promises to be most interesting. It is an open chase and already a tremendous list of entries has been recorded. H. M. Kerron is M. P. H. and Mrs. A. M. Cronin will lay the trail. A large gallery of spectators in motor cars, on foot and on horseback will witness the start and the invariably exciting finish.

Mrs. Julius Louison left Thursday for San Francisco to pass several weeks visiting relatives. She will be joined this week by Mr. Louison, who plans to leave Thursday for the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander E. de Schweinitz and children, of Florence, Or., are passing the holidays with Mrs. de Schweinitz's mother, Mrs. George Welder. A number of charming affairs have made their visit interesting, one of the recent events honoring Mr. and Mrs. de Schweinitz being the Orpheum box party given by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Jewett, which was followed by supper and dancing at Multnomah Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haddon Manners, of Underwood, came to Portland for the holidays and registered at Multnomah Hotel. Mr. W. Edminson, of San Francisco, who are prominent in the social life of the southern city, also came to Portland to pass the holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Giesy, stopping at the Multnomah.

Miss Caroline Lowengart, the well-known vocalist, is passing the holidays with relatives in San Francisco. She plans to return to Portland about the middle of the month.

Mrs. Frederick Langerman has returned from an extended visit with her daughter Helen, who is attending Miss Harker's school in Palo Alto.

The leading hotels in Portland are planning to entertain with charming "watch parties" tonight. At the Multnomah, which is especially decorated for the evening, a New Year's supper will be served beginning at 11 o'clock, and dancing will commence at midnight and continue several hours. Special music and an augmented orchestra will aid in making the evening more than usually interesting. At the Hotel New Year's dinner-dance also has been arranged for Monday night.

Portland Hotel will have a similar programme, starting at 10 o'clock New Year's eve, and dancing from midnight until 2 A. M. Vocal and instrumental music will be heard during the evening. A special New Year's dinner will be served, dancing and music to be included in the programme.

Mrs. Frank Moore, of this city, is visiting in Spokane with relatives, and was one of the honor guests at a family gathering at the Cyrus Happy Home on Christmas day.

The Concordia Club was the scene of a merry gathering on Tuesday night when the members of the Sunday school of Temple Beth Israel gave the play "Maccabean Days," written by Mrs. Paul Lebenbaum. Mrs. Sanford P. Lowengart was chairman of the affair, which proved a delightful success in every way. The little ones participating in the play were clever and attractive, and made the event most notable. Following the play, the assemblage enjoyed a dance for a few hours. The play, through many requests, was repeated on Wednesday afternoon.

A Gamma Phi Beta tea will be given Saturday afternoon at the home of Dr. J. K. Locke, 694 East Madison street, by Miss Beatrice Locke, Miss Naomi Marcellus and Miss Irene Strowbridge, three members of the sorority. This will be one of the many interesting events that will mark the holiday season for the young folk.

On Wednesday afternoon the Portland Alumni of Delta Gamma, consisting of University of Oregon girls, including the Misses Helen Brown, Mildred Lawrence, Helen Weirlein, Olive Zimmerman, Roberta, Nellam, Nettie Drew, Mrs. William J. Kellers, and Mrs. Francis Curtis, were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Keller in Alameda Park, for all the active and alumni University of Oregon Delta Gammas who were in Portland for the holidays.

Among those enjoying their sorority sisters' hospitality were the Misses Lucia Macklin, Alene Noren, Lucille Cogswell, Helen Wiegand, Edna Gray, Claribel Williams, Reba Macklin, Mary

Miss Irene Pokorney Stein, a charming young maid of Chicago, is visiting her uncle, Ludwig Loesser Pokorney, at Hotel Benson. The latter will entertain for the visitor with a dance in the crystal room of Hotel Benson on Friday night to which a number of well-known Portland folk have been asked.

Mrs. Harry B. Rees, of Stanfield, Or., came to town for the wedding of her nephew, W. Eldon Furnish, and Miss Frayley and is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Furnish, for several days.

