Intimate friends of the bride-elect shared the pleasure of the day.

Mrs. F. O. Downing entertained on Wednesday in compliment to Mrs. A. Dominick, who has been the guest of Mrs. David Goodsell for several weeks. The festivity had as its setting the apartments of Mrs. Downing at the Hotel Portland. Mrs. John McCracken was hostess for another attractive party for Mrs. Dominick in the Hotel Benson. Mrs. Dominick will return to her home in New York City soon.

One of the most beautiful wedding ceremonies of the summer was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Smith on Wednesday night, when Miss Lina Linehan, sister of Mrs. Smith, became the bride of Dr. E. Nelson Allen, pastor of the South Hollywood Presbyterian Church, of Los Angeles. The Rev. Frank DeWitt Findley officiated. The bride was lovely in a gown of white net, made over white silk and beautifully embroidered. A castle wreath of orange blossoms encircled her head and from the wreath depended a long filmy veil. The bouquet was an artistic arrangement of lilies of the valley and pond lilies. Little Barbara Jane Smith, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, was the dainty attendant. She wore a chic French frock of white and pink batiste and carried Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Smith was pretty in pink silk embroidered with velvet design. Mrs. J. Harvey Johnson wore apricot satin brocade. Mrs. Linehan was distinguished in a handsome gown of black chiffon and hand-made lace fashioned over ivory satin. Mrs. P. J. Mann and Mrs. A. T. Smith presided at the table. Mrs. J. H. Johnson played the wedding march.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen departed, after the ceremony and supper, for a wedding trip, and later will go to make their home in Los Angeles. Dr. Allen has many degrees that may be affixed to his name. He is a graduate of Columbia University, of the University of New York and attended Lebanon College in Tennessee. In addition he has made a name for himself as a lecturer and orator, as well as an authority on religious questions. His bride is a brilliant musician, a graduate of the American Conservatory at Chicago, and has been soloist at several of the leading churches here. She has been director of the choir of the First United Presbyterian Church, of this city. She was one of the organizers of the MacDowell Club, and is socially popular. Dr. Allen formerly resided in Portland, and was pastor of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church. The flowers for the Allen-Linehan wedding were exceptionally lovely. Roses, stately lilies and palms were arranged artistically and in generous quantities, presenting a bower-like effect that made a fitting background for the impressive ceremony, the bridal party and the smart assemblage of guests.

Society in Portland was interested this week in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Zelle, of San Francisco, and Corbett Moody. Miss Zelle has many friends here.

Miss Gordon arrived in Portland last Thursday with Mrs. Walter Bliss and Miss Bliss. She will visit here for a fortnight or more. Miss Gordon is prominently identified with the sorority, whose local members will be asked to meet her. It was largely through the efforts of Miss Bliss and Miss Gordon that the local came into the National. Miss Bliss is a clever violinist and Miss Gordon is a social girl of Chicago. Mrs. Ellen, of Santa Dorothy Louise have been in California for about two months, spending a large part of the time at Santa Cruz. It was there that their guests joined them.

An event of last week, just prior to the marriage of Miss Lina Linehan and Dr. E. Nelson Allen, was a tea, given by Mrs. J. Harvey Johnson honoring the bride-elect. Receiving with the hostess and honor guests were Mrs. H. R. Linehan and Mrs. Lloyd Rittenhouse Smith. Arranged about the rooms were ferns, Oregon grape, hydrangeas and cut flowers. Sweet peas in pastel shades centered the tea table. Tea was served in the library. Mrs. Elaine Smith and Mrs. A. W. Moore presided. Mrs. Walter H. Butchart, of Seattle, and Mrs. J. Allen Leas served ices. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Henry A. Harris, Marshall Nesbitt, Mrs. Stanley Griffith Werschkul, Miss Fay Butchart, of Seattle; Miss Harriet Leas, Miss Lillian Robinson, Miss Blanche Cohen, of Seattle. About 65 maids and matrons called during the afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Brown, wife of British Vice-Consul Albert E. Brown, entertained a number of her friends at her home in the Wagoner Apartments, 715 Wayne street, with an afternoon tea during the past week.

Miss Helen Mae Clark and Miss Rachel Mary Clark entertained on Thursday at a bridge-ten given at their home in Irvington for Miss Sam Montgomery, of Fort Worth, Tex., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Horace Lockett. Sharing the honors, also, was Mrs. Cornelius Riley, of Omaha, Neb., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rayner, of Hancock street. The color scheme of rose and violet made the tea table and the rooms artistic and attractive. Sweet peas in the prevailing shades centered the board and at each place, as a favor, was a basket of sweet peas and roses.

Mrs. Thomas F. Hyskell (Margaret Older), entertained at luncheon on Friday in her home on Portland Heights. The table was placed on the veranda. Covers were laid for Mrs. Clifford Gray, Mrs. Albert Elliott, Miss Beattie Snook, Miss Fay Barnes, Miss Thelma Reed, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Frances Older and the hostess. Cards and music were diversions after the luncheon.

Honoring Miss Genevieve Landeen, bride-elect, the Misses Hazel Bowman and Georgia Irvine entertained with a linen shower last week at the home of the former in Irvington. The rooms were fragrant and attractively decorated with baskets of sweet peas and ferns. At the table a sprinkler of pink sweet peas formed the center piece from which pink ribbons extended to each of the 12 covers. The guests were Miss Landeen, Mrs. Paul Feely, the Misses Anna Rich, Marion Richey, Dorothy Bowman, Helen Cowie, Marie Irvine, Florence Johnson, Gen. Gumm and Effie Vanderveen.

The Misses Arlee Slaten and Mollie Knies were hostesses for a unique affair last Thursday evening at their Summer home in Oak Grove.
