Sunday, one year ... Sunday and Weekly.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

condition of consent from Congress to their development. Therefore an embargo is placed on use of the land in question, in the hope that the next Congress or some future Congress may be able to override Western opposition or that the West will be conceded that a delinquent taxpayer ought to pay at all—and every sane person and e clique of lobbyists and of appointive officers is attempting to impose its members of Congress.

This is not a party question. The leasing policy is supported both by the great body of Democrats and by lands of any citizen. great body of Republicans. Representative Mann, leader of the Remost ardent advocates. So are Sen-Morris and other Republican Senators. The opposition includes both Republicans and Democrats from the West and some Democrats from cerned about party regularity than crafic caucus: about the vital interests of their states, or from men like Senator Walsh, who represent states where the power sites have already passed into private own-ership. Regardless of the attitude of these latter Senators the question is

It is proposed to make the Secretary an area "greater than many kingdoms fore, he says in effect; "The North through slaughter to a throne." of Europe combined," comprising an asks for preparedness; then let the "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly average of 67 per cent of the area of North pay for it." . each of the eleven states in question, which boasts itself the freest on earth.

It is landlordism, which has been the bulwark of aristocracy in every monarchy.

is absentee landlordism, which was the curse of Ireland, for this practice by paying part of the chuge estate would be administered of river and harbor improvements. from a distance of 2000 to 3000 miles either thrive or stagnate.

power than any other man in the public domain. He would collect and disburse a vast revenue, which would grow yearly, and he would employ an army of officials beside which that under command of the Postmaster-

General would be insignificant. Secretary's broad and from the operation of all state laws, but the states would to fix the amount of revenue to be Upon the judgment of that Entered at Portland (Oregon) Postoffice as selves under its many restrictions and serve lands." He continued by quot- terity finds we have said that is worth subscription rates—invariably in advance: Under the power of an official who ing from a statement which he made remembering. is changed every four years. There to the press last July: was little opposition in that case, for There is no danger of Alaska is a territory, and conditions there are exceptional. In his grasp after more power and patronage, the Secretary now proposes to extend it to eleven sovereign states, where conditions are no different from those headed by Secretary of the Interior ing Journal says it has could have Lane. With the general dam bills commended itself to so great a mago the bills for leasing water power jority. Few measures before the Legon public land and for leasing the islature have received so overwhelming an indersement. The tiresome vast areas of land containing coal, oil iteration of the insane Journal against of our every-day speech. In total number it is perhaps true that Pope of the West refuse their consent to bers who were indifferent or uninthe imposition of a perpetual feudal formed to investigate carefully and single poem contains more popular system on the Western states as a condition of consent from Congress to of its merits. So much for the influ-Thoughts," unless it be Gray's "Elewearied into acceptance of a position newspaper will agree that any effective plan to procure payment is laudament inferiority to other another column of The Oregonian. A quent there shall be mailed a notice Ninety days after taxes are delin-ill upon the elected Representatives in thirty days, the remaining delinposed their will on the majority of under this simple and proper arrangement, the law has been violated. The remedy therein ought to be in the

But of course it is an honest, meritorious and square-dealing measure. It less the bases of many a philosophy. publicans in the House, is one of its provides a way to collect delinquent taxes. Evidently the insane Journal thinks they ought not to be collected.

THE SAME MEDICINE FOR ALL.

To line up the Southern Democrats the South. Its support from the West in the House for his new revenue bill, omes from men like Senators Cham- Claud Kitchin, leader of the majority berlain and Lane, who are more con- and Bryan pacifist, said to the Demoprintions.

rope and in Japan, but to be revived demands a public building at every in Ecclesiastes in a different form, in the twentieth century in the councrossroads, the dredging of every "He that increaseth knowledge init were extended to the South, there that "hope springs eternal in the hu-would be a sudden decline of interest man breast," that "the proper study Harvard, that the most important an exceedingly useful metal. Discov-It would make the Secretary of the would be a sudden decline of interest

It would make eleven states prac- by Mr. Kitchin's bill is not made nectically dependent on the policy of essary by preparedness. Absorption each successive Secretary for their of the existing revenue in gratifying That official would wield greater duty-its own defense-makes new

LANE CONTRADICTS DANIELS.

