The Oregonian

PORTLAND, OREGON. Entered at Portland (Oregon) Postoffice as second-class mail matter. Subscription rates—invariably in advance.

Bubseription rates—invarianty in an (By Mail)
Daily, Sunday included, one year....
Daily, Sunday included, six months...
Daily, Sunday included, six months...
Daily, Sunday included, one month...
Daily, without Sunday, one year...
Daily, without Sunday, six months...
Daily, without Sunday, three months...
Daily, without Sunday, one month... Weskly, one year.... Sunday, one year.... Sunday and Weekly. (By Carrier,)
Daily, Sunday included, one year...
Daily, Sunday included, one month.

How to Remit—Send possoffice money of large percentage of Canadian solders, express order or personal check on your local bank. Stamps, coin or currency are at sender's risk. Give postoffice address in full, including county and state.

Postage Rates—12 to 16 pages, 1 cent; 18 to 32 pages, 2 cents; 25 to 60 pages, 4 cents; 62 to 76 pages, 5 cents; 75 to 82 pages, 6 cents. Foreign postage, double rates.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

hopes were raised; new campaigns onies in Africa; Annamite soldiers from French Cochin-China and the fairs. While none of the events in move sooner to release the pressure on the war zone or in the countries en- Roumania is to some extent due to mining the final overthrow of force or the other. To recount them loniki, may not be amiss, that we may again take up with intelligence the thread of a great world history now in the mak-become a serious problem. Retail new ministry, headed by Count Terauprices of foodstuffs in a year advanced an average of 27 per cent. They have increased 75 per cent. the House of Commons, Walter Runci- pected to adopt a policy of firmnes man, President of the Board of Trade, stated that the time had arrived when the government must regard the question of food supplies as a war probcontinues to be of much concern to voters. the British government. Martial law, the resurrection of many of the old

On August 27 Roumania entered the is a critical one. Apparently the cen- mountains east of Gorizia. tral powers were well prepared for the swift campaign that followed. ceeds slowly. Von Mackensen, at the head of a mixed force of Bulgarian, German, swept back the Roumanians and Russians in the Dobrudja, capturing in lowed with the capture of Roumania's of the war. chief sea port, Constanza, and seized the railroad line extending from that city to the Danube.

Roumania began the war by in-into Roumania and seem to have checked the Teuton rush in the north, powers, but in Western Wallachia the Roumanians are in retreat and in great the south. The Roumanian city of Orsova-Bucharest railway line.

Winter weather has now settled down in most of the war zones. The great battles that have been in progress for months on the Russian and most to a standstill.

The great Russian offensive that by mid-September. Today the Rus- city was under machine rule. sians have retaken the whole of Russian drive was halted by new German and Turkish troops.

The great combined French and British drive on the western German lines has for several weeks shown ing, which has been highly destructive of life, comparatively small gain has franchise. The British alone report loss of more than 400,000 up to November 1.

On October 25 the French, by a brilliant surprise attack, recaptured the heights, including the ruined fort of Douaumont, just east of Verdun. This offensive resulted in the Germans also abandoning the fort of Vaux on November 3, thus delivering up positions to the French that had taken several months to win at heavy cost.

German submarines continue to take heavy toll from British and neutral ships were sunk in the month of September. The destruction continues any or all jitneys or taxicabs. It is young man.

with undiminished vigor. The destruction continues a special right or privilege granted to With special qualifications the tion of Norwegian ships has caused a definitely formed organization to chances are correspondingly larger, that country to adopt a vigorous policy operate over certain indicated streets. As a chief petty officer, he would reagainst German submarines in the wa-ters of Norway. This action has se-them taxicabs, taxi-jits or jitneys, their fixed emoluments would be equivalent riously strained the relations between privilege still constitutes a franchise. to about $125 a month in civil life. But campaign is being carried on by the political forces supporting Chancellor who read an article published in The von Bethmann-Hollweg, on the one side, and by the followers of Von a jitney franchise covering certain is increased by $1.50 a month in recognitions. therefore, especially of the masses supports Von Tirpitz' policy of "sinkon-sight" regardless of neutral opin-This radical policy for submarines is combated by the German realizes that such methods would be sure to involve Germany with the United States.

