

DIVORCES LAID TO MODERN SEX PLAYS

Sensational Literature Also Declared Cause of Unhappiness in Homes.

BIBLICAL FORECAST CITED

Evangelist Hayward Says Coming of Lord Is Indicated With Closing Days of World—Lectures Are to Continue.

Sex plays and sensational literature were ascribed last night by Evangelist Hayward as the cause for unhappy homes and divorces.

Mr. Hayward spoke at Arcanum Hall, Thirteenth and Washington streets. He announced his subject as "Moral and Financial Cesspools" and said: "The Bible points out the moral degeneracy and financial profligacy of our times just as clearly as it foretells other conditions obtaining in the world."

"Modern styles in dress also must come in for their share of blame. The mad competition in social functions is largely responsible for many of the extreme and immodest styles."

High Living Costly. He also referred to the high cost of living, styling it the "cost of high living."

"In this day when the gospel of Jesus Christ is needed more than ever before, men are slighting it," he said. "Even many religious men are garbing it in robes of philosophy. The Bible is no longer regarded as an authoritative statement by an infinite God. Indecency and higher criticism have undermined all moral restraint and the basest passions of the human heart run riot as though there would never be a day of accounting."

Last Days Are Hinted. "The Scriptures speak of this time as a time when men shall be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, denying a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof," and this is declared to be the condition that will exist in the last days. Can they be much worse? Truly they are signs of the coming Lord and the closing days of earth's history."

The subject for tonight's lecture in "Signs of the Times" by Evangelist Hayward. There will be no lecture Monday and Tuesday evenings, but Evangelist Hayward will speak again Wednesday on "Smashing the Last Great World Empire," and the lectures will continue throughout the week. Song services at 7:30, lecture 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

JITNEYS STRIKE SNAG

PATRONS DEMAND RIDES IN ANY DIRECTION FOR FARE.

New Scale Proposed Cutting Time of Service to Five Minutes Likely to Bring Trouble.

Jitneys have run up against the snag of patrons demanding that they operate off their routes and, accordingly, a change was made yesterday. Up to this time they have been giving a 15-minute ride for 5 cents. This is to be cut down to a five-minute ride for 5 cents.

New rate cards appeared yesterday and were submitted to Commissioner Elvick. A few were approved before a joker was found in the schedule and issuance of further requests were denied and those that had been issued were recalled. The joke was in the form of a higher rate for a ride of 40 or 50 minutes than the rate for one hour.

The jitneys, to escape the City Council's regulations, established themselves a 5-cent taxicab. They posted rates of 5-cent fare for a 15-minute ride. This has enabled patrons to take a jitney in any part of the city and demand a ride in any direction for 5 cents. And many patrons have taken advantage, so many, in fact, that the jitneys now want to shorten the length of time given for 5 cents.

It is said the five-minute ride will get the jitneys into trouble, because they cannot make the full run to the end of their present routes in five minutes and the taxicab ordinance prohibits the charging of more or less than the rate as set forth on the rate cards in the machine.

RUSSIAN CLASS SOUGHT

Action of School Board on Petition Is Awaited.

Russian is to be added to the language courses in the schools of Portland if the School Board acts favorably on a petition submitted by the foreign trade class of the University of Oregon. If an instructor can be secured, Superintendent Alderman is responsible for the launching of the movement to secure the proposed new course, when, during an address before the foreign trade class, January 22, he expressed the belief that knowledge of the Russian language would be a most valuable asset to a young man contemplating the foreign trade field.

At the next meeting of the foreign trade class, upon the evening of January 30, Mr. Griffith, of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, submitted a petition to the School Board for the installation of a class in Russian. The securing of an instructor

Cocoon Oil Fine for Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

RECITAL BY MRS. BURKE AND THEODORE SPIERING BILLED

MacDowell Club Announces Important Musical Event to Be Offered in Masonic Temple February 12—Concerts in Northwest Scheduled.

THEODORE SPIERING, VIOLINIST, WHO WILL PLAY AT MACDOWELL CLUB RECITAL.

The MacDowell Club announces an interesting violin and piano recital for the evening of February 12, at the Masonic Temple, at which Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke will appear as co-star with Theodore Spiering, the renowned violinist. The musically playing of Mrs. Burke is well known to Portland art lovers, though her public appearances have been all too rare. On this occasion the opportunity will be given to hear her in a group of piano numbers, including the stunning Capriccio, by Bortkiewicz, and the playing of the brilliant Kreutzer Sonata, for piano and violin, will be a privilege rarely enjoyed by Portland audiences.

