read the impressive service in front of a crackling fire, which was surrounded with Easter lilies, the fireplace being flanked on either side with stately palms, tall candelsticks, and the fire-light shedding a soft glow over the pretty ensemble. All about the rooms were baskets and stands filled with lovely Spring flowers, the keynote of the color scheme being pink and white. Festoons of smilax were used over the entire house, the drawing-room, dining-room and reception room being adorned further with quantities of lovely pink roses in addition to the Spring flowers. The ceremony was read in the living room, and only the immediate families were asked to attend. At 9 o'clock a reception was held, a number of close friends also being included. The bride was adorable in a wonderful gown of ivory satin, made short over a petticoat of Carriackmacross lace, which peeped below the satin skirt. The gown was embellished with crystal embroidery, and the long court train of the satin was enveloped by the filmy tulle veil, the latter being held in place by a chic cap of the Carriackmacross lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white spray orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Tucker wore a pretty gown of tulle and satin, of a lovely turquoise shade, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and freesias. Mrs. Tucker, mother of the bride, was handsome in a smart gown of grey charmeuse trimmed with silver and tulle draperies. She also wore a corsage of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Biddle left for a month's trip in California, and upon their return will take up their residence either in Salem or Vancouver, Wash.

and in addition to the girls and boys of Reed College the following Portlanders were present: Alice Smith, Dorothy Strowbridge, Dorothy Stine, Margaret Marvin, Jeanne Stevens, Antoinette Mears and Misses Mary Brownie and Maurine Lober, of last year's graduating class. Members of the faculty who attended were: President and Mrs. William T. Foster, Miss Susan Bacon, Miss Florence Read, Miss Malda Rossiter, Dr. Max P. Cushing and Dr. William C. Morgan. Mrs. Harry L. Sherwood will be at home Wednesdays during the season from 4 until 5:30 o'clock at her new residence, 530 Vista avenue. Mrs. Sherwood's young son has recently been promoted to Lieutenant in the Royal Naval Air Service.

Honoring Miss Katharine Eoob, of New York, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer entertained with an informal tea Sunday afternoon, to which a number of the young men of society were asked. It was a decided change from the women's tea parties and proved most enjoyable in every manner. The rooms were aglow with Spring flowers, pink tones predominating. The attractive tea table was presided over by Mrs. D. P. Thompson. Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Edwin C. Parsons and Mrs. Frederick Kishin. The hostess was further assisted about the drawing-

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young's dinner-dance, which was a charming event of Thursday night at the Multnomah Hotel, was complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. James E. Davidson, who are preparing to go to their new home in Omaha and seated around the prettily-decked table were 30 of the younger married contingent, the gala Valentine decorations making a pleasing foil for the handsome gowns of the women. The little ballroom was decked with festoons of the pink hearts, baskets of pink roses tied with fluffy bows, being arranged artistically about the room. The dinner table was adorned with a broad basket filled with exquisite pink roses and lacy ferns, tied with the airy bows of pink tulle, and the ensemble was most artistic and effective.

Mrs. A. F. Biles and daughter, Miss Clarice Biles, will entertain with a large party at her home, 1244 Twenty-fourth street, on Saturday afternoon. It will be one of the most interesting affairs of the week.

The MacDowell Club's recital tomorrow evening at the Masonic Temple is creating a great deal of enthusiasm among society folk. Many prominent matrons are planning to entertain with dinner parties, and later take their party to the club. The dinner party hostesses will be Mrs. Clarence S. Jacobson, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, and Mrs. Solomon Burrell. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood will be hosts for two line parties, which will include both the younger and the married contingents.

A charming affair of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. Edward Holman on Wednesday honoring Mrs. Fred J. Haines, who will leave soon for an extended visit in the East. The table was charming with an array of Spring flowers, including tulips, pansies, nasturtiums, tulips, pussy willows and daffodils were effectively arranged. During the afternoon Miss Katherine Brakes, who is chairman of the committee, sang a number of songs, with Mrs. Simon Harris at the piano. The guests included: Mrs. Fred J. Haines, Mrs. J. E. Werlein, Mrs. Harry Gaylord, Mrs. Isaac Fogel, Mrs. Thomas W. Burrell, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. Frank Ball, Mrs. Albert Marter, Mrs. Albert Jackson and Mrs. Edward Holman.

An engagement of interest that was announced Wednesday by Miss Sadye Ford is that of her sister, Miss Ivy Ford, to Mr. Ford, of Portland, Oregon City. The Ford family has but recently moved here from Salem, the father of the bride-elect being Rev. T. D. Ford, prominent in the Methodist Church of Oregon. Mr. Swafford is assistant manager of the Willamette Navigation Company and a member of the well-known law firm of Swafford, Ford & Ford.

The ten was a charming affair, although the small and informal nature of a dozen girls, close friends of the bride-to-be, being asked. At the Colonial party to be given at Multnomah Hotel on the evening of February 22 Robert Krohn and Miss Georgia Wey will lead in a musical concert of 12 couples. The dress and Colonial costume and Miss Marion Farrell, attractive young daughter of Senator Robert Farrell, will give a pretty dance. The program will be presided over by Mrs. D. P. Thompson, who has nine speaking parts, George and Martha Washington being the leads. Professor W. H. Boyer is the chorus of teachers, who will sing songs of Washington's time. The entertainment, which is being given under the auspices of the Grade Teachers' Association, is for the benefit of the fellowship fund which is set aside for teachers in need of assistance.

Mrs. Herbert Lee Gibbon (Nelle Bayly), who has been visiting her mother here for several weeks, returned Friday night to her home in Spokane. During her visit here she was the inspiration for a number of charming social functions, as she is very popular among the young girls of Portland.

A gay and pretty party was that of the Tillamook Saturday night at the Tillamook Ballroom. The occasion being the first of the 1917 series of dainty dancing parties that is being given every fortnight by this already popular club. The newest among the city's dancing sets. The beautiful ballroom was gaily decked with flowers, ferns and palms, with an abundance of new pussy willow, all of which was gorgeously set off by hundreds of tiny red hearts. The membership is composed of 100 members of prominent Portland people, with the subscription book closed at that number and with a large waiting list. The members are: Messrs. and Mesdames B. F. Irvine, William Brady, Ralph Watson, Sam Owen, E. B. Clark, Mr. Lenfield, Percy Garrigue, A. R. Porter, L. W. Humphreys, Charles A. Shae, C. E. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson, E. M.
