PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS GATHERED BY STUDENT REPORTERS

Page of Information That Tells Parents of Voluntary Academic Activities During Study Hours and Otherwise.

Lincoln English Students to Do More Reading.

Lists of Best Books Called to Classes' Attention — Philip Me-Carthy Resigns as Business Man-ager of Class Play—Freshmen to Give Reception This Week.

A SPECIAL assembly was held Monday morning from 9 to 9:39 for the first-term English students. Miss M. Burnett, the librarian, spoke to the students. The main purpose of her talk was to explain the rules of the library and the use of the library catalogue. She discussed the following three points: How she could help the students: How she could help her, and BY MARGARET DUNIWAY. dents, how they could help her, and how they could help themselves.

Miss Burnett's instructions have enabled the students to find the books for their outside reading easily and quickly. Miss Burnett has adopted a new plan to encourage interest in this outside reading, which forms a special part of every term's work. She has set aside special shelves for the books in-cluded in the list and has marked the books for the four years with different colored slips of paper pasted in the flyleaf of each book. A pink slip marks the freshman books, a yellow the soph-omore, a buff the junior, and a white the senior.

Special interest in outside reading has been further aroused by the posting on the bulletin board in the library of a report of the opinions of six well-known Portland people concerning the six best English novels. The people are Mr. Hugh Hume, Dr. T. L. Eliot. Mrs. John M. Scott, Miss Mary Frances Isom Miss Harriet K. McArthur and (Fielding), "Vanity Fair" (Thackeray), "Braduates of the machine shop who come back to school to take the post-graduate course in tool and diemaking are eligible. Clarence Schumaking are eligible. Clarence Schumaking, "David Copperfield" (Dickens), "David Copperfield" (Dickens), "Dr. Thorne) (Trollope), "Adam Bede" (George Eliot), "Heart of Midlothian" or "Guy Mannering" (Scott), "The Cloister and the Hearth" (Reade), "Adam Bede" (Eliot), "David Copperfield" (Dickens), "Vanity Fair" (Thackeray), "Jane Eyre" (Bronte), "Treasure Island" (Stevenson), "The Scarlet Letter (Hawthorne), are the choice of Mrs. John M. Scott. The folibwing are Miss Mary Francis Isom's favorites: "Henry Esmond" (Thackeray), "Lavengro" (Committee were Scott Simpson, Miss Esmond" (Thackeray), "Lavengro" (Barrow), "Westward Ho" (Kingsley), "Ordeal of Richard Feverel" (Meredith), "The Cloister and the Hearth) (Reade), and any or all of Scott's novels. Miss Harriet K. McArthur has the clifford and George Schwind.

The Miss Harriet K, Mearthur has the following six novels in her list: "The Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Graham, Miss Tingle and Mr. Goldman.

The Right of Way" (Parker), "The House of Mirth" (Wharton). The list made out by Mr. Herdman is as follows: "Tom Jones" (Fielding). "David Copperfield" (Dickens). "Henry Esmond" (Thackeray), "Adam Bede" (Eliot). "The Scarlet Letter" (Hawthorne). "Tom Sawyer" (Clemens). in connection with the emphasis which has been recently placed on the reading of Dickens' works, it is interesting to note that four of the six people include "David Copperfield" in their lists.

A meeting of the June, '17 class was held Tuesday afternoon in room 202. Philip McCarly, who was recently elected business manager of the class play. "Our American Cousin," to be present-ed in the school auditorium the afternoon and evening of April 14 has revenue of the structure of the school auditorium the afternoon and evening of April 14 has revenue on the follows: Almond George Schwind.

The patrons and patronesses were: The Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Graham, Miss Tingle and Mr. Goldman.

The patronesses were: Braid and elected officers as follows: Albert Bauer, president: Leola Davis, secretary: Bunard Montgomer's, treasurer; Jeannette Snedker, editor, and George Bornand, editors and Mrs. Glaman.

The fourth-term English classes are devoting two periods each week to the study of Oregon history and civics from the biennially published Oregon Blue Book, which proves to be a fine text.

The February 18 class Association with the patronesses were: Bunard Montgomer's, treasurer; Jeannette Snedker, editor, and George From the biennially published Oregon Its text.