Efforts to bring Canada's "Over Seas Force" to a half million men have to date fallen short by approximately 100,000 men. Enlistments have decreased steadily from 29,212 in February of this year to 5999 in October. The French Canadian province of Quebec is less inclined than are the English-speaking provinces to send peace with all the world. men to France and has supplies fewer than 20,000 of Canada's quota

3.50 of 400,000 now in service. As indicated by the casualty lists published in the Canadian newspapers,

Eastern Business Office Verree & Conk-Jin, Brunswick building, New York; Verree & Conklin, Steger building, Chicago. San Francisco representative, R. J. Bidwell, 742 Market street. PORTLAND, SUNDAY, NOV. 26, 1916. quarters of the earth. In addition to European troops from England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Italy, Portugal and Russia are a motley array While America was engrossed with of Serbian, Albanian, Montenegrin and h Presidential campaign and election, Greek volunteers from the Balkans; events of moment were occurring in Sikhs and Ghurkas from India; Turkos the countries at war. New issues, new and Senegalese from the French colwere begun, new movements presaged, native Maori and white soldiers of to which scant consideration was given New Zealand and Australia. The failin the newspaper columns because of ure of this army, estimated in some the importance of more intimate af- quarters to number 700,000 men, to gaged assure an early peace, some the activity of German and Austrian of them may count for much in deter- submarines in attacking the ships carrying supplies to its base at Sa and to issues of the European war, have increased 78 per cent over prices and as Field Marshal of the Japanese why the Oregon battery and troop before the war. On November 15, in army, stamps him as a soldier, is ex- should be sent home.

The Australian conscription has been voted down by a very large majority, This result The political situation in Ireland blamed on the attitude of the Irish

In Belgium the German government political methods of Ireland's past, to-gether with the threat to apply the able-bodied men and is sending them and Scotland, have thoroughly irri- to relieve German workmen for servtated the country. Ireland still has ice in the army. Military observers 160,000 men fit for military service see in this move a possible withdrawwho have not enlisted. To her other al of German troops from Belgium. troubles are added a short and bad Germany would not leave the ablepotato harvest, accompanied by a stiff bodied Belgians behind to be enlisted in the entente armies.

Foday Roumania's military situation the troops of Austria-Hungary in the vance on Trieste consequently pro-

A revolution has occurred in Greece Austrian and Turkish troops, swiftly and the Greek navy and part of the swept back the Roumanians and Russians in the Dobrudja, capturing in entente powers. The mass of the turn the fortresses of Turtukai and Greek people, however, still support Silistria. After a slight check he fol- the King in his policy of keeping out

That the conditions in the warring nations are rapidly becoming unbearable seems to bring the conviction vading the Hungarian province of that peace is nearer than develop-Transylvania, only to be defeated and ments on the fronts would indicate. ow in the hands of the central powcs.

Russian troops have been poured dawning that no military decision is

Russian troops have been poured dawning that no military decision is possible that will crush the central

Roumania's fate hangs in the bal-

Craiova has fallen, thus cutting the whole world is more pronounced than a full personnel for a year or two, if pluck a ripe fruit for itself at harvest

DALY'S PERSONAL FRANCHISE.

French fronts have been brought al- which certain jitneys are permitted to Navy that the opportunities afforded spent a fortune in works of under one of the most astounding as- many of those that industrial life of- unhappy land it ever was. swept the Austrians off their feet in sumptions of autocratic power ever fers to a young man, and the state- Americans know Henryk Sienkiewic best as the author of "Quo Vadis"

Bukowina and are well into the Car- visedly, for it is a fair construction of same recruiting. those terms do constitute a franchise. into a life in which the Government the "local struggles" of Poland.

> or utilize the zone card unless he first years of coming of age. not even approximate it with intent a month. This makes his total emolua zone system without posting a card motion. As a third-class petty officer depicting the zones. He cannot op- he would receive $33 a month, in ad-

Berlin asserts that 180 missioner Daly is thus not a standard month. In Germany a tremendous internal lege. The city of Long Beach, Cal., ments for re-enlistment.

Mr. Daly, of course, has no power bar he receives another $2 cents a country with whom to compare his respects will get the business; he who or authority to present a grant of month. These credits would mean that work. His writings upon the whole writes and talks only in English will pecuniary value to his jitney friends. he would receive the equivalent on his have a healthler tone than those of get a cold reception. But that he should attempt to do so first re-enlistment as a seaman of Tolstoy. Above all things, he excelled That our merchants may be prois a distinct violation of trust, if this $35.60 a month instead of $26.40, and in his interpretation of the character vided with men capable of meeting Chancellor, who, with the Kaiser, be a fair construction of the zone sys- if he had attained one of the higher of his own people. To read him ex- these requirements of their foreign tem he has inaugurated. think it is. This special and advan- proportion. tageous privilege granted favored

SEND THEM HOME.

