

Society

Miss Nona Lawler, who sang at Laurelhurst Club Thanksgiving Party.

Mrs. Thomas Burns (left) and Mrs. N. K. Baxter (right) two of the committee for Red Cross Jivey Dance.

(Continued From Page Three.)
A. R. Ritter, at their home in Rose City Park Thursday. Pink chrysanthemums and ferns decked the table and rooms. Little Miss Willetha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ritter, entertained the guests with violin and piano solos, after which the evening was devoted to bridge. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ryan, Misses Anita and Eliena Ryan, Frank Reed, Miss Aita Archambeau, Miss Louise Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Howell, Miss P. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Ritter.

The women of the Unitarian Alliance will entertain with an informal tea on Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors for all the women of the church over 30 years old. It is called a lavender tea, and promises to be full of interest and charm.

Miss Mary Meldrum's fiance, Frederick Sheldahl, of Spokane, passed the week-end with Miss Meldrum and her aunt, Mrs. D. P. Thompson.

Extensive preparations have been made for the bazaar to be given by the women of the Madeleine parish in the church hall on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, December 6, 7, 8 and 9.

The fancy booth will be in charge of Mrs. John Manning, assisted by Mesdames C. J. B. Malarkey, J. Frank Sinnott, J. J. Seufert, A. F. Peitel, Edward Dunn, F. W. Pratt, John M. Hickson, Paul Sullivan, C. W. Jones, H. G. Terry, James F. Twoby, J. E. Cronan, E. L. Metochan and Misses Anne Casey, M. Conway, Estelle Ingalls, Alladine McEham and Margaret Casey.

Irene Sweeney, Catherine Shea, Maude Barnes and Agnes Wascher. The delicatessen department will also be an important feature. Mrs. John D. Twoby will be in charge, assisted by Mesdames M. S. Boser, W. P. Sinnott, Frank Tebbets, Irving Tebbets and John F. Daly.

While not strictly speaking a social event, the luncheon of the Consumers' League at the Hotel Portland on Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock will of course attract the interest of many society folk, who are always willing to co-operate with the league in its good work.

Cottillon Hall was a surging mass of colorful and artistically gowned women and their escorts, who attended the annual Thanksgiving ball of the Laurelhurst Club. It was a very large and charming affair and marks a gala day in the social history of the club.

Katharine and Mrs. Robert Hale Noyes (Laurelhurst) are planning to leave early in the year for Minneapolis, the former home of Mrs. Noyes, to act as matron of honor for her sister,

Miss Elizabeth French Farrington, at her marriage to Richard Mayo-Smith, of Boston, which will be a smart event of January 31 at Westminster Church, in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Povey announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Vida, to Dr. Robert A. Sherwood, of the Marine Hospital, in San Francisco.

Sheldon A. Volkman, one of society's most popular bachelors and prominent member of the Portland Hunt Club, left last week for his new post in St. Paul with the Great Northern Railroad.

The Junior Assembly, which meets on Friday nights at Harlow-Grady Hall, celebrated Thanksgiving eve with an informal party. Refreshments were served.

Harry Stewart was among those who spent the week-end with his parents in Portland. He is a student at O. A. C.

Miss Katherine Kerr entertained the members of the east of "Much Ado About Nothing," the recent Lincoln High School play, and a few other friends Friday evening. Among those present were Lucille Beving, Elizabeth Halley, Bessie Welch, Mary Holmes, Luelle Kearney, Elizabeth Kesae, Hatlie Hatch, Carter Magruder, James Hamilton, Scott Brown, Ralph Strone, William Hawkins, Robert Morrison, Charles Berat, William Kesal, Alex Brown, Fred Mills, Donald Harris, Ralph Holzman, Corbin Peters and Harry Stevens.

On Tuesday, November 28, Miss Elizabeth Withycombe, of Gaston, was married to Ray Moore, of Scholls, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herman Boge, of Farmington, the Rev. Mr. Wall, of Scholls officiating. The wedding was very simple and only a few friends and relatives were present. The bride, who is a pretty brunette, wore an ivory crepe de chine gown simply made, and she carried white carnations. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Herman Boge and Miss Radford sang.