The February 18 classes were burled and elected officers as follows: wice-president: Leola Davis, secretary: Bunard Montgomer's, treasurer; Jeannette Snedker, editor, and George From history and civics from the biennially published Oregon Its follows: The February 18 classes are devoting two their study of Oregon history ed in the school auditorium the afternoon and evening of April 14, has resigned. Therefore a new election took place. As a result of the election Donald Harris was elected manager and place. As a result of the election but ald Harris was elected manager and Ernest Haycox assistant-manager. It was decided that a prom would be given soon. Plans were discussed for the county fair which will be given in the near future to raise money for the class Cardinal. The president, Raiph are chosen principally from among the Spearow, announced the following com- students of the machine shop, there bemittees: County fair, Ernest Haycox (chairman), Marian Spoeri, Hattle Peat, Marforie Schoeneck, Helen Lamar, Walter Schade, Howard McGowan, Jessie Cook, president; Chester Woodruff, sec-Huggios and Ray Martin; property committee for class play, Carlos Laub (chairman), Donald Harris and John bert, Rodney Grafton and Gwinne Han-

The Latin play, "The Captives," from the Greek, by Plautius, to be presented in the school auditorium the afternoon and evening of March 16, is expected to ove of great interest. The play will presented in English; therefore it will be intelligible to every one. No admission fee will be charged. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Ira Berkey, editor of the Cardinal, Gowens, sergeant-at-arms. and Margaret Duniway, associate-ed-itor, have chosen the following staff for this term: Prose, Marjorle Thomp-son (editor), Ernest Haycox, Luzelle Kearney, Charles Berst, Donald Harris, Joyce Savage, Eleanor Allan: poetry, Elizabeth Kessi (editor), Katharine Kerr, Hazel Pearcy, Carlos Laub; ath-letics, Leslie Cooke (editor), Richard Sharpe, Elizabeth Halley; business, Jerome Solomon; music, Mary Bullock (editor), E. John Chalmers, Lucille Murton; school notes, Henrietta Betr (editor), Marjorie Schoeneck Strong; jokes, Alice Hester (ed itor). Verner Ruedy; exchanges, Marie Wade (editor), Helen Rose; alumni Nancy Holt (editor), Frieds Krichesky Chester Cobb (editor), Kennetl Davidson, Raymond Daley.

The February '18 class now meets every other Wednesday afternoon in room 216. Accordingly, the class will meet Wednesday of this week. The basket ball challenge sent by the class to the June '17 class has been accepted. The game will be played March 9. Sel-The game will be played March 9. The game will be played March 9. Sel-wyn Bingham, manager, is working hard with his team. The February class has also challenged the February classes of Jefferson, Franklin and Washington to basketball games. All letter men will be barred from these 220

At the meeting of the Adelphians Thursday a talk was given on Alfred Noyes, the English poet, now a visit-ing professor at Princeton, by Miss Merritt, of the faculty, who has personally met him.

The freshman reception for parents nd teachers will be given in the school gymnasium some time this week. This reception is now a semi-annual event. The programme will be given by the students. Miss Leida Mills, of the faculty, is in charge of the reception. Two other members of the faculty, Mr. F. W. Phipps and Miss Adele Dyott, are in ments, respectively. charge of the programme and refresh-

Marie Jackson and Myrtle Jacobs of Miss Bleez's second-term domestic science class, gave a luncheon Wednes-day for the following guests: Edith Strowbridge, Helen Stewart, Leota Burt, Lucille Murton, Edna Minos, Mrs. C. H. Jackson, Bernice Haas, Mrs. Rob-inson, Helen Morgan and Miss Bleeg, Following was the menu: Fried smelt, creamed carrots, potato on the half shell, drop biscuits, chocolate blane shell, drop biscuits, ch mange and cream.

The Hakanakie Campfire Girls held a meeting Friday afternoon in room G of the Central Library. Marie Canel gave six Indian blazes. After the meet-ing the girls visited the Day Nursery

It is interesting to notice the number of first-term students out of a class of about 275 who were honorary in various studies last term.

Miss Mabel Downs, of the faculty, gave a talk to the Tri-Ls Monday on "How We Got Our Bible."