According to various Thanksgivingday proclamations, ante-election asserpublic

Yet an Oregon battery and an Ore-

Whatever may be the eath of a efficient in military preparedness. Government Inefficiency is killing the National Guard as a reserve force, Sequestration in desert military camps of two Oregon Guard organizations for took Henryk Sienkiewicz from Poland AMERICAN INDUSTRY PUT SECOND. five months of watchful waiting is at the beginning, seemingly, of an-Political changes in Japan, due in part to Japan's relations with China they may expect if they respond to the call for National Guard service. In England the food supply has of Premier Okuma on October 4. The quarters, been a traveler, a hunter, a naturalist, a historian and a statesman. He saw Essentially he lacked talent for what life on the American frontier in its toughest days, and he explored both Africa and South America after he in his "Bez Dogmatu" ("Without Dogpolitical methods of Ireland's past, to-gether with the threat to apply the compulsory service act, which now is enforced only in England. Wales and South America arter he able-bodied men and is sending them to Germany. From allied sources is enforced only in England. Wales and South America arter he able-bodied men and is sending them to Germany. From allied sources is enforced only in England. Wales and Scotland, have thoroughly irri-to relieve German workmen for servfor the last-or perhaps only the husband, Count Bozenta, in their atlatest. For Fiji will afford the Colonel tempt to establish in Southern Calia new and thrilling experience.

The Italian troops are still engaged there. It is to see and mingle with great war on the side of the entente. in an almost hopeless struggle with a people having the amazing history The ad-fijians. For example, take this ex-tract from the article on Fiji in the Encyclopedia Britannica:

The Fijians were formerly neterious for cannibalism. The Fijian's chief table luxury was human flesh, suphemistically called by him "long pig." and to satisfy ats appetite he would sacrifice even friends and relatives. The Fijians combined with this greedness savage and merciless natures. Human sacrifices were of daily occurrence. On a chief's death wives and slaves were buried chief's death, wives and slaves were buried aftive with him. When building a chief's house, a slave was burled alive in the hold dug for each foundation post. At the launching of a war-cause, living men were tied hand and foot between two plantain stems, making a human ladder over which the vessel was pushed into the water.

WANTED-MEN FOR THE NAVY.

ance. Should the result go against McGowan as to the present condition hewers of wood and drawers of water, danger from Austro-German forces the entente allies, Russia's position is that threaten to envelope them from a dangerous one. The cry for peace throughout the it will hardly be possible to recruit bondage, but never has been able to ever and seems to be making an im-pression.

It is accomplished then, indicates a time. Sienkiewicz wrote an amazing condition of affairs that calls for the number of strong novels and more Slearly it is no task for a theorist.

erate a straight jitney without a for- dition to board, quarters and amuse The zone system approved by Com- class, $38.50; in the first class, $44 a

Furthermore, it is a valuable privi- there are in addition certain induce-drivers of for-hire cars should be the relatively lower grades and the but there must remain, after all is oughly that he can write and convergromptly overturned by the Council. early enlistments. Progress may be said and done, a striking sense of the in it with ease. The most important it is steady, if he is only faithful. The land and those of any other country and Russian. If a young man has way to become a warrant officer is in the world. open to him. His future there will Death could not have come at a be assured, with pay ranging from more inopportune time for his coun ness in almost every country in the post-election jubilations and $1500 to $2400 a year, with the benefit trymen. Sienkiewicz was engaged re- world, and his gifts will be worth a congratulations, we are at of retirement on three-quarters pay cently in efforts to get help to them, with all the world.

The promise that surrounded as they are on all sides by he will be taken care of in his old belligerents and conflicting interests. gon cavalry troop, composed of civil- age is a substantial factor, in com- He had succeeded in rallying the peo gon cavairy troop, composed of civil-ians, have been doing military serv-ice along the Mexican border for five months.