A wedding supper was served after the ceremony to about 30 guests, mostly out-of-town relatives. The bride is a daughter of Thomas Withycombe, of Portland and Farmington, and a niece of Governor Withycombe. She received her education at the Newberg College and spent most of her girlhood at Farmington, coming to Gaston about three years ago to live with her brother, George Withycombe, who was married last week. Mr. Moore is a prosperous young farmer at Scholls, where Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home.

Mrs. Z. Sweet was hostess for a theater party at the Orpheum, followed by a tea at Hotel Portland, Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Nell Rothschild, of Seattle. Among the guests were Mrs. S. Leonard, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. William Rice and Mrs. S. Karstein.

Miss Mildred Broughton, prominent University of Oregon, who has been spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Portland, will return to Eugene this evening. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Mrs. Daniel Kerns was hostess on Tuesday for a charming bridge-tee honoring her cousin, Mrs. W. L. Ducey, who plans to leave soon for California to pass the balance of the winter at her tables were arranged for the games, the drawing-room being adorned with a profusion of native chrysanthemums. The guests were Mrs. I. N. Day, Mrs. M. H. Kerns, Miss Grace Kerns, Miss Mabel Korrell, Mrs. J. S. Polhemus, Mrs. W. Clark, Mrs. H. P. Eaton, Mrs. Thomas Wallace, Mrs. George Elsmann, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. C. H. Korrell, Mrs. E. L. Martin, George Walker, and Mrs. Frederick Daly.

At tea time several other guests called, the dining-room being especially lovely. The keynote of the color scheme being pink. The table was adorned with a huge pink basket filled with pink rosebuds, surrounded by smaller baskets of the same buds.

Members of the Drama League are taking a keen interest in the next meeting, which will be held tomorrow night at the Little Theater. Dr. Jonah B. Wolf will read I. Zangwill's "Plaster Saints."

A pretty wedding took place in the presence of more than 100 relatives and friends on Monday, November 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. De Witt Nevins, pastor of the First Baptist church, when their daughter, Geraldine, was married to Harry Clayton Hetzel, the Rev. C. Stephenson, of Lyndonville, Vermont, an uncle of the bride, officiated.

The bride was escorted and later given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of flesh-colored satin and georgette crepe. She carried a shower bouquet of Corni Brunner roses and lilies of the valley. The decorations of the home were beautiful, chrysanthemums and Autumnal leaves profusely employed.

Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played on the piano by Miss Dorothy Bingham, of Rockaway, accompanied by William Stephenson, violinist, of New York City. Mrs. Stanley Nevins sang, "O, Perfect Love." Ethel and Horace Nevins, a niece and nephew of the bride, and Hazel Conklin Spencer Nevins, John and Harold Potter, were ribbon bearers. Little Martha Nevins and Herbert Conklin, Jr., were flower children.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception and supper. The bride's mother received, wearing a gown of plum charmeuse. The bride's traveling suit was of blue broadcloth with seal fur, and her hat, blue velvet with trimmings of pearl. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hetzel will be at home at Seventeenth street Northwest, Washington, D. C.

The bride was graduated with honors from the Oregon Agricultural College last June. She is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega fraternity. The bridegroom finished from the same institution in 1913, and is now engaged in investigating the profession in the United States Department of Agriculture.

Among the guests at the wedding were the following Oregonians: Mrs. H. Hetzel, brother of the bridegroom, the Misses Alice Edwards, Margaret Morehouse, Christie Moore and Mae Brown, of Corvallis, and Miss Cora Neland, of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. McNew, of Hazeldean, Washington County, were married at Redville, celebrated their golden wedding on November 22. Mr. McNew was born in Henry County, Ohio, April 15, 1847.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bingham, 172 Hamilton avenue, entertained a number of relatives at dinner Tuesday evening honoring Mr. Bingham's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Grandeville, Idaho, formerly of Moscow, where Mr. Smith was associated with his father in a general store.

Members of the Blackstone Club gave a party for their friends at Muriark Ballroom Wednesday evening. The hall was decked elaborately with Autumn leaves, ferns, flowers and pennants. Miss Lillian Swanson, soloist, was a delightful feature of the affair, and sang several times during the evening. Refreshments were served at midnight, after which dancing was resumed.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Reynolds gathered at their home Friday evening to bid them farewell. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will leave Sunday for the South. They expect to be gone a year. During the evening Mrs. Reynolds was presented with a loving cup as a token of esteem and affection.

