

WILSON RECEIVES ROUSING OVATION

Deafening Din Greet's President at Albany Despite Request to Contrary.

CONGRATULATIONS GIVEN

Executive Smiles at Crowds and Thanks Noisy Gatherings at Troy and Albany—Arrival at Washington to Be Tonight.

ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL, Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—President Wilson, returning to Washington for the first time in two months, tonight witnessed a demonstration at Troy and Albany in celebration of the outcome of the election. Taking for granted that he had been re-elected, the crowds at both places cheered him again and again. The President laughed and smiled and thanked them for their congratulations.

At Albany a procession, including bands, was arranged in his honor. This railroad station was crowded and many persons rushed forward to shake President Wilson's hand. Ex-Governor Glynn, of New York, who was temporary chairman of the St. Louis convention that nominated the President, was at the station with other Democratic leaders.

His Is Deafening. As President Wilson's train rolled into Albany, torpedoes were exploded on the tracks and whistles shrieked. For a moment the President held his hands to his ears. Shortly in the day he had asked that no elaborate celebration in his honor be held at the station. Before the President arrived the crowd had paraded through the business section of the city. President Wilson shook hands with many persons at Troy.

"We're with you for four more years of peace and prosperity," shouted one man. "Thank you," replied the President. "How's baby Sayre?" asked another. "Fine," responded the President. One man leaped on the observation platform beside the President and led the cheering.

President to Take Yacht Trip. The President is due to arrive in Washington tomorrow night after a trip down the Hudson River from Rhinecliff, N. Y., to New York on the naval yacht Mayflower. He is to board a train in New York at 2:34 P. M. tomorrow.

He left Williamstown, Mass., where he went to act as godfather for his youngest grandchild at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. A large crowd of students from Williams College saw him leave. He is accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, his cousin.

ALLEGED SPY ARRESTED

(Continued From First Page.) he could not decipher them. He is alleged to have asked for $3000 in cash if he delivered the papers.

Embassy officials said Graves threatened to turn over some of the documents to Wladia if the $3000 were not forthcoming.

Letters Not Postmarked.

The letters showed no postmark and officials of the embassy were convinced that they had been obtained in some manner from a confidential messenger, whose identity still is undisclosed.

Prince Hatzfeldt communicated with the District Attorney's office here as soon as Graves left his office. Another meeting was arranged, and yesterday Graves telegraphed from New York that he would present himself later in the day. Prince Hatzfeldt put $3000 into an envelope and, with two agents of the Department of Justice, went to his home here to await Graves. He failed to make his appearance, however.

This morning Graves called at the Embassy and requested an appointment with Prince Hatzfeldt at his home. A few hours later he arrived there and conferred with the counselor for half an hour. One Federal agent was hiding behind a door in the room. Another was in the street outside. A police detective was nearby.

Money Is Shown.

It is said that Prince Hatzfeldt showed Graves the $3000 and that the latter said he would go to his hotel and get some of the documents he did not have with him. Leaving the house, he walked into the arms of a Federal agent and was taken to the Department of Justice where for hours he was examined by Prince Hatzfeldt, in charge of the bureau of investigation, and his assistants. At the end of the examination, Mr. Hatzfeldt swore the oath, with initials only. It was assumed by the officials that the communication was from a woman cousin of Count von Bernstorff, who has been taking care of his and the Countess's business affairs in Germany.

Graves Faithlessly Attired.

Graves' first appearance in public after his arrest was at the United States Commissioner Taylor, where, surrounded by Federal agents and police detectives, he was brought for arraignment. He was faithlessly attired, swung a light walking stick, and viewed the proceedings with a faint smile until the question of bail was brought up. He requested that, should he be unable to secure a bondsman, he be permitted to spend the

A Well-Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair With a Simple Home-Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug-store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray-haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, and relieve itching and dandruff."—Adv.

HUGHES LEAD GAINS ON SOLDIERS' VOTE

One Regiment Adds 15 to Total for Republican Nominee, Who Now Leads by 248.

27 PRECINCTS YET MISSING

One Unreported Regiment Thought to Favor Wilson, Other Hughes. Other Uncounted Vote Is From Democratic Territory.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 11.—Governor Hughes' plurality was slightly increased today when the first results of the Minnesota guardsmen vote was announced. He carried the First Regiment, a Ramsey, Hennepin and Washington County organization, by 15 votes. Complete vote of Hennepin's members of the First Regiment was 242 for Wilson and 237 for Hughes. Ramsey complete gave 127 for Wilson and 116 for Hughes.

Washington County soldiers gave Wilson 23 and Hughes 9. The soldiers' total so far is, For Wilson 403; Hughes 412. This makes total for 2021 of 2045 precincts in the state: Wilson 178,544; Hughes, 178,792 (figures revised). Hughes' plurality is 248.

There are two regiments to report—one, the Second, in the southern counties, which went for Hughes, in the main, and the third in the north, the strong Wilson territory. The artillery vote is comparatively small.

Few missing precincts remain to be heard from. They are mainly from the north, Wilson territory, but are not strong in votes.

BRITISHERS PLAN WORK

RED CROSS ASSOCIATION WILL RAISE MONEY FOR CAUSE.

Dr. W. J. Williamson Explains Need of Society and Duty to Assist Their Countrymen.

Like the British Red Cross Association of Seattle, the Portland Association began a new plan of weekly meetings last night in Library Hall to raise more money for the cause. Dr. W. J. Williamson last night addressed 200 on the necessity of having a Red Cross society and of the duty of the British born and those of British descent to help their countrymen.

R. W. Blackwood, president of the British Red Cross Association of Oregon, gave a brief opening address, explaining the reason for the change in the meeting system.

All stood and sang "God Save the King," and one verse of "America." Song books containing many of the English, Irish, Scotch, and French songs and airs of practically all the countries of the Franco-Anglican alliance being sold for the benefit of the British Red Cross.

The following is the committee just appointed to carry on the weekly meetings: Dr. W. J. Williamson, Dr. W. J. Williamson, A. G. Brown, A. A. Hall, James Cormack, president of St. Andrew's Society; A. J. Matthew, chief of Clan Macleay. The following is the list of officers of the British Red Cross Association of Oregon: R. W. Blackwood, president; Dr. W. J. Williamson, A. G. Brown, vice-presidents; A. A. Hall, secretary, and R. W. Hastings, treasurer.

ARMENIAN FUND GROWS

CONTRIBUTIONS GROW GENEROUS AS REAL NEED IS LEARNED.

Great Suffering Undergone by Persecuted Race Is Emphasized in Atlantic Monthly Article.

Substantial additions have been made to the Armenian and Syrian relief fund, both through the activities of the women's committee and by contributions made by various organizations and private individuals. The contributions received during the last two days are also from many out-of-town sources.

The actual benefit to humanity that the contributions will accomplish are not likely to be matched by any other amount that people will be called upon to give. Many, realizing this, are giving freely now, who have had to give sparingly at other times.

An example of the helplessness of these Armenians and Syrians is shown in personal narratives printed in the November Atlantic Monthly. The following is an extract: "Hundreds were carried off—usually at night—taken from their beds to the jail, and then, as we afterwards learned, to places of execution. I could see