He had succeeded in rallying the peo-pie to a marked degree and almost had put hope into them. With Pagerewski, tended by delegates from all parts of

HENRYK SIENKIEWICZ. It was a strange trick of fate that lifetime-for he was 74 when he died the other day-he had given voice to the aspirations of his people, he had placed them before the world as no other writer ever had done, and he fornia a colony in which oppressed But that is not the reason, we venture fundamental elements necessary for to guess, Colonel Roosevelt is going its physical existence. It was predestined to failure, but perhaps, for the world, it was as well. Thus was and practices of the original and only Modjeska given back to the stage and after the beginning of the experiment the great novelist shone with brighter and brighter luster.

"Remember, this life is nothing!"

sacrifice. for the failure of all the courage and electoral votes.

Self-sacrifice of the Polish people to This is apparent from the following the California colony actually reached the land before it discovered that it The candid statement of Admiral could not hope to prosper without attention of the most practical of men. than one short story that has been compared with the best work of Bour-There is a rather strange contradic- get; he labored with mind and heart The license or franchise under tion between the showing made by the and hand to lift up his people; he operate in Portiand has been granted by the service compare favorably with thropy; but Poland is today the same Americans know Henryk Sienkiewicz try was under machine rule.

The word "franchise" is used adissedly, for it is a fair construction of high cost of living is one of the chief partly because this appeared at a fortunate period in book publishing in the United States and partly because it pathians. In front of Lemberg the the terms under which the jitneys are clined to believe that the high cost of treated a topic with which we seemed now conducting their business that living would operate to attract men to be more familiar than we were with Moreover, it is a franchise attempted did the worrying on that score, and it is seriously to be questioned that to be granted by one member of the the explanation that men in the Navy it was his best work, while "Children City Commission in violation of the find it next to impossible to support of the Soil," which also had a vogue charter provisions that no franchise dependents left ashore is only partly in the United States, was not to be lines has for several weeks shown signs of exhaustion, only to flare up spasmodically when the weather and artillery conditions are favorable. As the Somme front stands today, the British are some three miles from Bapaume and the French in the outskirts of Peronne, two villages, respectively, nine and eight miles from the old battle line.

After four months of steady fight-line and adopted an ordinance prohibiting the population of jitneys except under the population of jitneys exc the operation of jitneys except under haps $1.50 more. The Navy supplies Tartar and the Turk, which may exfranchise.

The Navy supplies Tartar and the Turk, which may exfranchise. The zone system is depicted on a card or leaf which, it is the assertion of the jitney union's officers, has been copyrighted. No driver of an automobile or taxicab or jitney can post mobile or taxicab or jitney can post of corning of any corners of cor acquires membership in the jitney The young seaman assigned to his Swedes and "Pan Michael" deals with learn foreign languages. Hearing union. Under copyright laws he can-first rating aboard ship receives $26.40 border warfare and the Tartar in-these languages spoken only by poor vasion. to circumvent the copyright. Under ments equal to about $75 a month in in romance than the final scene at the ple think them not worth bothering city law he cannot operate under civil life. But he is eligible to pro- funeral of "Pan Michael," with its with. Having had few dealings with dition to board, quarters and amuse-koran in places where till this time turers and merchants have not real-ments; as a petty officer of the second the gospel has been chanted." Then These positions are reason- John Sobieski, followed by his iron-thin the reach of any striving shod escort of cavalry, and his kneel-tude towards languages. Hitherto, not reunited and Poland is not free.

grades his pay would be increased in tensively is to know Poland as inti- customers, it would be advisable that mately as it is given the people of an every student in the high schools learn These figures take account only of entirely different mold to know it; at least one foreign language so ther rapid, if the young man is ambitious; difference between the people of Po- are French, Spanish, German, Italian estimated in dollars and cents.

he had been able because of his worldIt would seem that it would take a wide training to introduce an apMissouri and New Mexico, and of the nember of the militia, whatever may pretty good job in industrial life to proach to occidental directness into eight thousand who attended it is estibe the terms of the enlistment law, the spirit of the system does not contemplate withdrawal from civilian life for permanent police or military duty of National Guardsmen in time of peace.

The National Guardsmen have not the spirit good job in industrial life to proach to occidental directness into compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains that young men do not enlist in sufficient numbers, even from the ranks which he said that the birth rate in of the unskilled, who do not often the national Guardsmen have not the manufacture of the enlistment law, the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains that young men do not enlist in sufficient numbers, even from the ranks which he said that the birth rate in the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the Navy on the merely financial side. Yet the fact remains the compete with the beautiful the competency of the consideration when altered the fact of the competency of the The National Guardsmen have not receive even the minimum equivalent adopted militarism as a profession or of $75 a month, with a life job and appeared in the country, the symptoms bridges, curved turns and availability adopted militarism as a profession or a means of subsistence. Their main interest and responsibilities are in civil life, in the support of themselves and their families. They have offered themselves to the state and Government, merely for incidental military service in time of peace and to severance from civil life and duties only in time of war.

