AT THE THEATERS

"The Forest Fire" and the Baker Theater reopened as the home of a stock company, this time with the Alexar Players. In every block along Broadway electric signs blaze and beckon the night wanderer and treat him well. Broadway has taken on a life not to be denied. The Hellig, except for this week-end, is reasonably well booked up with road attractions to crowd in at the end of each week after the Orpheum bill. It particularly offers three worthy attractions for this month in Schumann Heink in concert play, sans crime, sans problem sex stuff and sans tricks. It is all play. There is an abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only "There is an abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only it a spread but which has abounded to suppose the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only it a spread but which has abounded to suppose the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only it a spread but which has abounded to suppose the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only it a spread but which has abounded to suppose the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only it is appeal but which has abounded the same aboundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only it is appeal but which has abounded the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only its appeal but which has abounded the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only its appeal but which has abounded the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only its appeal but which has abounded the same aboundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only its appeal but which has abounded the same abundance of smart lines and epigrammatic chatter that not only only its appeal but which has abounded the same abundance of smart lines aread the same aboundance of smart lines are same abundance of smar recital Saturday night, November 11.
"Hobson's Choice," which comes Friday and Saturday nights, November 16 and 17, with a matinee Friday, and in the immense production, "The Garden of Allah," the dramatized version of Robert Hichens' novel, which is the engagement Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 23, 24 and 25, with a matinee on Saturday, Of course Eva Tanguay, with her international vaudeville, which was to have stooped here for a day or so, has stopped here for a day or so, has passed up the entire Northwest and scootted back to New York—apparently to be away from the scathing critics she encountered at San Fran-

But these are things of the near tuture. For today equally promising events are at hand. The Baker Theater, after oponing auspiclously with "On Trial," a mechanically attractive and Trial," a mechanically attractive and warnings of friends, she marries the warnings of friends, she marries the dramatically convincing production, will present this week "the Eternal Magdalene," one of the best sellers last Winter in book form and undoubtedly a powerful preachment. It is the play which drew Julia Arthur back to the If the dramatized version adheres closely to the book story written by Robert McLoughlin there should be presented a magnificent night mob seepe, when a man's church goes back on him and he defles them, to stand by the woman—the eternal Magdalene—of his life. McLoughlin chose with much wisdom when he hit upon his title. It remains for the Aleazar Players to imbibe the spirit of the play and bring it home. It will make some Anteoni, and Albert Andruss as the people squirm! From the work of the kindly Father Roubler.

Alcazar Players in "On Trial" it is ex
Others in the large company will inpected they will give a good account-ing of themselves in "The Eternal Magdalene." Miss Gates, the leading woman, seems to toe the mark of requirements; to penetrate the person-ality of a character. Al McGovern has bearing and dramatic quality and there are several members of the company who appear to have resources hid-den from view in the presentation of, "On Trial." We refer particularly to Mr. Webster, who is known among many for his excellent work years ago in the Northwest and throughout the Next deek the Alcazar Play ers will forsake the heavier drama for a week and engage their audiences in "Nearly Married." This will give an opportunity for them to display their abilities in light comedy.

The Orpheum this afternoon brings back to Portland that wealthy and wise vaudeville entertainer, Sophie Tucker. But it is a new Sophie, we understand—a Sophie reincarnated in the mould of public demand and public opinion. She has forsaken her "rough house stuff." Her act this week is "Five Kings of Syncopation," and in it she will have some new songs—songs not will have some new songs—songs not "lifted" and spoiled in advance by the cabarqt singers and second-rate troup-ers. But the Orpheum bill is not all ers. But the Orpheum bill is not all Sophic Tucker, notwithstanding she is the headline act. There is a triumvirate of leaders on the bill. The other two are "Cranberries," a playlet, and Bert Fitzgibbon, billed as "a clown of glorious lunacy." Sounds good! Of Fitzgibbon it is said, of all the "nuts" in vaudeville he is the nuttlest. There are many who will hope so, for nutty actors are much in vogue—on the stage.

"A Nut Sundae," embellished with lots of pretty girls, skilled comedians and catchy tunes, heads the list. Jules Walter is responsible for the music and Virgii P. Benneit wrote the book, The three Mori brothers, introducing Jap-anese pastimes, and Valentine Vox, an entertainer of some note, are other features. More than usual interest is taken in the big motion picture se-rial. "The Lass of the Lumberlands," which marks the return of beautiful Helen Holmes, the athletic heroine of so many feature films.

Malvefn's Comiques, six clever performers, offer a novelty pantomime at the Hippodrome on the new bill starting this afternoon, to run until Thursday. The Homestead Singers offer annual that never grow old, There are Nothing can harm me, I have dined today." Portland theatergoers may say, Winter can have no appreciable fury, the theatrical season is well under way.

