BECKETT OREGON'S STAR

Big Tackle Makes Only Sensational Run of Game in 20-Yard Spurt. Bezek's Men More Aggressive Than Visitors.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 4.—(Special.) The University of Oregon team appeared upon the field at exactly 2:31 and was followed one minute later by the Washington men. Both teams ran the length of the field, passing the ball. The whistle of Referee George Varnell sounded at 2:43 and the game was on. At 4:20 the 0-0 contest was ended after an hour and three-quarters of terrific battling. First quarter—Oregon won the toss and Monteth kicked off to Johnson on the five-yard line. Returned five yards. Noble plunged through center for eight yards. Johnson made yardage. Noble fumbled and recovered. Loss, three yards. Morrison forced to punt. Oregon penalized 15 yards for holding. Washington tried to advance the ball but was again forced to punt and Oregon was again penalized 15 yards for holding. Oregon seemed unable to stem the terrific plunging of Noble.

Washington's Chance Fades. Morrison punted 45 yards. Oregon was unable to make a gain and Beckett punted. Washington got the ball on Oregon's 20-yard line. Noble made a fierce attack through center and made a four-yard gain. Hainsworth made two yards, and Noble added two more. Washington seemed to have a splendid chance for scoring, and the tension of the crowd was high, with Washington rooters calling for a touchdown. The ball was given to Hainsworth, who failed to make yardage, and the ball went to Oregon on the 11-yard line. Beckett punted 40 yards. Hainsworth went through the Oregon line for four yards, and on the next play Beckett tackled Noble for a four-yard loss. Morrison punted 30 yards. It was Oregon's ball on the 25-yard line. Beckett punted 35 yards. Morrison punted 25 yards. It was Oregon's ball on the 12-yard line. Beckett punted 35 yards. Johnson returned eight yards, and the ball was Sidelights on Oregon-Washington Football Game.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Large yellow numbers graced the backs of the Oregon team. But Coach Bezek could not avoid his "smoking on wood" hobby, and the number 22 was noticeably lacking as well as "12." The Washington players were not numbered. Between halves both teams changed togs and came upon the field warmed and refreshed for the second half of the fight. The number system of the Oregon men was dropped the second half.

A large scoreboard, detailing all the plays, was inaugurated as a feature of the contest. Time to play, downs, who was carrying the ball and yardage were wig-wagged from the sidelines and a glance informed the spectators. The board is said to be one of the most complete in the Northwest. The Washington men dressed in their hotel and were carried to a room specially fitted up for them in the university gymnasium. This is the first time the varsity rooms of the varsity gymnasium have ever been used by a rival team.

The rooting "pep" of both the Oregon and Washington sections was not as noticeable as in former years. The muddy condition of the field prevented any serpentine and the rooters kept to their seats. The University of Oregon band made its first appearance in uniform and made a hit. It is undoubtedly the best band the university has ever had. The University of Washington special train of 10 coaches pulled into Eugene at noon and was met by a rousing reception. The Oregon students, the Washington hand lined up the rooters and the march was made to the Oregon campus, where the delegation was given a luncheon.

The game ran through the four quarters with scarcely an interruption and the remarkable feat was accomplished: no time was called out for a player's injuries. The only time taken was for the players to wash their mud from their faces. The Parsons controversy was hashed over again a few days before the game started with Dean Priest, of Washington, closeted with Professor H. C. Howe, of Oregon, and C. V. Dymert, president of the Coast Conference. The Washington authorities had gathered late material on the eligibility of Parsons and there was fear expressed by the Oregon authorities that Parsons might not be allowed to play at the last minute.

MONTANA TITLE TIED UP

UNIVERSITY AND STATE COLLEGE PLAY 6-6 CONTEST.

Score Is Evened Up In Fourth Period and Chance to Win Is Lost When Kick Is Fumbled.

BOZEMAN, Mont., Nov. 4.—The collegiate football title of Montana was not settled here this afternoon as was expected, because the University of Montana and the Montana State College football teams played a 6 to 6 game. The university players had held the title for several seasons until just before the game ended. McQuarrie missed two attempts at goals from placement in the third period. The University team was able to hold the State College players on the visitors' 30-yard line and the period ended without either side scoring. Score and third period: Montana State College, 6; University of Montana, 6. The State College players tied the score in the fourth period by a series of forward passes and a plunge by Jolley, which resulted in a goal. The kick was fumbled. Neither side was able to score later. Final: Montana State College, 6; University of Montana, 6.

OREGON AGGIES RUSH WHITMAN TO DEFEAT

Sensational Runs for Score of 23 to 0 Keep Crowds at Corvallis on Edge.