The United States has a permanent of $75 a month, with a life job and retirement pay in view. If there are of which were preceded by blindness, of which were preceded by blindness, and that fatalities were being increased by cholera and typhoid, which were almost exterminating the population. And then seemed to appear lation. And then seemed to be a tie on the bests mentioned, three other factors called the migrage of national autonomy, which was to some a hope, to other a portent of darker days to follow, and which will need every pos-The United States has a permanent military establishment composed of men who have entered it with military service solely in view. It is outrageous that this establishment is not rageous that this establishment is not sufficiently strong to protect our strong to strong the stro sufficiently strong to protect our be as serious as any of the mechan-boundaries from a country with which we are at peace. Either we are at with the building up of this important work of when it comes to a road proposition. If our Nation gets into trouble, we are not the Nation is disgracefully intended in the Nation of t bearer of the oriflamme of Polish nationalism.

An example of the view taken by interest in military drills and train Secretary of Commerce Redfield of his duty toward American industry is furnished by a controversy regarding a census report on the dye business. It contained elaborate information on school cadets, number not given. The manufacture and import of dyes, and cadets make up in enthusiasm for a copy was sent to the Exposition of Chemical Industries at New York last furnish their own uniforms and turn other writer ever had done, and he had accompanied this by no effort to gloss over the truth. Restless, having advanced hardly beyond the brain of him who held them, ardent when the subject of lib-corn October 27, 1858); but he has every was mentioned, yet impractical as every was mentioned, yet impractical as every was the body of the means of obtaining it, he was the not seen everything, though he has to the means of obtaining it, he was the data in question. A flood of protests natives of Guam, and in view of all palend from manufacturers and consumers we have done for them it is good to poured in on Congressmen, and Sen- know that we shall be able to rely on ators Lodge and Hughes tried to have their help in time of need. the complete report published, but failed. It is now announced that Mr. Redfield will publish the suppressed cerned over the failure of the prayers

The Secretary of Commerce seems to have imagined that his duty was to offer prayers on their own account, to aid the foreign manufacturer and according to the translation furnished importer in preference to the Ameri- by the Manchester Guardian of a noan manufacturer and exporter. He tice recently placarded on the Pagoda to know that the Fiji Islands number The scheme was typically Polish in its idealism and also its lack of those and that the interests of interests and that the interests of importers cause this decree which sends so many should be subordinate to those of men to their death to cease! We trust American manufacturers. Mr. Red- to obtain by these prayers cessation of field's free-trade notions constantly the noise and the alarms of battle interfere with his carrying out the As to those who have succumbed to purpose for which his department was their wounds on the battlefield, we stablished.

SOME SIGNIFICANT FIGURES.

"Remember, this life is nothing!" of the popular vote show that President Wilson has a plurality of 403,312 to the wife who had been at his side over Mr. Hughes, they also show that the Far East. If it does nothing more, through the years of his fighting, as he carried many states by so small it will give the people of the western When food prices leap, On he laid his final plans for the supreme a margin and lost others by so wide This is a curious bit of a margin that, if the strength of the fatalism that runs through his work, Republicans had been more evenly At the that characterized his own life, that distributed, Mr. Hughes would have accounts, perhaps, in large measure been elected by a good margin of Transplyania, only to be defeated and ments on the fronts would indicate. thrown back through the Carpathian Only in England and France is the passes, which are, for the most part, determination most part, determination most part, determination most provided to historian, such as Colonel Roosevelt. passes, which are, for the most part, determination most pronounced for the hands of the central pass. It is hand to state the historian, such as Colonel Roosevelt. It have earned by Hughes by lish real happiness on a basis of fraud.

large pluralities:
Wilson
	Elec-
Plu-	toral
State- rality.	vote.
California	13
Idaho	4
Maryland	- 8
Nevada	- 3
North The second form	- 4
New Mexico	13
NOTES 178 HOLE	75.
Washington	7
Wybming 5,619	- 3
The second secon
Totals	50
Hughes
State- plurality:
	10.036
	60,287
New York	71,008
New York	197,1972
Pennsylvania	84 007
	2000
Total	92,555

states carried by him by a wide margin was so great that, could it have been generally distributed, those states could still have been carried by him with enough votes to spare to carry all the close Wilson states and to add the expense books of the National 50 electoral votes to the Hughes total, committee. They did not win any thus electing him.