At the meeting of the Teknophilae Wednesday in room 319, Alice Hester gave a synopsis of Ernest Thompson Seton's story, "Raggyling, the Story of a Cottontail Rabbit." Luzelle Kearney gave instruction in singing by singing the following songs: "Dolly's Luilaby," "If I Were a Rose," "Cathedral Chimes," "Mary Is a Baking." Eleanor Caldwell told the story of "Florinda and Youginal." Helen Rabold told the story of "The Goose Girl."

Benson Polytechnic-Boys

BY RODNEY GRAFTON. THE toolmakers, with Mr. Williams I as faculty adviser, have formed an Mrs. John M. Scott, Miss Mary Frances Isom, Miss Harriet K. McArthur and Mr. Hugh H. Herdman. Mr. Hume chooses the following six books: "History of Tom Jones—a Founding" (Fielding), "Vanity Fair" (Thackeray),
"Henry Esmond" (Thackeray), "Waverly" (Scott), "David Copperfield" (Dickens), "Silas Marner" (Eliot). Dr. T. L.
Eliot considers the following six books organization which will be known as Those serving on the arrangement committee were Scott Simpson, Miss Thelma Hardy, James Mills, Miss Mable Hix, Vernon Williams, Elmer Peterson, Miss Georgia Cunningham, Raymond Clifford and George Schwind.

The patrons and patronesses were:
Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Graham,
Miss Tingle and Mr. Goldman.
The fourth-term English classes are ing but one from another department of the school.

sen, the latter being the only honorary member. . . . The Afternoon Debating Society elects officers once each month. Their short programme was given. Edythe reason for this is to give as many as Almquist gave a piano solo, a welcompossible the opportunity to learn how ing address was given by Elizabeth ossible the opportunity to learn how o conduct a meeting properly.

The new officers for this month are: Custy Rust, president; Alvin Peters, vice-president; A. Luciers, secretary; Alvin Moore, treasurer, and Armand

School was dismissed at 3:15 last Vednesday and the boys attended the moving pictures at Shattuck School dealing with methods of making National rust-proof pipe.

Benson Polytechnic-Girls.

gymnasium Friday eevning. Preced-ing the dance there was a basketball game between the boys of the two schools. The school band was there and furnished the music. Miss Tingle, Miss Macdonald, Mrs. Grahame, Mrs. Cleveland. Miss Riley, Mr. Goldman, Mr. Moss, Mr. Oetinger and Mr. Williams were the chaperones of the even-

The June '17 class has chosen for its class flower the Caroline Testout rose. The class motto is "We can be-cause we think we can."

The first-team classes have completed their first problem, which was the cooking aprons, and have had a lesson in drafting patterns.

A new class in special millinery has been organized. The class is held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. The course will last three months.

Last week, in the office, there was Schmidt's room. fine display of hats, made in Miss

The members of the art metal class are much interested in their work this term. Several who are housekeepers are making many beautiful things for, their homes, some of which are booktheir homes, some of which are bookracks, teapot stands, sugar tongs, electric lamps, blotter pads, picture frames, trays and other useful articles.
Others are making rings, chains, pins, fobs, bracelets, cuff links, ribban slides and pendants. The class is open to regular and special students.

Two of the English classes observed Longfellow's birthday on February 27 with a programme of quotations and poems.

for the election of officers was done in the Spanish language. The president made a speech, accepting the office in the same language.

Washington defeated Lincoln in a thrilling basketball game on Monday.
The final score was 29 to 22. Although the game could not give either of the teams the championship, they both fought hard, and the game was exciting throughout.

lead the class. The membership is steadily increasing. OFFICERS OF WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Front Row, Left to Right—Mildred Weeks, Chairman in Charge of Publicity Bureau; Paul Peterson, Chairman in Charge of Industrial Bureau; Elaine Cooper, Chairman in Charge of Welfare Bureau. Back Row, Left to Right—Remey Cox. Assistant Business Manager; Burnet Walker, Chairman in Charge of Civics Bureau; Hubert Barzee, Business Manager, and Frank Sullivan, Chairman in Charge of Development Bu-

Washington February Seniors Elect Officers.

