Miss Dempsey and Strachan, of California, 6-3, 6-1. Women's doubles—Miss Livingstone and Mrs. Bragdon, Seattle, beat Mrs. Cushing and Miss Kingsdale, of California, 6-2, 6-2.

SPOKANE DRUBS GREAT FALLS. Harstad Allows Two Hits and Teammates Get 16 Runs. GREAT FALLS, Mont., Aug. 12.—Clark, White and Hester essayed the pitching job against Spokane and each was battered fiercely while he lasted. Jules Pappa, rightfielder, went in during the fourth inning and pitched fairly well. In the fourth frame the Indians got nine hits off White, Hester and Pappa, for 19 runs. Harstad was invincible and allowed but two hits. Two men only got to second base against him. Score: R. H. E. R. H. E. Spokane.....16 19 16L Falls.....9 3 6 Batteries—Harstad and Sheely; Clark, White, Hester, Pappa and Haworth.

Butte 11, Vancouver 3. BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 12.—Leifer allowed but two hits in six innings today and but five altogether, while Butte pitched hard and won handily from Vancouver, 11 to 3. The game was snappy and generally well played. Score: R. H. E. Vancouver.....3 5 Butte.....11 15 4 Batteries—Hood and Cheek; Leifer and Roberts.

Tacoma 2, Seattle 10. TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 12.—Seattle pounded the Tigers' pitchers hard today and won in easy fashion, 10 to 2. The score: R. H. E. R. H. E. Seattle.....10 13 2 Tacoma.....2 5 6 Batteries—Schultz and Cunningham; Alexander, Williams and Batholomy.

Clubhouse About Completed. Members of the Portland Golf Club expect to be in their new home at Raleigh station this week. All that remains before the new clubhouse is completed is the laying of some flooring and some slight finishing. Plans are being made for a big housewarming about September 1.

Pitcher Ray Kremer, the San Francisco boy who was with the New York Giants, is pitching for the San Rafael, Cal., club. Despite the fact that he has just recovered from an illness, Kremer is displaying his old-time cunning in the face of indifferent support.