Mrs. William Harris was hostess for a housewarming Friday evening in her new home on Pacific avenue, in Laurelhurst. About 20 guests enjoyed her hospitality. The evening was passed with cards and music.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White entertained Thursday with a Thanksgiving dinner and card party at their suburban home near Stanley Station.

Mrs. P. G. Baker, a pioneer of 1834, was sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to attend Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. R. H. Austin. She was surrounded by three generations.

Marguerite Camp entertained with a banquet on Friday. About 200 members attended. A short programme was given and dancing enjoyed.

Mrs. Frederick H. Adams was hostess for a luncheon Friday honoring her sister, Miss Margaret Glen, of Houston, Tex., who is visiting here for the winter. Covers were placed at a prettily decked table for six.

Miss Esthe Thompson entertained the Dorcas Girls at her home, 706 Frankfort street, Monday evening. A delightful evening was passed in sewing, refreshments being served later.

Christmas Gifts

Unusual and Unique, Typical of Feldenheimer's

There has always been a certain satisfaction for the Christmas shopper who has come here—satisfaction in the thought that a gift from Feldenheimer's not only was of superior excellence, but that it was unusual, unique and usually not to be found elsewhere. This year you will find that in every department we have made a special effort to gather the newest novelties and pieces which would commend themselves particularly for gift purposes—we have selected with the thought in mind that to be truly appreciated a gift must not only have quality, but that it must be different.

Suggestions

Gold Hat Pins	Jewel Pieces
Signet Rings	Diamond Rings
Cameo Rings	Men's Watches
Lavalliers	Silverware
Cuff Links	Art Ware
Wristlet Watches	Umbrellas
Scarf Pins	Walking Sticks
Traveling Bags	Chelsea Clocks
Leather Ware	Silver Toiletware

Only a few of the thousands of Gifts at

A. & C. Feldenheimer

Jewelers Since 1868.
WASHINGTON STREET AT PARK.

the home of Mrs. O. E. Bloss, 838 East Twenty-ninth street, on December 2.

Marguerite Camp, Roral Neighbors of America, entertained with a bridal shower for one of its members, Mrs. Housie, on Thursday at the home of the bride's mother. The afternoon was spent sewing and with games, and handsome gifts were showered upon the bride.

Mrs. Mary L. Stevens entertained with a delightful luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her home, 225 East Polkway street. Covers were placed for Mrs. Ralph C. Dorcas, Mrs. Ethel Hamlin, Mrs. Emma Struble, Mrs. Charles Sweeney and Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. P. G. Baker, a pioneer of 1834, was sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to attend Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. R. H. Austin. She was surrounded by three generations.

Marguerite Camp entertained with a banquet on Friday. About 200 members attended. A short programme was given and dancing enjoyed.

Mrs. Frederick H. Adams was hostess for a luncheon Friday honoring her sister, Miss Margaret Glen, of Houston, Tex., who is visiting here for the winter. Covers were placed at a prettily decked table for six.

Miss Esthe Thompson entertained the Dorcas Girls at her home, 706 Frankfort street, Monday evening. A delightful evening was passed in sewing, refreshments being served later.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bingham, 172 Hamilton avenue, entertained a number of relatives at dinner Tuesday evening honoring Mr. Bingham's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Grandeville, Idaho, formerly of Moscow, where Mr. Smith was associated with his father in a general store.

Other Portland relatives present were Roy and Mrs. Saxon, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clifford, Mrs. Nellie J. Coyle and Howard Bingham.

Members of the Blackstone Club gave a party for their friends at Muriark Ballroom Wednesday evening. The hall was decked elaborately with Autumn leaves, ferns, flowers and pennants.

Miss Lillian Swanson, soloist, was a delightful feature of the affair, and sang several times during the evening. Refreshments were served at midnight, after which dancing was resumed.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Reynolds gathered at their home Friday evening to bid them farewell.

Mrs. William Harris was hostess for a housewarming Friday evening in her new home on Pacific avenue, in Laurelhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White entertained Thursday with a Thanksgiving dinner and card party at their suburban home near Stanley Station.

Mrs. P. G. Baker, a pioneer of 1834, was sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to attend Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. R. H. Austin.

