captain and the work of each month will be directed by a colonel. In addition, three "social sergeants" will be named each month who will be held responsible for a certain number of programs, dinners, lectures and other forms of entertainment that will get the new members acquainted with each other. The Y. M. C. A. now has about 4500 members.

Berkeley Acheson, the new head of the service department of the Y. M.
C. A., will be in direct charge of all of the features of the campaign. With his addition to the Y. M. C. A. staff, a policy of more social gatherings has been inaugurated and committees are being assigned to tasks of greeting visitors, organizing the dormitory men and hunting up new members for the association.

William C. Moore has been elected colonel of the forces that will campaign this month for members. The captains will be C. B. Wintler, Walter Rogers, A. C. Lomer and C. A. Staver.
The social sergeants for the month will be Joe Kelly, Ben Tucker and J. A. Mac Tarnaghan.

One of the first programs that the social sergeants contemplate for the month will be a vaudeville show, staged by some of the men now actively at work in the campaign. The committee promises some clever features, which will be announced in about ten days.

Following are the members of the teams for this month:

AN All-Weather Tread on a Goodyear Tire is the best guard against winter tire troubles man has been able to devise. It is double-thick and densely tough, studded with big, rugged, sharp-edged blocks—an effective barrier to most punctures, and a vigilant resistant to skidding. It is as sure-footed in snow as a malamute, and as serviceable as your car itself.

Every Goodyear Tire ought to be at work outside a Goodyear Tube. No other tube so safely insures the constant air pressure needed to cushion strain and shock. No other tube is so protected in the making against leak, seep or creep.

Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Tubes both can be had from Goodyear Service Station Dealers. Probably there is one in your neighborhood. He is worth searching out and doing business with.
For he is there not only to sell you tires, but to help them deliver you their last mile of service (more than you're used to from your present tires) after he has sold them.

Theo. H. Scheffer Forced to Cancel
Mole Demonstrations.

The stormy weather which has recently been experienced in this county, combined with serious illness in his family which necessitated his return to his home in Puyallup, Wash., has forced Theodore H. Scheffer, assistant biologist in the employ of the United States Biological Survey, to cancel the mole demonstrations which were to have been held in Multnomah County during the week of February 5 to 10.
A series of 10 meetings had been arranged by County Agent Hall in different parts of the county, but all of them will be postponed until a later date, which will be arranged in the near future.

Winlock Wants Road Improved.

WINLOCK, Wash., Feb. 2.—(Special.) —A committee of three from the Bungalo City Club of this city made a trip to St. Urbans on Monday, where they interviewed a number of farmers on the subject of the St. Urbans-Win-lock road, which at the present time is in bad shape. It is impossible for automobiles and all but impassable for teams. As a result the farmers of that section will meet next Sunday to see how many days' work can be secured as a donation toward fixing the road.

PORTLAND GIRLS' ENGAGE- MENT ANNOUNCED.

Miss Lillian L. Hasenmayer and Mrs. Hasenmayer announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian L., to Frederick H. Schmid, of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Schmid.

Coast in defense of the I. W. W.
She made her first voyage to the west here two years ago on a general lecture tour and was a guest of honor at the Civic League and a luncheon given by the Librarians' Association and spoke also at a big labor meeting. She is known the world over as an organizer and professional agitator and speaker for labor.

Her present visit to Portland is a part of a tour of the Northwest cities in a defense campaign for the 74 I. W. W. members now lodged in the Everett jail, charged with murder. Miss Flynn came here directly from New York to take part in the campaign for funds to defend the men. She had been in New York for months engaged in the huge strike conflict of the iron ore miners and had returned to her home in New York for a rest, only to be summoned to the Northwest to help in arousing sympathy and obtaining funds for the defense of the incarcerated I. W. W.'s.

Many Strikes Are Helped.
Miss Flynn has figured in every strike of importance in which the I. W. W. have taken any part in the last 10 years and her oratory and fiery declamations have attracted wide attention to her. She has been arrested time and again.
"The statement has been made that even I cannot figure exactly how often I have been arrested, but that is not quite true, since I can do it by carefully going back over every big strike riot or occasion of demonstration by labor," she said. "Invariably I have been arrested at these times, not for any particular thing, but usually for inciting a riot."

"Seven years ago I was jailed in Spokan for what the authorities were pleased to call violating the law of their state. Fortunately out of the many times I have been arrested I have never been convicted." She was the moving spirit in the big strike of silk workers in Paterson, N.
J., in 1913, and when tried on a charge of inciting a riot she was defended by two women lawyers, as well as by friends by personal sympathy by Mrs.
O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. J. Sargent Cram and other prominent New York women.

Mrs. Bolesvala Was Friend.
She was a personal friend of the late Inez Milholland Bolesvala and counts prominent men and women thinkers and workers her close friends.

Miss Flynn is an interesting young woman, of a Maxine Elliott type of Irish beauty. She is thoroughly in-sympathetic with her work. She refers to the affair at Everett, Wash., as "the biggest labor trial in the history of the world."

"Seventy-four men are accused of first degree murder," Miss Flynn said, "all of them workers who took part in a conflict where five workers and two deputies were killed. The side which lost the most men is, by a queer twist of justice, the side charged with murder. As one I. W. W. said to me, "It's a case of might makes right."

"My sympathies are entirely with the I. W. W. The amazing thing to me is that they didn't all get killed. I have been among them in the prison and have heard their stories."

"That is one reason I am here now,
and workers her close friends.

would tell it themselves if they could.
"So many of you folk out here have the idea that the I. W. W.'s are murderers and ought to be hanged. I wish you could know, as I know, the clean young lads, the honest laborers and sterling chaps, out of work, fighting for a principle and put behind bars, simply because might makes right in Everett, Wash."

"I made a talk in Salem and one in Everett, before the State Federations of Labor in both states, and both bodies adopted strong resolutions demanding a Congressional investigation of the Everett affair."

"After Portland I go on to all the Northwestern cities, one by one, trying to raise funds for their defense."

GOLD HILL, Or., Feb. 2.—(Special.)— D. H. Miller was instantly killed here today when he was struck by a locomotive of a Southern Pacific train, which had slowed down for the stop at the him to leave the track. The accident occurred two blocks from the depot.

Mr. Miller had been in the hardware business many years, but had retired.
He had resided in Gold Hill 25 years.