DRIZZLE MIRES GRIDIRON

"Tuffy" Conn Makes Gains Ranging From 18 to 62 Yards and Missionsaries Are Held Helpless Throughout Contest.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—The Oregon Aggie football team defeated the Whitman College eleven this morning on the Corvallis gridiron by the score of 23 to 0 in a game brimming with sensational runs that kept the spectators in a fever of excitement. Three touchdowns, two goal kicks and one placement, all in the third quarter, furnished the bright light of scoring. Lodell, Conn and Newman each scored a touchdown and Hubbard booted the place kick. The game was played during a constant drizzle and the field was a veritable quagmire. Punting was frequent, and neither side attempted to use the forward pass to any extent. The Aggies tried two and Whitman none. None of them was completed. "Tuffy" Conn Is Star of Day.

The bright particular star of the day was the sensational "Tuffy" Conn, who demonstrated that a wet field was no serious hindrance to his ability to run. Without a doubt this lad is the best open-field runner in the conference. Twice he got away for 15-yard runs, once he pulled one for 50 yards and still again he traveled 62 yards and was only stopped by the safety. Carl Lodell, ex-Portland High School player, got his first taste of conference football and celebrated the event by one run for 27 yards and another for 18 for a touchdown.

In addition he punted the soggy oval three times for an average of 45 yards, two of them paving the way for touchdowns. Newman furnished a smashing game and was a consistent gainer for the Aggies. Brooke, Hush, Wilson and Selph were practically impregnable on the line and Whitman was forced to resort to long end runs, some of which were good for substantial gains. The Missionsaries interference was excellent. Hoover was the bright light for Whitman, and he got away for several dashes of from 10 to 25 yards. Cram also played a good game, as long as he was in the lineup, and Frank Busch repeatedly stopped plays aimed in his direction. Hoover outpunted Hubbard by an average of four yards. Coach Pipal started with the team upon which he must depend in the coming battles with Oregon and Washington, but he was forced to retire for a some of his freshmen in order to score.

Whitman had all the best of the argument in the first half and made 43 yards from scrimmage in this period, as against 40 for the Aggies. McNeill kicked off for O. A. C. in the first quarter. Whitman furnished and Script recovered the ball on the Whitman 30-yard line. Whitman secured the oval on downs and Hoover immediately acted in an effort to win and Lodell replaced Low at left halfback. Groom kicked off to the Aggies and Lodell punted the ball over the goal line. Two poor passes in succession to Hoover and a short punt gave the Aggies the ball on Whitman's 50-yard line.

The Orange and Black backs were thrown twice for a loss and then Hubbard dropped back to his own 25-yard line and booted the oval between the uprights for the first score of the game. O. A. C. 3. The Aggies then received the kickoff, and Webster, who had replaced Moist, returned it to his own 48-yard line. The Aggies were penalized five yards for offense, and Lodell punted 45 yards to the Whitman 20-yard line. Whitman could make no gain, and Hoover punted to his 45-yard line. The Conn went in an effort to win and Lodell replaced Low at left halfback. Groom kicked off to the Aggies and Lodell punted the ball over the goal line. Two poor passes in succession to Hoover and a short punt gave the Aggies the ball on Whitman's 50-yard line.

Captain Bissett was thrown for no gain and his injured ankle received such a twist that he was forced to retire. Conn went in an effort to win and Lodell immediately got away for a 27-yard run, placing the ball on the Whitman 18-yard line, from where Conn carried it over the goal on a play around left end. Hubbard missed goal. Score, Aggies 3, Whitman 0. The second touchdown came soon after the kickoff. Hubbard received the kick and returned it to the Whitman 40-yard line, but fumbled. Whitman could make no gain, and Hoover punted to the Aggies' 48-yard line. Lodell then uncorked a long punt, which went out of bounds on the Whitman one-yard line. Hubbard recovered a blocked punt on the two-yard line, and Newman put it over in one down.

The lineup: O. A. C. Position. Whitman. Moist R E Comrad. Brooks B E Johnson. Wilson B E Johnson. Selph B E Johnson. A. Anderson L B Traut. Hubbard R E Hansen. Morgan Q B Gensel. Newman L B Gensel. Cram L B Hoover. Captain Bissett H B Hoover.

Officials—Referee, Sam Dehan, O. A. C.; umpire, Stott, Multnomah Club; head linesman, Mathews, Willamette University. Substitutes—Whitman: Wylie, for Cram; Hoyer, for Comrad; Decker, for Johnson; Oregon Aggies: Webster for Moist; Lodell for Low; Conn for Busch; Cramer for Anderson; Moist for Webster; Cramer for Wilson; Phillips for Lodell; Wiley for Conn; Whitman: Busch, King for Cramer; Bissett for Newman.
