ATRIO OF PATRONESSES FOR SMRINERS' BALL NOVEMBER 9 ATHOTEL

Merle Tienken, Margaret Loy and Eisle;

Dorothy and Marjorle Carter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Carter entertained a group of little friends Tuesday afternoon with a gay Hallowen party. Games, music and refreshments made the afternoon interesting for the children, who carried away attractive souvenirs of the contraction. away attractive souvenirs of the oc

Guests were Catherine Hogshire, Barbara Luil, Miriam Shepard, Lucile Vanderweilen, Dorothy Dougal, Catherine Cole, Katherine Hart, Jane Gilerine Cole, Katherine Cole, Katherine Hart, Jane Gilerine Cole, Katherine Cole, Katherine Hart, Jane Gilerine Cole, Katherine Cole, Col bert, Louise Gilbert, Edith Matthews, Dorothy Carter, Marjorie Carter,
Charles Lee Reynolds, Junior Cousins,
George Riley Hogshire, Thomas Mills,
William Powell, Abbott Lawrence,
Jimmie Lull, Billy Gilbert, Frankie
Matthews, Ronald Callvert and Harvey
Welch.

The Junior Parent Association gave a party at the home of its president, Miss Gertrude Weisensee, Wednesday night.
The house was decorated in Halloween colors, Autumn leaves, pumpkins, squash and Fall flowers. Three prizes were given, two for the best-dressed couple, and one for a

Many games were played, and music was enjoyed throughout the entire eve-

In honor of her husband's birthday Mrs. Albert T. Godel entertained with an old-fashioned barn dance on Halloween, A number of contests consisting of peanut hunts, races, blindfold games, and other events added to the fun. An unique prize was presented the winner of each. Fortunes were told and all the regulation Halloween diversions indulged in. Charles Duncan appeared in a clog dance. The house was decked with cornstalks, Autumn leaves and pumpkins. The following guests were invited. Missey Genevieve guests were invited: Misses Genevieve Orton, Tirzah McMillen and Josephine Miller, William Muir, Robur Hughson, Roy Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stoppelman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cook, and Mr. and Mrs. William Richmond.

The dancing and card party given by the members of the Kenton Club was a great success. The ballroom was beautifully decorated with Jap-anese lanterns and festoons of cedar. The reception room was artistically arranged, and huge baskets of dahlias lent charm to the color scheme. About 100 couples were present, and the many handsome gowns of the women added to the colorful affair. A harvest dance has been arranged for Thursday even-

Miss Helen Jassett entertained her sewing club at her home, 146 Vermont street, Friday night. The members present were the Misses Ethel Lind, Gertrude and Ruth Lind, Elizabeth Bowe, Louise Meister, Rose Meister, Ethel Sundberg, Sarah Gassett, Mrs. George Jorgensen, Mrs. W. E. Gassett, Miss Catherine Bowe and Miss Flora Meister.

Miss Lena Pauline Breske enter-tained with a delightful Halloween party Tuesday night. Fourteen boys and girls in costume responded to the invitation of the hostess. Halloween games, refreshments, music and gen-eral holiday spirit made the affair in-teresting. Mrs. T. Breske, mother of the young hostess, was assisted by her son, Henry, and Mrs. Robert Gardner. Those present were: Ethel Crane, Grace Gardner, Helen Ball, Josephine Yocum, Bessie Allen, Virginia Richards, Walton Crane, Robert Gardner, Francis Ball, Fred Martin, Raymond Rankin, James Davidson and Eusealt Rankin, James Davidson and Russell

Merle Baker was host for a Halloween party, I'onday, at his home in Irvington. Witches, lack o' lanterns, corn stalks and Autumn leaves adorned the rooms. Music, dancing and games were the diversions of the evening, and prizes were awarded. The evening ended with a feast befitting the occachied with a reast belitting the occa-sion. Those present were: Bernice Ma-thisen, Grace Jacobsen, Marjoric Reed, Gertrude Kuckenberg, Eleanor Mathi-sen, Helen Webber, Stanley Eisman, Neville Mills, Gordon Mock, James Lively, Earl Sears, Charles Webber, Richard McLardy and Joe Mathisen.

walker, Otto Shindler, Stanley Gozesky, Crawford, Esther Rudeen, Lucile Siev-Herman Husman, Donald Duffy, Victor Nielson, Alfred Borquoist, Tom Hewitt, Rudolph Dahlgren and Ben Alexander. Competition was keen for prizes, and the judges selected the following from among those present: Best dressed man, Earl Knowles, as Spanish gentleman; best dressed lady. Pauline Berry, as a Scotch queen; best austained man character, Dersey Hill, as Doc Yak; best sustained lady character, Jennie Clark, as colored wash lady.

