TWO OF THE PATRONESSES FOR LARGE DANCE TO BE GIVEN BY ALAMEDA CLUB
THURSDAY
NOVEMBER 9

Professor W. A. Gaskins, of the school of music of the college.

Several vocal solos and duets were included in the programme. At 9 o'clock the lights were extinguished, and the bride procession entered by candlelight, to the strains of the "Blue Danube Waltz," played by the college orchestra. Autumnal foliage was scattered in the path of the bride by two little girls, Martha Kiger and Helen Elgin.

Attending the bride was a sorority sister, Miss Gertrude Nolan, as maid of honor, and the Misses Lynette and Genevieve Kerr, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Dean Crowell acted as best man, and the guests were ushered by Wilson Perry, Mat Thielson, Thomas Nolan, J. T. Fries, Richard Kiger, Grant Elgin and Harry Buxton. Marion Kerr and Bruce Bauer were paces.

Mr. and Mrs. Shinn left for a visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, at Cheyenne, and when they return they will make their home in Mosier, Or., where Mr. Shinn is manager of the large Mayer estate.

novel method of dining, the delicious dinner not only being served by the women of the Guild, but also being cooked by them.

A delightful tea was held at the home of Miss Belle Simon Saturday, morning and noon. The afternoon of the afternoon. Those enjoying Miss Simon's hospitality were: The Misses Elsie Sommers, Sylvia Holzman, Gladys Bolton, Helene Goldman, Vera Barbour, Irene Barbour, Sylvia Weinstein, Jeanette Schlosberg, Mildred Blakers, Sarah Hertz, Gladys Steele, Rose Steele, Stella Swirsky, Lorna Abrams, Sada Goldblatt, Margaret Cundy, Loretta Wilson and Margaret Cundy.

The hosts, Miss Weinstein assisted Miss Simon about the rooms, which were decorated appropriately for the Halloween colors. Honors fell to Miss Wilson, while Miss Abrams carried off the booby prize.

Theodore, Jr., and Jack Thomson, sons of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Thomson, of 1354 Forttenth street Southeast, entertained a number of their school friends with a ghost party on Halloween. Orange and black streamers, goblin friezes and Jack-o'-lanterns made an effective background for the ghosts. Halloween games were played, the prizes being Halloween favors.

Those winning prizes were Hannah Anderson, Joy Simmons, Violet Miller, Fred Schray, Marguerite Gerling, Ansel Allingham and Loris Kain. Halloween games were played, the prizes being Halloween favors.

Complimenting Miss Frederica Holden, charming Eastern visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westinghouse, last night at Hotel Portland. The guests enjoyed the dancing between courses. Places were marked for Miss Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westinghouse, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Sherwood, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Margery Hoffman, Miss Alice Smith, MacCormac Snow, Hans Frohman, Ferdinand Smith, William Wheeler, Clara Shannon and the hosts.

Mrs. James D. Hart and Mrs. Carl L. Wernicke will entertain tomorrow with a luncheon at the home of the former, honoring Miss Holden.

Mrs. Gilbert Durham has asked several friends to an informal bridge tea Tuesday.

Many Portland society women are awaiting with the keenest interest the opening of Trinity Guild's annual bazaar, at which time they invariably make their Christmas purchases at least a good part of them. The articles to be displayed this year are much more wonderful and varied than in past years, and the prices are so reasonable, due to the fact that the women of the church gladly give their services for the Guild, that it has become a habit with members and their numerous friends to await this opportunity to secure the things they need.

Many original designs in bags, baskets and all kinds of handcraft will be seen. Another novel and new feature is the introduction of a luncheon this year, which will be served during the noon hour, and a tea to be served in the afternoon.

It is rather an interesting fact that in society 25 years ago Trinity Guild and the King's Daughters were preparing for their bazaar and sale at about this time. They had a large and unusual method of arranging one, which was characteristic of the months of the year. There are still many of the same women working hard and faithfully for this year's bazaar.

