Steamship Frederick VIII to Carry Suite to Copenhagen—Vessel Is Being Guarded Carefully at New York.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Arrangements today were completed for the departure on Wednesday of Count von Bernstorff and his staff aboard the steamship Frederick VIII for Christiania, Norway. The former Ambassador and the personnel of the Embassy will leave Washington Tuesday night.

Not all the German Consuls who were relieved from further duty here with the breaking off of diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany will accompany Count von Bernstorff out of the country. It was learned today that a number have been instructed by the German government to depart from their former posts for points in South and Central America.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The steamship Frederick VIII was given permission by its owners in Copenhagen today to convey former Ambassador von Bernstorff and his suite to a Scandinavian port, according to a cablegram to the Scandinavian-American line officers here. No date has yet been set for the vessel's departure, but the officials of the Scandinavian-American line thought she was likely to get away Tuesday or Wednesday. In addition to the Ambassador's suite, provision has been made for carrying about 200 German Consuls.

Patrol of the waterfront by launches carrying rapid-fire guns in the vicinity of the Frederick VIII and heavy land guns about the approaches to the vessel are part of the precautions which will be taken to protect Ambassador von Bernstorff and other German officials at their departure from this port Wednesday.

THOUSANDS AGAINST WAR

Many Telegrams to White House Are in Same Language.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Thousands of telegrams from different parts of the country urging steps to maintain peace between the United States and Germany reached the White House today. Many of them were in the same language and evidently were the result of an organized movement.

Representatives of the Emergency Peace Federation, recently organized at New York, called at the White House today in an effort to make an engagement to see President Wilson next week. A mass meeting will be held here Monday. One of the objects of the movement is to secure a referendum on war as suggested by William J. Bryan.

HOW I DARKENED MY GRAY HAIR

Lady Gives Simple Home Recipe That She Used to Darken Her Gray Hair.

For years I tried to restore my gray hair to its natural color with the prepared dyes and stains, but none of them gave satisfaction and they were all expensive. I finally ran onto a simple recipe which I mixed at home that gives wonderful results. I gave the recipe, which is as follows, to a number of my friends, and they are all delighted with it. To 7 ounces of water add a small box of Barbo Compound, 1 ounce of bay rum and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drugstore at very little cost. Use every other day until the hair becomes the required shade. It will not only darken the gray hair, but make it soft and glossy. It is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

BRAZIL HAS PROTEST

Note to Berlin Condemns New Submarine Policy.

Blockade Called Illegal

Responsibility for All Acts Resulting From Operations of Submarines Is Placed on the German Government.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 10.—The note handed to the German Secretary of Foreign Affairs by the Brazilian Minister at Berlin, in reply to Germany's declaration of the resumption of unrestricted submarine warfare, was made public here today. The text is as follows:

"I have transmitted to my government by telegraph your letter of February 1, in which your excellency informed me of the resolution of the German Imperial government to blockade Great Britain, its islands, the littoral of France and Italy and the Eastern Mediterranean by submarines which would commence operations on February 1. Your letter stated that the submarines would prevent all maritime traffic in the zones above mentioned, abandoning all restrictions observed up to the present in the employment of means for sea fighting and would use every military resource capable of the destruction of ships."

New Move Is Rejected.

"The letter of your excellency said further that the German government, having confidence that the government of Brazil would appreciate the reasons for the methods of war which Germany was forced to take on account of the actual circumstances, hope that Brazilian ships would be warned of the danger they ran if they navigated the interdicted zones, the same as passenger or merchandise on board any other ship of commerce, neutral or otherwise."

"I have just been directed to inform your excellency that the Federal Government has the greatest desire not to see modified the actual situation, as long as the war lasts, a situation in which Brazil has imposed upon itself the rigorous observance of the laws of neutrality since the commencement of hostilities between nations with whom she has had friendly relations. My government has always observed this neutrality while reserving to itself the right, which belongs to it and which it has always been accustomed to exercise, of action in those cases where the absence of all restrictions, including the failure of warning of even neutral menaced ships and the announced intention of using every military means of destruction of no matter what character, such a blockade would neither be regular nor effective, or be contrary to the principles of law and the conventional rules established for military operations of this nature."

"For these reasons, the Brazilian government, in spite of its sincere and keen desire to avoid any disagreement with the nations at war, with whom it is on friendly terms, believes it to be its duty to protest against this blockade and consequently to leave entirely with the Imperial German government the responsibility for all acts which will involve Brazilian citizens, merchandise or ships and which are proved to have been committed in disregard of the recognized principles of international law and of the conventions signed by Brazil and Germany."

Some light also was thrown upon Germany's point of view when it was learned today that the Berlin government was arranging for the new campaign of ruthless warfare, certain German diplomats in various parts of the world were warned of the "military necessity" of preventing the granting of a period in which neutrals might adjust their maritime interests. Every care would be exercised to neutral and especially American passenger-carrying ships would not be subjected to unwarranted submarine attack.

Favorable Action Unlikely.

The manner in which the new German proposal was received in official quarters left the impression that there was little possibility of a favorable response here. The attitude of officials has been that only two courses are open to Germany: that she must either pursue her ruthlessness at the hazard of war with this country or restore her repudiated pledges given in the Sussex case. It has been felt here that Germany has been warned more fully than she has been in the past, and that the attitude of the United States and that she decided on her course with full knowledge of its results. It is not felt that Germany will be in a position to negotiate in the matter until she has withdrawn from a campaign which the United States has condemned as the most serious step it could take short of war.

Officials, however, apparently are not surprised at the German action.

one diplomatic quarter it was characterized tonight as calculated to shift to the State Department responsibility for what Germany's own actions may lead to. It is realized also that it will have an effect on the pacifist and the pro-German elements in the country, which will be embarrassing to officials here.

GERMANY MAKES NEW MOVE

German communication was directed to lacking. It is considered certain that it has been forwarded by the government of Switzerland. The Swiss Minister here, who has taken over German interests in this country, called at the State Department this afternoon and discussed the conference, but it is considered probable the Minister, on behalf of Germany, communicated that government's views. If he did, the German suggestions were, it is believed, given orally.

It is regarded as improbable that specific suggestions would be put forward, at least until the United States indicates in some way its sentiment toward the general proposal for a discussion. The development, however, served to draw attention to proposals for distinctive markings of vessels and arrangements for passage of American passenger-carrying liners in the note announcing unrestricted submarine warfare.

It was disclosed tonight that when Count von Bernstorff informed the United States of the new German policy an effort was last week made to bring about a discussion apparently designed to result in the United States agreeing not to take any serious action and that Administration officials flatly declined to consider it. The different efforts, which are more or less being more formal in nature than those made at first.
