

SOCIETY

SEVERAL PATRONESSES FOR THE ELKS ANNUAL BALL JANUARY 26

Mrs. R. C. Dolbin
BUSINELL-PIKOT

Mrs. Warren A. Erwin

Mrs. Geo. L. Baker

Mrs. Ferdinand Reed
PETERSON STUDIOS-PIKOT

charming, and was solemnized at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal, at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. William Cronin officiating. Miss Mary Mel-drum, the bride, was attended by her sister, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, of Spokane, and Miss Grace Kern, of this city. Frank Kendall, of Spokane, acted as best man. An orchestra played the wedding music, and during the ceremony played "At Dawning." Miss Mel-drum's father, Henry Meldrum, gave her into the keeping of the bridegroom, Frederick Shields, of Spokane.

An artistic arbor of Ophelia roses and fernery was erected in the drawing-room underneath which the ceremony was read. A profusion of the exquisite Ophelia roses was used in the library, reception-room and halls, the stairway being garlanded with evergreens, rose-pink chrysanthemums and fernery. Palms added to the charming effect.

The bride was gowned in a creation of tulle with inserts of beautiful lace made very full over a foundation of white satin. The gown was made short, her filmy veil forming an airy train. It was decked with sprays of orange blossoms, a wreath of the same fastening the veil to her coiffure. The bridal bouquet was a shower of gardenias, lilacs of the valley and ferns.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held, about 100 of the couple's closest friends and relatives attending. Many out-of-town relatives were present. In the dining-room, where a buffet supper was served, the prettily-appointed tea table - was adorned with the lovely Ophelia roses, and was presided over by Mrs. Jerome Day, of Moscow, Idaho. Mrs. J. E. Finkham, of Spokane. Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer, and Mrs. Preston Smith, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields left for an extended wedding trip and upon their return will make their home temporarily at the Davenport Hotel in Spokane. The engagement of the young couple was announced in November, and since that time, many charming and delightful affairs have been given in their honor. The bride, who is a very interesting and charming girl, has made her home in this city with her aunt, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, and cousin, Miss Genevieve Thompson.

Miss Claire Wilcox has been the house guest of Miss Katherine Collins, of Seattle, during the week, going to Seattle with Miss Collins at the end of her visit here with Miss Ruth Teal.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright are now in California, leaving Portland Tuesday night. They plan to be gone for several weeks, and will visit in Paso Robles and other picturesque places in the South.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Knox were dinner hosts Wednesday night at the University Club before Mrs. Knox's departure for her home in Detroit. She will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kanter, for about six weeks, the latter of whom is ill. Dr. Knox will join his wife in Los Angeles, on her return to the coast, and they will pass a few weeks in Southern California.

Mrs. Clarence Edwin Osburn.

Lulu Menzies Stebbin and Clarence Edwin Osburn, of Gresham, were married Wednesday night, January 10, at the home of the bride's brother, James Arthur Menzies, 30 East Sixty-ninth street North. It was a simple ceremony, with only relatives in attendance. Rev. C. L. Hamilton officiated, using the ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Osburn will pass their wedding trip in California, touring by motor. They will be at home after February 28, at Gresham, Or.

Tomorrow night in the ballroom of Multnomah Hotel Miss Mary Bacon will be presented formally to Portland society by her distinguished aunt, Mrs. Dallas Bache. The ball will be a brilliant affair, and the invitations list, which numbers between 300 and 400 persons, includes all the representative families of Portland.

Miss Bacon is a charming young girl, the daughter of the late General Bacon, who was stationed in Vancouver Barracks for many years. She also tried Army life last summer, being one of the girls in the training camp, where she proved herself an efficient daughter of a General.

She already is popular socially, and after her formal bow she undoubtedly will be in demand at all the affairs of note.

Mrs. Fremont O. Downing is recovering from a severe attack of grip, which she contracted on her return to Portland from New York, where she went with her mother, Mrs. W. K. Baxter, of Seattle, to pass the holidays.

One of the many box parties at the Orpheum Tuesday night was that for which Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gilman were hosts. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Alice Gilman, and son Edwin.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Willett have returned from an extended and most interesting trip in the East and South. They have been gone more than two months, during which time they visited New York, Boston, Washington, D. C., Florida, and on Christmas they passed at the Mission Inn, Riverside, Cal., with relatives, stopping at Los Angeles and Berkeley. They reached Portland last week.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox entertained yesterday with a charming luncheon on Monday was to honor Tom Dobson and his friend, Lester Donahue, two well-known artists of the East, who are now in Chicago. Additional guests were Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, Mrs. Frank Vincent DuMont and Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman.

Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett was a luncheon hostess on Monday, honoring Mrs. Thomas Sharpe, of Prineville, who is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Aerk Morrison. Covers were placed for Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. Josephine Andrews, Mrs. Leola Hawley Hoffman and Mrs. G. Kirkham Smith.

Mrs. George S. Young and daughter, Miss Polly Young, will leave Tuesday for Gearhart, where they will pass a month in the E. L. Devereaux cottage. Colonel Young will leave tonight for the south.

Mrs. William Heller Ehrman was a charming hostess Wednesday afternoon commensurate to her mother-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Ehrman, of San Francisco. They were assisted in receiving by the hostess' mother, Mrs. L. M. Fielchen, of Gresham.

The tea table, which was adorned with a basket of pink flowers, was presided over by Mrs. Sigurd Frank and Mrs. Gustav Simon.

Mrs. Robbin H. Nelson (Constance Guerrier) and her son, John, returned to Centralia, Wash., yesterday. They have been the house guests of Mr. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nelson, 175 North Twenty-fourth street, since the beginning of the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leadbetter passed the holidays with their children, Misses Dorothy and Betty and Master Pittock Leadbetter, at Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Mr. Leadbetter, with his youngest daughter, left for California, where he will be joined later by Mrs. Leadbetter, who went to her mother's home the other two children in school for the second semester. Mr. Leadbetter and his son passed a large part of their vacation on the golf links, going over the 18-hole course almost every day.

A luncheon planned as a compliment to Miss Genevieve Butterfield, one of the recently elected brides-to-be, by Miss Clara March on Wednesday, proved to be an announcement party telling of the hostess' own engagement to Dr. Byron Edward Loomis.

The news was given in dainty corsage bouquets of violets and daffodils, to which were attached the cards of the couple. The bouquets marked covers at pretty appointments, which was adorned with a mound of the Spring flowers. Seated around the table were Mrs. Alice Fox, a daughter of Mrs. Thomas Lane Emory, Mrs. Morton Alger, Miss Butterfield, Misses Harriet and Mary Kern, Miss Edna Minsinger, Miss Margaret Lederer, Miss Alice Florence and Miss Louise Poulson.

Miss March is a charming girl, and very popular in her set. She is a daughter of Mrs. Mary March. The wedding has been planned for April. Dr. Loomis is not only well-known in his profession, but also is prominent in the club and social life of the city.

Honoring Miss Phyllis Nelson-Terry, the charming and clever English actress who starred at the Orpheum last week, the Professional Woman's League hosts for a delightful party on Wednesday at the University Club. The room was attractive with Spring blossoms, the tea table being decked with baskets of white and blue bouvardia. Mrs. Charles P. McCullough and Miss Vella Winner presided at the urns and were assisted by Miss Bertha Stuart and Mrs. Herman Holbrom. Miss Elizabeth Bain, president of the organization, received with Miss Nelson-Terry.

Miss Caroline Hexter, who has been in Spokane for the holidays, visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Galland, and her cousin, Mrs. Sternberg, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Philip Carroll entertained Thursday afternoon with a small tea for Mrs. Robbin H. Nelson, who left yesterday for her home in Centralia, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. K. Baxter. The tea was presided over by Mrs. Gilbert Durham, Katherine Holbrook, Miss Shirley Eastman and Miss Nancy Zan.

Miss Maud Answorth will present Miss Katherine Laidlaw in a recital of interpretive dances Friday night in Lincoln High School auditorium. The event promises to be one of social importance and of artistic merit.

Dr. and Mrs. Otis S. Lamson, of Seattle, passed the week-end here as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin Joynt. They are prominent in the social life of the North, and during their brief visit here, were entertained delightfully.

Miss Alice Robbins and S. M. "Max" Mears, Jr., have chosen Friday afternoon as their wedding day. It will be a simple ceremony, only relatives to be in attendance, and it will be solemnized at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Stuart H. Brown, 295 Davis street. Dr. Elliot will officiate.

The British Red Cross Society's card party, which was an event of Tuesday night in Hotel Portland, was a huge success, socially and financially. Forty tables were arranged for carding, both bridge and 500 being played. Miss Phyllis Nelson-Terry, the charming young English actress, who appeared at the Orpheum last week, visited the organization during the evening. She

LITTLE LAD WHO BOASTS OF DISTINGUISHED ANCESTORS.

