"A balance of $286,000 was carried forward from the year 1915 to meet current expenses until such time as money would be available from 1916 taxes, but a large portion of this amount has been expended to meet emergencies (over $90,000 being expended for the removal of snow, ice and slides and the relief of the unemployed), and as a consequence the city ployed), and as a consequence the city will be without sufficient funds to meet

asked in the report of the Library Association of Portland to the advisory budget committee of the county. A tax levy of half a mill for library purposes is asked, an increase of .05 over the tax of .45 mills of the present year.

The heavy delinquent list and the decreased valuation of land is responsible for the request. A delinquency of 7 per cent or $10,500 of the $150,000 it is estimated half a mill would raise is expected.

Modified Chippendale

The factory of the Bush & Lane Piano Company at Holland, Michigan, is the outgrowth of an ideal held in the mind of Walter Lane, one of the few men of this country who has mastered the science and art of piano construction. It was built after years of experimenting in highest grade piano making, for the express purpose of manufacturing an instrument that would be a standard in every particular. This factory is a model in the piano industry. Every arrangement was provided for in its construction, to make it possible to apply a perfect system to the entire operation of making a piano; saving time and labor, but never at the expense of the primary ideal-highest quality. Only in such a factory could such a piano be made. Results have proven this an incontrovertible fact.