The Orpheum last week brought a most speciacular stage offering in "The Forest Fire" and the Baker Theater reopened as the home of a stock company, this time with the Alcazar Players. In every block along Broadway electric signs blaze and becken many who will hope so, for nutty actors are much in vogue—on the stage.

Pantages will have to offer on the week's programme commencing with tomorrow's matinee a bill filled with the sort of vaudeville everybody likes.

York, for a ruh of one year.

SOPHIE TUCKER AT ORPHEUM

Song Hits Are Offered and Gorgeous Gowns Are Displayed

Sophie Tucker, "The Mary Garden of Ragtime," is the star of the Orpheum show to prevail at the Heilig Theater Helen Holmes, the athletic heroine of so many feature films.

Malvetn's Comiques, six clever pertion," who have been praised gener-

ery. Reviewers extol Fitzgibbon as "a riot in laughmaking," Remaining acts are Johnny Cantwell and Reta Walker, favorites in Portland, in "Get the Fly Stuff"; Ruth Budd, the girl with the smile; Beeman and Anderson, speed boys; Estelle Riche and Vera Burt in novel and constant of the Control of the Contro original songs and dances; the Or-pheum Travel Weekly, showing mov-ing picture views of "Old Isle de France" and the sangaroo at home and Act at Strand Theater. the Orpheum concert orchestra, under direction of George E. Jeffery, Election returns will be read be-tween Orpheum acts next Tuesday night, arrangements having been made for a special service

STRONG PLAY IS TO BE GIVEN

"The Eternal Magdalene" to Be Presented by Alcazar Players.

No play that has been seen in this city in recent years has aroused the interest that has already been shown in the announcement that "The Eternal Magdalene," by Robert McLaughlin, will be presented at the Baker for the with the matinee tomorrow.

Jules Walter concocted the offering: Virgil P. Bennett served it. The public accepted it as a pleasing asset to the amusement menu. Among the stars in the cast are Ada Murray, vaudeville's Geraldine Farrar; Otto Wight, Phyllis Daye, E. D. Pitsor, Harry Bransky and Mary Lamm. This cast is supported by a chorus of Broadway beauties who can sing and dance with rare gusto.

Alcazar Players, at the Baker created by no less an artist than Julia Arthur, and Albert McGovern in the romantic leading man's role. Matinees today, Wednesday and Saturday, as well as the popular bargain night to-

PANTAGES OFFERS BIG ACT

nusical refreshment, "A Nut Sundae" omes with pretty girls and clever omedians as the featured attraction at

The three Mori brothers are remarkable Japanese athletes who entertain in their performance of Japanese pastimes. They introduce remarkable balancing, juggling, risley work and Zoe Rae—she doesn't look to be more similar athletic features, which easily make them special attractions on the programme.

Valentine Fox, a member of the black and while as he is known is heard in programme. and white, as he is known, is heard in certain grownups, and she accombis original entertainment. Mr. Fox is one of vaudeville's brightest stars. she of vaudeville's brightest stars.
Sherman, Van and Hyman are exteremly clever entertainers. They offer a rathskellar act filled with catchy tunes and lively dances. Enough fun is in the act to keep the audience which the two tots carried the first act the start of the best Bluebird talent, with the added assistance of 25 children, including Master Gordon Griffith, with whom is in the act to keep the audience which the two tots carried the first act the start of the laughing.

Elsie White introduces her peculiar Elsie White introduces her peculiar characterizations which have made her such a favorite in the world of entertainment.

Clifford and Mack have an extremely classy routine of songs and dances and they are certain to be numbered among the best acts on the programme.

Which the two tots carried the first act through almost unassisted.

Billed as a "21st century novelty," La Petite Cabaret is a manikin musical comedy act, said to be the acme of mechanical eleverness. Like the feature film, it is counted as being certain to please the grown folks because it pleases the children.

Hippodrome Attraction

The public's attention is called to the latest and best motion picture serial. "The Lass of the Lumberlands." in which beautiful Helen Holmes makes her return as a heroine. It is not too late to start, for the second episode will be shown commencing tomorrow. Bell's Four Comiques have a farce comedy number that comes well rec-mmended and LaVerne and Grimm. "musicologists supreme," play a diver-sity of instruments and play them well, according to advance notices.

The vaudeville section will be com-pleted by the Kolinsky Duo, man and woman, in novel acrobatics. will be shown commencing tomorrow.

Patrons of Pantages will be given extra entertainment Tuesday evening.

Jake Malvern's Comedy Pantomime Co.

when the election returns are announced between acts.

Herbert Lloyd and his company, in "Peaches in Pawn." will be seen for the final performances at the continuous bill from 2:15 to 11 o'clock today.

the past week augurs well for what they will do with "The Eternal Magdatent," with Ruth Gates in the star role, created by no less an artist than Julia Arthur, and Albert McGovern in the romantic leading man's role. Matinees today, Wednesday and Saturday, as well as the popular bargain night tomorrow.