Rex Hitchins Conant, a prominent member of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club and resident of this city, was married on Christmas day in San Francisco to Mrs. Aida May Dodge, at the home of the bride's father, Millard J. Layman, of Oakland. Mr. Conant and his bride, upon their arrival carried a bouquet of pink Cecil Bruner roses and lacy ferns. Miss Bernice Lucas and Miss Bernice Bernice, and they were beautiful bridesmaids, and they wore beautiful frocks of tulle and lace of the orchid tones. Their bouquets were of Ophelia roses.

Folsom Tallman, of Pendleton, acted as best man, and the guests were ushered by Stewart J. Moore, Harold Brook and Clifton Irvin.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Frayley, which was attended by a great many relatives and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Furnish left for a brief wedding trip to the Coast, and will make their home in this city upon their return.

The Furnish is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Furnish, and shares his bride's popularity in Portland society. The latter has been extensively feted with special affairs during the past few weeks by her hosts of friends.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 30.—(Special.)—Miss Beverly Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sharp, court reporter of the Superior Court and first woman bailiff appointed in the State of Washington, became the wife of David Mobley, cashier of the Bank of Commerce, of Oregon City, Or., at the home of the bride's parents, 3121 B street, Saturday evening, December 23.

In the presence of 80 relatives and friends from several cities of the Northwest Rev. R. H. Sawyer, of Portland, read the double ring ceremony. The bride was in a gown of white chiffon taffeta, combined with silver lace, tulle and pearls and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses, slowly descended the stairway, leaning on the arm of her father, while Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. Merwin Norton. The bridesmaids of honor, Mrs. Earl S. Butler, a sister of the bride, wore a gown of Nile green, crepe de chine, combined with silver lace, and carried pink roses. The maid of honor, Miss Norma Sparks, a cousin of the bride, wore a tulle gown of orchid shade and carried roses. Robert Sharp, a brother, attended the bridegroom. Little Richard Beatty, 3 years old, carried the ring in the heart of a large chrysanthemum. The bride's veil was caught with orange blossoms, sent by Mrs. Fully, the bride's cousin, of Los Angeles.

The ceremony took place beneath an arbor of ferns, yellow chrysanthemums and yellow chifon. The living rooms were artistically decorated with yellow and green flowers and ferns, and used in profusion. Oregon grape and pink chrysanthemums decked the dining-room, while holly predominated in the giftroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was given, which more than 150 attended. Entertainment was served by Miss Lillian Goodnight, Miss Jessie Lynn Sawyer, Miss Bess Sanderson, Miss Ethel Smith and Miss Grace Arnold, of Portland, and Mrs. E. O. Sparks and Mrs. E. E. Engle, of Portland, cut the loaves and cakes.

During the reception Miss Lillian Hirschman sang "Along the Love's Garden" and Miss Norma Sparks sang "Because God Gives Me You." Preceding the wedding ceremony Leo Charles Sparks, a brother of the bride, sang "I Promise Me." Alfred Jeanon, of Portland, was at the piano.

Receiving Mr. U. L. Fraser, Mrs. James Sharp, of Pendleton, and Mrs. Frank Blaker. Out-of-the-city guests included: Mrs. Merwin Norton, of Nampa, Idaho, Mrs. L. Bernsb, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. George McKay, Miss Lucille Ross, F. Day Johnson, all of Portland; Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Sharp and son, Edwin, of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mobley and daughter, Miss Estella Mobley, of Milwaukie; Miss Tess Snyder, of Walla Walla; John Wintler, of Seattle; Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Sawyer and Miss Jessie Lynn Sawyer, Miss Grace Arnold and Mrs. William Beatty, of Portland.

After a honeymoon trip to Spokane Mr. and Mrs. Mobley will make their home in Oregon City.

The formal dance and reception of the Beta Omega Chapter, Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, will be an event of Friday night at the Multnomah Hotel. The affair will bring together a number of University of Oregon and University of Washington students, who are home for the holidays, and members of the alumni. The program and attractions will be Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jeffers, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Kiehl, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Flegel, Mrs. E. E. DeCou, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Miss Elizabeth Fox, dean of women at the University of Oregon, and Mrs. Etta H. Holbrook.

