

JOHNSON STAYS ON JOB AS GOVERNOR

Californian Will See Legislation Through Before Taking Senatorship.

STEPHENS' FRIENDS VEXED

Senator-Elect, However, Will Remain to Complete His Programme Unless Congress Is Called in Extra Session.

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—(Special.)—Despite all speculation to the contrary that has been going on ever since the subject became a topic of moment...

Following the close of the first part of the session there has been much reporting that Governor Johnson by the press of the northern and central parts of the state that the pathway of duty lay in remaining here.

Death Helps to Shape Events.

Early last summer, when the Senatorial nomination was the big issue in the primary campaign, Johnson found a formidable contender in Willis E. Booth.

Should Johnson secure the Senatorial nomination and be elected, the lieutenant-governor would succeed him as Governor.

The south had always looked with longing eyes at the Governorship. It had long cherished designs on the Governorship.

Booth's Lead Cut Down. Johnson got the nomination, of course. Booth's threatened lead of 25,000 votes in Los Angeles County was cut to 3,000 in the other southern counties the Booth lead was proportionately cut.

Stephens, the south feels, is being sacrificed, and that, indeed, is true to some extent. Stephens' position as head of the Senate is one where he will have to commit himself on many important subjects by his vote.

However, if Stephens' chances are impaired by the refusal of the Governor to step down, the blame must be laid to fate, or fortune, or luck, or whatever one may choose to call it, and not to Johnson.

Accidents Will Happen. It is one of the accidents of a logical move. That logical move is for Johnson to stay on the job, as previously pointed out.

There are so many intricate details of legislation that are the direct outgrowth of Johnson's activities in the six years of his Governorship and that are imperative to the proper completion of his work that it never would do for him to leave them in the hands of any one but himself.

Johnson has a programme at this session, intended as the complement of all Johnson programmes in the state. When it is completed the work of Governor Johnson in the state will be completed.

These details would need Johnson's attention even if there were not, as there unquestionably is, a disposition on the part of some who are chafing from the tightly-held Johnson bit and want to jump the traces the first chance offered.

War Made on Pet Schemes. Already there is a move to tear up by the roots the reclamation system that Johnson has established.

Then, war is being made on the State Marketing Bureau, another pet Johnson institution.