There is need that Secretary of the If this system were once firmly conflict between their statements in diligence."

In his annual report Mr. Daniels "abolishing the naval petroleum rethe claimants the lands claimed." In the course of debate on the leasofficial in fixing rent would be con- ing bill, it was said that Mr. Lane had are almost as current as the language they promptly "scrap" upon going out an effect upon our educational systingent the amount of revenue which approved the Phelan amendment recitively. Yet we are not wholly an imi-

Perpetual tutelage would be the re- ants. In a letter to Senator Thomas, This system has already been applied to the coal land of Alaska, and has failed to attract investors, for they are not eager to place themselves under its many restrictions and serve lands." He continued by contin Mr. Lane denied that he favored this

There is no danger of the Navy's being short of oil, for there are nearly 2,000,000 acres of public oil lands now withdrawn. Included therein are two special naval reserves which are practically free from adverse claims. These contain approximately 130,000,000 barrels of oil, and more of this area can be withdrawn for the Navy at any time by the President whenever he decides to do so.

Leaving the Bible and Shakespeare out of the reckoning, it must remain more or less a matter of dispute which authors have contributed most to the wearied into acceptance of a position of permanent inferiority to other states. It is a holdup by a band of funatics and bureaucrats, nothing clse.

The situation is forcibly set forth in a letter which has been addressed to Senator Chamberlain by Chester T. Kennan and which is published in Ninety days after taxes are delinged.

In the description of the furious tangents of the function of the third of time," that "blessings brighten as they take their flight," but the great unhappy that the revised Forbes bill does.

Ninety days after taxes are delinged. the thief of time," that "blessings the General Education Board for brighten as they take their flight." establishment at Columbia University well known as the others are, none the subjects.

parody. ach of the eleven states in question. Then why not apply the same prin-This is feudalism, abolished in Euciple all along the line? The South Prospect of Eton College." It appears ficient sums for the Nation's first originated—a fact that he did not try train the senses but are regarded as rassing from an economic point of the republic is a duty—its own defense—makes new to conceal, for he has said in the taxes necessary. Abolish the pork introduction to one of his later almapower than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary. About the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that the power than any other man in the taxes necessary that thousands, either invested under lease or derived from industries which drew power or raw material from the taine had put "help yourself and lectual and spiritual purposes are gent the internal combustion engine, which heaven will help you." "Diligence is eral and valid." The child will be was not an accident, but the result of There is need that Secretary of the heaven will help you." "Diligence is eral and valid." The child will be was not an accident, but to Navy Daniels and Secretary of the Inthe mother of good luck," said Poor taught not only to use his senses but long and patient search. terior Lane get together on the sub- Richard, and Dr. Johnson had said to interpret what his senses acquire. mobile has built up many collateral ject of oil land, for there is direct that "few things are impossible to He will begin to experiment with the arts. Its service in bringing about established, the Secretary's army could be organized into a machine for its perpetuation, upon which each subordinate's job would hang. Only has been guilty of misrepresentation a political revolution could destroy it. regarding the ability of the Navy to earned." which is near enough for tion that "they are valuable only in better roads have done more for rural domain obtain oil for warships from the repractical purposes if we only would so far as they are practically mastaxation serves.

"when doctors disagree."

| Continue to the practical purposes of the public school system was serves. | Continue to the practical purposes of the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves. | Continue to the public school system was serves as serve ing one's nose to the grindstone" obsaid in regard to the three naval pe- tained popular currency from Frank- essentials of general and technical be said, too, to have changed bear the burden of keeping the peace and of enforcing the criminal law.

