DR. LOVELAND WILL PREACH FAREWELL SERMON TONIGHT

He Makes Final Appearance in His Old Pulpit at First Methodist Church and Leaves Soon for Indianapolis-Reception Tomorrow Night at St. Stephens Parish House Honoring Rev. E. H. McCollister.

FRANK L. LOVELAND WIII preach his farewell sermon to night as pastor of the First Methodist Church. This announcement will be sufficient assurance that there will a large congregation for Dr. Loveland has been one of the most popular speakers and pulpit orators that has! been in Portland. His Sunday night attendances have taxed the ca pacity of the auditorium on nearly all occasions. It will be with great regret that his many friends will bid him goodbye. He will leave soon to take up his work in one of the important churches of the country, the Meridian-Street Methodist Church at Indianap-olis, to which he has been honored with an appointment.

Dr. Loweland has been termed "one the greatest preachers of the day." Joshua Stansfield, of Indianapolis. will succeed him.

An event of interest will be the re-ception on Tuesday night in compli-ment to Dr. and Mrs. Loveland. A large attendance is anticipated. It will be held in the Sunday School and Social Service Temple at Twelfth and Taylor

Another event of importance this Another event of importance this week will be the reception to be given tomorrow night in St. Stephen's Parish House. Thirteenth and Clay streets, honoring the new dean of the pro-Cathedral, the Rev. E. H. McCollister, and his wife, who will be welcomed by the ciergy of the city and by the parish members. Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens and Mrs. N. A. Colman, presidents respectively of the Guild and the Auxiliary, will receive the guests. The Chapter will assist. will assist.

Rev. George Edward Lewis, pastor Rev. George Edward Lewis, pastor of Highland Congregational Church, of this city, gave the young men of his church a genuine "sourdough supper" on Monday night. He was assisted by a dozen of the fathers of the young Just as the repast was drawing to a close Mrs, Lewis entered the church, followed by about 50 of the mothers, wives and sweethearts. The surprise was complete. For a moment the host was stunned, but, in true back-woods fashion, the 50-odd fellows arose from the banquet board and gave their places to the women, who are just as heartily as the men did of the crude backwoods viands.

The bill of fare was novel, but easily interpreted by all "sourdoughs." It was as follows:

Piedmont Presbyterian Church has had a busy week. All the organizations are starting the Winter's work with enthusiasm. The Christian Endeavor has taken on new life with the advent of a large number of new workers and new members. A social service study and discussion class has been organized to meet for half an hour at the close of the morning service, led by the pastor. New teachers have appeared in the Sunday school and a fortinghtly Bible Club may be one of the results of the campaign. Sunday morning Dr. A. L. Hutchison, the pastor, will speak on the subject, "Sending Regrets to God." In the evening his topic will be, "A Great Wrestling Match."

The large chorus choir, under the leadership of Will Robinson, has started out in fine shape.

The exercises at that bour will be of an unique character. At $11 A. M. the really of all the members and their friends will take place in the auditorium of the church. Dr. Luther R. Dyott's theme at this time will be "The Touch of God." At 6.30 P. M. the Y. P. S. C. E. will hold a meeting of a public character, and what is said will be in keeping with the day.

The crowning service of the day will be held in the auditorium of the church at 7:45 P. M., when a consideration of the theme, "Prosperity and Success in Portland," will be presented by Dr. Dyott. The First Congregational Church, in believing in applied Christianity, links itself with all the institutions and enterprises in Portland. There will be an address by Judge Arrhur Langguth next Thursday night in the prayer meeting. The six women's organizations of this church, as well as the men's organizations, are endeavoring to keep in touch with the various institutions contemplating the welfare of Portland.