The moral is that it is unwise for a party to concentrate its efforts on and many electoral votes to the neglect of many states having small popuation and few electoral votes each, but many votes in the aggregate. The lesson of 1916 has been salutary for the Republican party. Never again will it subordinate those questions in which the West is especially interested, or the Western view of ques tions in which all states are interested, nor will it pour out money, literature, oratory and organization on the Eastern states, while it leaves the leaders in the Western states to rely mainly on their own efforts and resources .-

ACQUIRE THE GIFT OF TONGUES. One result of the isolation of the the border safe. Deluge" tells of the war with the American people is their neglect to There is nothing more vivid immigrants, the majority of our peoprayer, "O Lord, they will turn the other countries which could not be hurches into mosques and chant the transacted in English, our manufaccomes the entry into the church of If we are going after foreign trade ing at the catafalque of Pan Michael, they have not mattered much because This was the Sobieski who later turned the trade we have done has been with ack the Turkish invaders at Vienna England or with Germany, where and still, centuries later, Poland is everybody in business speaks and but there is no room for war it prenot reunited and Poland is not free. It is not always easy, or even profit- come to us unsought. But when we able, to compare great writers with go out to seek trade, it will be neces one another. It is conceivable, though, tarty to consider the buyer's wishes and that if Sienkiewicz had written in tastes. He will insist on being supEnglish upon themes familiar to Englishmen, he would have fired them what we wish to sell. He will demand with enthusiasm as did Scott; as a as long credit as he has had in other writer of historical novels he compares countries and the same terms of de-Tirpitz on the other. The German streets for $6600 and the owner of the people have great faith in their subn some minor respects with Louisa livery as other countries make. Also, marines and believe that an unrestricted policy would result in the destricted policy would result in the de

The most important the gift of tongues and can acquire all

The good roads movement knows no If our Nation gets into trouble, we can count on Guam. The matter-of-fact official report of the Governor contains assurance upon that point About 100 natives come of military age each year and they take deep Buddhists are becoming deeply conof their Christian brethren to accomplish the end of war and have decided hope to obtain for them a new life, by a happy transmigration, in a purified and sanctified earth." Not the least interesting phase of the whole Although present incomplete reports thing is the light it sheds on the impression produced by the European war upon the minds of the people of world a topic for serious reflection.

> The high cost of living in a fashionable suburb, it seems, was the ause of the downfall of the thief who stole Mrs. Harriman's jewels. Just another case illustrating the felly of Oh how we ache for T-hone steak, and the futility of expecting to estab- | Our health we may by this stunt im-

> Wife of Seattle professor, who has been called on to pay support money It well may be that o'er the sea, to her husband pending the outcome of a divorce suit, must bear in mind that new occasions bring new duties, Whoop! That guy stole a pea from me! or words to that effect, as the poet

Wisconsin is out for the record of having elected the fewest lawyers to the Legislature in proportion to population. Only five succeeded in getting into the newly elected assembly.

It isn't right to wish any other com-I. W. W. visitation is averted by their 'passing through.'

> Oregon Democrats should not be asked to help make up the deficit on thing.

It is cold comfort, at best, these days a few states having a large population for the Roumanians to read about the success of the Serbs in getting a partial foothold in the country they once lost; Another "harmless" inmate has > pen at intervals, because the deranged mind always awalts opportunity. Gompers has an excellent machine > killed a fellow patient. This will hap-ered, this action is well. A new man guy that has to put up for the big would "spill the beans." It is now pretty definitely up to Mr. Carranza to decide whether there shall be co-operation or not in making

Just now many who do not expect them are being notified of arrival by express of early Christmas presents from California,

Think of the good advertising Chicago and California are getting out of the diet squad and the belated election returns.

The bootleggers' trust ought to be called to the attention of the Department of Justice without delay.

Write to the home folks today to tell them you will be there Thursday.

Oregon rain is the real article. It s not just a wet drizzle. We agree to leave Mexico but will vatch the line. When would you have the rains

Old Eli got there.

anyway?