In place of the right of taxation, a sop is offered to the states. One-half of the rental income from leases is actual physical possession, except as Melancholy" is another of the quota-to be paid to them, and the other to those parts upon which no on has tion storehouses of literature. And become actually the tools with which half is to be expended in reclaiming arid land. Under this arrangement the state must spend its half on because litigation is pending in the of attaining literary immortality and nical school, and they would greatly bitious achievement of the motor road appropriation bill ought to give J. schools and roads, being treated like a schoolby to whom a certain amount of spending money is doled out week-ly with strict injunctions how if shall be used. For this mess of pottage Senate committee proposes to amend is worth doing a cultured gentleman of leisure out tively recent invention that has played the sinte would be expected to sell its the general leasing bill by nullifying well" is one of Chesterfield's, and it of the son of an English squire. Our modestly a highly important part in birthright—its sovereignty over from the Supreme Court decision which will live a long time. "Style is the mistake has consisted in transplanting the scheme of things. It made possible to 93 per cent of its area, its right held the withdrawal order valid, dress of thoughts," "dispatch is the English system into an environsoul of business" and "a chapter of ment in which it supplies the needs belting, saved energy, thereby making collected from that area and to disserves, dismissing all suits instituted accidents" are everyday sayings that of only a small minority, while the manufacturing less costly, and made burse as it willed that which it reads of the mass are neglected and work safer. The motion picture, which after his death. the state would draw from this source. ognizing the equities of private claim- tative people, either. We make requisite will be teachers trained to mated, was invented within a quar-

BETTER RULE FOR ALASKA.

It is to be hoped that Congress will same kind.

our own citizens who have

EDUCATION FOR A PURPOSE. In support of a plan adopted by that "none think the great unhappy of "a school for the purpose of con-when doctors disagree." in association with animals and in that we cannot well do without. For-Benjamin Franklin was a famous the use of tools, but which is now merly it was necessary to handle the a century before and which La Fon- terialistic or commercial, for "intel- cess depended upon the perfection of "A penny saved is two objects with which he gets acquainted, the betterment of roads has

they are compelled to waste precious has revolutionized entertainment and These and a thousand other phrases years in acquiring knowledge which popularized it, and which may have phrases of our own to enrich follow the new curriculum. Where ter century. Wireless telegraphy did

A scheme is proposed by Henry tinguishing National indebtedness by over. issue of what he calls non-maturing a different plane. The aeroplane has bonds. He would have the bonds run created a new strategy, by making the find time to adopt a joint resolution for 100 years and he would pay 1 per surprise attack almost impossible.

The cream separator is a recent in cent of the principal with the interest. offered by Senator Pittman for an inverse claims. These control approximately 130,000,000 barrels of oil, and more of this 130,000,000 barrels of oil, and more of this area can be withdrawn for the Navy at any time by the President whenever he decides to do so.

If Mr. Daniels' statement that the leasing bill would abolish the naval oil reserves is no more accurate than charge of coal, oil, other minerals, agriculture, forests, fisheries, game, buy another lot of securities. He together with finite and water the failroads, highways cites the practice of insurance comand waterways which are needed for development. The coal-land leasing law has failed to aftract capital, and the fact that in investing their funds the reason for this failure should be these companies lend in large lump slow, and typewriting did not become these companies lend in large lump slow, and typewriting did not become common for many years afterward. and waterways which are needed for panies in selling policies which proascertained as a guide to Congress in sums on mortgage or buy blocks of acting on pending legislation of the bonds, payable in a lump at a fixed time, and that they are organized for It is impossible to govern and de. continuous operation in just that way, velop Alaska efficiently at long range, while the Government would be work-There is as great need of separate ad- ing to get out of debt and stay out. ministration with broad powers as His judgment is warped by the prevathere was in the Philippines and Porto lent opinion that accumulated wealth Rico. Congress has done better by is an evil in itself; it is not; the evil these people of alien blood than by consists in the manner of its use. His error is akin to that of the people who primitive methods that once taken the ploneer work of the Far misquote the Bible as saying that "money is the root of all evil"; it does not say so. The words are: "the ground. love of money is the root of all evil."