The dinner given in the parish house Wednesday for the men of the parish by the women of the Guild served its purpose admirably, that of getting the male members of the congregation together for an interesting evening. Dr. Morrison made short and clever talks, and several other prominent members of the vestry were called upon for speeches. Close to 100 men enjoyed this Florence Ingham, Theodora Ingham, Oma Blanchard, Marguerite Gerling, Ruth Martin, Loris Kain, Ethel Mathes, Hannah Anderson, Frits Gerling, Teddy Thorp, Homer Martin, Joy Simmons, Frank Simmons, Ansel Allingham, Le Roy Brownson, Harold Brownson, Emory Ingham, Lawrence Pease, Fred Schray, Howard Robinson, Fred Robinson, Earl Wilson. Dr. and Mrs. Thomson assisted in seeing.

The next afternoon card party of the Irvington Club will be held Tuesday, November 7, with Mrs. Mae E. Varvick as hostess. These parties, which are held every first and third Tuesday, are becoming very popular.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan entertained a number of friends at a housewarming on Tuesday evening. The rooms were decked with Autumn leaves and Halloween decorations. The evening was spent playing campaign games, after which a buffet supper was served.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Marshall N. Dana, Mr. and Mrs. John Powell, Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John Costello, Mr. and Mrs. H. Youngs, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Schlegel, Mr. and Mrs. John Fredericks, Mrs. W. F. Pease, Mrs. Kruse, Mrs. Ulrich Gantenbein, Mrs. Beavans, Mrs. J. H. Hogsett, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Robert Bremner, Misses O. White, Nellie Beavans, Mary Wilcox, Alice Fields, Little Johanne Kruse, and C. E. Murphy, E. E. Crab and L. R. Bailey.

Members of the Oregon Naval Militia have issued invitations to their friends for a dancing party that is to be given on Friday evening, November 10, at Murlark ballroom. The ballroom is to be specially decorated with Militia equipment. The organization will take prominent place on the programme of the evening. Patrons and patronesses for the evening will be: Mr. and Mrs. George F. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Scantlon, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Wilson.

Dr. and Mrs. William F. Fiebig entertained with a card party Monday night at their home on Colofield Heights. The house was adorned with Autumnal foliage and deep-red chrysanthemums. Card honors fell to Mrs. John Coleman and Charles E. Runyon. A musical programme was given by Warren Erwin, Dr. Fiebig and Harold Huribut.

The hosts were assisted by Mrs. Erwin, Mrs. Ralph Robinson and Mrs. Shirley Parker. There were about 35 guests at the affair.

Mrs. Jennie E. Burnham was hostess for a charming bridge tea on Tuesday afternoon at her home, 485 Pettygrove street. The rooms were adorned with clusters of cosmos and Autumnal foliage. The table was decked with garlands of brilliant-hued Boston Ivy. Card honors fell to Mrs. P. J. Mann and Miss Lyons.

The guests were: Mesdames P. J. Mann, William Patterson, P. A. Jones, A. I. Bernard, H. H. Northrup, Charles Knowles, Laura Somerville, P. E. Brigham, Holm-Lawrence, C. Sutherland, E. W. Crichton, Edward Lyons, E. Mattern, Miss Smith, Miss Mollie Smith, Miss Jean Lyons.

The Crescendo Club, the personnel of which is made up of 24 young women, entertained with a card party Wednesday, at the Hotel Multnomah. Mrs. Rose Courten Reed, director of the club, and Miss Evelyn Ewart were honor guests.

The second of its 1916-17 series of informal dancing parties has been announced by the Blackstone Club for Thursday evening, November 16, at Murlark ballroom. These parties have attained a well-deserved popularity among the younger dance set of the city, and the next affair of the series is being eagerly awaited by many.

The committee, consisting of the following young attorneys: Messrs. James W. Crawford, Frank E. Manning, Fred W. Hummel, Alfred J. Shawcross, Thomas B. Collins, Earl W. Hammond, Walter F. McGuirk, Carl J. Hurley and John L. Bosworth.

Assisting this committee are the following young women: Misses Margaret M. O'Shea, Lydia M. Villeneuve, Alma M. Gruening, Helene Dornes, Josephine C. Clark, Ruth A. Routledge and Evangeline F. McIntosh.

Patrons and patronesses acting for the evening are: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Plowden Stott.

A charming bridge tea was given Tuesday by Mrs. Cora Puffer for a number of her friends and club associates. Mrs. J. Coulson Hare assisted the hostess. Huge clusters of yellow chrysanthemums were arranged effectively about the rooms. Fortunate contestants at cards were Mrs. C. G. Wilson, Mrs. Linnton, Mrs. J. Coulson Hare and Mrs. Robert Berger. The guests were: Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. Orange M. Clark, Mrs. H. H. Huggill, Mrs. C. G. Wilson, Mrs. J. Coulson Hare, Mrs. William B. Hare, Mrs. C. C. Burns, Mrs. John H. Burgard.

