

SOCIETY

Miss Hazel Archibald, of Seattle; Miss Isabella Macleay, Ruth Shull and the hostess.

Miss Nancy Zan had planned a tea for Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Warren, but owing to illness in her family was obliged to postpone it.

Miss Margaret Mears, the charming fiancée of Norman N. Rupp also claimed a large portion of social attention toward the latter part of the week. Miss Elizabeth Jones presiding at a pretty dinner in her honor on Friday night, and Miss Sara McCully being hostess for a delightful bridge party last night, which Mr. Rupp also shared honors.

The first of the week Miss Mears and Mr. Rupp were honor guests for a box party at the Orpheum and later at the supper-dance at Multnomah Hotel.

Miss Elizabeth Wiley, the charming young daughter of Captain and Mrs. Henry A. Wiley, of Washington, D. C., who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, also shared prominently in the social activities of the week. Last night Miss Esther Tucker was a dinner hostess in her honor, and numerous informal given parties and also attended dinners made the week gay for the visitor.

The surprise caused in social circles early in the week by the announcement of Miss Nancy Zan's betrothal to Robert E. Scott came to a climax with the reception given yesterday by Mrs. A. F. Biles, when the engagement of her son and daughter was announced.

Miss Zan's announcement was made known at the tea given by Miss Rhoda Rumelin Monday, which was primarily to honor her house guest, Miss Alice Warren, D. S. C., who was in town Thursday at the tea she had planned, but was compelled to postpone for a while. Miss Zan is one of the prettiest debutantes in the city, a blonde brunette. She is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dom J. Zan and is in her second season. Her debut reception being one of the most notable events of last year. She was graduated from Portland Academy, later attending Bryn Mawr College, and is now vice-president and general manager of the North Bank Railroad. His mother now makes her home in Irvington. Mr. Scott came here to join his mother. He is connected with the Spokane Portland & Seattle Road. He was graduated from Notre Dame. He is a popular clubman.

The wedding will be a smart event immediately after Easter and in the meantime the young folk will be feted extensively by prominent belles and beaux.

The tea was delightful in every detail. Spring blossoms in abundance adorning both the drawing and dining rooms. Valentine decorations also prevailed, the ensemble making a charming foil for the gowns of the many guests. More than 150 were present and mids called during the afternoon. The hostess being assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. C. E. Rumelin, and her honor guests, Pres. Biles, Mrs. W. Dennison Clark, Mrs. Gilbert H. Durham, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett and Mrs. George Kirkham Smith.

A number of girls assisted about the rooms.

Another of the very delightful and charming courtesies extended to Miss Margaret Mears, one of the most popular of the recently engaged girls, was the dinner party given Friday night by Miss Elizabeth Jones. The latter part of the evening was devoted to bridge. Miss Jones' guests including Mrs. Mears, Miss Alice Macleay, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, Miss Patsy Stewart, Mrs. Frank Vincent du Mond, Maurice Joseph, Ray Small, Jervis E. W. Stephenson, Henry Mears, Joseph Lambert, and Mr. Rupp.

Saturday night Miss Sara McCully was the hostess, and Miss Alice Warren and Mr. Rupp, and Miss Alice Corbett, Mrs. William L. Brewster, Miss Brewster, Mrs. Henry Coulter Cabell, Mrs. Frank V. DuMond and the charming hostess.

More than 100 well-known folk made merry at the charming and artistic dance for which Dr. and Mrs. John Nicholas Coghlan were hosts Thursday night complimentary to the latter's sister, Mrs. William E. Guerin, of Cleveland, O., at Harlow-Grady hall. Spring flowers, a profusion of roses and woodwardia ferns adorned the attractive ballroom and reception room. The buffet supper being served in the reception room. The invitational list included: Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock, Mr. and Mrs. Morton H. Insley, flowers decked the table, and which were seated Mrs. Adams, her sister, Mrs. Ernest F. Tucker, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. F. E. Balling, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. William L. Brewster, Miss Brewster, Mrs. Henry Coulter Cabell, Mrs. Frank V. DuMond and the charming hostess.

Mrs. Adams and her daughter, Miss Sally, were house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Tucker for several days preceding the wedding, and shared in many of the delightful functions of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Gauld and daughter, Miss Isabella, are sojourning in Paso Robles. A card party and dance will be given by the women's committee of the British Red Cross and members of St. Andrew's Society in the Multnomah Hotel on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Both bridge and 400 will be played. The proceeds from this party are to go to the British Red Cross funds. The women in charge are Mrs. R. Fairbairn, chairman; Mrs. F. A. Greatwood, chairman of bridge; Mrs. H. L. Sherwood, Mrs. M. Morton, Mrs. K. K. Baxter, Mrs. T. Burns, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mrs. J. Cormack, Mrs. C. Bleakely, Mrs. A. King, Mrs. R. Blackwood, Mrs. J. J. Fenton, Mrs. J. B. W. Lawson, Mrs. N. W. Nutfield, Mrs. R. Hewitson, Mrs. W. Gowans, Mrs. W. Jones, Mrs. G. Dyan. Assisting the women and representing St. Andrew's Society are the following: A. T. Brown, T. Burns, J. Cormack, H. Cameron, D. Rennie, J. Angus. Card players are asked to bring their own cards.

