Republican Chairman Shows How Apparent Lead of 6237 for Wilson Over Roosevelt Was Finally Wiped Out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A statement showing the fluctuating of the lead between President Wilson and Colonel Roosevelt in California in 1912 from day to day for a month after election and how the state finally went in favor of Roosevelt after Wilson was first credited with winning, was issued here today by Chairman William R. Willcox, of the Republican National Committee, to show precisely why the Republican National Committee cannot at this time concede the election of Mr. Wilson and must await the official count in this and other states.

"The records show," Mr. Willcox's statement reads, "that Mr. Wilson was first in the lead; that subsequently this lead was taken by Colonel Roosevelt and that finally the delegation to the electoral college from California was divided, two electors being for Mr. Wilson and 11 for Colonel Roosevelt.

Reports First All for Wilson.
"The files of the San Francisco Chronicle show the following:
"On Wednesday, November 6, the day after election in 1912, the Chronicle said the indications were that Mr. Wilson had a safe plurality over Colonel Roosevelt. The Democratic state chairman claimed the state by 20,000.
"On November 7, the Chronicle said that a storm had delayed reports and that no figures were available from four counties. Returns from 368 precincts out of 4372 gave Mr. Wilson a lead of 6237.

Roosevelt Then Shown Ahead.
"On November 8 the Associated Press announced that Colonel Roosevelt was in the lead by 130 votes. Six changes had been made in the vote from Los Angeles in the previous 12 hours; each change increased the lead of Colonel Roosevelt. Within three Los Angeles precincts out and 136 precincts elsewhere in the state out, the Wilson vote stood at 250,125 and the Roosevelt vote 280,225.

The collapse of the Wilson plurality was due to the way election figures in Los Angeles had been compiled.
"The Democratic County Chairman placed the Roosevelt majority in that county at about 13,000.

Fluctuations Are Many.
"The Clerk of the County was appealed to by political leaders for an accurate count. He made a semi-official tabulation on the returns which showed startling discrepancies from the results obtained unofficially by political headquarters and newspapers. Much of the discrepancy was due to the scratching of Wallace, who headed the Progressive electors.

"On November 9, returns compiled from 4293 precincts out of 4372 gave Colonel Roosevelt 281,497 and Mr. Wilson 280,842.

"On November 13, returns from all but five out of 4372 precincts gave Colonel Roosevelt the state by 24 votes.
"On November 17, it was announced that Secretary of State Jordan went to Los Angeles to take personal charge of the count.

Court Decisions Required.
"On November 21 it was announced that the District Court of Appeals in Los Angeles had thrown out one precinct, which had given Colonel Roosevelt a majority of 104.
"On December 4 the Chronicle announced that if there were no more changes, due to court decisions and to the auditing by the Secretary of State, there would be, according to the official count, two Democratic electors and 11 Progressive electors. It was said, "We would elect another Democrat, it was said."

Conference Held With Hughes.
Mr. Willcox had a conference with Charles E. Hughes, during which the situation was discussed. No announcement came from Mr. Hughes in regard to his own plans. Mr. Willcox said afterward that he and Mr. Hughes would remain here until the first of next week.

He said he did not expect official counts from the doubtful states to begin coming in before then and that it will be more than a week at least before they were complete. He would not venture a guess on how much longer than that it might take.

Chattanooga, Tenn., was chosen for the 1917 convention.

BORAH LOOKS AHEAD

Republicans Advised to Forget Past and Unite on Problems.

DUTY IS DECLARED PLAIN

Efficient, Patriotic Minority Party
Is Held Second in Importance

Only to Majority; Cause of Defeat Not Issue Now.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 11.—Senator Borah, of Idaho, in a statement issued today, refuses to go into the causes that brought about the defeat of Republicans at the recent election, but thinks the time has come when Republicans should look seriously to the future. In part, the statement reads:
"We have been defeated. I am not in favor of discussing how it happened nor where the blame rests. I am in favor of looking forward to the duties and obligations of the future—for the duties and obligations and the influence of the minority party are only less and often little less than those of the majority.

"There will be problems within the next year growing out of our industrial conditions, particularly at the close of the war, and international situations, which will call for avoid, which will call for all the ability and patriotism of both the majority and minority parties. We will not allow our party to be divided by these problems, and it is clearly our duty, as a party, to put the past behind us and to unite on the future."
He said he was not in a position to avoid internal differences and help to meet the situations which are even now upon us.

"Can anyone contemplate the industrial strain to come at the close of this war, the conditions which will confront labor, or look at the situation as it now exists on the border and what that situation may portend or result upon our standing with the nations from Greece to Japan, without realizing that the task ahead of this Nation, as a whole, for our people as a unit, and our Government as a government for all, calls for the best we have in purpose and brain?

"Nob, I am greatly disappointed because our party did not win. I believed it best fitted to deal affirmatively with these problems, but I would have been disappointed if I thought it would fall to play an honorable and hopeful and patriotic part in this great work just ahead. The next essential thing to a majority party for good and wise and clean government and the efficient administration of public affairs is a strong, efficient patriotic minority party and there is always this inspiration, that by being a powerful and effective minority we are soon sure to become a majority."