Marguerite Camp entertained with a banquet on Friday. About 200 members attended. A short programme was given and dancing enjoyed.

Mrs. Frederick H. Adams was hostess for a luncheon Friday honoring her sister, Miss Margaret Glen, of Houston, Tex., who is visiting here for the winter.

Friday evening to bid them farewell. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will leave Sunday for the South. They expect to be gone a year.

Mrs. William Harris was hostess for a housewarming Friday evening in her new home on Pacific avenue, in Laurelhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White entertained Thursday with a Thanksgiving dinner and card party at their suburban home near Stanley Station.

Mrs. P. G. Baker, a pioneer of 1834, was sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to attend Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. R. H. Austin.

Marguerite Camp entertained with a banquet on Friday. About 200 members attended. A short programme was given and dancing enjoyed.

Mrs. Frederick H. Adams was hostess for a luncheon Friday honoring her sister, Miss Margaret Glen, of Houston, Tex., who is visiting here for the winter.

Miss Esthe Thompson entertained the Dorcas Girls at her home, 706 Frankfort street, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bingham, 172 Hamilton avenue, entertained a number of relatives at dinner Tuesday evening.

Members of the Blackstone Club gave a party for their friends at Muriark Ballroom Wednesday evening.

Miss Lillian Swanson, soloist, was a delightful feature of the affair, and sang several times during the evening.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Reynolds gathered at their home Friday evening.

Mrs. William Harris was hostess for a housewarming Friday evening in her new home on Pacific avenue, in Laurelhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White entertained Thursday with a Thanksgiving dinner and card party at their suburban home near Stanley Station.

Mrs. P. G. Baker, a pioneer of 1834, was sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to attend Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. R. H. Austin.

Marguerite Camp entertained with a banquet on Friday. About 200 members attended. A short programme was given and dancing enjoyed.

Mrs. Frederick H. Adams was hostess for a luncheon Friday honoring her sister, Miss Margaret Glen, of Houston, Tex., who is visiting here for the winter.

Marguerite Camp entertained with a banquet on Friday. About 200 members attended. A short programme was given and dancing enjoyed.

neuve, Jesslyn C. Pottage, Ruth A. Routledge, Alma M. Gruenig, Doris Clark and Evangeline Mcintosh.

A large holiday party has been arranged by the G. N. C. E. Girls and the Sigma Su to be given at Hotel Multnomah in the ballroom on the evening of Friday, December 8. Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. William Culley; entertaining committee, Pearl La Forge, Cherry Couey, Gertrude Lucke, Maxine McDonald, Arthur Hall, Eva Vinton, Earl

(Continued on Page 5.)

The Smartest Walking Boots

The plain, sober effects in Winter boots have lost their identity in the confusion of so many fancy colors. We appreciate the fact that every woman needs walking boots, and we have anticipated their wants.

At $8.00 Pair
we are showing a plain tailored demi-calf boot, full foxing and Cuban-Louis heels.

At $7.00 Pair
we show a plain gun-metal calf, with a leather Louie heel.

At $9.00 Pair
Extra fine black kid boot, with a wooden covered heel, blind eye-lets, in the lace style and button models. From our custom maker.

In All Sizes and All Widths.

—Second Floor

Sigman Wolfe & Co.
Merchandise of Merit Only

Wedding

Day Direct from makers
High grade steel plates

Engraved Wedding Invitations and Announcements. Social and Business Cards. Steel Die Embossed Personal, Lodge, Professional and Business Stationery. State kind of samples desired.

Phone 4600
4600
4600

McIntosh
Corner
5th and Oak St.

The Settle Shop

Pittock Block 383 Washington St. Portland, Ore.

Visit This Shop Monday if You Enjoy Values

Suit Reductions
Coat Reductions
Dress Reductions
Blouse Reductions
Evening Gown Reductions

How to Minimize Wrinkles
How to Prevent From Coming
Increase 20% in size for particular, or call at office, 1 to 3 P. M. Satisfaction guaranteed. 2 second floor, 2536 Washington St.

Nick-Marr Toilet Preparations
Sole Agents, All Retail Dealers
Dept. F. Portland, Or. Phone Main 3271
Nick-Marr Imported Powder, free from lime, or
For sale by Woodard, Clarke & Co.