L. Peoples, of this city, and started for Portland. The wedding was solemnized here on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanford, 252 East Thirtieth sctreet, with whom Mr. Peoples has made his home for some time.

Rev. Arthur F. Bishop, of the Central Presbyterian Church, officiated, using a simple ring service. Only a few close friends of the couple were present. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. For the past four years Mr. Peoples has been cashier of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company at Portland.

Boyd-Mills.

Boyd-Mills.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George F, Mills at Cottage Grove, Or., Thursday, afternoon, December 21, when their daughter, Irma Hazel, became the daughter, Irma Hazel, became the bride of George Thomas Boyd, Rev. D. A. McLeod, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Ruetta Boyd, a sister of the bridegroom. Kenneth Mill, a brother of the bride, acted as best man, and Georgia Mills was flower man, and Georgia Mills was flower girl. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

Among those present were S. W. Boyd, Miss Dorotha Boyd, Miss Edna Boyd, Miss Edna Awbrey, Mrs. J. E. Enger, of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walling and their little niece, Theima Walling, of Salem.

of Salem.
Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will reside on their farm south of Cottage Grove.

Sholes-Metcalfe.

An interesting wedding was that of Miss Gertrode Metcalfe and Charles H. Sholes, which took place Wednesday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E.

last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rand, 680 East Madison street, Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with evergreens and cut flowers. About 50 friends were present who sat down to the wedding breakfast. When the bride's cake was cut Miss Rand was the fortunate one receiving the ring. Mrs. Harold C. Bayley sang several selections. Miss Rand also sang Leslie Martin Gay, of Kellogg, Idaho, and Harriet Helen Thomas, of Ward-ner, were married December 24, Dr. C. E. Cline officiating. The wedding took place at the Oregon Hotel.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Hugh H. Glenn, a Stanford man, is passing the holidays in Portland.

Herschel Driver, who is attending

Stanford University, is home for the holidays, with his parents. Mrsa, Hene Semper, of Butte, Mont, passing the holidays with Mrs. F. E.

Mrs. A. Cohn, 131 North Eighteenth street, with her son, Charles S. Cohn,

Harlow, en route to Hawaii

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

ORPHEUM (Broadway at Taylor)—Big time vaudeville; performances at 2:15, 8:15 and 11:30 P. M.

BAKER (Broadway or Sixth, between Alder and Morrison)—Alexars Stock Company in The Great Divide," This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 5:15 and 11:30. PANTAGES (Broadway at Alder)—Un-equaled vaudeville, Three shows daily, 2:30, 7 and 3:05.

HIPPODROME (Broadway and Yamhill)— Vandeville and moving pictures: 2 to 5, 6:45 to 11 P. M., Saturday, Sunday, holi-days continuous, 1:15 to 11 P. M. STRAND (Park, West Park and Stark)-Vaudeville and motion pictures continuous

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Orders for ople of The New Year's Oregonian, which will be issued on January 1, 1917, to be sent to friends, should be sent to The Oregonian at once.

PRICE FIVE CENTS. USE BLANK ON ANOTHER PAGE, THIS LISUE

Postage in the United States or ossessions, Canada or Mexico, 5 cents. Foreign postage 10 cents. Address The Oregonian, Portland, Firm Ferres Employees at Lewis entertained their employees at Murlark Hall Friday night. It had seen the custom in the past at the lose of each year to banquet the sales force and department heads, but this year the affair was elaborated to include every employe. This new departure was a decided success, forming a ture was a decided success, forming a better acquaintance and understanding among the employes. The programme consisted of dancing intermingled with selections by the Ad Club Quartet. An address was made by Forrest S. Fisher, on "Co-operation," after which a buffet lunch was served. Dancing completed the programme.

GYMNASIUM CLASS ANNOUNCED.—The Bymnasium class for women and high school girls, under the auspices of the Hawthorne Parent-Teacher Circle, will meet in the Washington High gymnasium, Tuesday evening. After that date the regular Monday evening classes will be resumed. This gymnasium work is entirely free and a cordial invitation is extended to all women interested to join the class. For forther terested to join the class. For further information telephone East 1814.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA PLANNED.—The choir of the Swedish Lutheran Emmanuel church will give a Christmas cantata Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, entitled "The Star of Bethlehem," by William R. Spence. The solos will be by Miss Tolvia Carlson, contratto: Mrs. Hilda Lindborg, soprano; Nels Selander, tenor; Best Nordwald and Albert Bowman, baritone, and the Misses Edith Swanman and Cordelia Hill accom-Swanman and Cordelia Hill accom-are: E. O. Biggness, 88.80 per cent; Chris M. Luck, 84.65; John E. Hunt, Concentration and Patriotism" will be the subject of a lecture given by Dr. V. B. Delory next Tuesday at 11 A. M. In room E. Central Library. The lecture is free and the public is invited.

Woodlawn Alumni to Mest.—The Woodlawn School Alumni Association will hold its monthly meeting Friday evening at Linnea Hall.

The decorations were in keeping with the holliday season, the brightly lighted be a programme and all former numbers.

FIREBOAT ORDER HELD UP

Appeal Regarding Number of Crews to Be Made to Higher Officers.

Federal steamboat inspectors yesterday agreed to hold in aneyance their order that the city put two corps of firemen and engineers on the fireboats in place of the one crew as at present until the city has time to appeal to the headquarters office in San Francisco.

Francisco.

In case the Federal authorities demand that the two crews be used.

Mayor Albee says one of the fireboats will have to be put out of service.

The local steamboat inspectors also have condemned the two life boats on the Fireboat David Campbell. Bids for two metallic lifeboats will be opened by the municipal purchasing agent tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

$30,000 FACTORY TO RISE

Wood-Working Concern to Occupy East Broadway Site.

A building permit for a $30,000 factory and warehouse building to be erected by the Oregon Home Builders on Broadway between East Thirty-third and East Thirty-fifth streets, will be the first building permit for 1917. Ar-rangements have been made by the building department to issue the rmit the first thing Tuesday morn-height and 80 by 125 feet in size con-structed of brick reinforced concrete and mill construction. It will be oc-upied by a wood working conern.

SUITS PRESSED, 35C.

Dry cleaned, $1. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark. Broadway 514.—Adv.

The Annual Oregonian In Wrappers Labeled as Follows:

NEW YEAR'S EDITION

Portland, Gregon

The Oregonian Annual will be on sale Monday morning, January 1. Copies desired for mailing will be rolled in neat wrappers, labeled "New Year's Edition, Morning Oregonian, Portland, Oregon." Watch for the label.

Supplies of the Annual will be available at various prominent street corners, as well as at The Oregonian office.

Copies all ready for mailing, including postage, will be sent anywhere in the United States and its possessions, Canada and Mexico for 10 cents, foreign 15 cents. The price of same unstamped is 5 cents.

Be sure to send copies of the Annual, Oregon's greatest advertising medium, to your friends in other states. Look for the label on the wrapper.

The Oregonian

(Continued From Page 3.) Their home in Irvington was decorated

Swanman and Cordelia Hill accompanist.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U. TO MEET.—The Central W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Public Library. The general subject of the principal discussion by Dr. H. H. Pratt will be "What We Get for What We Give." There will be talks also on tithing by the superintendents of the various districts.

CARPENTERS PASS EXAMINATION.—Three men who took a recent municipal Civil Service examination for bridge carpenters received passing grades according to the ratings announced vesterday. The three who passed and their grades are: E. O. Biggness, $8.86 per cent; Chris M. Luck, $4.65; John E. Hunt, START 1917 RIGHT.—The secret of success lies in the ability to influence. Learn how at the Behnke-Walker School of Salesmanship. Course beginning Tuesday. January 2. Start right now. Phone Main 590 or better still, call for particulars at the college.—Adv.

Open Forum This Evening at Unitarian Chapel. Subject, "Does the War Prove Christianity a Fallure?" Leading speaker, Rev. Earl M. Wilbur, D. D. Broadway, between Yambill and Taylor, at 7:45 P. M. All welcome. Dr. Wilbur, DR. Delory Lectures Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. Chapels Richard and Mrs. Horace Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. Chapels Richard and Mrs. Chapels Richard and Mrs. Chapels Richard and Mrs. Chapels Richard and Mrs. H. C. Clair, Miss Helen Gallagher. The party ended at an early hour.

Will speak also at 11 A. M.—Adv.

DR. Delory Lectures Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. Chapels Richton. Mr. and Mrs. Chapels Richton Mrs. L. M. Ikle entertained a number of friends on Tuesday night at her home in Irvington. Instrumental music hight at the school building. There will the holiday season, the brightly lighted be a programme and all former pupils of the school are invited.

CITY HALL CLOSES TOMORBOW.—TO.—

CITY HALL CLOSES TOMORBOW.—TO.—

Moreover being a legal holiday the City Phil James Martin, one of the members of the class, who graciously rethose who wish to go through the Museum. The doors will be open during the afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Wolfman, of San Francisco.

DURING JANUART, free instructions on making ladies' garments; classes limited: enroll now. Gurney's Ladies' Tailoring School, Mohawk bldg. Use Gurney's Shur-right snap fasteners.—Adv.

Lowa Society celebrates 70th anniversary admission of Iowa into the Union, Multinomah Hotel, Wednesday evening, Jan. 3. Supper, programme, dance. Admission, 50 cents.—Adv.

Mrs. Jack Wolfman, of San Francisco, who returned to Portland to attend the Nudelman-Collins wedding recently, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. S. Steinberg, her sister, gave a theater party, followed by a luncheon, in honor of Mrs. Wolfman, of San Francisco, who returned to Portland to attend the Nudelman-Collins wedding recently, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. S. Steinberg, her sister, gave a theater party, followed by a luncheon, in honor of Mrs. Wolfman, of San Francisco, who returned to Portland to attend the Nudelman-Collins wedding recently, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. S. Steinberg, her sister, gave a theater party, followed by a luncheon, in honor of Mrs. Wolfman, of San Francisco, who returned to Portland to attend the Nudelman-Collins wedding recently, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. S. Steinberg, her sister, gave a theater party, followed by a luncheon, in honor of Mrs. Wolfman, of San Francisco, who returned to Portland to attend the Nudelman-Collins wedding recently, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. S. Steinberg, her sister, gave a theater party, followed by a luncheon, in honor of Mrs. Wolfman, Mrs. Wolfman, Mrs. Wolfman, of San Francisco, who returned to Portland to attend the Nudelman-Collins wedding recently. Mrs. Jack Wolfman, of San Francisco evening, Jan. 3. Supper, programme, dance. Admission, 50 cents.—Adv.

REV. PERRY JOSEPH GREEN and Florchoce B. Crawford will conduct union structes Sunday night, Eilers recital hal. Mr. Green will speak on "How to Make Life Worth While."—Adv.

RELATIVES AND OLD FRIENDS GREET PORTLAND COUPLE AT

Illinois in 1876, and came to Portland seven years ago, when they built the home where they now reside.

RELATIVES AND OLD FRIENDS GREET PORTLAND COUPLE AT

Mr. And Mrs John Prideaux

Mr. and Mrs. John Prideaux celebrated their golden wedding anniversary December 23 at their home, 105 North Seventeenth street, assisted by their children and grandchildren. Old-time friends called during the afternoon and many letters were received from out-of-town friends extending congratulations. Tea was served from the same china tea service that was used at the wedding 50 years before. Several 80-year-old pieces from the wedding set of Mrs. Prideaux's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hensley, were also used for the constitution of the prideaux was applied.

for the occasion. An original poem by Mr. Prideaux was read by Mrs. Owen, the oldest daughter.

John Prideaux married Jane Bawden Hensley, of Gwennap, at the Wesleyan Church, Camborne, England, December 23, 1866. Mr. Prideaux came to Portland over the Isthmus of Panama in 1868 and Mrs. Prideaux and infant daughter followed a year later. They have resided in Portland and vicinity ever since, with a visit to their birthplace in 1800. They have four children—Mrs. A. J. Owen, of Pendleton, and Mrs. J. M. Batcheller, Arthur J. Prideaux and George H. Prideaux, of Portland, and six grandchildren.

Florence, were present, the only absented of the immediate family beins the eldest daughter, Mrs. J. P. Graham, a of Seattle. Covers were placed for 15, representings four generations of two families. A Christmas tree, of corresponding dimensions, yielded a bound, it full crop of presents, suited to the ages of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Latz have moved temporarily to the Benson Hotel, prior to leaving for California, where they must be will pass the Winter. Little Miss Elizabeth Shilloch gave a Spanish dance at the children's matines white. Silk carried bride roses. Miss Maisie Poster, maid of honor, was attreed in pale blue silk and carried ophelia roses. Little Marie Wood was ring beatrer, carrying a calla lily in white was placed the golden band. She wore a dainty French frock. J. Carlson was best man. A reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wooddy follows and relatives, in honor of the sages of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith were pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by 30 friends and relatives, in honor of the sages of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith were pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by 30 friends and relatives, in honor of the sages of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith were pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by 30 friends and relatives, in honor of the sages of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith were pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by 30 friends and relatives, in honor of the sage of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith were pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by 30 friends and relatives, in honor of the sage of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith were pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by 30 friends and relatives, in honor of the sage of each recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. Benamil Latz have moved temporarily to the Benson Hotel, white with the process disjunction of the winter.

Mrs. A. Campbell, president of the university of Oregon, and Mrs. Yound to Harding for Carborne Hill.

They will make the prock. J. Will pass the Winter.

Mr.

A pretty wedding took place Thurs-They have a son, Sayler E. Smith, day evening, December 21, at the home and one daughter, Miss Clara Smith, of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Pozier, 741 Milday evening, December 21, at the home day evening. December 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Pozier, 741 Milwaukie street, when their youngest taken Arbor, Mich., is spending the holidays in New York City and her former home, Washington, D. C. Mr. Cohn was formerly a student at Reed College.

Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by Miss Sophie C. Oison and the ceremony was read under a large white Ome of the most attractive of holiday weedings took place last Wednesday.

Friendship Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold its next meeting Wednesday, January 10, at Vincent Hall at 8 o'clock. Installation will take place. All Eastern Star members are welcome.

The Sigma Gamma Pl frafernity will hold the second of its series of dances Friday evening. It is expected that there will be about 60 present. Harry Hollister is chairman of the committee in charge.

WEDDINGS.

Finley-Wooddy.

The marriage of Miss Merle Hilda 8 Weoddy and Joseph A. Finley was soisted by Miss Inga Peterson.

The Brides Wedlings took place last Wednesday weedings took place last Wednesday weening at the house of the Misses Flanders, 109 North Mineteenth street, when Miss Flora Wallace was united in marriage to Gustav Johnson. The pring ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends by the Rev. W. Peterson, passence of a number of relatives and friends by the Rev. W. Peterson, passence of a number of relatives and friends by the Rev. W. Peterson, passence of a number of relatives and presence of a number of relatives and friends by the Rev. W. Peterson, passence of a number of relatives and presence of a number of relatives and presence of a number of relatives and from Santa Claus receipted bills for all repairs and improvements made refriends by the Rev. W. Peterson, passence of a number of relatives and friends hydrome as would repair to presence of a number of relatives and from Santa Claus receipted bills for all repairs and improvements made refriends when the passence of a number of relatives and from Santa Claus receipted bills for all repairs and improvements made refriends when the passence of a number of relatives and from Santa Claus receipted by Ct. Johns Construction from Santa Claus the Church at the passence of a number of relatives and from Santa Claus the Church at the passence

Beckley-Kurtz.

One of the most charming of the Christmas weddings was solemnized Thursday evening, when Miss Hazel Babcock Kurtz became the bride of Dr. Norman Clyde Beckley, of Boise, Idaho. Preceding the ceremony Miss Clara Wuest sang Cadman's "At Dawning," Immediately following the bridal party took their places before an sitar of ferns and palms. Little Aida Hendricks was ring bearer, followed by Miss Elizabeth McGaw as maid of honor. The bride was given in marriage CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer and family desire to thank their many friends and acquaintances for their kindness and acquaintances for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and sympathy during the illness and death of their beloved son and brother, Emil Bauer; also for their many beautiful floral offerings.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS.

CARD

Peoples-Gruber.

Miss Leah Gruber, a bride of Sunday, ecember 24, has the distinction of issuing her own marriage license. She was Deputy County Clerk at Yamhili County, and was h charge of the marriage license bureau at McMinnville. Before leaving her position she issued a marriage license to herself and Hugh bell.

Miss Lulu Dozier, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Fred Carlton, of San Francisco, acted as best man. Rev. W. W. Youngson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, performed the care.

Mrs. Campbell, who is a charming young woman, was Miss Lulu Reed, of St. Paul, She will be welcomed to Portland by Mr. Campbell's hosts of friends.

Mrs. Baum, with her daughtes.

ained noon with great preparations for their mid-Wingday it annual hall to take place at Ringland they are annual hall to take place at Ringland to

INCOME.

We have for sale several new apartment-houses of our own construction, ranging in price from $1600 to $50,-000, paying 10 per cent net.

F. E. BOWMAN & CO.,

213 Chamber of Commerce. Main 3026.

wreathed with orange biossoms and she carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

After a short wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Beckley will be at home in Boise.

Peoples-Gruber.

We desire to extend to the many kind friends our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation for the kindness shown us during the filness and the death of our husband and father.

Adv. Mrs. E. P. Burns and Family.

CARD OF THANKS.

329-331 Northwestern Bank Bldg.

Do You Save Systematically?

You can do it in small sums, payable monthly, on an Endowment Savings Policy

New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. Horace Mecklem, Gen. Agent

Ring out the Old Ring in the New' A New Year's Proclamation From the House of Jaeger Bros. N keeping with our progressive ideas of conducting a business, and believing that our patrons; employes and the general public will appreciate and indorse our action, we have decided to Close on Saturdays at 6 o'Clock this to become effective on the first Saturday of the New Year. And we believe that in further appreciation of this movement that purchasers will willingly regulate their shopping to conform to this new ar-We wish at this appropriate time to extend our thanks for liberal patronage bestowed in the past, and to announce that 1916 was the banner year in the history of our business. The personal attention that has characterized our efforts in the past will be as evident in those of the

It's Up to You to Make ——1917-

Your Most Prosperous Year You can increase your own efficiency and that of your office force by the use of labor-saving equipment especially adapted to your business. You can obtain from our complete stock: Any system, filing device and office appliance, any piece of furniture, any special book or blank, any loose-leaf supplies, ring and post binders, typewriter supplies, rubber stamps, etc.

Transfer Cases Have

future. To sell only merchandise of such quality as will bring you here again and again has and always will be our aim in business.

Jaeger Bros.

Jewelers and Silversmiths

131-133 SIXTH ST.

OREGONIAN BUILDING

25% Greater Capacity #75% Greater Protection

100% Greater Value than wood and cardboard cases

Printing, Engraving, Steel Die Embossing and Bookbinding EVERYTHING FOR THE OFFICE

Phones: Marshall 6080, A 6548

Corner Fifth and Oak Streets

Happy New Year We appreciatingly thank our many patrons for their good will and valued patronage the past year. Our efforts will be stronger than ever to provide a jewelry store service that will be satisfying, conscientious, safe and reli-able to the highest degree. Announcement Commencing with the New Year we shall close our store each day at 6 P. M. and including Business hours $ A. M. to 6 P. M. each day. Diamond Dealers and Jewelers

FRANK SCHRAMEK Electric Body Belts

FRANK SCHRAMEK 294 Front Street, Portland, Oregon.

Claremont-Tavern Chicken Dinners Crawfish Linnton Road Main 59

Phone Your Want Ads to THE OREGONIAN Main 7070, A 6095.

Wool Bats and Mattresses

ANY SIZE AND WEIGHT. Buy Direct From Manufacturer. Blankets, Mattresses and Feathers Renovated. We Do Wool Carding. Crystal Springs Finishing Works