SCIENTIFIC PROGRESS.

but the great," and that "all may do structive work in the reorganization it-the progress the world has made achievement. what has by man been done." Best of elementary and secondary educa- in practical science since Oregon was known of all, perhaps, is "at thirty tion," Dr. Simon Flexner has declared settled, or even since it attained the man suspects himself a fool, knows it that the teaching of the classics has full measure of statehood. The dediat forty and reforms his plan." He proved a failure. He does so in com-told us that we should "be wise today mending the purpose of the new bridge spanning the Columbia between by the American Defense Society, of the people. The lobbyists represent nobody but themselves, for they have been repudiated by the organization which they profess to represent. The officials do not represent the people, "tis madness to defer," and that school to work out suggested im- Portland and Vancouver serves again which summarizes by giving three officials do not represent the people, for they are not elected by the people. Yet on the faise pretense that by their policy alone can be public domain be saved from spoliation they have imposed their will on the majority of the people of improving on the original. He said English and American history, Eng. the linotype machine and the electric practical way how to take care of his that "a God all mercy is a God un-just" and "a man of pleasure is a German, geometry, chemistry, biology, man of pains," which, while not so a few years ago the construction of a would be in themselves the best kind less the bases of many a philosophy. This controversy seems to be beside bridge across the Columbia of the of health measures. Special training for medical students for military servparticularly wide currency in the purpose of education and to the man-Western country because of a famous ner in which it should be imparted. would have been a task of a great ice in case of war is also strongly ad-many years, and the cost would have arody.

Gray's "Elegy," as has been said, tion to the character of the comis a mine of the same sort. It con- munity and to the place which each the approaches would have been made to their regular courses. In these the is a mine of the same sort. It contains "the short and simple annals of the poor," "the paths of glory lead but to the grave," "full many a flower is born to blush unseen and waste is sweetness on the desert air," "some its sweetness on the desert air," "some muce, inglorious Milton," "hands that school will do valuable service in promatter of course.

The approaches would nave been made by the tedious pick-and-shovel protreatment of bullet wounds will play a relatively minor part and the "scieven in the minds of the older inhabitants; so easily do we grow into the habit of taking everything as a

Two alluring sources of potash, a

"to their regular courses. In these the treatment of bullet wounds will play
a relatively minor part and the "scieven in the minds of the older inhabitants; so easily do we grow into the habit of taking everything as a

Two alluring sources of potash, a

"two alluring sources of potash, a fore, he says in effect; "The North saks for preparedness; then let the saks for preparedness; then let the North pay for it." "Where ignorance is bliss, 'its folly Modern languages are to be emphasized, the let the Then why not apply the same principle all along the line? The South eight all along the line? The South demands a public building at every crossroads, the dredging of every crossroads, the dredging of every private land. Then why not let the South pay for them by means of special taxes on cotton, tobacco, rice and other Southern products? Oregon has voluntarily put that principle in part practice by paying part of the cost of river and harbor improvements. If it were extended to the South, there be was not an accident, but the result of Such a system would combine the first established. The automobile may vehicle. The delay was due almost This system seems as well adapted wholly to the wretched condition of

The induction motor is a compara would know the result of such an en Varnum, of Jacksonville, Fla., for ex- gagement a few minutes after it was The submarine has put war on where the common people with the states are proposed to the pr There were no passenger elevators prior to the year that so many of our pioneers crossed the plains to Oregon. The reaper and mower, invented in the '40s, but not perfected until later, is one of the essentials of to-day. The crops necessary to feed the world to its present requirements could not be harvested vailed, and as a result most of our It has been a wonderful era, and the last third of a century has been the most wonderful of all. The last decade of the nineteenth century has Few persons realize-but it is only never had its equal in the history of because they do not pause to think of the world as a period of scientific

The medical side of universal train-the rod of empire might have swayed,"

'far from the madding crowd's ignoble strife," after which Thomas Hardy

Two alluring sources of potash, a large supply of which is requisite to raised to the use of pupils as subjects in a sort of educative laboratory test, practicable, to obtain a referendum of the growing of our crops, have been out so long.