Albert Bauer Is Chosen President. Phrenodican and Neakahni Socie-tics Give Programme — Girls' Lengue Names Class Representa-

BY EUGENE KELTY.

THE February '18 class has organized 1 and elected officers as follows; Al-

The Phrenodican Debating Society gave its new member programme on Friday afternoon at the home of Gwendoline Stevens. The refreshment com Mr. Anderson, and several seniors.

The "Social Seven" had a very delightful time at the Ice Palace Sunday morning, seven couples being in the skating party.

The members of the "Social Seven" are chosen principally from among the Vivian Elliott, Anna Hartman, Gwen The officers and members are: Foster Cook, president; Chester Woodruff, sec-Johnson, Beatrice West, Edith Alm-quist, Frances Ashla, Grace Pick, Flor-ence Nelson, Marguerite Rumquist, Sue Hicks, Mable Christensen, Grace Jacobson, Edythe Driver, Margaret Davies, Mona Loa Fallis, Loretto Isaacson, Mil-dred Le Compte and Helen Crysler, A Singleton, Dorothea Short gave a reading and Mildred Le Compte gave dance.

The English six debating class has had two debates already and others are assigned in such a way that will al-low the class to have two debates a week from now on until the end of the term. The first debate was bell Monday on the subject "Resolved: That the Monroe Doctrine should be maintained as a part of the future foreign policy of the United States." The af-firmative side was argued by Eugene Last week was "visiting" week for the school teachers in the state of Washington. Much interest was displayed by those who inspected our school for the first time.

policy of the firmative side was argued by Eugene firmative side was argued by Eugene Kelty and Frank Sullivan, while the negative was handled by Klaus Mensing and Paul Patterson. The debate was judged by the class, and the device was judged by the class, and the device was judged by the class, and the device was judged by the class. cision given to the negative by a 9 to 10 vote. Paul Patterson was voted BY VIOLA ENGELE.

THE Benson Alumni and the Benson Polytechnic schools held a social gathering in the Lincoln High School symnasium Friday eevning. Preceding the dance there was a basketball of 10 vote. Faul Patterson was voted the best peaker. The second debute was held on Wednesday on the subject: "Regolved, That commission form of government should be abolished in Portland." The affirmative side was represented by Nelson and Albert Clark, while the negative was upheld by "George La Roche and Holt Berni. The decision was given to the negative. La Roche and Berni received an equal number of votes for best speaker.

George H. Street gave a vocal con-cert at the school on Friday. The con-cert was much enjoyed by all the stu-

The representatives for the different terms of the Girls' League have been elected as follows: Edith Robertson, Hazel Young, Alma Scharpf, Mildred Fennimore, Virginia Wilson, Clovena Larson, Margaret Alexander, June Moorhead and Miss Odekirk.

The Transition of the affair.

The Modos Society, the February class and the June class combined and held a theater party last Friday night. William Meyer was in charge of the affair.

The Modos Society, the February class and the June class combined and held a theater party last Friday night. William Meyer was in charge of the affair.

The June class is still having a hard time to decide on a class play, and will not be able to accomplish much until it gets this business off its hands.

The second-term Spanish class, that meets during the sixth period, has or-ganized itself into a club. The offi-cers elected were: Nelson Clark, president: Paul Emmett, vice-president, and Eugene Kelty, secretary. The club will act in conjunction with the main club that has been organized among the upper Spanish classes of the school. All of the talking necessary for the election of officers was done

At the meeting of the boys' Bible class Tuesday morning from 8 to 8:30

Miss McClanahan and Miss Gray took in room 312. Emerson Duncan led in the programme. Hereafter, every took the second-term domestic science in the programme. Hereafter, every Tuesday morning, one of the boys will Olds, Wortman & King last week.

Miss Hannah G. Schloth, one of the piano.

Mable Stro for Southern California last Monday.

Miss Schloth has been in the school a William Meyes Tuesday morning, one of the boys will olds.

Several of her classes gave her tokens of their regard before she left.

The Jefferson High School soccer team triumphed over that team of Washington February 10. The final re-sult was 3 to 0.

Principal H. H. Herdman, of Wash ington, delivered a Washington's birth-day speech before the students of the Pacific University February 22.