Those deserving special mention were Ruth Cowles. Gladys Gray, Zimmerman, Thomson, Frank Callahan, Billy O'Donnell, Dr. Yates, Walter Jensen, Vida Zachary and Nell Griffin.

The Past Matrons' Club, of Camelia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were the guests of Mrs. J. Norman Schmitt and Mrs. F. A. Van Kirk at the beautiful home of the former, 251 Laurelhurst avenue, Thursday afternoon. The rooms were lovely, with yellow chrysanthemum decorations.

Members present: Beat dressed man, Earl Knowles, as Spanish gentleman; best dressed lady. Pauline Berry, as a Scotch queen; best austained man character, Dersey Hill, as Doc Yak; Best dressed man, Earl Knowles, as Spanish gentleman; bust dressed lady. Pauline Berry, as a Scotch queen; best dressed man, Earl Knowles, as Spanish gentleman; bust dressed lady. Pauline Berry, as a State Wilson Mark. Lausson, Agenes Torgler, Mr. and Mrs. Lausson, Agenes Torgler, Mr. and Mrs. Lausson, Agenes Torgler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rudeen, Mr. and Mrs. Lausson, Agenes Torgler, Mr. and Mrs. Lausson, Agenes Torgler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rudeen, Mr. and Mrs. Laus

Miss Iris Saunders was hostess at a Members present were Mrs. L. M. Miss Iris Saunders was hostess at a Halloween frolic for a few friends at the home in Irvington, Tuesday night. Trego, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. G. A. Johnson, Mrs. F. A. Watts, Mrs. Lawrence Phillips, Mrs. L. T. Mason, Mrs. G. E. Hamaker, Mrs. F. A. Van Kirk, Mrs. Charles Pye. Visitors: Mrs. Oliver Cutter, Mrs. A. J. McDaniel and the hostess. The club will meet with Mrs.

Mrs. Emma H. Wollenberg, with her children, is visiting relatives and friends in Southern California.

G. E. Hamaker, 372 East Thirty-sixth fireplace, while the young people listened to ghost stories. Each person came in costume appropriate to the oc

O.M. Clark

An enjoyable picnic party was tendered to Mrs. Alete Scheirig at herborn in Whitwood Court Thursday, October 25. Those present were: Mrs. Albert Boss, Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Ida Erdann, Mrs. H. F. Hansen, Mrs. L. Pelton, Mrs. A. H. Pennick, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. T. Miller, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. Sweeny.

Witches, ghosta, goblins, etc., held court at the home of Miss Ruth Vatison, 1191 Everard fraid of the month will be the Al Kader Temple for the dancers, the mexanine floor be used for the dancers, the mexanine floor of be used for promenading. The affair is complimentary to all Shriners and their women friends and relatives. A committee has been selected completely with Autumn leaves, skeletons, witches, pumpkins, etc. Many unique costumes were worn, and the evening was passed appropriate for the evening and games appropriate for the decentral provided by Missing and the list of patronesses includes many prominent women of various sections of the city.

An enjoyable evening was spent at a dancing party given by the Misses Elizabeth Kirby. Erra Husman, Ruth Alexander, Johnson (Alice and Ada), Joe and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, McKercher, Farmer, Tucker, Ann and Edna Steventon, Gill strap, and unique costumes, after which danc-ing, games and refreshments suitable to the occasion were enjoyed by all.

After a most successful year, the Portland Health Chautauqua celebrated their first anniversary in the W odmen of the World Hall Monday evening with a Halloween party, including games and lancing. Halloween refreshments were

The committee, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Greenfield, Dr. W. Reynolds and A. Rollman, with their willing helpers, transformed the hall into a bower Roliman, with their willing helpers, transformed the hall into a bower with Autumn leaves, pumpkins, cornstalks and evergreens.

