WILSON WANTS NO "BRAGGART'S PEACE"

President Says He Stands for Peace Obtained as "Gentlemen Obtain It."

BIG CROWD HEARS SPEECH

Candidate for Re-election Upholds Eight-Hour Day for "Everybody for Whom It Is Possible." Tammany Leaders Attend.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Oct. 28 .- That the opposition to his election is "scru pling at nothing" in statement of fact and policy was the charge made by President Wilson in a speech at Shadow Lawn this afternoon to a throng that assembled for a joint celebration of "New York day" and "Woodrow Wilson

'What are we to say," he asked, "of the patriotism of men who take advan-tage of a crisis of the world when the fortunes of men hang in uncertain bal-ance, when the peace of this great Na-tion can be maintained only by the most thoughtful and considerate means, o settle a question of power among
