Planes, Organs and Musical Instruments,

CLOSING OUR SALE OF STORAGE AND LEFT-ON-SALE PIANOS. Only $45 for a STEINWAY & SONS, good tone, but old model, and a FISCHER at $20 cash. Well not say that this Steinway is worth $450 now, nor that the Fischer is worth $250, but we know they were sold for more than that when new, and we guaranteed them better planos than for which other dealers make those claims.

$35 buys an upright piano, a really good practice piano, which when new cost as much as $400. $05 gives you choice of several splendid strictly modern upright planes, and there are even a few at $75.

Mahogany player plane, with music rolls, and good phonograph, with some records, all for $225. These instruments when new were surely worth more than $700. But it isn't the past value that counts: It is the present condition of these instruments that you are interested in. We guarantee them superior and for less money than offered elsewhere.