With a hip and a whoop that shall right have swayed,"

Only the rock of the growing of our crops, have been of the growing of the growing of our crops, have been of the growing of the opinion upon the question which of Mines in the manufacture of Portland sectional, for the East, South and Middle West are attempting to impose on the Far West a system to which they would not be subject and which they would passionately resist if the attempt were made to fasten it on them.

Sectional, for the East, South and Middle West are attempting to impose on the Far West as system to which they would not be subject and which they would passionately resist if the attempt were made to fasten it on them.

Sectional, for the East, South and Middle West are attempting to impose of listening of pig iron, misquoted of all quotations is probable that the education they received in the many inventions of recent years misquoted of all quotations is probable to that the greatest service to manking. In the many inventions of recent years misquoted of all quotations is probable to the porcess will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the force of pig iron, misquoted of all quotations is probable to the porcess will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the process will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the process will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the process will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the process will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the process will be inferior to that the greatest service to manking. In the process will be many inventions of recent years and the light of the plans out—the subject and the process will be indented in the process wi live their wonted fires." The most lieve, in the light of the plans out- the many inventions of recent years cement and the smelting of pig iron, misses without a word the fact that it are "the applause of listening senates scribed in the Outlook, certainly subsequent developments it may be could be saved in the form of potasof the Interior, as the representative of the Government, the langlord over an area "greater than many kingdoms of the Says in effect: "The North through slaughter to a throne."

couraging sign is the way property is It would make the Secretary of the Interior a greater landlord than the Interior a greater landlord than the Czar, for his domain would exceed the huge personal holdings of the Russian rented quarters.

Harvard, that the most important in river improvement and Southern of mankind is man," that "order is part of education has always been the ery of a process for the presentation of markind is man," that "order is part of education has always been the heaven's first law" and who gave us training of the senses, a branch of huge personal holdings of the Russian rented quarters. But the increased revenue provided opher and friend," and the phrase farm boy got in the field and forest, future, since sugar is a food element necessary, in the patriotic outpouring.

each successive Secretary for their of the existing revenue in gratifying phrase-maker for those who followed prosperity. At his will they would be appetite for pork, leaving insufpleasing, and no doubt will prove a permanently valuable, innovation. would not be a bad idea if the grownups would set apart a moment occasionally for considering the subject.

ualities, it would not be a bad idea for every citizen to ask himself what he do to help if he should be needed -take stock of himself, as it were, and have the inventory ready for the a mocking laugh.) call.

In the circumstances, Count von Bernstorff cannot be expected to worry much over the fact that British have carefully arranged that he shall have no opportunity to see the sights while delayed at Halifax.

That California chief of police who savs that women have the same rights smoke and drink and go as men to unescorted to public cafes is running a theory into the ground. Be practical, chief, be practical!

Action of the United States on the bone-dry provision of the postoffice Barleycorn at least a hint of his growing unpopularity.

It is the season when the seed catalogue looks as attractive as any picture book and when the text is as interesting as a novel.

Turkey says it will fight until the enemy has recognized its rights. The right to massacre Armenians, for example.

It is easier to talk about boycotting the potato than it is to get along with- If we awhile put by our dree, out this highly nourishing vegetable.

Gleams Through the Mist By Denn Cellins.

SONG OF THE TONG. (The Chinese Peace Society predicts that tong strife will not break out in the next few days, pending a conference of high officials of the warring tongs.-News item, Thursday, Feb. 15.)

