

GUSTO DECIDES TO GO TO CLEVELAND

His "Reporting" to Indians, However, Is Contingent on Getting $1000 Cash.

BONUS STILL DEMANDED

Grover Lowdermilk Quits Beavers for Rest of Season Upon Poor Showing Yesterday—Pitcher's Wildness Still Bothers.

Upon receipt of a telegram from the management of the Cleveland American League Club advising him to come to Cleveland and talk matters over, Louis Gusto will depart this morning for Cleveland. Louis held off for awhile before deciding to depart because he thought that he should be guaranteed a return ticket to and from Cleveland. As it is he has only the one-way fare in his possession.

However, after thinking the subject over, he decided to take a chance and go.

"If I don't receive $1000 of the purchase money I will come home at once," said Gusto last night. "I don't care whether they give me my return ticket or not. The only way they will get me to play baseball is to give me the bonus."

Once away from his advisers, Gusto likely will be made to see a rally in further holding out and getting "in bad" with the Cleveland club and the fans. He has been offered $400 a month for the remainder of this season and tickets to and from Cleveland. The only thing he is holding out for is $1000 of the purchase money. He has not $100 in salary already by refusing to sign and go East.

Along with Gusto this morning will go Grover Lowdermilk, bouncer club home, 40 miles from St. Louis, Mo. "Lowdy" became discouraged after his wild showing yesterday and bid all the boys goodbye, announcing his intent of quitting for the season. He has experienced the same wild and woolly habits since joining the Beavers that has characterized his work all year with both the Cleveland and Portland clubs. If he thinks that he will be able to control his wildness in the Spring, he will rejoin the Beavers.

Manager Nick Williams, of the Spokane Northwestern League club, telegraphed Judge W. W. McCredie, president of the Portland club, last night cancelling the Portland-Spokane game scheduled for next Tuesday afternoon at Spokane. Owing to the threatening railroad strike the game hung in the balance for several days and now that it will be safe for the Beavers to go, the Spokane management thought that it did not have sufficient time to advertise the game.

The departure to Cleveland of Louis Gusto spoils the plans of the Rainier Inter-City League team. Louie promised to play with that nine today and tomorrow against the Kenton club team of Portland. Big doings were scheduled at Rainier and Manager Harry Morrison was disappointed when Louie advised him last night that he could not report.

"I was sorry that I was not able to go down there, too," said Louis. "It would have afforded me a lot of pleasure to dig my cleats in 'bush' soil once more."

Bill Speas received a telegram yesterday from Louie San Francisco club making him an offer to join the Seals. Bill will think the matter over and let Harry Wolverton know today. Don't be surprised to see Louie in a San Francisco uniform within a few days.

Jack Ryan and Charley Hall for the Angels are scheduled to arrive at Alton Sotheron or Wynn Noyes for the Beavers in the double matinee this afternoon. First game starts at 1:30 o'clock.

Catcher Johnny Bassler, of the Angels, sat in the grandstand yesterday, his wife out of the game for a week longer as a result of being spiked Thursday by Ivan Howard.

NOTED COACH TO AID CONVILLE

E. L. Knickerbocker's Services Obtained for Winged "M" Squad.

SHERIDAN, Or., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The services of E. L. Knickerbocker, of Sheridan, have been enlisted by J. O. Conville, 1216 manager of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club football team. While in Michigan "Knick" was one of the most successful football coaches that state ever had.

turned down a salary offer of $3500 to come West and make investments. He settled in Sheridan, and had given up football entirely to receive the appeal from Conville. He went to Portland this afternoon to meet with the club team on Multnomah Field tomorrow.

Knickerbocker has been managing the Sheridan baseball team for several years, and he is one of the best known athletic enthusiasts in Yamhill County. Whether or not he will be able to devote as much time to the Winged "M" institution as he would like to he was unable to say when he boarded the train for the Oregon metropolis.

ANNUAL REGATTA IS PLANNED

Rowing Club to Stage Four Races on September 16.

The Portland Rowing Club will hold its annual regatta September 16. The usual races will be held, including the heavyweight four, lightweight four, double scull and the senior singles. The latter race will be for the E. O. Gloss cup. This trophy is raced for annually at the Portland Rowing Club Fall regatta.

and unless there is a show of Welsh money it does not appear that any odds will be offered and the men will enter the ring on an even basis.

W. L. Reilly, of the Colorado Springs Athletic Club, was appointed official timer this afternoon.

LONG SWIM IS NEGOTIATED

J. R. Burke Covers 7 Miles in 3 Hours and 10 Minutes.

James R. Burke, swimming instructor for the Portland schools and city parks, made the longest swim of the year recently. He started at Oswego at 10:45 A. M., finishing at the Windemuth Baths at 2:55 P. M., covering the distance of about seven miles in three hours and 10 minutes.

Mr. Burke, who has just finished a successful year in the city tanks, will take charge of the boys' classes in the public schools again this year. Jack Thayer, Joe Kelly and "Spec" Burke in one boat and 29 canoes and three rowboats accompanied him on his recent long swim.
