

SOCIETY

(Continued From Page 3.)
served afternoon and evening and a cordial invitation is extended to all. The programme is in charge of Mrs. N. Harris. The committee: Mrs. T. Mueller, chairman; Mrs. J. Schwind, Mrs. V. Wagini, Mrs. H. Eberhart, Mrs. H. Eberhardt, Mrs. A. Koch, Mrs. A. Heiler, Mrs. Siefert, Mrs. P. Schwabe, Mrs. Schulze, Mrs. Geisler, Mrs. E. Elise and Mrs. Spis.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Hanson, of Willamette Mortgage, are being congratulated on the arrival of an eight-pound boy Wednesday, February 7. Mrs. Hanson will be remembered as Miss Faye Wise.

An affair of paramount importance among the English folk of Portland and their numerous friends is the card party and dance to be given by the British Red Cross Society and St. Andrew's Society on Monday, February 13, at Multnomah Hotel. Both "500" and bridge will be played, and the balance of the evening will be passed in dancing. All those who desire to play cards are requested to bring their own cards.

The committee is Mrs. R. Fairbairn, chairman; Mrs. F. A. Greatwood, chairman of bridge; Mrs. H. L. Sherwood, Mrs. M. Morton, Mrs. K. K. Baxter, Mrs. T. Burns, Mrs. C. Blakely, Mrs. A. King, Mrs. A. T. Smith, Mrs. J. Cormack, Mrs. J. W. Lawson, Mrs. W. Whitfield, Mrs. J. J. Pantan, Mrs. R. Blackwood, Mrs. D. H. Gowans, Mrs. H. Hewitson, Mrs. G. Drynan, Mrs. W. Jones, A. G. Brown, J. Cormack and T. Burns.

Floor committee—H. Morton, K. K. Baxter, J. Smith, H. Blackwood, G. Brown, T. Burns, J. Cormack, R. Fairbairn, Dr. Hall, J. B. W. Lawson. Representing St. Andrew's Society will be A. G. Brown, James Cormack, J. M. Angus, K. K. Baxter, T. Burns and R. D. Rennie.

Miss Annell Samuels was hostess for a charming dinner and dance in the Tyrolean room of Hotel Benson on Friday night. Covers were placed for 12 at a table daintily decked in keeping with St. Valentine, Spring flowers adding to the artistic adornment. Miss Samuels' guests were her mother, Mrs. I. S. Bickerton, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lundborg, Mr. and Mrs. F. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyons, Miss Irene Pokorney, Mrs. Ludwig Pokorney, Clyde Collins and A. J. Nolan, of San Francisco.

The Episcopalian people of the city will give a dinner at Hotel Portland Wednesday evening in the interests of the church pension fund. The church is raising a $3,000,000 fund to pension the clergy and Oregon has been asked for $1700. Although the church is no solicitation for money, pledges will be accepted, and plans will be made for a systematic campaign. The dinner is for men and women and it is expected that there will be about 250 present. The speakers will include Bishop Walter Taylor, Rev. Dr. W. Rev. Keator, of Olympia; Frank Spittle, of Astoria; W. J. Burns, James E. Korr and Joseph N. Teal.

The Thursday Night Dancing Club met last week at the Harlow-Grady Hall and enjoyed a very delightful evening. Their next party will be a Colonial party on February 22, and in addition to Colonial decorations, favors, and novelties, the women members of the club will wear powdered coiffures and beauty patches with their evening gowns to enhance the Colonial atmosphere. An old-fashioned minuet will be danced by the following in artistic Colonial costumes: Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Freeman, Mrs. and Mrs. G. W. Metzler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell.

Cottillion Hall was the scene of a gay and merry dancing party on Friday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Montrose M. Ringler entertained the members of the Laurelhurst Club. Over 100 members were in attendance, and the affair was a great success. The hall was decorated with Oregon grape and red roses and the many-colored lights gave it a very festive appearance. In the receiving line with Mrs. Ringler were Mrs. Ferdinand E. Reed, Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Charles Ringler, Mrs. F. D. Weber and Mrs. R. Jones. The grand march was led by Professor and his wife, Miss Frances Hanrahan, the talented child dancer, was presented by Mr. Ringler and gave a number of solos. The first number was a toe dance, "The Rose." This was followed later by the "Bluebird" and "The Spanish Jubilee." Each dance was artistically given and received great applause.