The committee in charge of the reception is composed of Miss Helen Purinton, Miss Cora Horner, Miss Mildred Bruchman, Miss Dorothy Flegel and Miss Dorothy Robertson.

On Thursday night hundreds of college folk made merry at the big and gay dance and card party for which the alumni of the University of Oregon were hosts. It was the largest and most elaborate of the annual social affairs of the entire year and was given on the mezzanine floor of Multnomah Hotel, both ballroom and the assembly hall being used for the dancers. The card tables were arranged in the rooms adjoining the assembly hall and supper was served in the tea gardens. Delightful features were arranged as surprises during the evening. A ballroom dance caused much merriment, with the bobbing, elastic gas-filled globes of vari-colored topping the gayest of frocks and elaborate coiffures. A Paul Jones cotillon was an interesting number on the programme, handsome favors being given. The grand march, under the direction of Montrose M. Ringler, after many intricate figures were successfully danced, ended in the frolicsome Paul Jones. The university colors were in evidence, yellow and green being the favored and the decorations of the rooms, although the Christmas time was honored with holly wreaths and other adornments. The dance was a tremendous success, far exceeding the expectations of the energetic committee, Elmer M. Pursett, chairman; Alice Benson Beach and J. R. Alderman.

The floor committee was composed of Mrs. Alice Benson Beach, chairman; Mrs. G. T. Geinger, Miss Arville Beckwith, Misses Bertha Masters, Grace McKenale, Kate Stanfield, Henrietta Lauer, Florence Kendall, Ruby Hammarstrom, Beatrice Locke, Beatrice Lilley, Cecil Miller, Esther Maeley, Lucile Davis, Mae Norton, Mrs. Walker Campbell, Florence Killingsworth, Elmer Pursett, Don Orput, Lloyd Bailey. The refreshment committee was: Mae Norton, chairman; Esther Maeley, Lucile Davis, Cecil Miller, Roy Terry and Oscar Pursett.

A long list of prominent men and women were patrons for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hardy and small daughter, Sylvia, have given up their home on Portland Heights and are contemplating apartments at Alexandra Court for the winter.

A series of informal dinner dances will be given by the management of Alexandra Court for the pleasure of the patrons of the house and their dinner guests. The first of these was given on Wednesday, January 3, and a number of special informal dinner parties are ready to be planned for the affair.

Miss Tirah L. McMillan's engagement to Robur Saunders Hughson was announced Tuesday at a charming dinner party for which Mr. and Mrs. Leon Frayley were hosts. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mrs. Sarah McMillan and is a charming girl and popular in social circles. She was graduated from Portland Academy and is a clever musician.

Mrs. David Mobley, (Miss Beverly Sharp) Bridesmaid

Mr. Hughson is a son of Oliver G. Hughson, a Portland Academy graduate and is well known in the automobile business, being connected with the Oregon Motor Car Company. No definite plans have as yet been made for the wedding.

Captain and Mrs. H. L. Harries have taken apartments at Alexandra Court for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams and Harold Williams, their son, who is an accomplished vocalist, from San Francisco, are at Alexandra Court for a few weeks. They expect to reside in Portland and will take a house in the Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dickerson and little daughter, Jane, of Hood River, will pass the winter in Portland at the Court.

The wedding of Miss Lois Anne Thacker, formerly of Centralia, Wash., but for the last several years of Portland, and Wilbert Ferguson Sullivan, of Portland, was solemnized at the First Congregational Church on December 9. Mr. Sullivan is one of the owners of the Cold Creek Mining Company, near Richford, Or. He was graduated from Minnesota University and both he and his bride are very popular in their set.

Chi Omegas from the universities of Oregon, Washington and California will honor guests for a large bridge tea to be given Saturday afternoon by the Portland Alumnae of Chi Omega, at the home of Misses Esther and Monta Maeley, on Arlington Heights.

About 12 tables of bridge will be played, and an elaborate musical programme and tea will be given later in the afternoon, to which 250 additional guests have been invited.