The programme was rendered by members of the organization as follows: Opening song and Flynn exercises, led by Miss Carrie Hunt; health talk, by Doctor Stockton; address of welcome, Dr. S. W. Stryker; vocal solo, by Miss Viggers, of the Monday Musical Club, accompanied by Miss Ella Jones; plano solo, Miss Ella Jones; reading. Mrs. James; violin solo, Master Thurman J. Hart; violin and mandolin duet. Mister Thurman J. and Winifred Hart, accompanied by little Miss Helen Story; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jacobs; reading. Dr. S. W. Stryker; fancy dances, "Butterfly" and "Highland" Scotch dances, by Little Miss Lucile Barnard; vocal solo, Robert Jacobs; reading, H. G. Huntington, original poem, by the club poet, Mr. Smith; witch scene from Macbeth, by J. R. Greenfield, assisted by Mrs. W. T. Lyon, Mrs. J. R. Greenfield, Mrs. H. Melby and Mrs. A. Roliman, dressed as witches. Mrs. W. T. Lyon told fortunes in the witches' hut during the evening.

The merriest of stepping parties given in the past week at which Halloween frivolity ran high was that of the Hi Steppers, which was given in Muriark ballroom on Tuesday evening. The next party to be given by this popular club will be Tuesday evening, and as an attraction, election returns will be given out a intervals. Mrs. J. Lee Thompson, Mrs. J. D. Swank, Mrs. Bruce Stewart and Mrs. C. A. Dorrance are patronesses. are patronesses.

A pleasant Halloween party was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. William Drapeau, 1097 East Yamhill street, Tuesday evening. The evening was passed at cards and a buffet supper ended the merriment. Elaborate decorations of yellow and black, with great orange chrysanthemums as a feature, were attractive. Honors at cards were won by Mrs. Norman Slocum and Albert Breedlove. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Suillvan, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Breedlove, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. William Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams, Thiel Suillvan and Miss Margaret Pedro.

The Woodlarks have completed arrangements for their dancing party to be held November 9 at Murlark hall. The event is being looked forward to with much interest and a good time is an-went is being looked forward to with much interest and a good time is anticipated.

The following committee has the affair in charge: Elizabeth Bowe, Lucy Dake, Hattle Larsen, Gertrude Brooke, Dake, Hattle Larsen, Gertrude Brooke, Lucy Dake, Hattle Larsen, Gertrude Rrooke, Cliffy Park and they acquitted them in Ross White Laura Lingans, Claude Kemp, Alfred Foster, Dick Harlin, William Land, Fred Munson, Quincy Muntzel, Gordon Bye, Walter Westman, Warrend Kohlman and Jack Sammons.

On Thursday Mrs. I, Faulkner, past grand, and Mrs. Emma Maple, noble grand, of Utopia Rebekah Lodge, were delightful hostesses for a dinner party at Mrs. Faulkner's home, 430 East Mill street, in honor of the officers of their Mrs. Faulkner's home, 430 East Mill street, In honor of the officers of their street, in honor of the officers of t

U-Re-Ka Club was entertained by Mrs. Louise Williams Friday afternoon at her home. Honors fell to Mrs. E. G. Ericksen and Mrs. W. A. Gill. Mrs. J. F. Albright will entertain the club next week at her home, 1125 Missouri avenue.

Those present were: Mrs. Edward Oliver, Mrs. P. Boon, Mrs. B. F. Padrick, Mrs. Emil Schacht, Mrs. Emil Kroll, Mrs. Myrtie Edmonston, Mrs. W. A. Gill, Mrs. M. C. Fransett, Mrs. Emil Schacht, Mrs. Emil Schacht, Mrs. Emil Kroll, Mrs. Myrtie Edmonston, Mrs. Charles Mayer, Mrs. J. F. Albright, Mrs. E. G. Ericksen, Mrs. Louise Williams atternoon at the evening merry. After several Richmond, Oliver K. Jeffery, J. H. Middleton, Ted Preble and Dudley Clark.