Mr. and Mrs. Ringler danced the "Montrose" waltz, the "Billie" and the "Twinkle" to the delight of the big assemblage. A pleasing novelty introduced during the evening was the 15-year-old efficiency dance. Only those 45 years and over were permitted to dance, including W. M. Davis, Dr. Henry Roe, A. C. Holmes, N. G. Pitt and Professor Krohn and other prominent forty-fivers.

Clifford Harrison was chairman of the floor committee, and was ably assisted by the committee of 19 members of the Laurelhurst Club. A vote of thanks was given Mr. Ringler by the club for a most enjoyable evening. Mrs. Ringler wore pink charmeuse, with beaded lace and ostrich trimming. Mrs. F. E. Reed wore a black velvet gown; Mrs. F. D. Weber wore yellow pussywillow taffeta; Mrs. Charles Ringler cream velvet, fur trimmed; Mrs. William Davis pink satin, chantilly lace trimming, and Mrs. R. E. Jones black and white silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and daughter, Miss Claire Wilcox, left Tuesday night for Hotel De Monto, Coronado, where they expect to remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Edward D. Kramer (Ruth Posener) and Mrs. W. C. Smith (Lola Ford) entertained Portland Raynor Chapter of Annie Wright Sewers at a luncheon at the residence of Mrs. Kramer on Friday. Covers were placed for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Straugh were hosts for a charming military whist party on Tuesday night, in celebration of the birthday anniversary of the former. Twelve tables were arranged for the game, each table having a fort with a flag representing a different nation. New Zealand won the highest number of points. All about the rooms were huge flags of various nationalities draped over the doorways and windows, and baskets and standards filled with Oregon grape and pussy willow added to the pretty scene. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. George W. Caldwell, W. Y. Masters and W. F. Miller. Mrs. R. T. Street was in charge of the tables, and the flag bearers were Mrs. C. W. Platt and Miss Alice Campbell. During the evening readings were given by Mrs. Boyersmith. The guests of honor in addition to Mr. Straugh were Mrs. M. K. Kupper, of Salem, O.; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kuttler, of Alaska, and W. F. Miller.

Mrs. A. H. Eilers, Chairman Committee for Card Party to be given by Co-operative League, Saturday

San Francisco through the southern part of the state, planning to be gone for a month. The next of the informal dances for which E. V. Hauser, of Multnomah Hotel, is host will be held Wednesday night in the assembly hall. The Sons and Daughters of the Pioneers of Oregon have arranged for a dinner party to be given Wednesday night in the ballroom of Multnomah Hotel. About 150 will attend. The Co-operation League will give a Colonial auction bridge and "500" party next Saturday from 2:30 to 4 o'clock in the Portland Hotel. Mrs. A. H. Eilers will be chairman of the committee of arrangements and will be assisted by Mrs. E. E. Henderson, Mrs. Burdett Thayer, Mrs. Leonard J. Armstrong, Mrs. W. B. Hare, Mrs. Warren A. Erwin, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. T. C. Bloomer. Mrs. G. J. Frankel has charge of the guest tickets.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK. Sumner Relief Corps No. 21 entertained with a birthday party Saturday.

CLEVER YOUNG WOMAN WHO WILL DANCE WITH HER HUSBAND AT VISITING NURSE VALENTINE TEA.

Mrs. Harold M. Grady.

afternoon and evening for their members as well as members of Summer Post having birthdays in November, December and January. Each honor guest presided over a table appropriately decked. November table was bedecked with a turkey, the December table with Christmas favors and January was bedecked with "Fifth Times." After dinner a fine programme was given, the opening number being "The Star-Spangled Banner." Mrs. H. Hardee, president, gave the opening address. This was followed by a solo by Miss Winnifred Frost; piano solo by Mrs. J. C. Albright; reading, Mrs. M. Johnson, solo Mr. Jenin. Remarks were made by the patriotic instructor of the post, and a solo by Mrs. Carty, the gathering closed the evening's programme with "America."

Mrs. M. A. Averill celebrated her birthday Friday, February 8, by giving a tea to the Circle Four of the sewing society of the East Side Christian Church. Her son, F. N. Averill, surprised her with a mammoth birthday cake with the required number of candles. The guests were: Mesdames J. S. Bell, Clara Bliss, A. K. Finley, J. M. Duncan, William L. Gledhill, Sue Jones, C. A. Ward, H. E. Boyd, L. A. Fisher, H. H. Sawyer, Roswell C. Powell, C. H. Chamberlain, A. S. Capps, H. N. Reel, J. B. MacCann, L. M. Ciesek, Edna C. Taylor, Charles Daley, J. E. Lepper, Olevia J. Leonard, G. C. Garrison, Lois and Floyd Harrison, Mrs. W. G. Calhoun, Mrs. R. H. Sawyer, Miss Nellie Settlemyer, A. K. Finley, J. F. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Averill, F. N. Averill, Jane and Harold Averill.

Miss Margaret De Spain Dickson's engagement to William Elmer Stone was announced on Thursday at a pretty luncheon for which Mrs. Henry Dalton Zander was hostess at her apartments in the Malcolm. The table was attractively decked and covers were marked for Miss Dickson, Miss Gene Robb, Miss Ruth Jenkins, Miss Helen Edwards, Miss Gwendolyn Smith, Miss Charlotte Patterson, Miss Katharine Stanfield, Miss Mildred Woodward, Mrs. N. Eugenia De Spain, and Mrs. Haidane Dickson.

Miss Dickson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haidane Dickson and the bridegroom-to-be is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stone, of Fairview, Or. The wedding will be an event of next month.

Mrs. C. C. Turley, 710 West Sixteenth street, Vancouver, Wash., entertained with a Valentine luncheon at her home Friday at 1 o'clock. The table was decked with red tulips and small red hearts, while the place cards were small Valentines. The scheme of hearts and red tints was carried out in the course.

The guests were Mesdames J. M. Denny, R. C. Wegner, William Marshall, C. G. MacClemm, J. T. Guerin, E. B. Gray, Harry Burg, J. T. Wasson of Vancouver, and Mesdames J. P. Stapleton and C. C. Thomsen, of Portland. This was the fourth of a series of delightful luncheons that Mrs. Turley has given recently.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 10.—(Special)—A wedding of widespread interest in Grays Harbor County was that on Thursday of Miss Muriel Abel, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Abel, of Aberdeen, to Dr. Max Brachvogel, also of that city. The couple have left for the East, where Dr. Brachvogel plans to spend eight months in the study of medicine at Hopkins Institute. After completing this work he and his bride will return to practice their profession at their home. Dr. Brachvogel was graduated from the Aberdeen High School in 1909, and is a graduate of the University of Chicago Medical School.

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Gertrude Blynn at her apartments at 601 1/2 Broadway on Monday evening, the event being her birthday. Valentine suggestions were carried out in the entertainment and supper. The guests were Mesdames F. Woods, Miss Lolita Grange, Miss Helen Bennett, Miss Amy Klum, Miss Olga Hallingby, Miss Edith Hinkley, Miss Marjorie W. Mason, Miss Gladys Palm, Miss Wanda Paulbach, Miss Cecelia Curran, Miss Edith Connell, Miss Marjorie W. Mason, Elizabeth Hull, Miss Irma Henderson, Miss Grace Schrader, Miss Perle Meservey, Miss Gertrude Blynn, Mrs. Daley Smith and Miss Woods.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Portland Motor Boat Club held their election at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Hill, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George L. Baker was elected president; Mrs. Marie Riddell, secretary and treasurer. Master William Leith Ross, 3 weeks old, was unanimously elected mascot of the club.

Present were: Mrs. George L. Baker, Mrs. W. H. Ross, Mrs. James L. Smith, Mrs. George W. Riddell, Mrs. Charles E. Hill, Mrs. Frank Vogler, Mrs. D. A. Dyer, Mrs. Marie Riddell. Honors were won by Mrs. Charles E. Hill and Mrs. W. F. Ross. Refreshments were served at 4 o'clock.

A delightful surprise party was given for Miss Elizabeth Rubenstein at her home, 808 Water street, Saturday evening. One of the many enjoyable diversions was a piano solo by Miss Rubenstein. Those present included Mrs. S. J. Rubenstein, Mrs. S. Goldstein, Besie and Rose Rubenstein, Nellie Enkels, Anna Swart, Julia Rubenstein, Rebecca Weinstein, Eva Goldstein, Elizabeth Rubenstein, Rose Gotthelf, Pauline Swart, Miss Sautman, Lucius Wright and Samuel Greenberg, Reuben Olickman, Ben Enkels, Howard Gold, Morris Fomerance, Simon Isenstein, Sam Zeik and Henry Rosen.

One of the delightful events of the week was the supper given by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Belding at their home Thursday night. Covers were arranged for 12 at a daintily appointed table. The guests were entertained earlier in the evening by Walter A. Bacon, soprano; violinist, Mr. F. P. Brown and Mrs. Rose Blowers, dramatic reader.

The guests were: Mrs. Helen Bacon, Walter A. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, of Wawa, Wash.; Mrs. Florence Sage, Arthur Goehin, Mrs. Rose Blowers, Mrs. Wilbur Collinge, Miss Juanita Holden, Miss Helen Bacon, Richard Bacon and Lyle Ashcraft.

The Valentine stepping party given by the Yaka Hills Girls Friday evening, February 2, at Dawley's Hall, East Thirty-fourth and East Yamhill streets, was enjoyed by a large number of the youngsters. The hall was artistically decorated with red crepe paper and hearts. The committee in charge were Beryl Brackett, Grace Wessells, Leola Davy, Ruth Leaman, Ruby Prosser, Hazel Williams, Delia Longmire, Nellie Dickson, Ruth Griffin, Wynne McCollin, Gladys Mahoney, Florence Brown and Catherine Leaman.

Wednesday evening the Triads surprised one of their members, Miss Catherine Frainey, with a linen shower at her mother's residence. The members and articles present were Mrs. E. Davis, Mrs. E. McOmber, Fay Kandle, Ruth Brady, Isabelle Murphy, Mrs. C. Collin, Addie Thayer, Elsie Hennings, Mrs. Kettlerberg, Edna, Kay, Jessie Deslata, Christie Deslata, Carlotta Ripley, Helen Frainey and Florence Frainey.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace E. Mosher entertained with three tables of five hundred Thursday evening at their home in Pettysgrove street, in honor of Miss

Chic Hats of Silk

Featuring—
Pussy Willow Taffeta
Gros de Londre Silk

JUST RECEIVED:
—A group of shiny Lisere hats in popular styles.
—Clever ribbon hats, faced with straw.
—Oriental trimmings and cute little Chinese shapes.

Our windows reflect every new style tendency. See them.

The Wonder Millinery

At Sixth and Alder Streets

Mme. Lydia Coates

Founder and instructor of the first Department Store School of Dressmaking in America, upon the completion of her course of instruction at the Meier & Frank Store, formed the

Meier & Frank Sewing Club

to continue the study of dressmaking and designing along the lines laid down by her. This Club meets every Tuesday at 2 P. M. in the Meier & Frank Auditorium, Sixth Floor. You and your friends are invited to attend these free classes and share in the benefits of Mme. Coates' able tuition.

—Members have the option of devoting their time and labors to the designing and making of garments for themselves or the making of articles for the Welfare Committee of the Club.

ATTEND THE NEXT CLUB MEETING—TUESDAY AT 2 P. M.
—Auditorium, Sixth Floor

—P. S.—You can register now for Madame Coates' return course in Dressmaking and Designing to be given at this store, exact date to be announced later in our ads.
Pattern Counter, Second Floor

Established 1857
THE QUALITY STORE OF PORTLAND
Fifth, Sixth, Morrison, Alder Sts.

AESTHETIC DANCING

for young girls.

Prof. Montrose M. Ringler

Pupil of Chalf and Vestoff, noted Russian dancers. Announces a special class for children in Aesthetics, Classical and Interpretive Dancing at COTILLION HALL (14th, off Washington), Every Saturday Afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Term Opens Saturday, February 17.

Application for enrollment may be made at the studio or by phone—Main 3380.

Miss Frances Hanrahan, the talented child dancer, who will assist Mr. Ringler in the demonstration of exercises and dances.

The Russian System of instruction will be used. Special Rates for the First Course, 50c a Lesson; 12 Lessons $5.00. Classes for Women Also.

Mr. Ringler is an authority on modern dancing. Adult Classes Monday and Friday Evenings. Private lessons daily by appointment.

Well-Dressed Women

WEAR TAILORED SUITS.
My New Spring Materials, Styles and Prices Will Please You. Always Making the Best. Ask My Customers.

A. LIPPMAN LADIES' TAILOR
402 Morrison, bet. 10th and 11th.