On Tuesday an assembly was held at 9 o'clock for the purpose of asking the students to contribute to the Belgian relief. Elizabeth Singleton spoke first, telling the students of the conditions existing in the warring countries. Elaine Cooper was the next speaker, she asked that the students would contribute as much as they could afford. Slips were then passed around. ford. Slips were then passed around, and each student was given a chance to write down the amount that he would give. At the Wednesday as-sembly the results were announced by rooms. The total was $1057.75.

High School of Commerce.

BY FRANK BARTHOLOMEW. THE first squad of C. E. Carlton's class in commercial geography visited the Portland Weather Bureau last and the system of forecasting was explained to them. Owing to the size of the class it will require several trips before every member can be conducted through the station.

Friday the entire class visited the plant of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. It is planned for the graph Company. It is planned for the class to visit, in the future, at least class to visit, in the future, at least the looked like death and sin.

His cheeks were pale and thin, in starving mood he ate the food, the looked like death and sin. Thursday, where the delicate apparatus and the system of forecasting was ex-of 20th century commerce. F. N. Haroun conducted the first typewriting test of the term last Tues-day. Eight students entered. Wynn Keppinger was the only one who qualined this time.

Fred B. Newton, a Portland insurance man, gave a short and interesting talk to the students of room 20 last Monday on "The Importance of a Big Idea."

The second February edition of the Ledger was out last Tuesday. Among the outstanding features were a pen-and-ink drawing, "The Commerce Giri," by Ernest Richardson, of the ommercial art department; "Two Mi-us Two, Plus-," a story by Goldie telzer; a review of the Feburary class organization, by Rebecca Solko; the June class, by Henry Rander; the Mo-dos Society, by Blanche Walker; a se-ries of cartoons, by Jack Solyan, of the art department; an editorial on "School Spirit," by Marie Chambers; an article on the wrestling squad, by Theodore Trautmann; the report of the Athletic Association, by Louis Pruss; the Spanish department, by Guillermo Meyer, and the German department, by Theodore Trautmann. The next issue of the Ledger is due March 12.

The special English classes of the school enjoyed a get-together party in the school gymnasium Saturday. This is an annual affair of the special classes. Neland Conrade was chairman of the Ledger is due March 12.

President Crawford, of the new University of Greater Portland, visited Commerce last Tuesday and spoke before the commerce and finance class on The Trade of Ancient Phoenicia.' also addressed the freshmen,

The girls of room 4 are to hold a candy sale Monday for the benefit of the baseball division of the Athletic Association. A committee consisting of Caroline Johnston, Bessle Rogaway and Irene Steele is in charge of the affair.

The athletic board, consisting of August Belch, Albert Christensen, Margaret Blake, Frank Bartholomew and Messys, Herron and Haroun and Miss Nettie Rankin, of the faculty, met Wednesday in room 2 and laid plans for an entertainment for the benefit of

It is understood that the affair is to be a matinee entertainment March 16. presented a programme to the entire ed school at an assembly held during the 20-minute period Friday. Samuel Solomon, Blanche Walker, Wynn Keppinger, Myrtle MacLean and Jack Murton were in charge. Miss Rankin's room held a short en-tertainment late last week in the 20-minute session. Marie Chambers sang "There's a Long, Long Trail," "The Little Grey Home in the West" and "Ireland Must Be Heaven." Fanchon Harbaugh accompanied her on the piano.

Mable Stromer gave a piano solo, "America, I Love You," and "Reverie." William Meyer gave a short talk on the Jefferson Students to Salute Flag on Entering Hall.

Assembly Custom Announced and

President of Senior Class to Lead. English Classes Have Get-Together Party and Live Wires Also Frolle. BY VALMA V. JONES. T the musical assembly Monday the students sang the "Soldlers' Chorus," "Anvil Chorus" and "Last Night the Nightingale Woke Me." Hobert Cunningham, representing the February class, gave a very humorous talk on candy to advertise the candy sale which was held Tuesday. Charles Webber, of the June class, announced that as soon as arrangements were made a basketball game would be played between the February and June classes.

Mr. Jenkin stated that hereafter the entire student body should always sa-lute the flag when entering the assem-bit hall and that they would be led by the presidents of the senior classes.

