SALT LAKE LEADS IN TOTAL OF RUNS

Vernon, Ranking Second, Entitled to Pennant on Proportionate Ratings.

FEW CLOSE GAMES PLAYED

Only 22 Decided by 2-to-1 Scores in Coast League, Five Pitchers Winning Half of Them, Crandall Leading All Others.

On a proportionate rating of runs scored by and against each of the Coast League clubs in the 1916 season Ver-non perhaps had a better claim to the pennant than Los Angeles, for Vernon was second only to Salt Lake in total runs scored by clubs, and no club was scored on fewer times than was Vernon, and this despite the fact that Ver-scored on fewer times than was Vernon, and this despite the fact that Vernon played 208 games and Los Angeles played only 193. Los Angeles was third in total runs scored, and second to Vernon in holding opponents to few runs. As in Salt Lake's first year in the Coast League, so again this year Salt Lake figured in the games in which there was the most scoring. For Salt Lake not only scored more runs were scored against Salt Lake than against any other club, but more runs were scored against Salt Lake than against any other club. The tailend Oakland club was second to Salt Lake in total runs scored by opponents, and was last in total runs scored by clubs.

Of the 4909 runs scored during the league season, 1885 were scored in games in which Salt Lake figured; 559 runs were scored against Salt Lake, this being the only club in either of these ratings to pass the 300 mark. In five instances did the scason totals show a club scoring more than 260 runs against another club; two of these cases were against Salt Lake, Los Angeles scoring 216 runs against the Bees and Vernon scoring 208 runs against them. The other three cases were by Salt Lake against other clubs, Salt Lake scoring 210 times for the season against Oakland, 208 against San Frangainst Oakland, 208 against San Fra

Only 22 games were decided by 1-to-0 scores in the 1916 Coast League season, and of these 22 five pitchers hogged the honors of winning half of them. Crandall, of Los Angeles and Oakland, was the King of the 1-to-9 pitchers for the season, winning one of these tight sessions from Los Angeles while he was with Oakland, and then winning two more when he joined Los Angeles one from Sait Lake and one from geles, one from Sait Lake and one from San Francisco. No other pitcher won more than two of the 1-to-0 games, and Zabel, of Los Angeles; Frough, of Cakland; Steen and Baum, of San Francisco, were the only pitchers who could win two.

Los Angeles topped the list with seven wins and only three defeats by 1-to-0 scores. Zabel and Crandall each winning two: Horstman, Standridge and Hall each winning one. San Francisco won six and lost five, Steen and Baum each won two, Brown and Couch each won one. Oakiand won five and lost three of the 1-to-0 sessions, Frough winning two: Crandall, Martin and Burns each one. Sothoron was the only Portland pitcher to win a 1-to-0 game, but Portland's two defeats by 1-to-0 scores were the fewest of any of the Los Angeles continuous baseball by taking in Sacramento and placing a team in Vernon, thereby creating a team in Vern

In the fourth period Cook, Caldwell fullback, negotiated a kick from placement from the 40-yard line, and a few minutes later dropkicked from the 30-yard line. Cook, Idenberg and Conners shone brilliantly for Caldwell. The elimination of Boise gives Caldwell unquestioned title to the Idaho scholastic championship.

With the exception of Chet Hoff and Rube Evans, none of the Salt Lake pitchers showed the kind of ball that is required in this league. It is true, of course, that neither Park nor Harry Gardner had much of a chance.

Clouting Great Asset of Club Which Has Few Reliable Pitchers.

BRIEF'S WORK WINS FANS

Bernhard's Task Is to Build Up Flinging Staff for 1917, as His Holdovers Do Not Seem to Carry Winning Ability.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 4 .- (Special.) -The 1916 season of the Pacific Coast League was one of ups and downs for Salt Lake. The club, as was the case in 1915, experienced much trouble on ac-count of a weak pitching staff. Paul Fittery carried the burden of the work from the beginning. Later in the sea-son Billy Piercey came to Salt Lake and proved his worth. Later still Chet Hoff and Rube Evans pitched winning call for the club

The strength of the Bees as an offensive organization has been good. The club led the league in club batting for practically the entire season. Some of the success in this respect no doubt was due to the fact that the Bees had 15 weeks on their home grounds, where the collecting of safe hits appears to be beset with much less difficulty than is the case elsewhere on account of the high altitude.

Bees Able to Hit. Whatever the reason, there is no doubt that the Salt Lake players did hit the bell. It is amazing to think what would have happened to them had they not possessed this ability. The season closed with Salt Lake having three hitters among the league's lead-

Morris Rath is certain to be a Bee again next year, since his contract with Sant Lake still has a year to run. This contract was taken over by the Mormons from Kanans City. Billy Orr was used so much in centerfield toward the last part of the year with such remarkable success that fans would not be surprised if Bernhard turned Orr into a regular outfielder.

FRANK CHANGE GIVES CREDIT TO PLAYERS

Peerless Leader Says Team Work and Unselfish Spirit Brought Pennant.

LEAGUE IS RATED FAST

Ex-Cub Pilot Says Coast Is 10 Per Cent Better Than American Association and That He Underrated It.

BY FRANK L. CHANCEL

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4 .- (Special.) It isn't the easiest thing in the world to sit back and write the reasons why a ball club, especially a ball club you are connected with, won a pennant. I'm glad we won, as glad as I was when the old Cub team won back in the National League, and I worked as hard and worried as much as I did

In giving credit to my club it would In giving credit to my club it would be hard to pick individuals. The club did not win because of individual efforts, but rather because every man on the club had the right spirit and played for the team, not for himself and his averages. I doubt it any club ever won a pennant if the players on a played for their own averages and not for the club. for the club.

It takes nine men on the field and every man on the bench, all pulling together, to win a pennant. They have to fight and work together every day. They have to keep plugging and never quit or show yellow.

Teamwork Counts.

I was never on a club with a better team spirit. The players were for each other, and there was less dissension on our club than on any team I ever saw. The players took good care of themselves. Every man on the team worked hard, and it didn't take any driving to make them hustle every step of the way. They did what they were told to do and did it well. There are a lot of smart players on the club, and they kept the other clubs guessing all the time. That he is any term ing all the time. That helps any team a lot.

The club didn't stand out in any one department of play. We fielded fairly well, hit fairly well and had good pitching the last two-thirds of the season. It was the general, all-round ability of the cib, rather than any great strength in any one department, that made the Angels a pennant win-started.

If you need men the only way to get them is to go out and buy them—buy them wherever they are for sale.

Any fair-minded fan knows this.

The clubs in the Coast League play good baseball, and there are any number of high-class men in the circuit. I do not believe that our club was favored by the brake of the brake.