Mrs. George McMillan is passing the week-end in Seaside, closing her Summer cottage for the winter months.

Miss Margaret Nachtrieb, of Minneapolis, the National delegate of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, is visiting Nu chapter of that sorority in Eugene. She is on her Western tour, having visited the Universities of Idaho and Washington, before her arrival at the University of Oregon. From here she will go to the University of California and Stanford. Miss Nachtrieb is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, where her father, Professor H. F. Nachtrieb, has held the chair of animal biology for 20 years. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a counselor for the Minnesota branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. Miss Nachtrieb is also a member of the extension committee of Gamma Phi Beta. She will finish her Western tour by the holidays, passing four or five days with each chapter.

A charming surprise party was given by a number of her friends Wednesday to Mrs. Charles Marks, a notable singer, in celebration of her birthday. Cards and gifts were the order of the evening, the honor guest's little daughter, Miss Dolly Marks, assisting in the musical selections with a number of vocal selections.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marks, Miss Dolly Marks, Mrs. E. A. Knibler, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz, Jack Peterson, Dr. Castaldi, Arthur Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knibler, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stokes, A. F. Redinger, Mrs. M. L. Stevens, J. Leeborough, Mrs. Leeborough, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lakin, Mrs. Margaret E. Putterbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mallon, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Charles Skeels, Mrs. Skeels, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Wilbur, Robert Bullock, Mrs. Partridge and Mr. Stillwell.

Mrs. J. Coulson Hare opened the week's gaieties in social circles by giving a charming reception honoring the members of the Monday Musical Club, of which she is an active member.

Effectively arranged about the rooms were baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, the handles being tied with fluffy bows of yellow and white tulle. Pinks also were used in the various rooms, and the tea table was adorned with pink carnations and lacey fernery. During the calling hours Miss Marie Chapman played violin solos, and a stringed orchestra contributed delightful selections at intervals.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Percy Lewis and Mrs. L. T. Nelson. More than 75 matrons and maids called during the hours of 4 to 6 o'clock. Presiding at the prettily appointed tea table were Mrs. Amadeo Smith, Mrs. Cora Puffer, Miss Martha Reynolds and Mrs. P. J. Mann. They were assisted by Mrs. W. B. Hare, Mrs. E. E. Patterson, Mrs. Henry Waldo Cook, Mrs. C. C. Stout, Mrs. J. D. Sadler, Mrs. E. L. Pettis, Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mrs. John Toft and Mrs. Peter Marsden.

Mrs. Donald Clarke (Vida Reed), daughter of Mrs. Rose Courten Reed, who has been making her home in New York City since her marriage, soon will arrive in this city to visit her mother at Hotel Multnomah. She is at present visiting her brother, Donald Reed, in Los Angeles, and also will visit friends in San Francisco and Fresno, reaching here the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Clarke has a host of friends in this city, who will welcome her with many charming social functions.

Mrs. Orange Marcus Clark's breakfast and card party on Monday was a charming complement to her sister-in-law, Mrs. George A. Huggill, of Cheboygan, Mich. The guests were seated around a daintily appointed table, a feature of which was an artistic basket filled with luscious fruits and Autumnal foliage, the favors and general scheme suggesting the Halloween season. Covers were placed for 16, bridge occupying the later hours. Card honors fell to Mrs. McKinley Mitchell, Mrs. Lee Arnes and Mrs. George W. Simpson.

Mrs. Huggill has been delightfully feted since her arrival in town, and many other prominent women are planning charming compliments to the visitor.