Jefferson has certainly won glory for itself in basketball this season. Tuesday our fast-playing team won the 1916-17 intercholastic championship by defeating Columbia University by a score of 22 to 21. The game was fast

Two months went by, his wife did try
To cook—but 'twas in vain,
Now he grew weak, could hardly speak,
His wife most went insane,

In a despairing hour, some (?) flour, A mixture then she blended: They both felt gay and now some day Their domestic troubles are ended.

Jefferson's hockey team won the game Monday by a 1-tq-0 score over Columbia.

The Spectrum did not come out a as announced, but will be circulated Monday.

Five hundred dollars' worth of work has been completed in the form of prinary alphabetic cards by the printing department. One group contains 1,200. 000 cards of dimensions one inch by one and one-half inches; the other group 59,000 one-inch square. They were set, composed and printed by the students, thus making a saving of 80 per cent.

The Live Wires held their party Friday evening. The success was largely due to the committee in charge. Hobert Cunningham, chairman; Bernice Haynes, Henrietta Heppner, Fred Appeigren and Arthur Michener, Dancing was the principal diversion of the even ing.

Myron Reed, of the February class, and president of the Live Wires, is the

If ever there lived a lanky lad, wise or otherwise, good or bad, who went out for track that didn't flap and stew out for track that didn't hap and stew the athletic association.

William Meyer, Margaret Blake and Albert Christensen were named as a committee to perfect the arrangements. It is understood that the affair is to be a matinee entertainment March 15.

The versatile entertainers of room 4. The versa ed by a team for three relay races. Also at the Columbia and Eugene meets Jefferson will be equally represented.

Mr. Karnopp gave a talk on "Litera-ture and Society in the Rural Schools' before the Naemphi Club Tuesday.

The first term science students went to the City Hall Friday to view the different collections of rocks and minerals. They were conducted by Mr. Hurd. Mr. Anderson and Mrs. Martin. their respective teachers. The second term students will visit the Weather Bureau soon, as they have finished meteorology. The contest is also under way for the five best students to compose the Jefferson Weather Bureau.

The roof of the building is very well, equipped with barometers and the like, which afford the students every advantage in forecasting the weather.

That Portland will ever be in need of teachers seems very doubtful from the number of preparatory teachers at Jefferson. The eighth term girls are now practicing at the different gram-mar schools

At a recent candy sale of the Febuary class the following girls sold:
Josephine Whaley, Letha Hahn, May Boquist, Gladys Brown, Lucille McCorkle, Geraldine Pilkington, Imogene Letcher, Julie Clodius, Harriet White, Gladys Mahone and Nancy Graben.

BY WYLIE DORAN.

"prom" on Friday, March 16. This will be the first dance given by any graduating class of the Franklin High School and also the first dance given in the new gymnasium. Those who have mar schools.

Boquist, Gladys Brown, Lucille McCorkie, Geraldine Pilkington, Imogene Letcher, Julie Clodius, Harriet White, Gladys Mahone and Nancy Graben.

James John High School.

By ESTHER FITTERER.
The first results of the honor system were read Friday, February 22, to the student body. There are many avenues of service to the school by which one can earn honor points. They include scholarship, office holding, music, literary work, athletics and other special services. The highest credit earners for the first semester of the school year are as follows: Russell Meyer, 10; Susie Lindiey, 3; Delbert Day, 8; Wesley Wrinkle, 7; Esther Fitterer, 7; Opal Weimer, 6; Alice Glistrap, 6; Charles Spackman, 6.

The stereopticon for the use of the High School has been purchased and the several departments are planning its immediate use. The funds for this, as well as for the new Victrola, were secured from the interest on the James John estate.

On last Monday Mr. and Mrs. George H. Street, accompanied by Mrs. Weils as well as for the new Victrola, were secured from the laterest on the James John estate.

On last Monday Mr. and Mrs. George H. Street, accompanied by Mrs. Weils Franklin High School met Inst. Wednesday, Henry Simmons was chosen yell-leader.

The Franklin High boys played their first interscholastic game in their new symnasium that night and the Rooters Soul' and "The Little Elfman: As a closing number Mr. and Mrs. Street sang a duet, "Tosti's Seronade." Not the least interesting number of the programme was the talk given by Mr. Street on "Essentials of Good Singing."