PANTAGES OFFERS BIG ACT
"A Nut Sundae" Is Feature of This Week's Bill.

Described as vaudeville's sparkling musical refreshment, "A Nut Sundae" the star role, they have an another honeymoon, Just as they get another honeymoon an opportunity to see the popular trons an opportunity t other original incidents add to the excitement and the complications are most originally and humorously conceived and worked out.

The new Alcazar Players have proven themselves in the heavier acting roles and in "Nearly Married" we will see them at their best in comedy roles.

> HAPPINESS FILM SCHEDULED Four Vaudeville Numbers Also on Strand Programme.

cooing in their cotes, all literally hold the audience spellbound.

There will be more than 100 persons in all used in the presentation of this spectacle and it will be exactly as seen at the Century Theater, New York, for

HOBSON'S CHOICE" IS COMING

Whirlwind Success in East Will Be Produced at Heilig.

The Heilig Theater offers for a lim-ited engagement Thursday and Friday nights, November 16 and 17, with a special matinee Friday, the important dramatic novelty of the year, "Hobson's Choice," direct from a whirlwind of success in New York, Boston and Chicago. Opening in New York last season without the usual heralding of the greatest comedy the stage has ever had." It was acclaimed by the critics and public as one of the best comic "Hobson's Choice," is the work of "Holson's Choice," is the work of Harold Brighouse, a young North-of-England playwright. It was staged by B. Iden Payne, at the time an entire stranger in the ranks of New York producing directors. For both reasons it departs widely from the ordinary conventions of comedy. The scene conventions of comedy. The scene of the story is laid in Lancashire in the early '80s. Maggie Hobson, a clerk in her fath-

Maggie Hobson, a clerk in her father's shoe shop, has two sisters and a very dominearing father. Tired of being "ordered about" under the parents! roof, she starts a domeatic rebellion. Being a typical lesp-year heroine she makes one of her father's shoe hands marry her, having discovered that he is a cobbling genius, and leaves her father to his own incompetence. The stratagems of Maggie in winning out and finally making everybody happy are said to provide a continual succession of amusing surprises.

The Messers, Shubert obtained for this lively and original role the services of Miss Viola Roach. As an actress Miss Viola Roach has won warm praise in this country and abroad. Theater-scenery go to make the act the best one-act musical comedy in vaudeville.

The three Mori brothers are remarkable about a child—or rather, in "Gloriana."

In their performance of Japanese pastimes. They introduce remarkable balancing, juggling, risley work and similar athletic features, which easily make them special attractions on the programmes of Glorians of Glorians of Glorians of the saign programmes. whose active association with "Manchester drama" caused the Mesers. Shubert to entrust him with the stag-

the COUPLE WEDDED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bates Celebrate Near White Salmon.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Nov. 4.— (Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bates celebrated their golden wedding Oc-tober 25 at Kabekona ranch. The couple were recipients of many pleasing remembrances, and a most enjoy-able evening was spent by those present.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs.
Matt Clark, Mrs. Sarah Stimson, Mrs.
J. P. Mann, of Portland; William L.
Bates, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall, Mr.
and Mrs. E. E. Mills, Mr. and Mrs.
Chester Dewey, Wilmer S. Bates of Tacoma, Miss Nancy Bates and Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Bates.

Apple Crop Ready for Market.

Dramatization of Hichens' Novel Is

"GARDEN OF ALLAH" COMING

RICKREALL Or., Nov. 4.—(Special.)
—The heavy apple crop harvested in Polk County this Fall is about ready That beautiful and wonderful produc-tion of "The Garden of Allah," which comes to the Hellig Theater, Thursday, Friday and Sayunday, November 22 24 chools started, but the change to older help for a time threatened embarrass-ment to the growers.

SCHUMANN-

Floor .....$2.50, $2.00 Balcony ..$2.50, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00 Gallery, reserved, $1; Gallery ad-Lower Boxes .....$3.00 Upper Boxes .....$2.50 to prevail at the Heilig Theater this afternoon until next scary night. Miss Tucker is aswhere the play has been seen it has adding greatly to the effect of right songs.

•••••••••• CITY COUNTRY MAIL ORDERS RECEIVED NOW ...........

Thur.-Fri.

BRILLIANT COMEDY SUCCESS.

So play in recent years has proved more successful in New York, and wherever the play has been seen it has served as a magnet to draw hundreds only is Miss Tucker the best-only is Miss Tucker the play has been seen it has showing of the Bluebird feature film. Sight for a Small to Caroline. "Too's Tucker the Bushing of the Bluebird feature film. Sight for a Small to Caroline." The musical numbers Include "Back to Caroline." The musical numbers Include "Back to Caroline." The musical numbers Include "Back to