Mr. Spiering stands today in the front rank of the truly great violinists. A man of high ideals, a profound musician, he is one of the rare exponents of violin mastery who combine consummate technical skill with deep intelligence, who are authoritative and convincing interpreters of the great masters. His is manly, healthy playing of the highest type.

Before the Portland date Mrs. Burke and Mr. Spiering will have appeared in joint recitals in Billings, Helena, Boise and Baker, and later will play in Astoria and Eugene, after which Mr. Spiering goes to California.

MR. MINTO HITS BACK

ASSERTIONS OF REPRESENTATIVE SHELDON IN HOUSE DENIED.

Ex-Head of Penitentiary Says Residence of Parole Officer at Prison Not Questioned by Him.

J. W. Minto, ex-superintendent of the State Penitentiary of Oregon, yesterday issued a statement in reply to remarks uttered by Representative Benjamin Sheldon, of Medford, on the floor of the House of Representatives Thursday, when the State Parole Board reorganization bill was up and when it was voted to allow Parole Officer Joe Keller to be maintained from the commissary of the State Penitentiary.

Representative Sheldon, during the discussion on the floor, said that Mr. Keller had told him that under the ruling of Mr. Minto as warden he could not have his family with him at the Penitentiary in his work as State Parole Officer.

"The facts are these," said Mr. Minto yesterday. "I never said or did anything toward having Mr. Keller removed from his house or from obtaining his living at the Penitentiary. After he moved away he had his meals at the Penitentiary whenever he saw fit. As for his living with his family at the Penitentiary the facts further are these: Treasurer Kay, as a member of the Board of Control, during one of the meetings, asked for an opinion from the Attorney-General as to whether Keller had the right to live at the Penitentiary and get deputy warden had a right to do. Mr. Kay insisted that under the law Keller could not do so; that he could not maintain a residence and get commissary credits for his family from the Penitentiary."

"I personally had nothing to do with the issue brought up and knew nothing about it until the question came up before the Board of Control at the request of Treasurer Kay. The only demand I made of Keller was that he attend to his duties as Parole Officer and leave the management of the prison work within the walls to me, which arrangement he and I thoroughly understood. I make this statement to correct the erroneous statement made on the floor of the House of Representatives by Representative Sheldon and reported in the newspapers."

REED STUDENTS INSURED

Class of 1915 Takes Out Twenty-Year Endowment Policy.

Members of the class of 1915, the first class to graduate from Reed College, have decided to insure the lives of a number of their classmates for the benefit of the college. The idea is to have the endowment policies mature just before the 50th reunion of the class so that the presentation of the total fund may be made a feature of the 1915 commencement. A sufficient number of contributions have already been received to guarantee the success of the plan. The committee in charge of arrangements are: David Brace, chairman; Annie Jordan Harrison and Joyce Kelly.

Members of the class of 1915 have also sent in contributions for a similar purpose, although the details of their plan have not been worked out, as yet. Similar plans for endowment insurance have been successfully inaugurated at Princeton and Columbia universities.

Two Power Ranges give the Peerless a "Dual Personality"

In this one car you find those fascinating contrasts in performance which heretofore have been possible only in two totally different and opposite types of cars.

"Loafing" Range
Soft, velvet-smooth performance with the lightning pickup you would expect in an Eighty Horsepower Eight!
And in this range you are automatically operating on half rations—consuming fuel so sparingly as to put many a lesser powered six to shame—even many a four.

"Sporting" Range
Simply open the throttle wider to release her double poppets and you give her full fuel rations and utterly change the whole character of your car.
In her "sporting" range she is a brute of a car for super-power and thundering speed—the rightful contender with anything built, no matter what its class.

Peerless Eight

Ever growing demand for this greatest of a long line of Peerless successes foretells a shortage in Peerless Eights this spring. Let us demonstrate a greater variety and contrast of performance than you have ever known in any one car. See us now.

RECIPE TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

This Home-Made Mixture Darkens Gray Hair and Make It Soft and Glossy.

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to darken the gray hair, and make it soft and glossy.