Mr. Plummer of the School Board gave a humorous as well as meaningful talk on "Making the best of our opportunities" Wednesday, February, 28.

The English III. classes by way of review of the "Idylls of the King" are dramatizing the story.

The Philathenaeum Club held its "Ciceronians" and the "Philogonians" monthly business meeting Tuesday, February 27, at which they voted to extend the terms of the presiding officers. A new vice-president was elected, however, as the old vice-president resigned office. Gwenyth Young filling the position. The president named the following committee to draw up a schedule for membership honor points:

The popularity coutest of the "Post" has started in earnest. Booths and the "Ciceronians" and the "Philogonians" and the "Philogonians" will be held in the auditorium of the Sunnyside Church on April 6. The question to be debated is "Compulsory Arbitration of all Labor Disputes." Raymond Powell was appointed on the programme committee, with Robin Reed as his assistant.

The popularity coutest of the "Post" has started in earnest. Booths and schedule for membership honor points:
Chairman Mary Boschero, Eleanor Bachman, Jennie MacNiven. Also a committee was appointed to make plans for the initiation of new members. The committee is as follows:
Chairman Susie Lindley, Genevieve
Brown and Verda MacNiven.

The Latin Club's challenge to a vo-cabulary contest has been accepted by Lincoln High School Latin Department.

acters hope to produce the play some time in April.

The seniors held a meeting recently for the purpose of seelcting class colors and flowers. The colors chosen were appointed as post tend.

Those who were appointed as post collectors for the various rooms and for the purpose of seelcting class colors and flowers. The colors chosen were royal purple and old gold, the flowers sweet peas. They also provided for many parties, hiking trips and jollification meetings, to be heid during commencement week. "Class day" will probably be held upon the Columbia River Highway.

The juniors met to elect officers and decide on the banquet to be held for the seniors. Harold Dedman was elected president, Ben Alexander vice-president and Donna Smith secretary-treasurer. They decided to hold a reception and banquet during commencement week for the seniors. Marjorie Llewellyn was elected editor for the Maroon as representative from her class.

The representatives man.

Professor Grubbs and Mrs. Ohmart are coaching the students who will participate in the interscholastic oratorical contest to be held some time in March. Professor Grubbs coaches orations and debating. The question is: "Resolved. That industrial disputes should be settled by compulsory arbitation." Ralph Keeler has taken the place of Rolfe Skulason. Those trying out for declamations are: Donna Smith. Doris Nash, Mary Boch, Florence Reynolds, Florence Grasle and Edward Keeler. Mrs. Ohmart is coaching short skit entitled, "Solving the High Cost of Living."

Solving the High Cost of Living."

Foy Badley gave a short talk on student body dues. Miss Hull also spoke about the student body rules. The self-ting the "Goggles" Club, gave an impromptu debate. Fred Jones gave a short talk concerning the Philogonian Debating Society. The Drama Club gave a short skit entitled, "Why Wilson to the student body fules. The student body fules. The student body fules. The student body fules are student body dues. Miss Hull also student body dues. The student body dues. Miss Hull also student body dues. Miss Hull Miss Nina Greathouse, coach of all the Jefferson plays and vaudevilles, is a new member of the faculty. Miss Greathouse began her new duties last Tuesday. She will teach dramatics and oral English to the first term students. It is planned to make the work and Evelyn Walker are trying for short compulsory. Regitations will be held stories Lily Koenje for the assay. The and oral English to the first term students. It is planned to make the work and Evelyn Walker are trying for short twice or three times a week. It is hoped that it can be so arranged as to have a class of more advanced students.

Recief. Ars. Onmart is coaching snort and coaching short and Evelyn Walker are trying for short stories, Lily Koenig for the essay. The subject of the essay is. "Clackamas County Wagon Roads, Past, Present and Future." All students involved are working with greatest enthusiasm.

The senior class candy sale last Wednesday turned out to be quite a success. Edith Hamilton and Ruby Mayer had charge of the sale.

The May, '18, class is planning a number of entertainments and a ban-quet for the '17 class. Harold Dedman has been elected president and Ben Alexander vice-president.