On Wednesday night a delightful social affair was given at the Sunnyside Methodist Church. It was a reception to the new district superintendent, Dr. W. W. Youngson, and his wife, the returning pastor, Dr. Robert Elmer Smith, and his wife and the new assistant pastor, Rev. Charles T. M. McPherson, and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gordon, of the official board, and Mrs. Duncan Munn, president of the Ladies' Aid, were in the receiving line. J. J. Harrison was master, and ceremonies, and the details were well arranged by Mrs. Munn and her assistants.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Blake. Mrs. Marie Fisher and J. D. McFall delighted their auditors with two fine duets, "Free Thy Angel Soul" and "Go Not, Happy Day." Mrs. Fisher also sang a solo, "Laugh and Sing." The addresses of welcome were made by Dr. W. H. Ewing, president of the board of trustees; C. W. Miller, for the Sunday school, and Mrs. Munn, who, for the Ladies' Aid, presented a beautiful floral arrangement. Mrs. Charles A. Cooldige, Mrs. Cora Bonney, Mrs. M. C. Banfield, Mrs. W. E. Slater, Mrs. G. J. Doud, Mrs. Edson Scantlon and Miss Vella Winner.

Friends of Miss Claire Blaker, of Vancouver, Wash., will be interested in the announcement that her marriage to Harry M. Van Zandt, of Portland, will take place tomorrow at 8 A. M. at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, of Vancouver, Wash.

Following the ceremony, Mr. Van Zandt and his bride will leave for their future home in Detroit, Mich.

Miss Dagmar Inez Kelly will leave Thursday for Seattle, where she will be the bridesmaid and sing at the wedding on November 16 of Miss Helen Larsen and Oscar Scarp.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A surprise party was given to Miss Hilda Scheel at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Scheel, 2563 East Taylor street, Wednesday night. The decorations were carried out in Halloween colors. Bright-colored Autumn leaves and black and orange festoons were effective.

The evening was passed playing various games, several political speeches resulting in a straw vote putting Charles E. Hughes far in the lead. Refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Shunke, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Neubauer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kimmel, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brownlee, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wetzel, Mrs. David Billeter, Mrs. H. Zinsley, Miss Rose Zinsley, Mrs. John Kuntz and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Von Groenewald.

Margaret and Elsie Loy, of 184 Jarrett street, entertained a number of their little school mates and friends at a Halloween party last Saturday afternoon. Their house was lively with its decorations of Autumn leaves and Halloween novelties in yellow and black. Each little guest wore a ghost costume and many of the games were of the "spooky" variety.

Before leaving the guests were served with delicious refreshments. Those present were Barbara Castleman, Edna Donis, Dorothy Donis, Alpha Frickard, Susabeth Bruer, Messrs. Goldstein, Marie Smith, Ellen Hopkins, Genevieve Harper, Elva Case, Anna-vesta Williams, Beatrice Levy, Una Rose Van Houten, Irene Van Houten.

"EVERYONE ADMIRES MY BRAND NEW SUIT"

"They say it's one of the prettiest suits they ever saw. All the girls accuse me of having paid much more than I could afford for this new suit of mine."

"Of course, I DIDN'T! Why, I didn't even walk into a store and hand over the price of it in full! The price I'm paying is no more than any of my friends could easily pay. The price I AM PAYING, mind you—not HAVE ALREADY PAID!

"You see what I mean, don't you? Yes, I PURCHASED THIS SUIT AT CHERY'S CREDIT SHOP, on the simplest and most convenient of installment payments. Really, when I walked into CHERY'S the other day I didn't have, altogether, more than a third of the price in my purse!

"But I bought the suit, anyway—and anyone else can do just as I did. In fact, vast numbers of up-to-date women DO buy their clothes on Chery's Credit Plan and have for years. Some of the smartest costumes you see have had only the small first payment made on them so far."

"Think how much better clothes YOU can wear, on this basis! And the assortments, CHERY'S are marvelous—I can't imagine any woman seeing them without being tempted a hundred times. Their store is at 389-94 Washington street, Pittcock block."

To Whom it May Concern:

In the issue of the Oregon Daily Journal of Saturday, October 1, page 8, an article under the heading "Pur Garments," appeared and, while the article is true as to the honesty and reliability of the old firm of G. P. Rummell & Sons and also that some of the members of the family have passed away and that the business is in the hands of another, a great many people are led to believe that there are none of the original Rummells living. Yet there is the name Rummell, president of The Rummell Fur Co., Inc., located at 415-15-17-15 Dekum Ridge, corner Third and Washington streets, is still alive, and very much alive, who will uphold the departed one's reputation as one of the most reliable family of furriers in the country. Not only is the name Rummell known from ocean to ocean, as the article states, but I might add, from the Arctic region to Mexico; and the way to have a Rummell-made garment is to have a Rummell make it. A man may buy a business, also the name and good will, but he cannot buy the ability of another.
