Good Part of Yard Equipment, However, to Be Made at Bremerton.

DESTROYER AWARDS MADE

Entire Programme for 1917 May Be Placed With Private Builders. Congress Expected to Provide for More Warships.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 .- Navy Department officials are preparing to use at the Philadelphia and Bremerton yards the $5,000,000 provided by Congress for the equipment of Navy-yards gress for the equipment of Navy-yards for ship construction. While there will be no final decision as to the number of building slips to be installed until all contracts for the 1917 building pro-gramme have been awarded, it was learned today that the three yards on which the fund will be expanded had been definitely selected. It is equally certain that the Philadelphia yard will get the bulk of the appropriation. Awards for 14 destroyers were en-nounced today, but the contracts for four battleships and two destroyers are still pending in the Department in ad-dition to the four scout cruisers and 29 dition to the four scout cruisers and 29 submarines, for which bids have been received. Bids for the four battle cruisers will be opened December 6, and cruisers will be opened December 5, and then declaion will be made as to the number of ships to be built. Officials now believe the entire build-ing programme for next year will be placed with private builders. With the prospect that Congress will authorize three additional battleships and one more battle cruiser before Varch 4 however Denastment officials ers and several auxiliaries in the 1918 programme, making up one-half of the remainder for the three-year pro-gramme already authorized.