Arthur Wellington Langguth.

Master Langguth is one of the interesting children in Portland, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Langguth, a grandson of Judge and Mrs. Arthur Langguth and a great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Langguth. Judging by the young man's present arbitrary disposition, he unquestionably will follow in the path of his long line of oratorical and lawmaking ancestors.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Willett have returned from an extended and most interesting trip in the East and South. They have been gone more than two months, during which time they visited New York, Boston, Washington, D. C., Florida, and on Christmas they passed at the Mission Inn, Riverside, Cal., with relatives, stopping at Los Angeles and Berkeley. They reached Portland last week.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox entertained yesterday with a charming luncheon on Monday was to honor Tom Dobson and his friend, Lester Donahue, two well-known artists of the East, who are now in Chicago. Additional guests were Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, Mrs. Frank Vincent DuMont and Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman.

Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett was a luncheon hostess on Monday, honoring Mrs. Thomas Sharpe, of Prineville, who is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Aerk Morrison. Covers were placed for Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. Elliott R. Cor-

A Great January Make-Room Sale

FURS 50% OFF!

The Emporium only carries Furs in the fur season. We don't take valuable display space to show them the year around. Our Blouse Shop now demands more space on the main floor—and the fur section must be closed earlier than usual. This great bona fide reduction beginning tomorrow brings

Beautiful Furs Reliable Furs At Just 1/2 Price

Every original price ticket remains—you pay exactly half. In many instances this is below manufacturer's cost.

Get First Choice of These Monday

2.45 Coney Scarfs.....	1.22	22.50 Red Fox Scarfs.....	11.25
2.50 Coney Scarfs.....	1.25	14.25 Black Fox Scarfs.....	7.12
2.50 Coney Scarfs.....	1.25	24.75 Black Fox Scarfs.....	12.37
1.50 Marmot Scarfs.....	0.75	18.50 Black Fox Scarfs.....	9.25
1.50 Marmot Scarfs.....	0.75	55.00 Sitka Fox Scarfs.....	27.50
14.75 Jap Wolf Sets.....	7.37	22.50 Sitka Fox Scarfs.....	11.25
10.00 Opossum Scarfs.....	5.00	62.50 Hudson Seal and Chin-
15.00 Jap Mink Scarfs.....	7.50	chilla Set.....	31.25
14.75 Red Fox Scarfs.....	7.37	7.50 White Iceland Scarfs.....	3.75
17.50 Red Fox Scarfs.....	8.75	52.50 Elegant Skunk Scarfs.....	26.25
21.50 Red Fox Scarfs.....	10.75	24.75 Civet Cat Scarfs.....	12.40
19.50 Red Fox Scarfs.....	9.75	12.50 Russian Fitch Scarfs.....	6.25
		24.75 French Mole Scarfs.....	12.40

See Our Immense Window Display of Furs at Half

EMPORIUM

Z. SWETT CO.
124 to 128 Sixth St. Just off Washington.

No Furs Sent C. O. D. or Laid Aside During This Sale

talked to the assemblage about the wonderful good the Red Cross societies are doing abroad, and rejoiced to be among so many of her own countrymen and women.

The committee of arrangements included Mrs. D. Gowans, Mrs. R. Fairhair, Mrs. K. K. Baxter, Mrs. T. Burns, Mrs. J. Lawson, Mrs. Charles Blakely, Mrs. A. King, Mrs. A. T. Smith and Mrs. J. Cormack. The musical programme, which was of exceptional interest, was arranged by Frederick Crowther, and included the following numbers: Bass solo, "Devonshire Miller," Mr. A. B. Caughey; mezzo soprano solo, selected, Miss Eliza Cramer; tenor solo, "Keep the Home Fires Burning" (Ad Club Quartette), Mr. McNeill; flute solo, "The Young Postillion" Miss M. Laughton; baritone solo, "Midshipmite," A. E. Robertson, of Condon, violin solo, selected, Master Herman Kenin, soprano solo, selected, Miss Eloise Hall; tenor and bass duet, "Army and Navy," Messrs. McNeill and Caughey. Accompanist, Carl Denton.

Mrs. Jerome Day and little son and Miss Abbie Mrs. of Moscow, Idaho, came down to attend the Shields-Meldrum wedding Thursday and are registered at Hotel Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Noyes, of Chicago, have been patrons at Hotel Portland during the past week, while Dr. Noyes, who is an eminent authority on dentistry, delivered a course of lectures at the North Pacific College of Dentistry.

Julius F. Kummel, of this city, and Miss Virginia Kerby, of New York, were married at St. Agnes' Chapel, given yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Jacob Gray Kamm by the members of Chi Omega, who entertained the Pan-Hellenic Association from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. The earlier part of the afternoon was devoted to a business meeting, after which Professor Robert B. Leigh, of Reed College, gave an interesting lecture. Miss Aileen Bronn contributed several readings, and a group of songs were sung by Miss Wilma Young.

The rooms were attractive with Spring flowers in dainty pastel shades, and the tea table was presided over by Mrs. W. W. Jordan and Mrs. Kate Sappington. Several of the Chi Omegas assisted about the rooms.

After a delightful three months' sojourn with her parents in Dallas, Tex., Mrs. Thomas Talbot returned to Portland Sunday. With her were her daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine.

The Oregon Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will hold its annual charity ball at the Multnomah Hotel Friday night, January 19, that date also being the celebration of General Lee's birthday. The patronesses are Mrs. S. C. Morton, Mrs. H. H. Duff, Mrs. E. R. Moses, Mrs. A. M. Lee, Mrs. F. Joplin, Mrs. J. C. Nissen, Mrs. E. Michael, Mrs. J. C. P. Westengard. The committee on arrangements are Mrs. V. M. C. Silva, Mrs. L. R. Bailey, Mrs. E. T. Hedlund, Mrs. U. D. Mason.

Julius F. Kummel, of this city, and Miss Virginia Kerby, of New York, were married at St. Agnes' Chapel,

New York City, on the afternoon of January 6. Mr. Kummel is a forest examiner in the United States Forest Service. After January 25 Mr. and Mrs. Kummel will be at home at the Bretner Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hale Noyes left (Continued on Page 4.)

Wedding

Buy direct from makers. High grade stock and work.

Engraved Wedding Invitations and Announcements. Social and Business Cards. Steel Die Embossed Personal, Lodge, Professional and Business Stationery. State kind of samples desired.

Phone Main 6418

Waltham

Waltham Cover File and Call Box

LADES— If you want to be satisfied with your next Tailor-Made Suit come to

B. F. FINK

Ladies' Tailor, Eilers Bldg.

We Move!

Every Fur Must Be Sold Before the New Store Is Ready

Our Extremity, Your Opportunity

YOU SAVE ONE-QUARTER TO ONE-HALF ON THIS SEASON'S CHOICEST FURS

This is a rare opportunity to buy, right up in the height of the season, the choicest, most up-to-date and highest-grade Furs at prices that mean just about the bare value of the raw furs. Every garment has been made in our own factory—designed and tailored by experts, and will retain its value and style for many years.

Our new store will open with an entirely new stock—nothing will be moved, therefore we have made reductions most unusual—come in any time and compare.

Just a Few FUR Specialties

In addition to our full line of fur coats, collarettes, muffs, neckpieces, etc., we have reduced prices on fur caps, mitts, gloves, auto robes and fur rugs. Children's furs, too, have been greatly reduced.

Choose Naturally, Early

Naturally, the assortments will be broken with the brisk buying prevailing now, so we therefore urge an early selection if you want the best choice.

Just a Few Prices

RUSSIAN PONY COATS	NEAR-SEAL COATS
Now$65.00	Now$50.00
French Seal Coats (seal-dyed muskrat) now $130, $140, $165, $180.
Self and contrasting fur trimmed.
MOLE CHEEK COAT.	MOLE SKIN COAT.
Now$97.50	Now$320.00
Near-Seal Neckpieces (just a few left) now....$1.50
White Hare Animal Scarfs now.....$5.00
Sable Squirrel Muffs (while they last), now.....$3.50
White Coney Cape Collars, now.....$8.50 and $9.50
Gray and Black Wolf Shawl Collars, now.....$6.50

Moleskin, Mole and Ermine, Skunk, Foxes, Mink, Ermine, Opossum, French Seal in Neckpieces and Muffs at prices way below their normal value.

FREE STORAGE H. Liebes & Co.

To all who buy now we'll give Free Fur Storage all Summer in our cold storage vault in our new store on Broadway near Morrison.

288 Morrison St., J. P. Plagemann, Mgr.