WILSON ENDS WITH -CRY OF "COERCION"

President Charges Political Capital Is Made Out of Unsettled Questions.

CONFIDENCE IS ASSERTED

In Concluding Speech of Campaign at Shadow Lawn Charge Is Made That the Republicans Try to Dictate to Voters.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Nov. 4.-Presicent Wilson closed his campaign for re-election today at Shadow Lawn with a speech in which he accused the opposition of attempting to coerce workingmen and charged that political capital is being made out of unsettled ques-"which if not settled wisely tions, "which if not settled wisely might bring this country at any time into the world conflict."

Predicting Democratic victory next Tuesday, the President declared:

"Having despaired of an Issue they are filling the country with alarm. They are not only filling the country with alarms, but they are attempting coercion of their laborers. They imagine that these men are not their own masters and dare not vote as they think, but at last, I thank God, the American laborer is awake. inborer is awake.

Pulse Rising, Says Wilson. "Let them fill the country with alarms; the alarms are their own, not ours. They used to control the credit ours. They used to control the creation of the country, now they control nothing but the betting.

"So, my fellow citizens," he continued, "I feel rising in my pulses already the inspiration and impulse which is to come, not only to the United States, but to the whole world next Tuesday. I do not identify myself with this. To me has fallen the unspeakable good fortune of happening to be the spokesman of the American people at this critical and fateful time."

Mr. Wilson asserted that the Republican party had fallen back on the proilean party had fallen back on the pro-tective tariff as its only issue.

"They know perfectly well," he said,
"that all the pretenses about the pro-tective tariff have been torn away," adding that the industries with the

"The difference between the Republican party and the Democratic party is this," he continued. "The Republican this," he continued. "The Republican party offers them masters; we offer them comrades and leaders. The Republican party offers to take care of them; we offer to go into the fight shoulder to shoulder with them to get the rights which no man has a right to give them."

The New Jersey political situation was handled directly by the President. He said that any man voting for the Republican ticket in that state is voting for invisible government.

The President's address was delivered before a large gathering, which came from Jersey City, Newark, Trenton and other towns and cities in the state, including a delegation of Princeton professors and students. Governor Fielder of New Jersey presided.

In the course of his address President Wilson said:

PRESIDENT ADDRESSING CROWD. c Handshaking is a strenuous side issue to every political campaign, and no one can testify to this better than President Wilson, who is now carrying one of his fingers in a leather protector.

Despite this slight injury, President Wilson delivered a scathing attack on the Hughes campaign doctrines when this picture was taken at Shadow Lawn October 28, "Wilson day."

The usual hearty handshakes that ordinarily accompany the President's speeches had to be foregone due to the injured finger.

Northern Border State Voters Aware of Danger of Canadian Goods Flooding Country Under Free Trade Following War.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—(Secial.)—There is every indication that Frank H. Hitchcock speaks advisedly when he places in the Hughes column the states of Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Indiana. And late developments indicate that he is justified in his prediction that Mr. Hughes probably will carry Ohlo. But that old Republican stronghold, even today, must be listed as doubtful, because of the exceptionally efficient drive made by the Democrats there before the Republicans woke up.

There was a time when Illinois properly was listed as goubtful, but when it was doubtful, and when the Demograts were most hopeful, they inadvertently exposed the weakness which they had discovered in the Republican Dakota, Taken at Wenatchee. armor-the woman vote-and from that day to this the Republicans have been working among the women voters of the state with most encouraging results. Indiana. That organization is a wonder. It was gotten together early, the state leaders having realized the importance of carrying the state, not alone for the Presidential vote, which is large and important, but because of the two Senatorships. As if to help the Republicans carry Indiana, the Democrats developed a fine young factional quarrel, which is still raging, and which is going to cut down the vote of both Democratic candidates for the Senate and the vote for Wilson as well. Early in the campaign Indiana Democrats realized that Senator Kern could not be re-elected, and Senator Tom Taggart was one of those who saw this.

By way of retaliation, the Kern Democrats have been fighting Taggart, Democrats have been fighting Taggart, and the fight is going merrily on to this day. Because of it, the Republicans are strongly hopeful of electing both their mominees for the Senate. Take a Tablespoonful of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts.

Omit All Meat From Diet if You Feel Rheumatic or Bladder Bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from over-work, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.
