ment of sufficient branches to accommodate the business of every community. Products will be standardized and so delivered to the market as to maintain a price that will mean a profit to the grower.

During the three days of the convention that 2000 merchants and buyers from Idaho, Washington and Oregon are expected to attend, many talks will be heard.

Tomorrow night the visitors will be the guests of wholeness and sobriety. Tuesday Nathan Strauss, of Fleischner, Mayer & Co., will be on the programme, as will Edward Cookingham. As a feature trade discussions of five

OWNERSHIP OF LEGISLATURE TO BE SPEECH TOPIC.

Harry W. Stone.

After gathering first-hand information, Harry W. Stone, general secretary, will talk at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30 o'clock today on "Who Owns the Oregon Legislature?"

Mr. Stone has kept a close watch on the doings of the Legislature through the entire session, but for the last few days has been in constant attendance at open sessions and committee hearings and acquainting himself with some of the happenings behind the scenes.

There will be discussions following his talk, and special music will be on the programme.

SHRINERS TAKE BAKER

RECEIPTS FOR TWO NIGHTS WILL GO TOWARD CONVENTION FUND.

Crowded Houses Expected March 7 and 8, When Alcazar Players Put on "Blue Envelope."

As the starting gun for opening the campaign to raise funds to send the Alcazar band and patrol to the Imperial Shrine council at Minneapolis in July, the Portland Shriner have taken over the entire house at the Baker Theater for two productions of "The Blue Envelope" by the Alcazar Players—Wednesday and Thursday nights, March 7 and 8.

A committee has been appointed by the temple to take charge of the affair and an effort will be made to secure crowded houses on those two nights. A special ticket-selling campaign will be inaugurated with this end in view.

This committee is composed of: H. Von Borstel, chairman; F. A. Van Kirk, Dr. R. H. Dammasch, Robert Gordon, W. A. Carter, L. G. Carpenter, Dr. Jack M. Yates, A. B. Gottschalk, Harvey Wells and J. E. Buckingham.

In addition to the regular play there will be added attractions put on during the two nights by the Shriner and their band. This will include band concert selections, quartet numbers, choruses and stunts. The general public will be welcomed both evenings.

The sending of the band and patrol to Minneapolis is merely a part of the programme which has been inaugurated to bring the 1915 session of the imperial council to Portland.

FUNERAL OF YOUNG TIMBERMAN IS HELD AT YAMHILL.

John Henry Bayer.

Funeral services for John Henry Bayer, who was killed in an accident at the Sunnyside timber camp, February 8, were held Sunday from the Pike Methodist Church at Yamhill, Or.

Mr. Bayer was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bayer, of Yamhill, and had been employed at work in the Oregon timber camp.

He was born in Buffalo County, South Dakota, in 1885, and came to Oregon with his parents in 1888. Since then, with the exception of one year passed in Alaska, he has been continuously at work in the Oregon timber camps.

FIREMEN TO BE ON GRILL

Charges Against Four to Be Heard Before Civil Service Board.

Hearings in the cases of W. J. Costello, Charles Haberland and A. T. Martin, firemen discharged for drinking and carousing while on duty, and C. Benfield, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, will be held before the Municipal Civil Service Board Friday afternoon. The cases were set yesterday.

Fire chiefs who made the discharge will undertake to get a decision against reinstatement of the firemen. They contend if these cases are not won by the city, discipline in the Fire Bureau will be a missing element from now on.

GARFIELD LICENSES TOTAL HIGH.

POMEROY, Wash., Feb. 17.—(Special).—Garfield County last year received $920 from liquor permits, $2067.30 from automobile licenses and $532 from hunting licenses, according to the financial report, for 1916 business, of County Auditor E. E. Powell. The total received from taxation during the year was $165,668.65, of which $40,264.12 was for the state, $56,296.40 for the county and the remainder for the city of Pomeroiy, roads and schools.

ASHLAND MAY BUY PARK

Creek Runs Through Property Which Will Cost $15,000.

ASHLAND, Or., Feb. 17.—(Special).—At a mass meeting held at the Armory yesterday there was a free expression as to the merits of the purchase of Chautauqua Park by the city, the amount involved being $15,000. The area of the proposed purchase is about seven acres of camp ground and forest, Ashland Creek running directly through the property.

The transfer implies that every cent of the purchase money shall be expended by the Chautauqua Association in a new building, not only for Chautauqua, but also general public purposes as an auditorium. Many urge the erection of a building costing at least $25,000, confident that the difference between the amount realized from sale of the park and the maximum figure