The floor committee for dancing is: A. G. Brown, K. K. Baxter, J. Cormack, E. Fairbairn, G. Smith, A. Martin, T. Burns, J. B. W. Lawson, R. Blackwood, Dr. A. A. Hall. Cards will be played from 8 to 10, followed by a dance. A solo dance will be given by Eleanor Geary in an Oriental number and by Miss Rose Reingold, who will give a ballet dance.

Miss Ruth Teal's luncheon on Thursday was a charming affair, and was planned as a compliment to Miss Nancy Zan, whose engagement was announced early in the week to Robert E. Scott, and to Miss Alice Warren, the charming girl who has been so feted during the past week. The table was artistic in floral adornment and appointment, a large crystal bowl of daffodils forming the main decoration. Seated around the table were Miss Warren, Miss Zan, Miss Rhoda Rumelin, Miss Sara McCully, Miss Alice Macleay, Miss Margaret Mears, Miss Harriet Cumming, Miss Kathryn Hoyt,

Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie GROVE PHOTO. A TRIO OF THE PATRONESSES FOR KNIGHTS TEMPLAR WASHINGTON PARTY

Guest of her uncle and aunt, Colonel and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Miss Allie MacMaster entertained with a charming informal tea on Tuesday afternoon. Spring flowers in charming array adorned the tea table and rooms, the tea urns being presided over by Mrs. Rogers MacVeagh.

Miss Wiley is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Henry A. Wiley, who frequently have visited here. She is being delightfully entertained by prominent folk, and is a charming girl, who has many friends among the younger set of this city.

Mrs. Thomas Sharp will return today to her home in Princeton, after a two months' visit with her parents, Rev. A. A. and Mrs. Morrison, also her sister, Mrs. Donald W. Green, at Golf Park. Several affairs make the last week gala for Mrs. Sharp, who will be greatly missed by her numerous friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Davidson were extensively entertained during the week just closed, one of the delightful affairs of the early part of the week being the dinner and Orpheum party for which Mrs. M. J. Sterling and her son, Donald, Sterling, were hosts Monday evening.

Miss Kathryn Hoyt, the popular young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt, entertained with a charming dinner and dance at her home on Tuesday night, complimenting Miss Margaret Bosche, a belle of Los Angeles, who is her house guest. The affair was charming in every detail. Valentine decorations prevailing, the table being exquisite and most unusual. The center was occupied by a "chariot of love." The golden wheels were covered with pink and blue tulle. Out of the body of the chariot a marvelous array of Spring flowers tumbled, and a tandem of doves and cupids were perched holding reins of dainty Spring flowers.

Down the path, which was defined by the pink satin ribbons, were doves and cupids in an imposing procession. Pink and blue satin hearts, pierced by golden arrows, hung from the chariot and the cupids. Of course, tulips predominated, the luscious pink tones being used, which were effective with the lavender and blue tints of the other Spring blossoms used to build this artistic affair. The candlesticks, which were also arranged in pairs, were surrounded by the Spring flowers in dainty wreaths. Covers were marked for 150, and after dinner the party was augmented by an additional number of the younger contingent, all of whom enjoyed dancing for the rest of the evening.

One of the most delightful affairs of recent date was the informal bridge-tea for which Mrs. C. Edward Greile was hostess a week ago yesterday. Three tables were arranged for the games, and at tea time a few additional guests called. Honors fell to Mrs. Morton H. Insley, Mrs. Gay Lombard and Mrs. Frederick H. Green. Mrs. David T. Honeyman and Mrs. William C. Alvord presided at the prettily appointed tea table.

Mrs. Tyler Henshaw, a charming matron of Oakland, is visiting in Portland for a short time. She is a former resident of this city and has many friends who are vying with each other to entertain her. Mrs. Frank Hart presided at a luncheon on Tuesday in her honor, which was followed by two tables of bridge.

Another affair of the early part of the week with artistic and unusual decorations was the dinner presided over by Miss Ruth Shull, complimenting Miss Alice Warren, the popular house guest of Miss Rhoda Rumelin, on Wednesday night. The table was decked with two huge hearts, strapped with satin ribbons, and bound together with a lovers' knot of tulle. Inside of these hearts was an effective arrangement of Spring flowers, tulips again predominating. Around each plate was a heart-shaped wreath of the dainty blossoms, which later were worn by the guests. Little satin hearts and doves added to the holiday atmosphere, being significant of Valentine's romance and sentiment. Seated around this charming table were Miss Warren, Miss Rumelin, Miss Dorothy Strowbridge, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Harriet Cumming, Charles Holbrook, Austin Cunningham, of St. Paul, who was here for the day; Jervis E. W. Stephenson, Robert Jones, Holt Cunningham, James Brady and the hostess.

