

SERGE DE DIAGHILEFF'S BALLET RUSSE, OF WORLD-WIDE FAME, COMING TO PORTLAND

Steers-Coman Book Most Stupendous Sensation of European Capitals for Date Early in January—Woslow Nijinsky, Greatest Dancer of His Sex, Is Among Long List of Stars.

Lydia Lopokova and Stanislaw Idzkwowski. Nijinsky. SERGE DE DIAGHILEFF'S Ballet Russe is coming to Portland with an array of voluptuous splendor of pigmentation, with all the weird and fanciful mysticism, and all the kaleidoscopic glory of movement that has proclaimed it the most stupendous sensation and artistic event in European capitals and in New York last season.

This aggregation is none other than the real Imperial Ballet, headed by Waslav Nijinsky himself, who is conceded to be the pre-eminent dancer of superlative genius in the world of dance. It is to the everlasting credit and artistic acumen of the Lois Steers-Wynn-Coman combine that Portland and other Northwestern cities are to be included in the tour of this sensational and stupendous company.

On the Pacific Coast, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane will be visited, all of the tour having been arranged by the Metropolitan Opera Company, which brought the splendid big company to the United States last season. The Steers-Coman purveyors of excellent entertainment are certainly to be warmly congratulated in having been instrumental in booking the attraction of the world's greatest dancers.

25 YEARS AGO

Sunday, December 6, 1891. The Cinderella Party. The Cinderellas gave a very pleasant dance at Foreman's Hall on Thursday evening. The floor was in perfect condition, the music good and the evening one of unalloyed pleasure. The guests were very graciously received by Mrs. Walter V. Smith and Mrs. Wilson. The programme consisted of 14 dances and a number of extras and it was nearly 1 o'clock before the party came to a close.

features of the performances. The daring innovations of this art anarchist reveal a wild opulence of color and force of line which summon and heighten the spirit of imagination. Costumes are Essential Part. The scenic backgrounds against which these ballets move and the manifold costumes that clothe them are an essential part of this beauty and power of illusion.

REED DEBATERS STUDY

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR MEETING WASHINGTON TEAM. Question Will Be, "Resolved, That Intercollegiate Athletics Be Abolished; Dec. 14 Is Date Set. Thanksgiving vacation has been seized by the Reed College debating teams as a rare opportunity for intensive preparation for their final debate with the University of Washington, December 14. Word has come from Seattle that the northern institution has selected the cream of their law school for the two teams which will meet the Portland Collegians, Ray Dummett, 18, and Matthew Hill, 17, who were defeated last year in their debate with the Reed team at Portland, have been chosen as the affirmative, teamed at the college level, and will defend the question, "Resolved, That Intercollegiate Athletics Be Abolished," against the Reed negative team, Horace Miller, 16, and Samuel Adams, 18, at the University of Washington in Seattle.

SALMON MAY BE SAVED

Plan Is to Feed Fish Killed at Hatchery to State Prisoners. ABERDEEN, Wash., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Salmon killed at the fish hatcheries of this county for their eggs and fry, are being collected and shipped to the State Penitentiary at Walla Walla for use as food for the prisoners, according to County Game Warden J. J. Egan, who says that such a plan is being considered. These fish, he says, are generally as good as those which are sold to the public. He does not think that packers will object, inasmuch as the goods will go to a state institution and will not be shown in market in competition with packers' outputs. He believes the scheme, if adopted, will save the state several hundred dollars every year.

NORTH Bend Depot to Be Remodeled.

NORTH BEND, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—The new Southern Pacific depot in this city will be remodeled at once to provide more convenient quarters for the employees who are located in the building. Several important changes will be necessary to place the building in line with other where working facilities are adequate. The depot was finished about six weeks ago at a cost of between $4000 and $5000.

HOOD River Levy to Be 2 1/4 Mills.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—If the budget recommended by the City Council is adopted, the total tax levy of Hood River the coming year will be 2 1/4 mills, exclusive of the levy to be made by the State Tax Commission. The local levy will be increased by 2 1/4 mills over that of last year. Following the recommendations of the School Board, the voters of the city school district have voted a levy of 8 1/2 mills, a mill increase over last season.