Roll of Honor.

BEAUMONT.

Edmund Charles
Donald Carver
Leonard Dawson
Robert Flanders
Nicholas Neilsen
Lauren Nichols
Clifford Ohren
Lynden Skinner
Tloyd Sharn ancis Rumell lbert Buck axine Wilson arjory Andrews trbara Purvis orence Buck ansetta Prideaux
artin Allen tester Anderson arshall Brownell
lis Cummins

Paul Y. Eckert, Principal

Franklin Senior "Prom" to Be Given March 16.

Surprise Party Is Tendered Dorothy Smith—Rooters' Club Is Put Under Way—Campfire Girls Give Silver

The English III. classes by way of association. Clark Schoubbe gave a review of the "Idylls of the King" are dramatizing the story.

The Philathenaeum Club held its "Ciceronians" and the "Philogonians"

Thursday afternoon, An impromptu de-bate was held the question, being, "Re-solved: That needles are more valu-able than pins." The affirmative won.

MILWAUKIE HIGH SCHOOL.

BY DOROTHY S. WISSINGER.
The seniors met recently to select their characters for the play, "Ail of a Sudden Peggy," They are: Anthony Crackenthorpe, Reiph Keeler: the Hon. Jimmy Keppel, Clyde Davis; Major Archie Phipps (retired), William F. Miller; Jack Menzies, Claude Buckner, Parker, Boyd Gibson; Lucas (footman at Hawkhurst), Louis Shindler; Lady Crackenthorpe, Charlotte Merriott; the Hon. Millicent Keppel, Edith Hamilton; the Hon. Mrs. Colquhoun, Ruby Mayer; Mrs. O'Mara, Bernice Elisch; Peggy, Dorothy S. Wissinger.

Rehearsals have started under the direction of Professor Goetz, The characters hope to produce the play some time in April.

Liewellyn was elected editor for the Maroon as representative from her class.

The staff has been chosen for the Maroon and the following students will age: Bernice Pisch will be the company to the Maroon and the following students will the property of the company to the company to the company to the company to the property of the company to the com

Maroon and the following students will ter Daniels, Fred Jones, Warde Keards act: Bernice Fisch, editor-in-chief; and Clark Schoubee.

Charlotte Nash, assistant editor: Claude Buckner, business manager; Reuben Spring, assistant business manager; Reuben Spring, assistant business manager; foom Sergeant-at-Arms Wilson Morgibson, Harold Dedman, advertising managers; Donna Smith, joke editor; did of the clause in the constitution referring to payment of student body dues. Those who have not paid wards, athletic manager.

The representatives from other rule will be strictly enforced this rule will be strictly enforced this remeater.

The representatives from other classes are: Edith Hamilton, senior; Marjorle Llewellyn, junior; Arthur Jones, sophomore; Ruth Pope, freshman.

Professor Grubbs and Mrs. Ohmart Crossor Grubbs and Mrs. Ohmart Crossor Grubbs and Mrs. Ohmart Crossor Crossor

Sunnyside Graduate Writes.

Miss Abble Wright, of Sunnyside School, has just received a letter from Jack Jakway, a graduate of the Sunnyside School last year, who is now in Oakland attending the Oakland Technical High School. Mr. Jakway wrote an interesting account of the school facilities and park advantages in Oakland, Cal., and reminded Miss Wright that the system of penmanship taught him when he was in the grades is now standing him in good stead. "I have managed to master the method of writing you tried so hard to teach me and it makes my writing easier and perhaps better than it was before," wrote Mr. Jakway. "The parks down here are not as plentiful nor as nice as in Portland, with the possible exception of Lakeside Park. It is in the center of Oakland, just a little distance from the business district. The lake itself, Lake Merritt, is about a half mile long and a quarter of a mile wide. It was artificially made and rowboats can be obtained to use on it."

The absence of public swimming pools, like those at Sellwood and Peninsula, is noticeable, the letter Says. There are several former Portland grade students in Oakland, among them Mildred Crawford, who displayed considerable music talent while at Sunnyside and who is now a student at Oakland Technical High School. Miss Abble Wright, of Sunnyside