Later the guests all attended the delightfully gay dance for which Mr. and Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley were hosts, complimentary to their niece, Miss Rumelin, and Miss Warren. About 65 of the younger folk attended this affair, the attractive gowns of the girls being enhanced by the artistic arrangement of Spring flowers, of which there was an abundance of lovely vari-tinted tulips and daffodils.

Honoring Mrs. Edward Adams, a charming matron of Seattle, who came to Portland to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Alice Tucker, to Spencer Biddle, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis presided at an attractive luncheon on Monday. An artistic array of Spring

Miss Nieta Ann Tobey, Miss Tobey's engagement to Thomas C. Luke was announced Saturday at a pretty luncheon by her aunt, Mrs. Frank Luke, Dr. of 845 Patton avenue. The table was unusually pretty, a basket of fresh flowers being surrounded with fragrant violets, from which a streamer reached to each plate, and at the end of the ribbon was attached the card making known the news.

The bride-elect is a daughter of William Tobey and a former student of the high school. She is a popular girl and will be entertained extensively by her many friends. Mr. Luke is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Luke, of 580 East Ninth street, and has for a number of years been associated with a well-known florist of this city. The wedding is scheduled for April 18 at Grace Episcopal Church and will be a large affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman N. Burpee, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mrs. Margaret B. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Roberson, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Kiehl, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hart, Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Guerin, of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lines, Mr. and Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Katz, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Andre Poulthoux, Mr. and Mrs. G. Kirkham Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greile, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols, Major and Mrs. Henry Jewett, Mrs. E. Vanless Eichbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. T. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mears, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis, Henry Teal, Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hindman, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Devereaux, Miss Gaud, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Green, Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Verwick, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Stearns, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Bilderback, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Crumback, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer, Dr. and Mrs. W. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. C. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. C. Alvord, Miss Katharine Ecob, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Giesy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Beale.

Mrs. Guerin is a charming woman, and already has been delightfully entertained with numerous informal parties. She is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Coghlan, and during the next week will be entertained by several prominent matrons.

Miss Esther Tucker was a dinner hostess last night for a charming party honoring Miss Elizabeth Wiley of Washington, D. C., who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood. A number of the younger set were asked to share in the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Davidson were extensively entertained during the past week with farewell parties, the former leaving last night for his new post in Quebec. Mrs. Davidson and the children are planning to join him in the Easter vacation. Among the interesting affairs was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. George F. Nevins honoring the Davidsons, the other guests being officers of the Pacific Light Power Company, of which Mr. Davidson has been vice-president and general manager. The table was gaily decked with Spring flowers, covers being marked for Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Laing, A. S. Greiner, of New York, W. H. Galvani and the hosts.

On Thursday night Mr. and Mrs.

Laing entertained with a delightful dinner party at the University Club honoring Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, and on Tuesday a luncheon was given for Mr. Davidson by the handball team of Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, Multnomah Oregon. The largest event, and from a business standpoint the most interesting affair, was the banquet given in honor of Mr. Davidson by the S. E. L. A. and A. I. E. E. at the Hotel Oregon, covers being placed for 100. Mr. Davidson also has served as president of the Portland Heights Club, and at the meeting held Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Davidson was elected to succeed him. The club last week complimented its former president with a charming dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson are popular in this city, and it is the source of much regret in business and social circles that Mr. Davidson's business interests will take them away.

Members of the Portland Hunt Club are awaiting the Washington's birthday open paper chase for an annual trophy, which is scheduled for Thursday afternoon. The trail will be laid by Mrs. Neat McDougall and Mrs. James Nicol and reservations must be made through H. M. Kerron. The event always attracts a large following of society folk, teas and dinner parties following. The motorists are usually far in excess of the saddlers, and the chases are among the delightful events of the social calendar as well as the big sports events of the season.

Friday night a musical ride will be given by the members of the Portland Riding Academy, and all the members will be obliged to wear their dress togs. Members may invite spectators.

Miss Ruth Standifer was a charming hostess Tuesday when she entertained with a line party at the Orpheum, followed by tea at Hotel Portland. The honor guest was Miss Kemna Klosterman, fiancée of the hostess' brother, Thomas Standifer. The table was daintily decorated with Spring flowers and corsage bouquets of violets and Richmond roses, marked covers for Mrs. Alfred N. McArthur, Mrs. Guy Standifer, Mrs. John Twohy, Mrs. William Patterson, Miss Gretchen Klosterman, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, Miss Lelia Guthrie, Miss V. O'Connell, Miss Elou Smith, Miss Irene Daly and Miss Klosterman and the hostess.

Miss Eliza Parker was a luncheon hostess on Wednesday complimentary to Miss Katharine Ecob, of New York, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer.
