

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY CONFERENCE MEETS THIS WEEK

Gathering Is Most Important Religious Convention for Portland This Year—E. L. Thompson Will Continue as Chairman of Conference.

THE Laymen's Missionary Conference to be held here this week will be one of the most important religious gatherings planned for Portland this year. E. L. Thompson, who was chairman for the first conference of last year, still holds the office. The conference will open on Wednesday morning in the Y. M. C. A. In the afternoon there will be an institute and at 6:15 o'clock the dinner for men will be held at the First Methodist Church. Dr. Herbert Johnson, Rev. Frederick Agard, W. E. Doughty and others will participate in the programme of addresses and toasts.

On Thursday night the mass meeting in the White Temple will be for the general public. Herbert Johnson and W. E. Doughty will be the speakers. Representatives from all churches are interested in these meetings. The committees have met every day lately and have made all arrangements. The reservations for the dinner must all be in at the Y. M. C. A. with Rev. D. A. Thompson, by tomorrow noon. No more than 200 reservations should be made. Those who do not register will, in all probability, be unable to get places.

The women of the Third Baptist Church celebrated the fortieth, or jubilee, anniversary of the Women's American Home Mission Society on Wednesday by giving a delightful programme for the members and friends. The programme included "Coronation of the Ruby," Mrs. C. A. Loucks; "Our Society's Past," Mrs. A. M. Peitz; "Our Society's Future," Mrs. C. E. Taylor; solo, Miss Helena Pierce; "Our Society's Training School," Miss Nina Hurch; vocal solo, Mrs. Joseph Sharp. In closing, Mrs. Doughty sang "When We Heard Our Country Calling," verses written by Mrs. Fanny B. Lester, former president of the society. Mrs. M. L. Doughty was toastmistress. There was a large attendance. The decorations were in ruby and green. A large blue and white floral arrangement centered the table and was cut by Mrs. Loucks.

Christians Endeavors Plan for Big Conventions.

Multnomah Union Works Actively to Have 300 Delegates Attend From This County.

The Multnomah Christian Endeavor Union is at this time working actively for the development and success of the state conventions to be held at La Grande and Salem February 16, 17 and 18 and February 23, 24 and 25, respectively.

Registrations have been coming in quite well, but the Union is not entirely satisfied with the number of delegates. The goal is 300 delegates from Multnomah County. Every Christian Endeavor Society, no matter how small, should send at least one delegate. The more delegates a society sends to the conventions the more enthusiasm and interest will be shown. The Union is working to impress upon the minds of the members of the societies most forcibly the necessity for registering every delegate possible by today. And in view of this desire, the Union is sending out several speakers to the societies to urge upon them this necessity of registering early, inasmuch as those who have charge of the entertainment of delegates at Salem need to know without further delay how many delegates to figure on for entertainment. This information will also be needed to enable the committee to prepare for the special trains for the convention.

"Lincoln" Will Be Topic at First M. E. Church.

Dr. Stansfield Will Maintain That Martyred President Was Voice and Instrument of God.

THE evening service at the First Methodist Church today will be held in observance of "Lincoln day" and the pastor, Dr. Joshua Stansfield, will deliver a sermon on "The Man." Dr. Stansfield will seek to show the essential strength and character of Lincoln, and that he was the voice and instrument of God in his time, as the noblest of inspired Bible characters were for their times.

For his morning sermon Dr. Stansfield will have as his theme, "The Personal Equation."

The quartet and vested choir offer special number of music. The full chorus will sing "O, For the Wings of a Dove" (Mendelssohn) and "Rejoice in the Lord" will be sung as a contralto and baritone duet by Miss Edmondson and Hartridge Whipp. At the evening service the selection given by the full choir will be "The Lord Is King" (Kingston) and the quartet will sing "Amazing Grace," arranged by Bartlett.

A successful social was held at the church last Friday evening. A unique feature of the entertainment was the division of the party into groups determined by the state or country of birth. Each group then presented a "stunt" before the "judges," who awarded the decision to the "Mississippi" group. The "Show Me Spirit" of the Oregon group had the largest number.

He stands for the type of manhood which is the highest fruit of civilization, and which it is the object of civilization to cherish, not to destroy. Canvass of Church Members Contemplated.

First Congregational Readers Report Active Week in Parish Affairs.

A "every-member" canvass will be made this week and in the next few weeks in a large number of the churches of Portland. This is a movement that has been found to make for greater efficiency in the churches, as it gets every member interested. Not only is the canvass a means of interest and work are requested.

The past week has been a most active one for the organizations connected with the church. The Brotherhood held its regular monthly dinner, followed by an address by Dr. James K. Hart on "The Peace Question." The every-member canvass committee also outlined its plans for the canvass, which is to take place this Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5. People Must Control Roads.

Sixteen years ago, after reading a series of remarkable articles by Isaac K. Funk in a New York journal I reached the conclusion that for the democracy we have in America it will be necessary that the people shall own or quite largely control the means of transportation. This I have declared in the past and I believe that the score of times in recent years, it is coming; it is necessary. Unless you can have a free control of the highways, the means of transportation, the very life of the people is in the hands of others. This brings me to the modern application of the text, "There shall be a highway of holiness." All questions of public utility and public welfare are primarily and fundamentally of a moral character. It is not possible to eradicate evil out of human life. But organized and institutionalized evil has put itself in such a way that it controls the life of others and is an open menace to the welfare of the world, mankind should and must oppose it.

It is not possible to legislate the desire for wrong out of the life of a people. That work must be done by education and the power of truth and God's spirit; but when evil becomes an organized power in the community and takes the very highways of life, claims the right of way, and is such a menace that it is necessary to be opposed, and destroyed. When the light of God has once shone upon a situation and made it clear, then new duties are imposed and new imperatives are upon us. And it is tor of the First Congregational Church, in his church last Sunday evening was most favorably received. Great interest is being shown in the sermon and this morning Dr. Dyott has chosen as his theme "The Place of Prayer in the Modern Life." In this sermon thoughts on the questions of whether the matter of voicing prayer detracts or increases its efficacy, and whether up-to-date science has done away with prayer will all be discussed.

At 11 A. M. Dr. Dyott will use as his theme for a practical sermon, "Do You Believe It?"

Lincoln's Christianity to Be Discussed at Churches

Rev. H. H. Griffin to Speak Today on Some Characteristics of Great Emancipator.

The entire service will be appropriate to the celebration of the birthday of the Great Emancipator and in his sermon the pastor will review the life of Mr. Lincoln with the aim of determining the exact character of Lincoln's Christianity.

"In the midst of our present National crisis citizens ought to be able to study the religion of Lincoln with special profit," says Rev. Mr. Griffin.

At the evening service, President Crawford, of the University of Portland will deliver an address on "Life's Best Gifts."

On Tuesday the Woman's League held an all-day meeting in the parlors of the church. Luncheon was served by the committee at noon, and the day was given to a session for local charitable institutions.
