RUSSIAN TROUPE WILL SHOW HERE JANUARY 13-14.

Matince and Two Evening Performances Will Be Given-50-Piece Orchestra With Famous Dancers.

loff, Ekaterina Galanta and Doris Falth-full. A corps de ballet of 40 is an in-tegral part of the organization.

tegral part of the organization.
A complete symphony orchestra of 50 pieces, under the direction of Pierre Monteux, famous European conductor, accompanies the troupe. M. Monteux was fighting in the French army before Verdun up to last August. He led the Ballet Orchestra for two years in Paris before the war. before the war.

As the company plays three perform-ances here, art-lovers of this city will have an opportunity of viewing practically the entire repertory of 12 ballets.

Among the spectacles which have helped establish the Diaghileff Ballet as pre-eminent in artistic circles are "Cleopaire." the exotic mimodrama featuring Egypt's wicked queen: "Scheherazade." the sensational Oriental melodrama from the Arabian Nights; "Thamar," a cruel Caucausan tale set in a marvelous and sinister tower, and In a marvelous and sinister tower, and "Till Eulenspiegel," a new choreographic pantomime conceived by Nillnsky himself and produced by him for the first time on any stage in New York last October. This ballet caused a sensation in New York, critics claiming it to be the best work in the repertory. Other internationally famous offerings to be presented here inclinde "Le Spectre de la Rose," "L'Apres Midi d'un Faure," "Sadko," "Carnaval," "La Princess Enchantee," "Papillons" and "Prince Igor."

With Famous Dancers.

F. C. Schang, representing the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, was at the Hotel Benson yesterday arranging the preliminary details of the coming of the celebrated Serge de Diaghileff Bailet Russe, which will include Portland in its coast-to-coast tour of 50 cities, arriving for two evening performances and one matinee, January 13 and 14.

The ballet is now at Fort Worth, Tex., proceeding north. The company travels in a special train of 12 cars, five of which are of special construction to accommodate the vast scenic devices designed by Leon Bakst which form an important feature of the production.

At the head of the organization in the dual capacity of premier danceur and artistic director, is Waslav Nijinsky, acknowledged to be the greatest male dancer now alive. In addition, the principals include Adolf Bolim, the virile pantomimist: magnificent Flore Revalles, who plays all the wicked roles; dainty Lydia Lopokova, Olga Spesizewa, Margareta Frohman, Alexandre Gavriloff, Ekaterina Galanta and Doris Faithfull. A corps de ballet of 40 is an inferior.
