WANTED—Portland or Willamette property for N. Dak. land. D 97, Oregonian.

FOR RENT—FARMS.

FOR RENT—A beautiful and healthy home containing 280 acres; 200 acres fenced, some in cultivation, some small fruits; land is good; climate is fine for fruit and nuts and other crops; about 200 acres good for pasture, being fenced, or part can also be cultivated if desired with very little clearing. Finest spring water piped into house, which is 20x32, two stories high, with cellar; barn and sheds, chicken houses, fine creek and springs, large body of nice green timber, 6½ miles due west of Forest Grove; R. R. is being surveyed through to the coast. Potatoes selling at 5 cents per lb.; onions at 10 cents per lb., and probably going higher. For particulars address P 97, Oregonian.

MR. RENTER—Did you ever stop to figure that your work on a rented place is wasted? Some one else gets the benefit. Why not be your own landlord? A payment of $50 will give you 20 acres of the finest logged-off land in Oregon—your own terms on the balance. Surface clearing is easy—you can crop 10 acres this year. Preference of employment in logging camp given to settlers. Investigate. G. Wynn Wilson, 820 Chamber of Commerce.