The Inter-Se Club were entertained at the home of Miss Beatrice O'Brien last will entertain with a dinner-dance at Hotel Multnomah in the assembly hall, a special feature to be the reading of falling to Miss Lydia Danmier and George Webster.

The Hazelwood Club, composed of the Hazelwood Company, held the first of a series of dancing parties in Arcanum Hall Tuesday night, Charles Mayer, Mrs. J. F. Albright, Mrs. E. G. Ericksen, Mrs. Louise Williams and Miss Ada Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wightman, 474
College street, entertained with a Hailoween dinner party Tuesday night. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kopf. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. Green, Mrand Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison and M. A. Osborn.

COMING EVENTS.

COMING EVENTS.

The dancing party to be given by the Alameda Club at Cotiliton Hall on November 2 is being looked forward to with much pleasurable anticipation. All final arrangements have been made on there is every assurance that the

Advance Suggestions for Holiday Shoppers

Gill's holiday lines are now on display in variety and accustomed abundance. While the holiday week service and shopping conveniences are noteworthy, there are certain self-evident advantages in early shopping. Come any time, if only to inspect.

Choose Your Personal Greeting Cards Early

Holiday sentiment is delicately expressed in Personal Greeting Cards-order now for delivery when wanted. Great variety to choose from.

Specially Priced Items in Novelty Calendars

O. Henry Calendar ...... 60¢ Fannie Merritt Palmer Dinner Golden Thoughts Calendar 50¢

Football Calendar, by Walter Camp ......60¢ Wallace Nutting Calendar.. ......35é, 75é

Lavender and Old Lace Calen-Business Man's Calendar ... 35¢

Orders are now being taken for Monogram Stationery for Christmas Gifts-Second Floor

Timely Suggestions From the Big Book Department

Important New Books.

"Nights — R e m e. Venice, London and Paris"....$3.00 Elizabeth Robins Pennell. Old Age, Its Cause and Prevention"... Sanford Bennett. "Androcles and the Lion and Other Plays"..... Bernard Shaw.

The Children's Book Room.

The best books of all pub-lishers, the most beautiful edi-tions, as well as inexpensive books of merit, are collected

A place of fascination, en-joyment, romance for both parents and children. "Story Hour" every Saturday at 2:30 and again at 3:30, in charge of Miss Beatrice Come and bring the chitNew Fiction

"The Wonderful Year" ... $1.40 William J. Locke.

George Madden Martin.

"When a Man's a Man" . . Harold Bell Wright.

The Magnificent Adven-

Emerson Hough. "Sins of the Children" .... $1.40 Cosmo Hamilton

The J. K. Gill Co., Booksellers, Stationers and Complete Office Outfitters.

employes of the Hazelwood Composed of held the first of a series of dancing parties in Arcanum Hall Tuesday night, November 2.

Osborn.

The annual dinner given by the Rose City Park Club on Tuesday evening was a noted success, there being more than 100 people in attendance. Being Halloween night, the decorations were arranged in accordance with the suggestions of that event and it was ob-

CHARMING YOUNG WOMAN WHOSE WEDDING WAS AN EVENT OF

Mrs F.E. Hart

Stop Experimenting DeMiracle

"AQUASCUTUM" London Motor Coats BURBERRY" "TOGA"

London Walking Coats London Raglans London Loose-Fitting Coats London Rain Coats

You can tell at a glance, when you meet an "Aquascutum," "Burberry" or "Toga" coat, that the man inside KNGWS and insists upon the best the world offers.

The "Aquascutum," "Burberry" and "Toga" have the "Londonness" of the thoroughbred coat, and the makers of these coats have given London Overcoats and Rain Coats their world standing.

For Men and Women

K. S. ERVIN & CO., Ltd. CUSTOM CLOTHING

> IMPORTED ACCESSORIES FOR MEN CUSTOM SHIRTS

> SECOND FLOOR SELLING BUILDING Sixth and Alder Streets

RELIABLE FURS

STYLISH FURS OF EVERY KIND A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL STOCK TO SELECT FROM AND

OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT.

We are a couple of blocks from the shopping district. To overcome this handicap we have made a great cut in all prices. We can save you money from the lowest-priced garment to the richest sealskin.

C. G. APPLEGATH, FURRIER

124 Second Street, Near Washington. SEND FOR ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE.