

SCHOOL STUDENTS RUSH IN ON LAST LAP OF FIRST SEMESTER

Hours Away From Books Are Put In on Social and Quasi-Academic Pursuits and in Research, Thus Making School Days Interesting.

Jefferson Parents Frolic With Students.

Good Times Party Is Big Success. Alumni Members Organize Rehearsals for "Mice and Men" St. Pt. February Shows to Have Class Day Wednesday.

BY CURTIS M'KINNEY.
The Jefferson High School "first-terms" and their parents frolicked in a good time party Friday night. The affair was well attended. The freshmen and their parents played old-time games and danced. This is the first time in the history of the school that such a party has been held and it shows that the classes possess the real "Jefferson spirit." The success and the originality of this affair is due, to a large extent, to Earl Hughes, who was in charge. The parents who enjoyed the entertainment were, Mrs. B. C. Hughes, Theodore Rothschild, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. John H. Watson, Mrs. Hodgins, Mrs. Gill, Mr. Jacob, Mrs. C. K. Bunker, Mrs. G. A. Westgate, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, Mrs. McDonald, Miss Catherine Lind, W. L. Schmidt, Mrs. M. D. Crain, Mrs. O'Malley, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. W. Terry, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. E. K. Knicker, Mrs. J. Wright, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Raymond Bacon, Mr. Woodward, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Garver.

Bertha Goldstone, 46 words per minute; Ruth Bottler, 37 words per minute.

Mr. Johnson and Miss Goldstone receive a certificate; Miss Bottler a pen- nite.

Eighty new seats have been installed in the auditorium.
The following boys have turned out for basketball, and it is from them that Commerce will be made up: Charack, Margulis, Pander, Beich, Trautmann, Rogaway, Mills, Zalkurtz, Meyer, Gray and Taylor. These are the fellows who responded to the first call, and more are turning out all the time.
The school is handicapped by lack of a gym, but this has in no way dampened the enthusiasm of the players. Manager Pruss has secured the old Neighborhood House gymnasium, at First and Hall streets, for use in the future.
The ceiling of the school gymnasium at Commerce is too low for basketball.

The treasurer's report shows that the June class realized a goodly profit from the Commerce Pops, sold just before Christmas. The tickets were 15 cents each and approximately $22 was taken in.

Professor Johns, of the Oregon Agricultural College, visited Mrs. Crawford's shorthand classes Tuesday.

A brand-new set of showers has been installed at Commerce.

John Johnson delivered an interesting report on the London's "The People of the Abyss" before the economics class during the sixth period Wednesday.

The English-6 class, under Miss Baker, listened to an interesting debate on the Adamson railroad law last Wednesday. Arthur Beich and John Johnson upheld the affirmative and Robert Barger and Lester Kassebaum the negative.

Principal Sprout has appointed a committee of three of the Commerce High School members to take charge of the Commerce received in the Food Show contest and formally present it to the Benson Polytechnic School next Monday. All the high schools of Portland claimed this cup and Commerce won it on the draw. Later statistics were given in honor of the contest. Benson really had the best claim to it, so the students of Commerce voluntarily and unanimously voted it to the former school.

The committee consists of August Beich, president of the Athletic Association; Thomas Slinnet, spokesman for the Commerce Commune, and Frank Bartholomew, who won the cup when the representatives of the different schools were held for it.

At the regular meeting of the Modoc last Wednesday the faculty was re-elected by Miss Slinnet, Miss Rankin, each of whom gave a short speech, commending the society on its high social status.

An impromptu program was given by some of the students, the purpose being to give practical, impromptu speaking and debating.

Alvin Stalsberg was elected editor for the society.

Plans are being made for a party to be given in honor of the graduating members of the society. This will be held in the school hall, unless some other place is secured.

The meeting was concluded by the regular business of the society.

The combined Spanish classes are planning to give a party at the home of Neville Haight on the evening of January 12.

The system of final examinations has had a complete revision at Jefferson. The last week of the term will no longer be set for the final examinations. They will be held on the Fridays of the several final weeks. The first was held last Friday. The purpose is to eliminate the cramming during which the teachers are overburdened with examination papers. Hopkin Jenkins also wishes to make the idea among the graduating classes, so next term there will be no honorary exemptions.

During the holidays the June '16 class held its annual get-together party in the school gymnasium. This is a most interesting and enjoyable affair. The evening was passed in playing games and in relating tales of experiences.

The W. C. C. club recently entertained a number of their friends at a dance. Those present were Gladys Hollingsworth, Helen Galt, Woodrow, Mildred Catton, Mildred Hudson, Margaret Stader, Florence Dawson, Madeline Stobbe, Bev Brooks, Phyllis Bush, Dorothea Wiers, Adelaide Boleweck, Olive Stark, Euphemia Rochet, Jean Amesbury, Lillian Hodgins, Louise Watson, Loyd Carter, Wilbur Carl, Flavin West, Lloyd Kometz, Kenneth Hastings, Steve Wilcox, Ferris Bagley, Hobart Cunningham, Fred Connors, Curtis McKinney, Count Goldenweck, Walter Rhoades, Ralph Trayer, Fay Ricketts, Carl Applegren, Harlan Stansbury, Clydes Giesy and Gus Hixon.

The Naemph club recently entertained the sixth, seventh, eighth and alumni members of the Technical club.

The Boys' Debating Society will hold its annual banquet during the week's vacation. The affair will be a "stag party" and is in charge of William Bolger and Herbert Sweet. At the last meeting of the debating society, one of the alumni was back and spoke to the club.

A series of debates is being held among 24 boys of the school. The purpose is to train them in debating and to pick out the eight best, who will give a debate on the subject of "Resolved, That the question they are debating is, 'Resolved, That Oregon should adopt a system of compulsory military training of not less than two hours a week, in all high schools having an enrollment of not less than 25 boys.'

The girls in the dressmaking and millinery classes are making use of a collection of old Japanese prints this week in the art room. Many pleasing color schemes for dresses and aprons are being copied from the prints.

This collection was made by Miss Tingle while she was in Japan.

Hokusei is represented by an exquisite print of a figure in the familiar blue, green and old orange which characterizes the traditional work which he is better known.

A beautiful tryptic showing a Japanese garden with a recent fall of snow is by Hiroshige, though the figures in the foreground were made by another hand. There are also several prints of "The Great Wave" and "The Great Rain." Other prints shown were by Kuniyasu, Kunisada, Toyo-Kuni and Toyo-Haru.

There were also fine examples of Japanese stencils.

On Wednesday morning Miss Tingle gave a very interesting talk on her experiences in making the collection, and of impressions of Japanese art gained through contact with the Japanese people.

A joint meeting of the third-term boys and girls will be held on Monday, January 17. They will vote on class officers for next term.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLASS OF BENSON POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL FOR GIRLS RECEIVING INSTRUCTION IN THE SELECTION OF MEATS. DEMONSTRATION INTENDED TO HELP THEM SOLVE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Northwest Triangle Debate to Be Held March 30.

Lincoln Coach Confers With Representatives of Spokane and Walla Walla Schools—Rehearsals for Latin Play Begin—Philolexians Give Formal Party.

BY MARGARET DUNIWAY.
L. KOEHN, the debate coach of the Lincoln High School, held a conference with Mr. Bradford, the debate coach of the North Central High School of Spokane during the holidays. They made final arrangements for the triangular debate, in which the North Central High School, the Walla Walla High School and the Lincoln High School will take part on March 30.

The rehearsals for the Latin play "The Captives" are held every Monday and Wednesday afternoon after school. The play will be given the second week in March. The cast is as follows: Heglo, Millard Rosenblatt; Philocrates, Kathryn Donald; Phlopiemius, Mary Gill; Tyndarus, Ruth Ferguson; Ergastus, William Hawkins; Aristophanes, Isaac Holzman; Stalagnus, Robert Dickson.

The Philolexians gave their formal party Saturday evening at the home of Frances Habersham, 315 Irving street. The affair was a "Twelfth Night" party. The committees which were in charge of the party are as follows: Entertainment, Alice Hester (chairman), Edith Strowbridge, Frances Habersham; refreshments, Eliza Armstrong (chairman), Eliza Isensee, Florence Boyrie.

The patronesses and patrons were Miss Wold, Miss Downs, Miss Griebel, Miss Hayward, Mrs. McKelley, Mr. Harlan, Mr. Koehn and Mr. Schwartztrauber.

Those present were: Ellen Anderson, Eliza Armstrong, Eva Beckman, Helen Ballard, Selena Barnell, Henrietta Bettinger, Leta Burt, Esther Bodman, Florence Boyrie, Mary Bullock, Evelyn Capell, Belle Contryman, Mignonette Dolph, Kathryn Donald, Margaret Dunlop, Frances Habersham, Alice Hester, Eliza Isensee, Myrtle Jacobsen, Lucille Kearney, Marjorie Kellor, Frances Kenny, Elizabeth Kessl, Frieda Krickelky, Helen Lamar, Fanny Melis, Helen Moreland, Lucille Murton, Mary Nicol, Mildred Nicol, Elsie Pinyer, Margaret Pinyer, Margaret Ray, Dorothy Reed, Marjorie Schoeneck, Helen Skvart, Marjorie Thompson, Will Kessi, George Cowne, Sanford Anderson, Nathan Twining, Philip McCarty, Harry Seltzer, Donald Morse, Benjamin Schumacher, Raymond Hagaman, Hazel Bullock, Jackson Capell, Glenn Campbell, Russell Colwell, Ira Berkeley, Vernor Ruddy, Walter Fimmel, Herbert Gunther, Donald Harris, Ralph Strong, Ralph Holzman, Max Simons, Ralph Knudsen, Martin Sichel, Heber Moreland, Sherman Rees, John Chalmers, Ernest Haycox, Albert Weller, Tom Foley, Harry C. Stevens, Ralph Spearow, Clarence Hubbard.

George Jones gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "Coast Defense" at the meeting of the Adelphians Thursday.

One of the big debates of the term, on the question "Resolved, That the Monroe Doctrine should be abandoned," will be given in about a month. The affirmative will be upheld by Harry Agassiz Club of James John to Be Hosts for Pupils.

Schools on Peninsula to Be Entertained Tuesday—Second Vocabulary Contest Set for Saturday Night, January 13—Social Notes From District.

BY LOLA MURPHY.
AFTER a very enjoyable Christmas vacation the James John students returned to school Tuesday ready for work of the new year. The skating party of the Friday evening before vacation was a decided success. This was managed by William Schroeder, and the last one of the semester.

The Hakanakia Campfire Girls held a ceremonial meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Elizabeth Tilson. Nina Jones, a new member, was initiated. Honors were awarded to the girls. Each one told of the kind deeds she had done. The rest of the afternoon was passed in dancing.

The Toios, Adelphians, Tri-Is and Philos had their pictures taken for the February '17 class Cardinal Tuesday afternoon. Thursday afternoon the regular Cardinal staff, the orchestra and the two glee clubs had their pictures taken by the Peasleys.

At the meeting of the Toilexians Thursday Mr. Newlin, of the faculty, gave an interesting talk on "Contemporary Literature and O. Henry." Mr. Newlin is planning to give a series of talks on contemporary writers to the society. Mr. Gearhart gave an account of his personal experiences in the Philippines. He answered whatever questions the members of the society wished to ask concerning the Philippine Islands.

A successful pencil sale was held by the February '17 class Thursday and Friday. The pencils were yellow and were tied with small bows of wisteria-colored ribbon, thus carrying out the class colors. The money made from the sale will be put into the scholarship fund, which will be used to send one of the members of the class to college.

The cast for the June '17 class play, "Our American Cousin," has not been definitely decided upon. Several changes had to be made in the cast as it was first made out.

The Lincoln pennant which was awarded to the room which sold the greatest number of tickets for the February '17 class play, "A Doctor in Spite of Himself," was given to room 214. Marie Carl was the girl who was awarded the 33 merchandise order for selling the most tickets. The name of the boy who sold the most tickets will be announced this week.

The Adelphians gave a party Saturday evening at the home of Dorothy Corbett. The diversions of the evening were games and dancing. The committee in charge of the party consisted of Lucille Resing (chairman), Mary Holmes and Besie Walsh.

A large number of Kyak Klatawa members were delightfully entertained at the home of Alice Gistburg, after a short business meeting. Interesting games were played. Dainty refreshments were served, after which the members left for their homes.

A basketball game was played between the James John boys and the latter, the score being 27 to 12. Those playing on the High School team were: Wesley Wrinkle, guard; William Schroeder, forward; John Wolf, center; Russel Meyer, forward; Charles Kreyer, guard; Charles Speckman, guard; Clarence Toole, guard; Max Sterna, forward; Delbert Day, guard.

The alumni playing were: Theodore

Roll of Honor.

DAVIS.
J. W. MacComas, Principal.
Norma Helgeson, Lyle Veagle.
Earl Quigley, Virginia Russell.
Fritz Friberg, Dorothy Buech.
Marjorie Hirsch, Frances Vermorel.
Alice Sand, George Story.
Minnie Lindblom, Harold Brimfield.
Pearl Klispel, Herta Bush.

OFFICERS OF THE "ZETAS" AT JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL.

Left to Right, Helen Woodcock, Vice-president; Jenn Amesbury, President; Helen Cotton, Treasurer; Harriet Eglic, Secretary, and Miriam Young, Editor.

Washington Seniors to Give Class Play This Week.

Friday and Saturday Nights Set for Productions of "Merely Mary Ann" and "The Moral Welfare of the Boys and Girls."

BY EUGENE KELLY.
THE long-talked-of senior class play is at hand and all prospects tend to strengthen the hopes of the February, '17-ers, that it will be one of the best in the history of the school. The play, "Merely Mary Ann," is a very interesting comedy. The tickets are on sale now at the school, selling at 25 and 35 cents. The character of O'Grady as portrayed by "Spud" Norman is exceedingly funny, and all of the other members of the cast take their parts as well. Don T. Orput, the coach of the play, is well satisfied with the results of his work. The play is to be given on next Friday and Saturday nights in the Washington High auditorium.

The second vocabulary contest will be held Saturday evening, January 13, at a regular meeting of the Sodality Latina Club. The preliminary contest will be held in the different classes on January 5. The winners will compete in the final contest.

The faculty reception to the students was announced for Friday night, January 5, at the High School.

Franklin High School.

BY WYLIE DORAN.
THERE were 28 boys at the Philogonian meeting Thursday afternoon, making it one of the best meetings of the semester. A debate was held, the subject being "Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities." Philip Strack spoke for the affirmative and Clark Schober for the negative. Strack won the decision. Several interesting and technical points in parliamentary law were brought up in the business meeting. Philip Strack and Clark Schober will again oppose each other on the subject of the debate with the Goggies. Robin Reed and Raymond Powell will act as associates. The following new committees were appointed: Programme, Edwin Rathburn, chairman; Teddy Weatherley, membership; Fred Jones, chairman; Walter Keller, secretary.

Nine new members were taken into the club. Clark Schober was elected to the part of the advertising of the club.

Tuesday night there will be a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association which will be open only to the boys. The subject of the musical department, will give a talk on the care of the voice. The District Attorney Robinson will speak on "The Moral Welfare of the Boys and Girls." A general discussion on this question will be held after the meeting. Lucille V. Ober will give a vocal selection.

Mrs. Ward, the school's secretary, is home from the hospital. Her health is improving and she expects to be in school next semester.

Mr. Geisler, who taught in Franklin the first term, is now acting as the States Consul in Cologne, Germany, for two months.

The girls' basketball team is out for practice and the prospects for a winning team are exceedingly bright. Barbara Kolka, who played on the La-habra team, is now playing on the state championship, is showing up very well. Edith Davis is another one of the new players who is doing some all-around good work.

A surprise party was given Friday night in honor of Vera Prudhomme. Refreshments were served and dancing, music and games furnished the entertainment. Those present were: Luella Hausler, Ollie Benedict, Dorothy Rasmussen, Ruth Hamilton, Hilda and Gladys Westbrook, Lucille Peake, Constance Cole, Lora Jenkins, Mildred Weisner, Florence Hickox, Marion and Elizabeth Wheeler, Edwin, Honey Ray Haslip, Roy Leoffner, McVrin Pike, Roswell and DeWitt Peake, Floyd and Edith Peake, Fred and Lucius Poote.

Naomi Cochran entertained several Franklin students at her home Friday evening. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. Games and dancing furnished the amusement. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mary Brugger, Ellen Karkeek, Katherine McKennie, Mildred Zehring, Arthur Kerkel, Henry Simons, Ralph Duston and Denny and Ted Mullen.

The "Pop" Club held its meeting Friday night.

All the faculty were present on the first day of school after the holidays.

Thaxter Daniels and Fred Pickering are the newly-appointed members of the staff. The Science Club held a meeting Thursday afternoon and a business meeting was held and an interesting talk was given on the animal life in the ocean.

New Books at the Library.

"I CANNOT imagine a more disagreeable way of qualifying for the income tax," says John Kendrick Banes, well-known author and newspaper man in his new book, "From Pile-Box to the Income Tax." The book is a "how-to" book in a sense, but it is also a study of the suffering of the novice in "getting used to" his new tax. It is a study of the "easy" side of the matter, but it is also a study of the "hard" side of the matter. It is a study of the "easy" side of the matter, but it is also a study of the "hard" side of the matter.

In another chapter called "Getting the Best Out of the Income Tax," the author gives a list of twenty-five hundred personally conducted checks on the income tax. It is a study of the "easy" side of the matter, but it is also a study of the "hard" side of the matter.

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

High School of Commerce.

BY FRANK BARTHOLOMEW.
THE following announcement will be of interest to grammar school graduates who are planning on entering Commerce next term.

With the beginning of the Spring term two entirely new courses will be added to the curriculum, making a total of four separate courses taught in this, the largest commercial school in the West. These courses will be bookkeeping and accounting, stenography, salesmanship and college preparatory.

A new extra subject, commercial art (cartooning and designing) will be offered, and may be taken up by students of any of the four courses.

In general, the subjects offered here are English, German, Spanish, mathematics, penmanship, bookkeeping, typewriting, shorthand, science, art, economics, commercial geography, commercial law, civics, physics, applied chemistry, advertising, office knowledge, business organization, economic history, gymnastics and swimming.

F. N. Haroun announces the following as the winners in the last typewriting contest: John Johnson, 41 words per minute;

Washington Seniors to Give Class Play This Week.

Friday and Saturday Nights Set for Productions of "Merely Mary Ann" and "The Moral Welfare of the Boys and Girls."

BY EUGENE KELLY.
THE long-talked-of senior class play is at hand and all prospects tend to strengthen the hopes of the February, '17-ers, that it will be one of the best in the history of the school. The play, "Merely Mary Ann," is a very interesting comedy. The tickets are on sale now at the school, selling at 25 and 35 cents. The character of O'Grady as portrayed by "Spud" Norman is exceedingly funny, and all of the other members of the cast take their parts as well. Don T. Orput, the coach of the play, is well satisfied with the results of his work. The play is to be given on next Friday and Saturday nights in the Washington High auditorium.

The second vocabulary contest will be held Saturday evening, January 13, at a regular meeting of the Sodality Latina Club. The preliminary contest will be held in the different classes on January 5. The winners will compete in the final contest.

The faculty reception to the students was announced for Friday night, January 5, at the High School.

Franklin High School.

BY WYLIE DORAN.
THERE were 28 boys at the Philogonian meeting Thursday afternoon, making it one of the best meetings of the semester. A debate was held, the subject being "Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities." Philip Strack spoke for the affirmative and Clark Schober for the negative. Strack won the decision. Several interesting and technical points in parliamentary law were brought up in the business meeting. Philip Strack and Clark Schober will again oppose each other on the subject of the debate with the Goggies. Robin Reed and Raymond Powell will act as associates. The following new committees were appointed: Programme, Edwin Rathburn, chairman; Teddy Weatherley, membership; Fred Jones, chairman; Walter Keller, secretary.

Nine new members were taken into the club. Clark Schober was elected to the part of the advertising of the club.

Tuesday night there will be a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association which will be open only to the boys. The subject of the musical department, will give a talk on the care of the voice. The District Attorney Robinson will speak on "The Moral Welfare of the Boys and Girls." A general discussion on this question will be held after the meeting. Lucille V. Ober will give a vocal selection.

Mrs. Ward, the school's secretary, is home from the hospital. Her health is improving and she expects to be in school next semester.

Mr. Geisler, who taught in Franklin the first term, is now acting as the States Consul in Cologne, Germany, for two months.

The girls' basketball team is out for practice and the prospects for a winning team are exceedingly bright. Barbara Kolka, who played on the La-habra team, is now playing on the state championship, is showing up very well. Edith Davis is another one of the new players who is doing some all-around good work.

A surprise party was given Friday night in honor of Vera Prudhomme. Refreshments were served and dancing, music and games furnished the entertainment. Those present were: Luella Hausler, Ollie Benedict, Dorothy Rasmussen, Ruth Hamilton, Hilda and Gladys Westbrook, Lucille Peake, Constance Cole, Lora Jenkins, Mildred Weisner, Florence Hickox, Marion and Elizabeth Wheeler, Edwin, Honey Ray Haslip, Roy Leoffner, McVrin Pike, Roswell and DeWitt Peake, Floyd and Edith Peake, Fred and Lucius Poote.

Naomi Cochran entertained several Franklin students at her home Friday evening. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. Games and dancing furnished the amusement. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mary Brugger, Ellen Karkeek, Katherine McKennie, Mildred Zehring, Arthur Kerkel, Henry Simons, Ralph Duston and Denny and Ted Mullen.

The "Pop" Club held its meeting Friday night.

All the faculty were present on the first day of school after the holidays.

Thaxter Daniels and Fred Pickering are the newly-appointed members of the staff. The Science Club held a meeting Thursday afternoon and a business meeting was held and an interesting talk was given on the animal life in the ocean.

New Books at the Library.

"I CANNOT imagine a more disagreeable way of qualifying for the income tax," says John Kendrick Banes, well-known author and newspaper man in his new book, "From Pile-Box to the Income Tax." The book is a "how-to" book in a sense, but it is also a study of the suffering of the novice in "getting used to" his new tax. It is a study of the "easy" side of the matter, but it is also a study of the "hard" side of the matter.

In another chapter called "Getting the Best Out of the Income Tax," the author gives a list of twenty-five hundred personally conducted checks on the income tax. It is a study of the "easy" side of the matter, but it is also a study of the "hard" side of the matter.

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."

In relation to the "early appearance at an 'after-dinner' party," the author says: "The only way to be admitted into a group of well-known writers—whom he calls 'five household names'—is to be a member of the same by being a well-known matter of fact to me by some dissatisfied individual sitting in the 'box'."