Muse, strike the gong, let us sing a sweet song now; Song that shall swing and shall tingle and dingle:

ing a long song of the peace of the tong now Sing in a jubilant, jovial jingle; Muse, let us sing about Leong Jew Hing. Who announces the dove, Coming down from above, o spike all the gats and the Colts and the skodas, and hang olive branches upon the pa-And still the warsongs of the turbulent tongs, And bind up the war god in leg-irons and thongs. Oh, sing a small jingle that's scanty

In sense, now: But long upon rhythmn that's rolling and running. On how Orientals and Orient gents, Declare a short truce upon sociable gunning. Sing right along of the Suey Sing Tong, And the bold Bing Kong Tong

And the Bow Leong Tong. And Hip Sing and Hop Sing that used to go scooting out into the streets to indulge in their shooting. And how they've abandoned those desperate chances To bask in the shade of the sweet olive branches." (*Which same is no rhyme for scrupllous pote, but sounds pretty well, if read quickly .- Ed. Note.)

Let's sing "Hip, hooray!" for the Hop Sing and Hip Sing; And laud with loud lung the Bow Leong in our song:

And the Suey Sing Tong with long tongue and lithe lip sing: Just so we sing some for the Suey. Sing Tong:

And bang the strong gong for the big Bing Kong Tong, Til the ding-a-dong-dong. Ring along, swing along;

Til the world waxes wild as the glad news increases That the tongs declare peace while they pick up the pieces: And Harmony now on her flute gent ly toodles. And safely we all may go back to our noodles. Without any fear that some foible of Fate, or ome turbulent tongman may shoot up the waiter. Doc David Starr Jordan is coming next Tuesday.

To prattle of peace and of proud pa cificism: Oh, Muse, for Doc Jordan 'twill be a glad news day, To hear that the tongs have removed the wide schism That lay for so long betwixt tong and

'twixt tong!

We bet he will smile A consid'rable while, When he finds that at home here, in old Portland, Or., The tongs that were warring have shown War "what-for." The Hip Sing and Hop Sing and Sucy Sing Tong. And bold Bing Kong Tong and the Bow Leong Tong.

ring from the rock

that he had lugged into the office a week or more ago. And without more ado he tuned his dulcimer and proved that my suspicion

For thus sang he: the C. O. B. The Spring.

Jack and Jill went up the hill A pail with water pure to fill;

They fell, and yet They did it get! The pail upset And they were wet:

And, ah, the cause of all this thing I will not hide-it was THE SPRING. A small boy had a little gun With which he frolicked, just for fun;

But he did not Control its shot. And so, I wot. His sire grew hot. What made this air-gun do this thing?

'Twas not to blame; it was THE SPRING. The baby has a little swing in which it jumps like anything; With gladsome cry, His legs he'll try,

And bye and bye He bounces high. What makes his swing do this here thing? The principle, it is THE SPRING.

(And as we reached for a paper-weight the C. O. B. folded his manuscript and fled down the corridor with

BARD'S SPRING TWITTER. "M. F.," heavily veiled, came into the circle of bards the other day with a poem for the Spring Twitter. We believe that "M. F." is a lady, judging from the stationery, but we are not inclined to exclude ladies from the Twitter, remembering as we do how Sapho and Dorothea Felicia Hemans and Mrs. Browning and Eliza Cook sang.

"You brang this on yourself," said "M. F.," beginning to sing, "you asked for Spring poems."

And, inasmuch as the rules of the game-to make it brief-have been followed, we allow "M. F." to give the song in full.

I'm glad that, just a little while, You plan to let us have a smile With poets of the Spring.

We've grown so vary tired, of late, With all the wars and all the hate; It's good to take a fling

At purely sentimental stuff That oftimes meets a quick rebuff. When we our offering bring, Saner will be our sympathy. And with the new earth sing.