The honor guests will be Mildred McClung, Laura Aiken, Alene Johnson, Nellie Reidt, Florence Hemenway, Helen Bracht, Charlotte Banfield, Anna Lee Miller, Dorothy Bennett, Agnes Basler, Gladys Harbke, Margaret Casey, Lorraine Mahoney, Mildred Pegg and Belle Messig.

In the presence of a large group of friends Miss Ruth Frayley became the bride of William Eldon Furnish, Thursday night at the First Presbyterian Church.

The church was attractive with trailing bamboo around the walls and tall

Cooper poured and Mrs. Jay Russell Coffey cut loaves. Serving were: Miss Eleanor McClaine, Miss Margaret Hawkins, Miss Julia Platt, Miss Mary Warrack, Miss Erma Keithley, Miss Marian Coffey and Miss Myrtle Smith.

The house was decorated with sweet-scented Spring flowers. The drawing-room was fragrant with narcissus, Ophelia rose buds, bamboo stalks and lavender chrysanthemums. Clusters of yellow daffodils were used in the dining-room.

Mr. and Mrs. Furnish left for Seattle to be gone a week or two.

The newly organized Thursday Night Dancing Club, which had their first party at the Harlow-Grady house on December 14, will give the second dance of the series Thursday, January 11. Among the club members attending the first party were: Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lyons, Dr. and Mrs. Karkeet, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wiggins, Dr. and Mrs. Shea, Dr. and Mrs. Wheat, Mr. and Mrs. Bouton, Dr. and Mrs. Billington, Mr. and Mrs. Paul De Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krohn, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson and Mrs. N. Whitehead.

The Harlow-Grady Dancing School entertained all of their children and young people's classes with holiday parties and dances on Friday and Saturday before Christmas. The reception-room and ballroom were beautifully decorated and all the kiddies enjoyed the big tree.

Miss Adeline Kendall, a charming young maid, entertained with a pretty tea Saturday in honor of her cousin, Miss Anna Barker. The rooms were effectively adorned with Christmas decorations and about the rooms were silver candelabra shedding their soft light on the assemblage. Presiding at the tea table were Miss Ethel Malpas and Miss Winifred Miller, assisted by Mrs. James J. Pantom, Miss Consuela McMillan, Miss Susan Green, Miss Lucy Miller and Miss Helen Manning. About 35 of the younger set called during the afternoon, most of whom were former school friends of Miss Barker at St. Helen's Hall.

Portland members of the British National Red Cross will entertain at Hotel Portland with a card party January 9. It is expected that there will be 30 tables used for the game. Mrs. D. H. Gowans is chairman of the committee, assisted by Mr. Charles Blakeley, Mrs. Harry L. Sherwood, Mrs. K. K. Baxter and Mrs. Arthur King.

A delightful New Year's dinner-dance was given at Hotel Portland Friday evening by a group of congenial people who met once each month to dine and dance. A large square table was centered with jars of growing poinsettias and ferns. Covers were laid for 30. Following the dinner-dance, the company shared the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady at the Harlow-Grady Home of Dancing, where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krohn, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watson, Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Hedlund, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McCallloch, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. August van Rosendaal, Mrs. Irene Semper, Mrs. Olinger, Mrs. G. Liebe, Miss Yella Winne, Miss Irene Pokorney, Stein, William Bennett, Duff E. Leadbetter, Charles von Rhein and Ludwig L. Pokorney.

Hotel Portland has during the past week been the scene of a number of delightful luncheons and banquets incident to the meeting of the State Teachers' Association, for which the Portland was the headquarters. The largest of the functions was the banquet given Thursday evening in the grill, for which 400 covers were laid. This was followed by a reception at the Chamber of Commerce given by the Oregon Congress of Mothers.

Mrs. Ernest C. Duncan, of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nicolai. Several social honors are planned for the attractive young matron.

Miss Anita Ehline, of San Francisco, is the house guest of Mrs. Nathan Wise, and expects to remain in Portland for several weeks.