Gleams Through the Mist By Dean Collins.

EPICURUS IN CHICAGO.

shade of Epicurus hit the pike, pike, pike, The pathway of the moonbeams from the sky. For he said: "I'm getting homesick and I'd like, like, like To see again the earth of days

o he hied him like a dove o the earth he used to love.

And he landed in Chicago like a sta-And he paused and looked around, And he said: "Where are they found-

Oh, show me where the followers of Enjourus arel' 'he shade of Epicurus beard a laugh.

laugh, laugh, A snicker and a giggle and a roar; and he saw a stranger almost bent in haif, half, half

With laughing till his very sides were sore. Epicurus," said the wight, All your teachings may be right,

And the folks would gladly your dis-But the world has moved, you know,

Since two thousand years ago, And you'll find that your disciples now are studying with me.

The shade of Epicurus gave a frown, frown, frown. "Who are you, then?" in accents unforgiving.

Oh. I'm the guy who owns the blooming town, town, town-My card, sir! I'm the High Old Cost of Living.

In the days so long gone by, Well you taught them living high, And the Epicurean idea made other idols fall. at, drink and do be merry Was a pleasant doctrine, very-

But now you'll find them doggons glad to eat and drink at all." The shade of Epicurus rubbed his head.

bend, head, The shade of Epicurus knit his brow.

nd to the grinning stranger, then he sald, said, said: "It may be true, but it seems strange somehow.

taught to est and drink nd be merry, and I think That the plan I gave my pupils was quite nice.

But there's one thing pretty sure, f you'd be an Epicure, What you will need in the first place is the price?"

CHORIC DANCE.

(By the diet squad. To the tune of The Funeral March of Marionette," or any other tune that seems to fit.) Stewed pears and griddle takes and coff-fee

That is a breakfast that pleases me, I love to seize its calories And store them up in my sys-tem! If one don't think about ham and eggs,

And draws his belt in just two more Forgetting, yes, the sausages-He'll never know that he missed 'em. Whoop! I just found an extra bun!

Oh whoop! I may find another one! 'S a long time till lunch, So all of the bunch Had better clean up the platters. Whoop! I'm certain the food I ate

Has added certainly to my weight, We've gotta live cheap-

And nothing else ever mat-ters. Beef, rice and carrots and gingerbrend! How thin at lunch is the butter spread! While following out this di-et!

prove. But where, O where is the grub we love? The food-censors cause a ri-yet.

He swiped a crumb and he'd swipe my For the hunger he had. Is driving him mad, Though science may try to save him, You'll admit it, that forty cents

To eat a day is a light expense, So let each one smile, And add up the while, The calories that they gave him.

EPILOQUE. The shade of Epicurus rubbed his head. head, head, And up the air he skidded toward the moone Eat, drink and do be merry, for you're dend, dend, dend," He snorted as he heard the doleful

And become an Epicure You had better first make sure If, for the round of merriment, you really have the price.

Before you start to try To follow Epicurus' bold advice,

With the cost of living high,

The Grouning Table. "The table that 'groans' with Thanksgiving delicacies this season,' remarked the High Cost of Living. shooting another egg into the reand is re-elected. All phases consid- frigerator, "won't have a thing on the ## * * * Dry Stuff.

To the Editor-We have been following you in your topical rhymes for some time and immediately after the recent election we were apprehensive that you weren't going to come through with the dry-bone salutations. However, we noticed them just a few days ago, but were somewhat disappointed inasmuch as you haven't opened that colyum for a general, free-for-all bonedry "pome" contest. Come on; don't he selfish. Anticipating your favor we are inclosing our contribution. Yours ORR O. SMITH. resp.,

Dear Orr-We gotcher pome. Lack of space at this time delays its use. We are willing to take up your idea, provided we can hear from someone on the other side of the question. If it is to be a free-for-all bone dry "pome contest, let's hear from the jubilators Some will find comfort in knowing as well as the lamentators. And by the California cannot go "dry" for two way, Orr, the pomes ought to be held down to 20 lines, so's to give the others a chance. Yours resp.,

Part of the Treatment.

Maritime Medical News. Patient (to pretty nurse)-Will you e my wife when I recover?

Pretty Nurse-Certainly. Patient-Then you will love me? Pretty Nurse-Oh, no; that's merely part of the treatment. I must keep my patients cheerful. I promised this morning to run away with a married man who has lost both of his legs.